CONTROL OVER FOREST AND WASTE LANDS NOT BEING THE PROPERTY OF GOVERNMENT

36A. (1) The [State]<sup>1</sup> Government may, by notification in the local [Arunachal Pradesh]<sup>2</sup> Gazette, regulate or prohibit in any forest or waste land-

Protection of forests for special purposes.

(a) the breaking up or clearing of land;

(b) the pasturing of cattle; or

(c) the firing or clearing of the vegetation;

when such regulation or prohibition appears necessary in the public interest for any of the following purposes :-

- i. for protection against storms, winds, rolling stones, floods and avalanches;
- ii. for the preservation of the soil on the ridges and slopes and in the valleys of hilly tracts, the prevention of land slips or of the formation of ravines and torrents, or the protection of land against erosion, or the deposit thereon of sand, stones or gravel ;
- iii. for the maintenance of a water-supply in springs, rivers and tanks;
- iv. for the protection of public roads, public bridges, railways and other lines of communication;
- v. for the preservation of public health.

(2) the (State)<sup>1</sup> Government may, for any such purpose, construct at its own expense in or upon any forest or waste land, such work as it thinks fit.

(3) No notification shall be made under sub- section (1) nor shall any work be begun under sub- section (2) until after the issue of notice to the owner of such forest or land calling on him to show cause, within a reasonable period to be specified in such notice, why such notification should not be made or work constructed, as the case may be, and until his objections, if any and any evidence he may produce in support of the same, have been heard by an officer not below the rank of Deputy Commissioner duly appointed in that behalf.

(4) All objections filed under the proceeding subsection, together with the proceedings of the Special Officer relating thereto, shall be referred to the [State]<sup>1</sup> Government for orders. On receipt of such reference, and after hearing such further cause as the objector may have to show, the [State]<sup>1</sup> Government shall pass such orders as it thinks fit.

In any case in which an order under sub-section (1) or action under Sub-section (2) is, in the opinion of the [State]<sup>1</sup> Government, likely to disturb substantially the owner's rights in the land to which such order or action relates, the [State]<sup>1</sup> Government may award to such owner such compensation as it may deem equitable :

Provided that any compensation so paid shall be deducted from the amount payable to the owner under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, in the event of action being taken under the provisions of section 36 C.

36B. (1) In case of neglect of or wilful disobedience to, any regulation or prohibition under section 36A, or if the purposes of any work to be constructed under that section so require, the [State]<sup>1</sup> Government may, after notice in writing to the owner of such forest or land and after considering his objections, if any, place the same under the control and management of a Forest Officer and may declare that all or any of the provisions of this Regulation shall apply to such forest or land.

Power to assume Management of forest.

(2) The net profits, if any, arising from the management of such forest or land shall be paid to the said owner.

36C. (1) In any case under this Chapter in which the (State)<sup>1</sup> Government considers that in lieu of placing the forest or land under the control and management of a Forest Officer, the same should be acquired for public purposes the [State]<sup>1</sup> Government may proceed to acquire it in the manner provided by the Land Acquisition Act, 1894, Expropriation of forests in certain cases.

(2) The owner of any forest or land comprised in any notification under section 36A, or if there be more than one owner thereof, the owner of shares therein amounting in the aggregate to at least two thirds thereof, may at any time not less than three or more than twelve years from the date thereof require that such forest or land shall be acquired for public purposes and the [State]<sup>1</sup> Government shall acquire such forest or land accordingly.

36D. (1) The owner of any land or, if there be more than one owner thereof, the owner of shares therein amounting in the aggregate to at least two-thirds thereof may, with a view to the formation or conservation of forests thereon represent in writing to the Deputy Commissioner their desire-

Protection of forests at requests of owners.

- (a) that such land be managed on their behalf by the Forest Officer on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon; or
- (b) that all or any of the provisions of this Regulation be applied to such land.

(2) in either the (state)<sup>1</sup> Government may, by notification in the local (Arunachal Pradesh)<sup>2</sup> Gazette, apply to such land such provisions of this Regulation as it thinks suitable to the circumstances thereof and as may be desired by the applicants.
