EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

These Regulations set out the form to be used by authorised persons when issuing fixed payment notices for breaches of certain provisions of the European Union (Installations and Activities Using Organic Solvents) Regulations 2012.

The relevant offences are set out in column 3 of the form in the Schedule to these Regulations.

The fixed payment notice amounts are set out in column 5 of the Schedule to these Regulations.

A prosecution in respect of the alleged offence will not be instituted by a local authority for 21 days after the issuing of a notice.

There is no requirement to pay the fixed payment notice.

If the fixed payment notice is not paid within 21 days then the local authority that issued the notice may institute a prosecution under the Air Pollution Act 1987 in respect of the alleged offence.

A person found guilty of an offence under the Air Pollution Act 1987, on summary conviction, shall be liable to a class A fine (set at €5,000 at the time of these Regulations were signed) or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both.
