

ANIMAL DISEASES REGULATIONS (EXHIBITIONS), 1969¹

By virtue of the powers vested in me pursuant to Sections 20(d), 12 and 16 of the Animal Diseases Ordinance, 1945 (hereinafter - the "Ordinance"), I hereby enact the following Regulations:

1. Prohibition against Holding or Keeping Exhibitions without a Permit (1977 Amendment):

No person shall hold or keep an exhibition of animals unless that person has first received a permit in writing from the Director of Veterinary Services at the Ministry of Agriculture, or any person authorised thereby for the purpose of these Regulations, in whole or in part (hereinafter: the "Director"), and according to the conditions set forth by the aforesaid.

2. Application for a Permit:

- (a) An application for a permit to hold and/or keep an animal exhibition shall be submitted to the Director at least thirty days before the date scheduled for the opening of the Exhibition (hereinafter: "the Application").
- (b) The person submitting the Application shall include the following particulars therein:
 - (1) The date of the exhibition.
 - (2) The place of the exhibition.
 - (3) The type of animals to be shown at the exhibition.
 - (4) The names of the places or farms from which the animal shall be brought.
 - (5) Other details as required by the Director.

3. Prohibition against Transfer of the Permit:

A permit issued under these rules shall not be transferred.

4. Certification from a Veterinary Officer:

Should a permit of an exhibition be granted, the permit holder shall not transfer animals to or from the place of the exhibition except by written permission of a State Veterinary Officer.

5. Cancellation and Suspension:

The Director is entitled to cancel or suspend the permit if, in his or her opinion, such action is justified by circumstances.

5a. (1994 Amendment):

These Regulations shall apply to animal competitions as well.
