

APPLICATION OF ACT UNDER SECTION 2

[Cap. 159 (1948), Sub. Leg.]

[Rev. 2012]

1. ~~The former district of Malindi.~~

2. Mombasa Island.

3. Tana River District.

4. The area within the Coast Province the boundaries whereof, commencing at Mackenzie Point opposite Mombasa Fort, run thence in a northerly and then a north-westerly direction along the coast of the mainland bordering Port Tudor and up to what is known as the Jomvu Creek and along the course of the Kombeni River as far as the limits of the ten-mile zone; thence along the ten-mile zone to a point due west of Mwando Makonde, thence along the southern boundary of Mazrui Reserve Block No. 1 to the coast and southwards along the coast to Mackenzie Point, the point of commencement.

5. The area of land within the Coast Province the boundaries whereof, commencing at the point where the Uмба River crosses the Tanzania boundary, run thence in a straight line to Mazeras Station, thence to a point at which the Kombeni River cuts the ten-mile zone, thence following the southern boundary of the area defined in paragraph 4 above to Mackenzie Point, thence in a straight line to Ras Mwaka Senge, thence following the coast line of the mainland south to Tanzania, thence in a westerly direction along the Tanzania boundary to the point of commencement.

6. The Island of Lamu.

7. The Lamu Archipelago outside Lamu Island and to the remainder of the former Lamu District lying north of the boundary of the Sultanate of Witu.

8. The Sultanate of Witu.
