PART I – PRELIMINARY MATTERS

1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Foreign Investment Act, 2018.

2. Commencement

This Act commences on a date to be appointed by the Minister by notice.

3. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the contrary intention appears—

“approval” means approval of an investment proposed by a foreign investor under this Act;

“business activity” means any activity carried out in Kiribati —

- (a) that involves the commitment of capital, the expectation of gain or profit and the assumption of risk; and
- (b) that creates a contribution to the economic development of Kiribati,

“commence” has the meaning assigned to it under section 18(3);

“disguised foreign investment” means a foreigner carrying on business in Kiribati under the guise of a local spouse or being an employee(s) of a local;

“enterprise” means any organised business undertaking that is legally established in Kiribati or any state other than Kiribati;

“expansion of investment”, for the purposes of the definition of “investment”, includes —

- (a) a major expansion of facilities beyond the original investment plan or size of a pre-existing investment so as to require new approvals under applicable law; and
- (b) an expansion of an investment into new business sectors not included in the original proposal or the previous activities of an investment,

“fair market value” means the estimated amount for which a property exchanges on the date of valuation between a willing buyer and a willing seller in an arm’s-length transaction;

“foreign investor” means —

- (a) a natural person who is not a citizen of Kiribati that has made or is seeking to make an investment into Kiribati; or
- (b) a company incorporated, registered or constituted in accordance with the laws of —
  - (i) Kiribati; or
  - (ii) any country other than Kiribati, that is not directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a citizen of Kiribati and that has made or is seeking to make an investment into Kiribati,

“investor” when used without a reference to foreign or Kiribati citizen, includes both foreign and Kiribati investors;

“investment” means —

- (a) any enterprise —
  - (i) lawfully established, acquired or expanded by an investor in accordance with the laws of Kiribati; or
  - (ii) that carries on a business activity for the purpose of generating revenue in trade, commerce or industry, and includes any trade, profession or calling; or
- (b) any enterprise in Kiribati that an investor is seeking to —
  - (i) establish, acquire, merge with or expand, whether through the constitution, maintenance or acquisition of a juridical person inside Kiribati or outside Kiribati; or
  - (ii) merge with another enterprise inside Kiribati or outside Kiribati.
- (c) It does not include aid and development projects funded by foreign donors, negotiated, arranged or contracted by or through the Government of Kiribati unless the project contractor is, at any time up to the completion of the project, registered by any other circumstances,

“Investment Promotion Division” means the Kiribati Investment Promotion Division referred to in section 6;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for the administration of this Act;

“Ministry” means the Ministry administering investment matters;

“measure” means any form of legally binding act of State directly affecting an investor or an investment, and includes any law, regulation, procedure, requirement, judicial decision, binding executive decision and agreement, only if excluded from the scope of this Act;

“prescribed” means prescribed by regulation;

“prohibited list” means the list of activities in Schedule 3;

“Registrar” means an officer appointed under section 6(2) and includes Deputy Registrar, officer or officers appointed under the same section;

“reserved list” means the list of activities in Schedule 1;

“restricted list” means the list of activities in Schedule 2; and

“Secretary” means a Secretary responsible for the administration of this Act.

4. Objects of the Act

The objects of this Act are —

- (a) to provide a clear and transparent framework for investment in Kiribati;
- (b) to provide for a mechanism for inter-ministerial coordination on regulatory provisions and incentives and support mechanisms for investments;

20. Holder to be heard

No certificate under this Act shall be cancelled without the certificate holder first having been given an opportunity to be heard by the Registrar.

PART V - RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF INVESTORS

21. Compliance with all applicable laws

An investor must carry out their activities at all times in full compliance with all the applicable laws of Kiribati.

22. National Treatment

(1) During implementation of investment and entrepreneurial activities, rights and guarantees of foreign investors may not be less than rights and guarantees enjoyed by natural and legal persons of Kiribati, except for cases defined by legislation relevant to international obligations.

(2) The rights and guarantees referred to in subsection (1) include treatment in relation to the establishment, expansion and operation of their investments.

23. Expropriation

Any investments in Kiribati shall not be nationalised, expropriated or subjected to any indirect measures having an equivalent effect, except by provision of a law, in the public interest, for a public purpose, on a non-discriminatory basis, taken in accordance with applicable requirements and procedures and accompanied by prompt and full compensation.

24. Payment of compensation

(1) Unless provided for in other laws of Kiribati, the just compensation required for an expropriation of investment is subject to subsection (2), once it is determined it is—

- (a) normally assessed in relation to the fair market value of the expropriated investment immediately before the expropriation took place; and
- (b) paid promptly in a freely convertible currency.

(2) The just compensation is based on an equitable balance between the public interest and the interest of those affected having regard to all relevant circumstances, including the —

- (a) fair market value;
- (b) profit of the investment to date of the expropriation;
- (c) capital costs of the investment;
- (d) current and past use of the property;
- (e) history of its acquisition;

- (f) purpose of the expropriation; and
- (g) duration of the investment.

(3) The assessment of fair market value may not reject any change in value occurring because the intended expropriation had become known earlier.

- (4) Compensation must include simple interest as may be prescribed —
- (a) commencing on the date the act of expropriation occurs; and
  - (b) ending on the date the whole compensation amount is paid.

25. Right of review concerning expropriation and compensation

An investor affected by a nationalisation or expropriation may seek constitutional or other remedies under the laws of Kiribati, or resort to other methods of resolution of disputes provided for in any agreement between the investor and the Government.

26. Transfer of funds

(1) A foreign investor may transfer into and outside Kiribati funds relating to his or her investment subject to the laws of Kiribati.

- (2) The funds referred to in subsection (1), include —
- (a) the initial capital and additional amounts to maintain or increase the investment;
  - (b) the profits, dividends, royalties and income yielded by an investment;
  - (c) the funds in repayment of loans and interests of loans related to an investment;
  - (d) the compensation paid under this Act;
  - (e) proceeds from the total or partial sale or liquidation of an investment;
  - (f) earnings and other remuneration of personnel engaged from abroad in connection with an investment; and
  - (g) payments arising out of the settlement of a dispute between the investor and another party in Kiribati.

(3) Despite subsection (1), the Government may delay or prevent a transfer and any affected person may seek any redress through the judicial process, or through a fair, non-discriminatory and good faith application of measures, to delay or prevent a transfer—

- (a) to protect the rights of the creditors in the event of actual or anticipated bankruptcy;
- (b) to ensure the compliance with judgments concerning criminal offences;
- (c) to ensure the compliance with tax obligations;
- (d) to ensure compliance with social security, public retirement, or

- compulsory savings schemes and severance entitlements of employees;
- (e) to comply with lawful administrative decisions and facilitate execution of judicial judgments;
  - (f) in response to serious or exceptional balance of payments or external financial difficulties, or the anticipated financial risk; or
  - (g) in exceptional circumstances, to prevent movements of capital that causes or threaten to cause serious difficulties for macroeconomic management, including monetary or exchange rate policies.

- (3) The Minister may appoint members of the Investment Appeal Panel on terms and conditions to be prescribed.
- (4) The Chairperson and other members of the Investment Appeal Panel shall hold office for three years and be eligible for re-appointment.
- (5) The Minister may at any time terminate the appointment of a member who has been found guilty of—
  - (a) any misconduct, default or breach of trust in the discharge of that member's duties; or
  - (b) an offence of a nature as renders it desirable that the member's appointment be terminated.
- (6) The Investment Appeal Panel may appoint as advisor for a specific appeal a person whose specialised knowledge or experience is that the person must be able to assist the Investment Appeal Panel in its deliberations.
- (7) Allowance and expenses of members of the Investment Appeal Panel incurred by them in respect of their duties may be paid out of the Consolidated Fund at a rate as the Minister may from time to time prescribe.
- (8) If a member of the Investment Appeal Panel has any pecuniary interest whether it be direct or indirect and is present at a meeting, shall as soon as practicable before the commencement of the meeting, disclose to the member the fact and nature of his interest, and shall not take part in the consideration or discussion of the appeal.

(9) The Investment Appeal Panel may conduct its own proceedings according to its own rules as may be prescribed by regulation.

28. Right of appeal

(1) An investor who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Registrar may apply to the Investment Appeal Panel for –

- (a) a review of a decision of the Registrar with regard to that investor's investment or proposed investment; or
- (b) an order where the Registrar does not issue a decision within the required time limit.

(2) An application for review under subsection (1) must—

- (a) be in writing;
- (b) specify the reasons for making the application; and
- (c) be made within three months from the date of the decision.

(3) An applicant for a review under subsection (1) must pay a sum as may be prescribed, which may be forfeited if it is determined that the application was frivolous.

(4) If an application for a review is made under this section, the decision of the Registrar is suspended until the appeal is heard and determined by the Investment Appeal Panel.

(5) The Investment Appeal Panel is to make a decision under this section within 14 working days of the date of submission of an application for review under subsection (2).

(6) The Investment Appeal Panel may dismiss an application for review where it considers:

- (a) the application is vexatious; or
- (b) that there are no reasonable prospects of making a decision.

(7) The Investment Appeal Panel may, if it determines that there is a merit in it, order one or more of the following remedies—

- (a) recommend the annulment in whole or in part of any unauthorised act or decision, or remedying of any omission, of the Registrar;
- (b) recommend a re-evaluation of an application, specifying the grounds for a recommendation.

(8) The Investment Appeal Panel must provide to the Applicant and publish written reasons for its decisions.

(9) A person dissatisfied with a decision of the Investment Appeal Panel may appeal against the decision to the High Court.
