1 Short title

This Act may be cited as the Crown Lands Act.

2 Interpretation

In this Act—

“Crown land” includes defence lands and the pas géométriques as defined in section 2 of the Forests and Mountain and River Reserves Act and all lands belonging to or in possession of the Crown;*

“defence lands” means the portions of lands specified in the Schedule;

“land settlement land” means Crown land which the Minister, by notice in the Gazette, declares to be land settlement land;

“Minister” means the Minister to whom responsibility for the subject of lands is assigned.

2A Jurisdiction over defence lands

No alienation, disposal, lease or right in or over defence lands shall be granted except by or on behalf of the Minister to whom the responsibility for the subject of defence is assigned.

3 Sale of Crown land

The Minister may sell Crown land other than—

- (a) defence lands;
- (b) mountain reserves which belong to the Government;
- (c) pas géométriques;
- (d) river reserves which belong to the Government.

4 Grant or lease for charitable purposes

(1) No Crown land shall be granted or leased otherwise than at its full rental value.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1)—

- (a) the Minister may, where a portion of Crown land is bona fide required for religious, charitable or educational purposes or for purposes of public utility,

*This definition of pas géométriques was repealed by section 18 of the Forests and Reserves Act 1983.

grant such land, or lease it on payment of such rental and on such conditions as he may approve;

- (b) the Minister may, where a portion of Crown land is bona fide required for development purposes, grant such land, or lease it on payment of such rental and on such conditions as he may approve.

5 Sales by public auction

- (1) All sales of Crown land shall be by public auction.

(2) No Crown Land shall be sold unless it is in the public interest to do so and in exchange of another portion of land.

[Amended 34/89]

6 Leases of Crown land

- (1) All leases of Crown Land shall be—

(a) by public auction, notice of which shall be given in the Gazette and 2 daily newspapers 2 weeks at least before the day fixed for the auction, or by private contract upon such terms and conditions, not inconsistent with this Act, as the Minister may approve;

- (b) subject to the conditions that—

- (i) the land leased shall not be used for any purpose for which it is not leased without the prior approval in writing of the Minister;
- (ii) the land leased shall not be so utilized as to constitute any nuisance or to cause any detriment to or pollution of the natural resources and the environment, including any adjoining sea, beach, lake, canal or river;
- (iii) the lease may be cancelled, after service of a notice setting out the reason for the cancellation, if the provisions of the preceding paragraphs (i) and (ii) are not duly observed.

- (1A) In the case of leases for campement sites—

(a) not more than one lease shall be held by any person at any time; and

(b) not more than one arpent and a quarter shall be let at any time to any person unless—

- (i) any portion of Crown land exceeding one arpent and a quarter is so situated that it cannot conveniently be divided and in the opinion of the Minister it is desirable to let the whole of that portion to any one person; or
- (ii) the granting of a lease of Crown land exceeding one arpent and a quarter is—
- (A) in the opinion of the Minister in the public interest; or
- (B) approved by the Minister where the land is to be used for recreation by a registered club or for a bona fide religious, charitable or educational purpose.

(2) The rents shall be payable in advance and in default of payment of any instalment within one month after service of a notice claiming payment, the Minister may, notwithstanding any other enactment, by an order in writing, cancel the lease, and thereupon the Government may without any further formality resume possession of the land.

- (3) (a) Where the lessee in the exercise of his rights under the lease has planted the land possession of which is resumed by the Government, the Minister shall assess the value of any such plantations existing at the time of resumption of possession and shall, after deducting from such assessment the arrears of rent due, pay over to the lessee, as compensation, an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the assessment over the arrears of rent due.

(b) Once the assessment has been made, the lessee shall be made aware of it and shall be informed of his right of appeal under subsection (4).

(4) Any lessee aggrieved by the assessment made under subsection (3) may appeal to the Magistrate of the district where the Crown land is situated.

(5) Every appeal before the District Court shall be by plaint with summons, and shall be heard and determined according to the procedure prescribed by the District and Intermediate Courts (Civil Jurisdiction) Act.

(6) The plaint shall state the grounds of appeal, and the appellant shall not adduce evidence of any ground which is not included in the plaint.

(7) The plaint shall be lodged with the District Clerk within 10 days after notification to the appellant of the assessment complained of.

(8) The Magistrate may either dismiss the appeal absolutely or vary the assessment, with or without costs.

[Amended 34/89]

7 Rules for sale or lease by auction

(1) Where Crown land is to be sold or leased by public auction, the Minister shall give notice thereof in the Gazette and 2 daily newspapers 2 weeks at least before the day fixed for the sale or lease.

(2) The notice shall distinctly state whether there are on the land intended to be sold or leased buildings belonging to the Government and, if so, whether the buildings are to be sold or leased with the land.

(3) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the land or the lease thereto shall be adjudged at the auction to the highest bidder.

(b) The Minister may withdraw such land or lease from the auction if the highest bid is, in his opinion, below the actual value of the land or the actual rental value, as the case may be.

8 Land with buildings

(1) Where there are on the land to be disposed of any buildings not belonging to the Crown, the land shall be sold irrespective of the value of the buildings, the purchaser of the land being left free to contract with the owner of the buildings.

(2) Before such land is put up for sale, the owner of the buildings shall receive 28 days notice from the Chief Surveyor in order to elect to remove his buildings before the sale.

10 Conditions of sale settled by Minister

(1) (a) The conditions of sale settled by the Minister shall be read aloud by the Vendue Master, and may vary according to the special circumstances of every case.

(b) In every case one quarter of the purchase price shall be paid before the purchaser is allowed to sign the conditions of sale, and the purchaser shall enter into a bond with 2 sureties bound jointly and severally with him to pay the balance of the purchase price at the time and in the manner settled in the conditions of sale.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) shall take away or in any manner modify the Government privileged vendor's right in and over the property thus sold.

11 Purchase price

The Vendue Master shall forthwith pay into the hands of the Accountant-General the sums paid on account of every such sale, and the Accountant-General, to whom the necessary information shall forthwith be conveyed by the Chief Surveyor, shall claim payment of the balance due at the time when such payments ought to be effected.

12 Time for payment may be granted

(1) The Minister may grant time to a purchaser for the payment of the balance due on any purchase price, and where any such balance is not paid at the time it should be paid the land shall be put up again for sale by public auction in the manner and form as aforesaid.

(2) The money deposited on the day of sale shall be forfeited and the bonds shall at once be referred to the Attorney-General for action in case of need.

(3) Where on a subsequent sale or upon action brought against the original purchaser or sureties the whole amount of the original purchase price with all costs and incidental charges is recovered, the Minister may remit to the original purchaser such portion of the forfeited money as is in excess of the original purchase price, costs and incidental charges.

13 Payment of purchase price

A purchaser may pay to the Vendue Master at the time of the sale the whole of the purchase money, and also pay by anticipation into the hands of the Accountant-General the whole of the balance due on the purchase price.

14 Deed of sale to be executed within 4 months

(1) Every purchaser or lessee shall execute the deed of sale or of lease within 4 months of his entry in possession.

(2) Every deed of sale shall embody the conditions of sale under which the adjudication took place, a short memorandum of the adjudication, and where the conditions of sale do not convey a sufficiently clear and accurate verbal description there shall be annexed a descriptive survey of the lands sold, made or caused to be made by the Principal Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Housing, Lands and Town and Country Planning or any officer delegated by him.

(3) The survey shall be made at the expense of the purchaser.

(4) Every deed of lease shall contain the stipulated conditions of the lease and to it shall likewise be annexed a descriptive survey under the same conditions as are enacted for deeds of sale.

15 Deed made at transferee's expense

Deeds, whether of sale or of lease shall be made at the expense of the purchasers or lessees and shall be registered and transcribed by the Conservator of Mortgages at the instance of the Government, but at the expense of the purchasers or lessees.

15A Parties to deeds

(1) The deeds mentioned in section 15 shall be signed by the party purchasing the land or taking the lease and the Principal Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Housing, Lands and Town and Country Planning.

(2) Deeds of lease of land settlement land, shall be signed by the party taking the lease and by the Chief Agricultural Officer.

15B Control over land settlement land

Notwithstanding any other enactment, the control of, and supervision over, land settlement land, shall be vested in the Chief Agricultural Officer.

16 Non-execution of deed of sale or lease

(1) Where a purchaser or lessee neglects to execute his title deed within the period specified in section 14, he shall receive a notice to do so within 14 days, and where such notice is not complied with within 14 days, the sale or lease shall be held to be annulled and a new sale or lease shall be proceeded with.

(2) The money paid by such purchaser or lessee shall be forfeited subject to the power granted to the Minister by section 12.

17 Purchase of land not advertised

Any person who wishes to have an opportunity of purchasing at public auction lands which have not been advertised for sale or of obtaining a lease of the same may apply to the Minister stating as precisely as possible the locality, area and boundaries of the land required to be purchased or to be held under contract of lease.

18 Jouissances

The Minister shall not grant jouissances of Crown land.

19 —20 Expiring jouissances

(1) Existing jouissances held for a limited period determined by efflux of time, shall not be renewed, but may be converted into a sale or a lease as the Minister thinks fit.

(2) Where there are buildings erected by the holder of the jouissance on such land, the holder may remove his buildings or demand that the land be put up for sale unless the Minister agrees to purchase the said buildings.

22 Eviction of squatters

(1) No person shall take possession of, encroach upon, cultivate or put up any building or other structure on any part of any Crown land without the express authorisation in writing of the Minister.

(2) Every person who fails to comply with subsection (1) or who is a person in occupation of Crown land without any right or authority, shall be deemed to be a squatter.

(3) Where the Minister is satisfied that there is a squatter on Crown land he may cause a notice to be issued calling upon him to vacate the land within a delay to be specified in the notice.

(4) A notice issued under subsection (3) shall be served on the squatter in person or, where the squatter cannot be traced or served with the notice within 48 hours of its issue, posted up in a conspicuous place on the land or any building or other structure on the land.

(5) Where a squatter fails to comply with a notice served on him or posted up in accordance with subsection (4) he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to pay a fine not exceeding 1,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 months.

(6) Subject to subsection (3) and notwithstanding subsection (5), the Minister may, with the assistance of a Police Officer, cause a squatter to be removed immediately from any land occupied by him and cause any building or other structure existing on the land to be demolished.

(7) Where a squatter who has been removed from any Crown land re-occupies the Crown land or occupies any other Crown land without the express authorisation in writing of the Minister, he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of 5,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than one year or more than 3 years.

(8) Subsection (7) shall be without prejudice to the right of the Minister to remove the squatter from the land or to cause any building or other structure put up by him to be demolished.

(9) Where any building or other structure is demolished pursuant to this section, such part of the materials as are still in good or usable condition shall be kept by the Minister and returned to the squatter upon his application and upon payment by him of a reasonable sum of money calculated to defray the expenses of demolition.

(10) In any proceedings under this section, a certificate from the Chief Surveyor that land which is the subject-matter of the proceedings is Crown land shall be prima facie evidence that the land is Crown land.

(11) No action for damages or otherwise shall lie against the Minister or any person acting under his authority in respect of anything done under this section except where the person evicted or the person whose building or structure was demolished was in possession of an authority in writing from the Minister to occupy the land or to put up the building or other structure on the land or was lawfully in occupation of the land.

[Amended 6/86; R 4/86]

23 —24 Entry of surveyors on contiguous properties

(1) Where a Government surveyor or any sworn land surveyor, deputed by the Principal Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Housing, Lands and Town Country Planning shall bona fide in the course of a survey find it necessary to enter upon the property of a neighbouring proprietor for the purposes of his operations, he may do so, provided that if such neighbouring proprietor, to whom 8 days written notice has been given, is willing to urge any objections or to make any protestations as seem to him advisable, the Government surveyor or sworn land surveyor shall be bound to take note of such objections or protestations and enter the same in the memorandum of survey by him drawn up.

(2) Where the surveyor finds it necessary to cut standing crops or timber or brushwood, for the purposes of his operation, he shall apply to a Judge in Chambers or the Magistrate of the district, and the Judge or Magistrate may give an order to that effect after having heard the neighbouring proprietor.

(3) Where frivolous or wilfully false objections or protestations are made to the entry of surveyors instructed to carry out the provisions of this Act, the court or the Judge or the Magistrate called upon to adjudicate upon the nature and force of such objections or protestations, may declare the same to have been wilfully false or frivolous and may order the party who made or urged such objections or protestations to pay the costs of suit and a fine not exceeding 200 rupees.

25 Curatelle lands

(1) Where the Curator has been sent in possession of immovable property, the area of which is of 50 acres or more, he shall give notice of the fact to the Conservator of Forests who shall then keep watch over, superintend and protect such property on behalf and at the expense of the Curator.

(2) The Conservator of Forests shall not incur any expense on account of such property, except such as may be necessary to keep watch over, superintend and protect the same.

26 Rights of police and forest officers

(1) Police officers shall at all times have the same rights and duties as forest officers and when acting as such shall be deemed forest officers under this Act.

(2) All forest officers shall have with regard to search warrants issued in any suspected case of a breach of this or any other enactment concerning Crown lands, woods, forests or plantations, the same powers as police officers.

28 Costs and powers of Minister

(1) Where the Minister thinks it just and expedient to grant a lease of Crown lands either to persons having squatted thereon or to any other person or persons, and whatever may be the terms or conditions of such lease, the Minister where satisfied that the tenant or intended tenant is too poor to be able to pay the costs for a title deed or for registration of same, may remit such costs or reduce them to such nominal sum as he thinks just and reasonable, or allow them to be paid by instalments.

(2) The costs for a title deed which the Minister is empowered to remit or reduce or allow to be paid by instalments under this section shall include costs of transcription of such title deed.

29-30 —

31 Exchange of Crown land

Subject to this Act and the Pas Geometriques Act, the Minister may authorise the exchange of any Crown land for any other land by private contract upon such terms and conditions as he may approve.

32 Crown land in payment of compensation

Subject to this Act and the Pas Geometriques Act, the Minister may authorise Crown land to be given by private contract upon such terms and conditions as he may approve in payment either in whole or in part of any compensation payable in respect of land compulsorily acquired by the Government.

33 Regulations

(1) The Minister may make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Any regulations made under subsection (1) may include conditions under which stones, coral, earth, turf and grass may be removed from Crown land.

(3) Any person who removes, or causes to be removed, any stones, coral, earth, turf or grass from any Crown land, in contravention of any condition prescribed by such regulations, shall commit an offence and shall on conviction, be liable, to a penalty not exceeding 50 rupees.

(4) In the case of leased pas geometriques, the consent in writing of the lessee to the removal of stones, coral, earth, turf, grass or sand from such pas geometriques, shall be obtained.

[Amended 34/89]

34 Public nuisance

(1) Any person who dumps or causes to be dumped any sand, coral, earth, stones, wood or other object on any Crown Land or on any beach, sea, canal, river or lake adjoining Crown Land shall commit an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine which shall not be less than 500 rupees or more than 2,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term which shall not exceed 6 months.

(2) In addition to the penalty specified in subsection (1) the court may order the offender to remove the subject matter of the offence within a period to be specified by the Court or, in case of default, to pay the costs of the removal.

(3) Subject to subsection (1), any person who acts contrary to section 6(1)(b)(ii) shall commit an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine which shall not be less than 1,000 rupees nor more than 5,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than 1 month nor more than 12 months.

(4) Notwithstanding section 114 of the Courts Act and section 72 of the District and Intermediate Courts (Criminal Jurisdiction) Act, a Magistrate shall have jurisdiction to try all offences under this Act and may impose any penalty provided by this Act.

[Amended 34/89]

35 Crown land imprescriptible

Notwithstanding article 2227 of the Code Napoléon or any other enactment, Crown land is imprescriptible.

36 Recovery of rent

(1) Recovery of rent due under—

- (a) any shooting, fishing or grazing lease of any Crown land shall take place at the instance of the Conservator of Forests;
- (b) any other lease of Crown land shall take place at the instance of the Accountant-General.

(2) Where any rent is due it shall be recovered by the Conservator of Forests, or the Accountant-General, as the case may be, under the procedure and in the form and manner provided by the Recovery of Crown Debts Act, and that Act shall apply to all proceedings under this section.

[Amended 34/89]
