On receipt of such documentation, the Minister shall forward a copy of such documentation to the Authority.

(3) The Minister shall also request the said person to comply with article 27(2)(a) and (b) and, for the purposes of the said paragraphs, the expression "the Authority" shall be construed as a reference to the said person and such person shall revise, if necessary, the subsidiary plan, planning policy or a revision thereof after taking into consideration the representations he may have received in terms of article 27(2)(b).

(3) The provisions of article 27(2)(j) shall apply to a development order as they apply to subsidiary plans.

(4) A development order shall include works of a relatively minor nature such as internal works, minor additions to existing buildings, minor variations during construction, repairs to dangerous structures, and reconstruction of damaged buildings which repairs and reconstruction are to be carried out in the existing style or according to development plans or planning policies.

(5) Copies of development orders shall be readily accessible to the public by the Authority on the payment of the prescribed fee.

Application for development
permission.
Amended by:
XXIII. 1997.13;
XXI. 2001.30.

32. (1) Any person wishing to carry out development, not being development for which permission is given in a development order and to be carried out in accordance with the provisions thereof, shall apply to the Authority for development permission, in such manner, on such form and giving such information as the Authority may prescribe.

(2) Any person may also apply to the Authority for a determination as to whether a proposal constitutes development and requires development permission.

(3) An applicant for development permission shall certify to the Authority that he is the owner of the site or that he has notified the owner of his intention to apply by registered letter of which a copy has been received by the Authority.

(4) The Authority shall, at the expense of the applicant, cause the proposal and the name of the applicant to be published in the local press and advertised by a notice on the site. The Authority shall be responsible to affix the notice on the site and the applicant shall be responsible to ensure that the notice remains affixed for a period of twenty days from the date the notice is so affixed. A copy of any application and the relative site plan shall be served by the Authority on the local council in whose locality the development is being proposed to be carried out. In the case of major projects the Authority may require the applicant to publicise his application in such other manner as it may deem necessary. The Minister may prescribe other methods to provide publicity to an application in addition to the above.

(5) Any person may, on the basis of issues relevant to planning, make representations objecting against any development. Such objection shall be in writing and shall contain a reasoned justification therefor, and shall be received by the Authority within a period of fifteen days from the publication of the notice referred to in subarticle (4), provided that the Authority may for major projects extend the aforesaid period up to thirty days and in such case it shall give notice of such extension in the said publication. Such period may be shortened to seven days in urgent cases as may be indicated in the publication. The Authority shall consider and decide on the objection. Any person who has made written objections to the development as aforesaid shall be informed by the Authority or the Commission, as the case may be, where fresh plans have been filed, if such is the case, and he shall also be invited to be present at the Authority's or the Commission's sitting when such application shall be discussed.

(6) An application shall be considered as having been ex lege suspended if no communication is received from the applicant within two months from receipt by the said applicant of a notice of suspension of an application issued by the Authority. The said notice shall be sent by the Authority to the applicant after the expiration of a period of two months from the date of service upon the applicant of a request in writing for further information or for amended plans was made to him by the Authority, unless the applicant requests an extension of time for such information or amended plans, in which case the period of two months shall be accordingly extended by two months:

Provided that an application shall be deemed to be withdrawn if it shall remain suspended for a period of six months and it is not reactivated by the applicant by notice in writing to that effect to the Authority giving the information or amended plans requested by the Authority.

32A. (1) There shall be such officers, to be known as the Planning Mediators, whose function shall be to act as a mediator at the request of an applicant seeking development permission between the Director and the applicant after the communication by the Director to the applicant of the application report. The Authority or the Commission, as the case may be, shall consider any opinion expressed by the Mediator but they shall not be bound by it.

Planning Mediator.
Added by:
XXI. 2001.31.

(2) There shall be a panel of Mediators appointed by the Minister after consultation with the Authority. A Mediator shall be appointed from among persons versed in planning or in architecture and civil engineering or in any other discipline relevant to planning.

- (a) establish the procedure to be followed by a Mediator;
- (b) prescribe those types of applications which an applicant may not refer to a Mediator;
- (c) prescribe a tariff of fees for services rendered by a Mediator;

Development
permissions.
Amended by:
XXIII. 1997.14;
XXI. 2001.32.

(e) prescribe the procedure to be followed in the formulation of an application report by the Director.

33. (1) In its determination upon an application the Authority shall -

(a) apply the following:

(i) development plans, including the height limitations shown in the Temporary Provisions Schemes or in local plans, unless the limitation may be modified by applying a planning policy which deals specifically with the maximum building height which may be permitted on a site, which policy shall take into consideration both the site coverage and the building volume which may be permitted on a site,

(ii) planning policies:

Provided that subsidiary plans and planning policies shall not be applied retroactively so as to adversely affect vested rights arising from a valid development permission; and

(b) have regard to:

(i) any other material consideration, including aesthetic and sanitary considerations, which the Authority may deem relevant;

(ii) representations made in response to the publication of the development proposal.

(2) The Authority shall have power to grant or to refuse a development permission, and in granting such permission the Authority shall be entitled to impose such condition which it may deem appropriate:

Provided that upon a refusal or the imposition of particular conditions, the Authority, or the Commission, as the case may be, shall give specific reasons based on existing development plans and planning policies for such refusal or for any particular conditions that may have been imposed.

(3) A development permission may be granted for a limited period or in perpetuity, but shall in all cases cease to be operative if development has not been completed within five years of its issue, provided that the Authority may, on the application of the person holding the development permission, extend the said permission to such further period or periods as it may consider reasonable.

(3A) In granting a development permission, the Authority may require the development to be completed within a specified period of time as it may establish provided that the Authority shall state the reasons justifying such requirement.

(4) Except as may be otherwise provided in the permission, a development permission shall enure for the benefit of the land and for all persons for the time being interested therein, but without prejudice to the other provisions of this Act affecting its validity or operation. The permission shall automatically pass on to new owners upon the notification of the transfer of ownership by registered letter to the Authority.

(5) In granting a development permission, the Authority may require the applicant to carry out the development in stages. The Authority shall inform the applicant in the said permission which are the said stages and, following the completion of each stage, the applicant shall request the Authority to carry out an inspection of the works carried out; and, if following such an inspection, it is found that the works have been carried out in terms of the development permission and approved plans, the Authority shall authorize the applicant to carry out the next stage of the development.

(6) Where the Authority, in the case of major projects, considers it appropriate to closely monitor specific conditions in a development permission by appointing a person competent for the said purpose, it shall do so at the expense of the applicant.

34. (1) In any case in which the Authority may under this Act grant permission to develop land it may grant permission for the retention on land of any buildings or works constructed or carried out thereon, or for the continuance of any use of land, without permission under this Act or after such permission has ceased to be valid or operative; and references in this Act to permission to develop land or carry out any development on land, and to applications for such permission, shall be construed accordingly:

Supplementary provisions re development permissions.

(3) A development permission may specify the purposes for which a building may be used; and if no purpose is specified the permission shall be construed as including permission to use the building for the purpose for which it is designed.

(4) Where a development permission is given for a limited period only, nothing in this Act shall be construed as requiring permission to be obtained thereunder for the resumption, at the expiration of that period, of the use of the land for the purpose for which it was normally used before the permission was granted, but no account shall be taken of any use made in contravention of this Act.

(5) The Authority may, prior to the issue of or in issuing a development permission, demand from the person in whose favour the permission will be issued, as a condition for the issue of the development permission, to provide a bond in favour of the Authority in order to guarantee compliance with the conditions of the permission once issued, or in order to guarantee payment in respect of damages which may be caused to the environment or to the infrastructure. The Authority may, after the issue of a development permission, if the development is not being carried out in accordance with the permission, or is otherwise causing damage to the environment or the infrastructure, demand the said person in whose favour the permission has been issued, as a condition for the continuance of the development permission, to provide a bond in favour of the Authority in order to guarantee compliance with the conditions of the permission, or in order to guarantee payment in respect of damages which may be caused to the environment or to the infrastructure:

Provided that nothing in this subarticle shall be interpreted as authorizing the Authority to demand a bond in an amount not commensurate with the nature of the development project:

Provided further that such a bond may only be forfeited by the Authority if there is clear evidence that the applicant has not complied with the conditions of the development permission and the reasons for forfeiting the bond shall be communicated in writing to the applicant.

Provided that any benefits derived from the same notice shall be offset against the losses aforesaid.

Scheduled property and conservation
orders.
Amended by:
XXIII. 1997.20;
XXI. 2001.41.

46. (1) The Authority shall prepare, and from time to time review, a list of areas, buildings, structures and remains of geological, palaeontological, cultural, archaeological, architectural, historical, antiquarian, or artistic or landscape importance, as well as areas of natural beauty, ecological or scientific value (hereinafter referred to as "scheduled property") which are to be scheduled for conservation and may in respect of all or any one or more of the scheduled property make conservation orders to regulate their conservation:

Provided that upon the issue of a conservation order the owner shall have the right to immediate access at reasonable times to all documentation of the Authority concerning the said order for the purpose of studying the relative findings and considerations and the owner may contest the said decision in writing with the Authority within thirty days from the date when the order is notified to him or is published in the Gazette, whichever is the later.

(2) The list of conservation orders, and any additions or amendments thereto, shall be published in the Gazette and in a local newspaper. The Authority shall also notify any one of the owners of any property subject of a conservation order of the fact of its inclusion in the list and of any conservation order made with respect to it. Notice of such conservation order shall also be affixed on site. If none of such owners is known, or if it is not reasonably possible to effect service on such owners, the said notice shall only be affixed on site and no service on such owners as aforesaid need be made. Notice of such conservation order shall be registered in an index held for that purpose which identifies the property subject to that order. The said index shall be held in an electronic form in such a way that researches to determine whether a property is subject to such an order may be carried out. The Authority shall keep a copy of the said index in the office of the Land Registry and shall issue a certificate which indicates whether a particular property is subject to the said order on the payment of such fee as may be prescribed.

(2A) Where the Authority has scheduled property in terms of this article, it shall register the said property in the index mentioned in subarticle (2) indicating the said property as having been scheduled, and the provisions of the said subarticle concerning the indexing of conservation orders shall mutatis mutandis apply. The list of scheduled property, and any additions or amendments thereto, shall be published in the Gazette and in a local newspaper. The Authority shall also notify any one of the owners of the scheduled property of the fact of its inclusion in the list. A notice of the said scheduling shall also be affixed on site. If none of such owners is known, or if it is not reasonably possible to effect service on such owners, the said notice shall only be affixed on site and no service on such owners as aforesaid need be made.

(2B) For the purposes of subarticles (2) and (2A), "site" means a single property or more than one property, irrespective of who is the owner of that property, which forms part of the land which is scheduled or which is subject to a conservation order in terms of this article.

(3) The carrying on of any work in, and the demolition, alteration or extension of, any scheduled property is prohibited or restricted as provided in this article or in a conservation order.

(4) No works of any description shall be carried out in or on any scheduled property and no scheduled property shall be demolished, altered or extended except with the permission of the Authority granted on an application made to it and giving such details as the Authority may require or in accordance with the provisions of a conservation order; and for the purpose of this article, damage to or destruction of any part of a scheduled property shall be deemed to be a demolition thereof.

(5) A permission of the Authority and a conservation order granted or made under this article may contain such conditions and other provisions as the Authority may deem necessary or expedient; and a conservation order may regulate any matter affecting scheduled property.

(6) In respect of any scheduled property, the Authority shall also have power to require the owner, by notice in writing, to undertake such works generally, or as may be specified in the notice, as may be necessary to ensure that no further deterioration occurs. In default, the Authority may give a further notice to the owner to carry out and complete the works within a specified time, and if the owner is still in default it may itself carry out, or cause to be carried out, the necessary works and recover the cost thereof from the owner of the scheduled property.

(7) If any scheduled property is demolished in contravention of any of the provisions of this article then, in addition to any penalty or other effect under this Act, every person convicted of such offence shall be liable to pay compensation to the Authority calculated on the basis of whichever is the highest of the following:

- (a) the value of the thing destroyed,
- (b) the cost of restoration or repair,
- (c) the financial benefit which could be achieved as a consequence of the demolition.

(8) An owner of scheduled property has a right to demand the reconsideration of any scheduling of his property. Such demand shall be entered in writing with the Authority within thirty days of notification or publication in the Gazette, whichever is the later, of the scheduling and the Authority shall decide within three months of receipt by it of the demand for reconsideration.

(9) Any person who feels aggrieved by a decision of the Authority under this article may appeal to the Appeals Board for a revocation or modification of such a decision.

(10) The Minister's endorsement shall be sought when the Authority deschedules a scheduled property or when it downgrades the protection afforded to a scheduled property, and no such descheduling or downgrading shall be valid before it is endorsed by the Minister.

(11) When the Appeals Board decides to deschedule a scheduled property or to downgrade the protection afforded to a scheduled property, the Board shall seek the Minister's endorsement and the period for lodging an appeal from the Board's decision to the Court of Appeal shall commence to run from the date in which the Board would have informed the appellant accordingly of the Minister's decision.

(12) Notwithstanding the provisions of article 15, an appeal to the Appeals Board from a scheduling of property or the issue of a conservation order shall not stay the execution of such scheduling or conservation order.

Conservation
Order.
Amended by:
XXIII. 1997.21;
XXI. 2001.42.

47. (1) If property which is not scheduled but which the Authority believes could have an importance or value as is described in subarticle (1) of article 46 sufficient to have it listed, is at risk of being demolished, damaged or destroyed, the Authority may make an emergency conservation order and take such further steps for the protection of such property as it may deem necessary and the provisions of the proviso to subarticle (1) of article 46 shall apply:

Provided that in case of urgency the Chairman of the Authority may make an emergency conservation order without the need of consulting the other members of the Authority.

(2) An emergency conservation order shall be published in the Gazette and shall have effect immediately on its publication.

(3) An emergency conservation order shall, for a period of six months from its publication in the Gazette, have the same effect as the inclusion of the property to which it refers in the list of scheduled property. It shall cease to have any effect on the expiration of the period aforesaid.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of article 15, an appeal to the Appeals Board from an emergency conservation order shall not stay the execution of such order.

48. (1) The Authority shall prepare, and from time to time review, a list of individual trees, groups of trees or woodlands (hereinafter referred to as "scheduled trees") which it considers should be protected, and may in respect of all or any one or more of them make tree preservation orders regulating such protection.

Protected trees and Tree Preservation
Orders.
Amended by:
XXI. 2001.43.

(2) No scheduled tree shall be cut down, lopped, topped or wilfully damaged or destroyed except with the permission of the Authority on an application made to it or as may be allowed under a tree preservation order.

(3) A permission of the Authority and a tree preservation order granted or made under this article may contain such conditions and other provisions as the Authority may deem necessary or expedient; and a tree preservation order may regulate any matter affecting scheduled trees.

(4) The provisions of the proviso to subarticle (1), article 46(2A) and (8) to (12) and article 47 shall apply to scheduled trees as if for references therein to scheduled property there were substituted references to scheduled trees.

49. (1) The Authority may make orders for restricting or regulating advertisements, which shall be known as advertisements regulation orders, and which, without prejudice to the generality of the aforesaid may provide:

Advertisements.

- (a) for regulating the dimensions, appearance and position of advertisements, the sites on which advertisements may be displayed and the manner in which they are to be affixed to land;
- (b) for requiring the consent of the Authority to be obtained for the display of advertisements or of advertisements of any class or classes specified in the order;
- (c) for regulating the manner in which the consent aforesaid may be obtained, whether by application of provisions of this Act relating to permissions to develop land or otherwise;
- (d) for enabling the Authority to require the removal of any advertisement that is being displayed in contravention of any order made under this article, or otherwise against any provision of this Act, or the discontinuance of the use for the display of advertisements of any site that is being used for that purpose in contravention of any order or provision aforesaid, and for applying any of the provisions of this Act with respect to enforcement, subject to such adaptations and modifications as may be specified in the order, or otherwise provide for the enforcement of the order and of any notices issued thereunder;
- (e) for exempting from the requirements of the order, or any provisions thereof, the display of advertisements or the use of sites for such display, of such class or classes specified in the order, or the continued display or use aforesaid for such period or periods as may be specified in the order;

- (f) for directing that any law affecting the display of advertisements for the time being in force shall not apply to the display of advertisements in any area to which an order made under this article applies;
- (g) for prescribing matters that are to be, or may be prescribed.

(2) An advertisements regulation order may be made to apply to advertisements that are being displayed on the date the order comes into force, or to sites being used for the display of advertisements on the date aforesaid:

Provided that a person affected adversely by any such application of the order shall, on a claim made to the Authority within twelve months from the date on which he is so affected, and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Authority, be entitled to recover from the Authority compensation in respect of any expenses reasonably incurred by him to comply with the order and in respect of any remaining value of the advertisement.

(3) Where the display of advertisements involves the development of land within the meaning of this Act, permission for that development shall be deemed to be granted for the purposes of this Act if the display is made in conformity with the provisions of this article and of any order made thereunder.

(4) For the purposes of this Act, but without prejudice to the generality and the normal meaning of the expression, a person shall be deemed to display an advertisement if -

- (a) the advertisement is displayed on land of which he is the owner or occupier; or
- (b) the advertisement gives publicity to his goods, trade, business or other concerns, unless he proves that the advertisement was displayed without his knowledge or consent and can further show that he took all reasonable steps to have the display discontinued as soon as he became aware of the display.

50. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, any officer or servant of the Authority or any other person, if authorised by the Authority in this respect, may, at any reasonable time, and if so required by the Authority with the assistance of the Police Force enter upon any land and inspect, survey, or verify whether illegal development is taking or has taken place, or do anything that is ancillary or consequential thereto.

51. (1) The Authority shall monitor all development operations to ensure that development is carried out only in accordance with the requirements of this Act and in compliance with the decisions lawfully taken under this Act.

52. (1) If it appears to the Authority that any development is being carried out without the grant of permission required under this Act, or that any conditions subject to which such permission was granted in respect of any development are not being complied with, the Authority shall serve a stop notice on the owner of the land or on the occupier of the land or on both as the Authority deems most expedient requiring works or the development to be stopped forthwith:

Amended by:
XXIII. 1997.22.
Substituted by:
XXI. 2001.46.

Provided that the Authority may issue a partial stop notice requiring work to be stopped forthwith only in relation to that part of the development to which the notice applies and not in relation to the whole development.

(2) A copy of the notice mentioned in subarticle (1) may also be served on any builder, contractor or workman on the site and the Authority may also affix such notice in a prominent position at a point of entry onto the site.

(3) The Authority shall also inform -

- (a) the local council in whose locality the land mentioned in subarticle (1) is found;
- (b) the perit responsible for the said works, if known, that a stop notice as aforesaid has been issued by the Authority. The Authority shall register all stop and all other enforcement notices in terms of this Act in the index mentioned in article 46(2), and the provisions of the said article concerning indexing of conservation orders shall mutatis mutandis apply to stop and other enforcement notices in terms of this Act:

Provided that the non-compliance with the provisions of this subarticle shall in no case invalidate any notice issued under subarticles (1) and (2).

(4) Any notice made under this article shall contain a detailed description of the infringements being alleged and a site plan indicating the land which is the subject of such a notice shall be annexed thereto.

(5) If it appears to the Authority that any development of land has been carried out after the coming into force of this Act without the grant of permission required in that behalf under this Act, or that any conditions subject to which such permission was granted in respect of any development have not been complied with, the Authority may, having regard to the provisions of development plans, planning policies and any other material consideration, serve on the owner of the land or on the occupier of the land or on both as the Authority deems most expedient an enforcement notice and shall inform the persons mentioned in subarticle (3) of such an enforcement notice, requiring such steps as may be specified in the notice to be taken within such time as may also be so specified for restoring the land to its condition before the development took place or for removing such development or for securing compliance with the conditions aforesaid, as the case may be; and in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the aforesaid any such notice may, for the purpose aforesaid, require the demolition or alteration of any buildings or works, the discontinuance of any use of land, or the carrying out on the land of any building or other operations.

(6) A notice given under any of the foregoing provisions of this article shall -

- (a) in respect of any requirement stopping or prohibiting further works or development or requiring the cessation of a use, take effect immediately upon service of the notice in terms of subarticle (1) notwithstanding that an application for development permission for the development referred to in the enforcement notice has been submitted or an appeal has been lodged against the enforcement notice;
- (b) in respect of any other requirement, shall take effect at the expiration of such period (being not less than fifteen days and not more than thirty days after service thereof) as may be specified therein.

(7) When an application for development permission has been submitted before the expiry of the period mentioned in subarticle (6)(b) -

- (a) for the retention on the land of any buildings or works to which the enforcement notice relates; or
- (b) for the continuance of any use of the land to which the enforcement notice relates, the operation of the notice, in respect of any requirement other than a requirement stopping or prohibiting any further work or development, or requiring the cessation of a use, shall be suspended pending the final determination of the application, and if the permission applied for is granted on that application and comes into operation, the enforcement notice shall cease to have effect:

Provided that any application to regularise the development shall be dismissed forthwith if a requirement in the notice stopping or prohibiting further work or development, or requiring the cessation of a use, has not been complied with or if any penalty or other payment for which any person has become liable under this Act in respect of the relevant development has not been paid.

(8) Where an application is dismissed as aforesaid, the Authority may exercise its powers under article 55A(1) notwithstanding that a second or subsequent application intended to regularize the illegal development may have been filed with the Authority concerning the same or part of the same site, irrespective of whether the said application is filed by the same applicant or by another applicant.

(9) Any person who feels aggrieved by any enforcement notice served on him may, within fifteen days from the service of the notice, appeal against it to the Appeals Board, and on any such appeal the Board:

- (a) if satisfied that permission was granted under this Act, or under any other law which preceded this Act regulating building permits, for the development to which the enforcement notice relates, or that no such permission was required in respect thereof, as the case may be, and that the conditions subject to which such permission was granted have been complied with, shall quash the enforcement notice to which the appeal relates or such part thereof in respect of which the Board is satisfied as aforesaid;
- (b) in any other case, shall dismiss the appeal.

(10) The appellant shall submit to the Board together with his appeal a copy of all relevant development permissions, other permits or other relevant information in terms of which development permission has been granted to carry out the development mentioned in the notice served on him which is the subject of the appeal proceedings; and if the Board is satisfied that no such development permission or permits exist or that there is no authorization, howsoever called, in terms of which the development could have been carried out, the Board shall forthwith dismiss the appeal.

(11) If before an appeal is lodged or during the pendency of an appeal, the appellant submits to the Authority an application for development permission regarding the land mentioned in the enforcement notice, the Board shall dismiss the appeal if it is satisfied that the said application is intended to regularize the development mentioned in the enforcement notice.

(12) Where an appeal is dismissed, the Appeals Board may direct that, in respect of any requirement, other than a requirement stopping or prohibiting any further work or development, or requiring the cessation of a use, the enforcement notice shall not come into force until such date, being a date not earlier than fifteen days after the determination of the appeal, as the Board thinks fit.

(13) The Board may correct any defect or error in the enforcement notice provided that the appellant shall be given sufficient time to prepare and put forward his case.

(14) Where the illegal development is being carried out at sea the provisions of this article shall apply in such manner that any reference therein to the owner of the land or the occupier of the land shall be deemed to be a reference to the person carrying out the development, and any reference to land shall be deemed to be a reference to the area at sea where the development occurs.
