

Animals Quarantine Rules

[Subsidiary]

(c) the person detaining any such stray animals shall forthwith cause the nearest available inspector to be notified of such detention.

5. Whenever any stray animals shall be detained in quarantine on any occupied land, by reason of the appearance of disease amongst such animals, the owner of such animals shall be liable to pay to the occupier of the land for the use of the land, such sum not exceeding twenty tambala per day, in respect of each animal, during the period it is so detained in quarantine, as the Chief Veterinary Officer shall determine.

Payment for stray animals—
costs

6. The occupier of land finding the carcass of any stray animal on his land, shall either cause such carcass to be buried or burned, or immediately give notice of the presence of such carcass to the police.

Carcasses of stray
animals

7. No person other than an inspector or a person acting on the instructions of an inspector shall remove or attempt to remove any animal which has been buried or, except for the purpose of burial or burning, any carcass which has been ordered to be buried or burned.

Removal of carcass

8. No person shall remove from any place in which animals are quarantined or isolated any grass or other herbage, dung, litter, fodder or earth, except on the written permission of an inspector.

Removal of grass,
dung, etc.

9. An inspector may cause any animal or animals within an infected area or which have been placed in quarantine or isolation to be branded or otherwise marked for identification in such manner as may be directed by the Chief Veterinary Officer.

Marking of animals

10. Whenever the owner of any animal in respect of which services have been rendered is unknown or cannot be found, and whenever the owner of any animal in respect of which such services have been rendered has, after demand made, neglected to pay for the services rendered and to remove the animals, the Chief Veterinary Officer, after the expiry of thirty days, may cause such animal to be sold by public auction and shall, after deducting any moneys due for services rendered and the expenses of and in connexion with the sale, pay the balance of the proceeds of the sale to the owner in default, or, if the owner of the animal sold is not known or cannot be found, the balance, if any, as aforesaid shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund:

Power to sell animals

Provided that in such last case if any person shall, within two years of the sale, prove that he was the owner at the date of the sale of such animal sold, he shall be entitled to receive the amount of the balance so paid into the Consolidated Fund.

11. The Chief Veterinary Officer or any person authorized by him may, for the purpose of restricting the movement of animals

Power to erect fences,
etc.

[Subsidiary]

Animals Quarantine Rules

for quarantine or isolation, enter upon any land, whether privately owned or not, and may erect and maintain thereon any fences, notice boards or beacons, and may remove any fence, notice board or beacon so erected.

G.N.
144/1977

SCHEDULE

PART I

STABLING FEES

					Fees, per day per animal
					K	t
Horses, cattle, pigs, sheep and goats	0	06
Dogs and cats	0	30
Poultry	0	05
Cage birds	0	10
Other animals	0	30

PART II

FEES FOR EXAMINATION, TEST AND TREATMENT

					Fees per animal for each examina- tion, test or treatment
					K	t
1. For the examination of—
(i) horses, mules and donkeys	1	00
(ii) cattle, sheep, goats and pigs	0	50
(iii) dogs and cats	0	50
2. For testing with—
(i) mallein	0	50
(ii) tuberculin	0	50
3. For vaccination against—
(i) anthrax	0	20
(ii) blackquarter	0	20

PART III

OTHER FEES

					Fees, per day per animal
					K	t
Grazing	0	06
Holding with either hay or silage provided	0	20
Holding with hay and silage provided	0	30
Holding with hay, silage and concentrated feed provided	0	40
Dogs and cats	0	30