FORM 1

Republic of Nauru

Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Regulations 2024

[Regulation 6]

Agent Licence Application Form

An Agent shall be approved and licenced by the Program Office duly authorised under Part 5 of the Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Act 2024 (Act) and the Regulations issued under the Act (Regulations) which will authorize an Agent to submit applications on behalf of applicants under the Program.

An Agent means a natural person or legal entity which in all cases has been licenced in accordance with the Act and Regulations.

The licence shall be subject to renewal every year, and the Program Office may refuse to renew such licence. Both the application for the licence and the renewal thereof shall be subject to such annual fee as prescribed under the Regulations.

Details of an Agent will be publicly accessible and regularly updated for consultation on the Program Office website. The details shall include the name, contact information and other relevant particulars. Potential applicants need to make use of the services of an Agent who is licenced and trained to guide them through the application process.

FORM 2

Republic of Nauru

Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Regulations 2024

[Regulation 6]

Agent Licence Agreement and Code of Conduct

1. Introduction

- 1.1. The Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Program (the 'Program') is established by the Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Act 2024 (the 'Act') and Regulations. Any application under the Act shall be administered with the utmost consideration of the international obligations of Nauru and of preserving the good reputation of Nauru as a worthy, transparent, and reputable jurisdiction.

The Program is administered by the Program Office, duly authorized by the Government under the Act (the 'Program Office'). Any Agent wishing to solicit and conduct business under the Program is obliged to register through the Program Office as an Agent, being subject to the terms of this Licence Agreement. This Licence contains a Code of Conduct for Agents and guidelines on advertising in relation to the Program, specifically applicable to Agents.

- 1.2. This document shall be referred to as the "Agent Licence Agreement and Code of Conduct."

2. Definitions

- 2.1. In this document, the following terms shall have the meaning ascribed to them below:

"Act" means the Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Act 2024;

"Agreement" means this Licence Agreement and Code of Conduct; "Applicant" shall have the same meaning ascribed to it in the Regulations;

"Agent" means the holder of a Licence as defined in the Act and Regulations;

"Citizenship" means the acquisition of Nauru citizenship under the Act;

"Licence" means a licence granted in accordance with the Act and Regulations to act as an Agent; "Portal" means the official website of the Program;

"Program" means the Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Program;

"Program Office" means the office established under the Act to, inter alia, administer the Program;

"Regulations" means the Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Regulations issued under the Act;

"Sub-Agent" means an agent who is formally contracted by an Agent to conduct activities under this licence.

- 2.2. Any reference in this document to an Agent shall, in the case of a body corporate be deemed to include mutatis mutandis a reference to the persons who have a direct bearing in the management and operations of such body corporate, including partners in the case of a partnership (civil or commercial, irrespective of whether it is registered or not) and directors in the case of companies.

3. Program Office Responsibilities

- 3.1. This Agreement is being made in pursuance of the Program Office's responsibilities in terms of Part 5 of the Act.

- 3.2. This Agreement addresses the relationship between the Agent and the Program Office and provides interpretation and guidance with respect to the conduct required of an Agent in light of section 18 of the Act, which empowers the Program Office to revoke a licence issued to an Agent if, after due investigation, it is satisfied that an Agent:

(a) has acted in an unethical or an unprofessional manner and has substantially prejudiced the Regulations,

(b) has committed a breach of guidelines or code of conduct issued by the Program Office from time to time and made specifically applicable to an Agent, or

(c) annual licence fees remain unpaid 30 days after they are due.

- 3.3. This Agreement also provides the parameters with respect to advertising, publications and dissemination of information relating to the Program to which an Agent is expected to strictly comply.

- 3.4. This Agreement supersedes any previous guidelines or codes of conduct issued with respect to an Agent.

3.5. In the case of inconsistency between this document and the Act and/or the Regulations, the Act and/or the Regulations as the case may be, shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, prevail.

4. Conduct of Agents

4.1. Agents shall always adhere to the conditions set out in their respective Licence. A breach of any such condition shall constitute a material breach of this Licence Agreement and Code of Conduct.

4.2. Agents shall ensure that through their actions and initiatives, including their marketing and promotional efforts, they protect the long-term integrity of the Program. To this extent, an Agent shall at all times abide by the provisions of this Agreement as well as with any subsequent conditions that may be issued by the Program Office from time to time.

4.3. In the exercise of their profession or business, Agents must uphold the highest level of ethical and professional standards.

4.4. Agents who are members of a profession that is, in terms of any law, subject to a code of ethics (or other document of similar standing) must at all times abide by such standards. Agents who are members of a recognised professional body must adhere to any code or charter which lays down standards of service for members. Agents must report any disciplinary action taken against them by any official body or professional association to the Program Office for its consideration. Non-adherence to this obligation shall constitute a material breach of the Agreement.

4.5. Agents shall not engage in business activities or receive referrals or potential applicant information that has been gained from any source (including any web portal) that is operated by any person or entity that are not authorised in terms of law.

5. Standards with respect to Applications

5.1. Agents shall use their best endeavours to introduce to the Program Office bona fide Applicants who, prima facie, satisfy the requirements laid down in the Regulations.

5.2. Agents shall ascertain themselves, the veracity and exactness of any information that is delivered to the Program Office in connection with any Applicant. They shall conduct their background searches and have access to a professionally recognised service provider to screen any Applicant against sanctions and watch lists to identify potential high-risk persons, to include potential Politically Exposed Persons (PEP's) and ensure that any application they lodge with the Program Office is prima facie eligible.

5.3. Agents shall divulge all pertinent information to which they may be privy with respect to any application and/or Applicant to the Program Office.

5.4. Agents shall refrain from lodging with the Program Office applications that are of a dubious nature. Repeated rejection of applications lodged by an Agent shall constitute disregard to this requirement and shall be deemed a material breach of this Agreement.

6. Sub-Agents, Recognition and Duties

6.1. Agents may appoint Sub-Agents.

6.2. Agents shall be fully responsible for the conduct and practices undertaken by their Sub-Agents. This responsibility shall extend to any advertising, marketing and public dissemination of information relating to the Program which is restricted to Licenced Agents.

6.3. Agents must document their relationship with any appointed Sub-Agents by way of a written contract, which must contain the relevant clauses of this Agreement, and in particular the advertising, marketing and public dissemination of information relating to the Regulations. Agents are required to inform the Program Office of any Sub-Agents that they have appointed within 30 days of such appointment

6.4. The Program Office may request a copy of any Sub-Agent agreement from an Agent where it considers there is improper practice or wishes to investigate a potential breach of the Licence Agreement.

6.5. The Program Office may request the withdrawal of any Sub-Agent agreement where it considers inappropriate practices have occurred, independently of any potential sanction of the Agent.

7. Advertising, Marketing and Promotion

7.1. Agents are required to be compliant with any limitations set out in the Regulations, this Agreement as well as any other guidelines or other releases issued by the Program Office when undertaking marketing and promotion of the Program. Aggressive and unauthorised promotional or marketing material may result in a suspension or revocation of a Licence, which may be permanent.

7.2. Agents shall ensure that all information conveyed in any marketing and promotional effort is accurate. To this extent, Agents shall refer to official sources, namely the Act and the Regulations, when compiling their promotional material and information. Agents may use any material published, released, or issued by the Program Office for marketing or promotional efforts related to the Program, including information contained in the Portal as well as in any other publications including guidelines or other releases. An Agent shall indicate the source of their information.

7.3. The Program is to be referred to by its official title, namely as the "Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Program" or in accordance with any other information provided by the Program Office from time to time.

7.4. The contribution referred to in the Schedule to the application which is required of successful applicants should only be referred to as the "Contribution".

- 7.5. Agents shall not publish any schedule of professional fees that may be charged in connection with an application under the Program on their websites or within marketing information. Such information shall only be conveyed in private correspondence and exchange between an Agent and an Applicant.
- 7.6. Agents may state in any marketing and promotional effort that they are authorised to act as such by the Program Office.
Sub-Agents are prohibited to use any reference to "Agent".
- 7.7. Agents, either through themselves or their contracted Sub-Agents, must not use websites, domain names or URL's that contain the words "Nauru" or any variant thereof.
- 7.8. The Program Office will undertake a regular review of advertising and promotional activities by an Agent to ensure that the integrity of the Program is being protected.
8. Confidentiality
  - 8.1. Agents shall, at all times, keep confidential all information received from any Applicant, or in connection with any application, for purposes of the Program. Agents shall procure that their obligation in this regard be also assumed by all of their employees, directors, Sub- Agents, advisors, co-workers or other parties involved with the Agents or their practice. Such obligation shall not be limited in time and shall survive the termination of the accreditation and/or of the Program.
  - 8.2. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following will not be considered confidential information:
    - 8.2.1. information that was already known to the respective party without obligation of confidentiality prior to disclosure of it.
    - 8.2.2. information that is disclosed without obligation of confidentiality by a third party who has the right to make such disclosure.
    - 8.2.3. information that is in the public domain or hereafter enters the public domain through no fault of the respective party.
9. Action on suspicion of breach of this Agreement
  - 9.1. The Program Office will investigate and consider any report or suspicion of a breach of this Agreement. To this extent, the Program Office will when it deems opportune, inform an Agent of the investigation and invite them to make any submissions in their defence within a reasonable time frame, depending on the circumstances of the case, in terms of the Regulation.
  - 9.2. The Program Office shall be under no obligation to divulge the sources of reports received.
  - 9.3. The Program Office may take any measures it deems fit in the circumstances with respect to an Agent.
10. Promotional Material
  - 10.1. Agents are accountable for any damaging, misleading or deceiving information that they disseminate. Failure to comply with the Regulations or these guidelines may lead to a suspension or revocation of the Licence.
  - 10.2. All forms of audio-visual material promoting the Regulations on all media channels, be it traditional or online, must be true and correct and should not be inaccurate or likely to mislead or deceive, be likely to cause public offence or reflect adversely on the Program Office, the Program, or other Agents. They must contain the details and articulation communicated by the Program Office. Aggressive and misleading advertising shall not be permitted.
  - 10.3. It is expressly prohibited for Agents to show the Nauru Passport, Crest or other similar sovereign images or details.
  - 10.4. All applications under the Act go through a systematic review and evaluation process, and under no circumstances may Agents suggest or promote through any medium, that the process may be in any way facilitated, fast-tracked, or bypassed. Such statements are considered as misleading.
  - 10.5. Statements related to the benefits of Nauru citizenship should not be compromised in any way whatsoever. The principal scope of the Act and Regulations is to attract foreign direct investment and to improve the economic and climate resilience of Nauru.
  - 10.6. Any statements or inferences by Agents that they have a relationship with a person responsible for determination of applications will be considered as grave unethical behaviour.
  - 10.7. Promotion by comparison with similar regulations/programs must be based solely on factual and accurate data. Statements related to the benefits of Citizenship should not be compromised in any way whatsoever. The principal scope of the Program is to attract foreign direct investment and improve the economic and climate resilience of Nauru.
  - 10.8. The Program and Citizenship should not be promoted as a route for tax planning or optimisation. It is pertinent to note that Citizenship does not automatically infer any tax benefits or status in Nauru.
  - 10.9. Should Agents be unsure as to the compliance of their marketing materials then the content should be reviewed with the Program Office to ensure adherence to these guidelines.
11. Amendments
  - 11.1. The Program Office reserves the right to unilaterally amend this document at any time.

11.2. Any amendment to this document shall be notified to all Agents.

12. Proper Law and Jurisdiction

12.1. Any matter relating to this Agreement shall be resolved in accordance with the laws of Nauru.

12.2. The Courts of Nauru shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine any dispute between the Program Office and any Agent.

12.3. The Agent whose name, company and signature appears below submits to the jurisdiction of the Courts of Nauru.

I, the undersigned Agent, confirm that I have read, understood, and agree to adhere to all terms and conditions set forth in this Licence Agreement and Code of Conduct. I acknowledge my responsibility to strictly comply with these terms and conditions, and understand that failure to do so may result in appropriate action being taken as outlined in the Act, Regulations and this Agreement, including the revocation of the Licence.

Part D: Data Protection

The collection of personal data in this application is mandatory.

All personal data included in the application shall be processed for the purposes of processing the application submitted under with the Nauru Economic and Climate Resilience Citizenship Act 2024 and Regulations ("the Law").

All personal data will be handled with care and reasonable measures will be taken to ensure the accuracy, security, and confidentiality of the personal data in accordance with the privacy policy of the Program Office.

Part E: Declaration

- I hereby apply, with full understanding and without reservation or legal impediment, to become a citizen of Nauru.
- I authorize, without reservation, the Government of Nauru (including the Program Office), either directly or through any third-party service providers ("Service Providers") that the Government of Nauru or the Program Office may choose to engage, to verify any personal information about such persons included in my application for citizenship ("Family Members").
- I also authorize the Government of Nauru (including the Program Office) or its Service Providers, to obtain any further information, reports, or records on me and my Family Members (including but not limited to credit reports or criminal records), which may be deemed necessary, and I understand that such information may be obtained from public sources, government agencies or private agencies.
- I further authorize the Program Office or its Service Providers to obtain any additional information necessary to process my application, and further authorize them to, inter alia, obtain and share my personal, financial and any other information with financial institutions, such as banks, for purposes relating to the processing of my application, including but not limited to the facilitation of payments.
- I authorize any agency contacted to supply the requested information, reports or records about me and my Family Members, and I release all parties involved from any responsibility and liability for doing so.
- I confirm that such authorization includes the Program Office conducting due diligence exercises with third parties and local or foreign law enforcement and police authorities for the purposes of this application, including both prior to and following potential approval of the application.
- I understand that becoming a citizen of Nauru may affect my present citizenship status.
- If there is any change in my circumstances which affects the information I have given in this application, I confirm that I will advise, the Program Office via my licensed Agent, for the interim period between the date of application submission and the date of granting of citizenship of Nauru.
- I hereby confirm that if granted citizenship of Nauru, that I will not within five years of the date of issue of a certificate of naturalisation, otherwise than by marriage, change or seek to change my name.
- I understand that if I have made any false statements or omitted information requested on this form, my citizenship application could be declined.
- I hereby confirm that I will abide in all respects with the provision of the citizenship of Nauru.
- By signing this form, I confirm that I am fully aware that the granting of Nauruan citizenship and the acquisition of Nauruan citizenship through the Program do not provide any tax-related benefits. I also acknowledge that the Program Office may disclose my information, to which I hereby consent, to the Nauru Revenue Office, which may, in turn, disclose such information to any relevant tax authorities in my original jurisdictions of tax residence.
- I hereby authorize and consent to the Program Office providing its bankers with any information disclosed in my application, as necessary, for the purpose of receiving funds related to my application.
