148. Right to Raise Loan : The Municipality may raise loans, with or without pledging any property under its ownership and possession or under guarantee given by His Majesty's Government, from a bank or any other organization, according to the policy approved by the Municipal Council.

Provisions relating to the Construction of Building

149. Prohibition on Construction of Building without Obtaining Approval : No person shall, without obtaining construction approval from the Mayor, do construction of a building in the municipal area.

Explanation: In this Chapter, "construction of building" means the act to construct a new building, to reconstruct by demolishing the old building, to add a storey or to alter the facade, or to construct a window, door, verandah, attic, porch, shed, stable or garage or erecting a compound wall in alternation of the existing design.

150. Application for Approval : Any person or governmental office desiring to construct a building shall have to make an application, in the prescribed format, along with the design of the building, to the Municipality for the approval to construct the building.

Explanation: In this Chapter, "governmental office" means and includes all governmental offices and courts as well including the offices of the Supreme Court, Parliament, Raj Parishad (Royal Council), Commission for the Investigation of the Abuse of Authority, Auditor General, Public Service Commission and other constitutional bodies, and Royal Nepal Army as well as Nepal Police.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), in making application for approval to construct a building, if any public body is not allowed to submit the design of the building on account of national security, it may mention only the length, breadth, height and storey of the building and its total area in the application.

Explanation: In this Chapter "design" means a graphic map, description and other documents relating to the construction of a building.

151. Matters to be Set Out in Design: A design of the construction of a new building shall, inter alia, set out a separate toilet and soapkit of the building, and if such a building is to be built adjacent to other building, the design shall have to set out the separate column-walls of the building.

152. Submission of Document of Ownership and Possession or Deed of Consent : In making application pursuant to Section 150 for approval to construct a building, if construction is to be done in the land of one's own ownership and possession, the document showing the ownership and possession of the land, and if the construction is to be done in the land of any other person's ownership and possession, the document showing the ownership and possession of such person as well as a deed of consent shall have to be submitted.

153. To Hold Inquiry : After an application has been made for approval to construct a building pursuant to Section 150, the Municipality shall have to enquire as to whether the application meets the requirements, and if it is found not to meet any requirements, get it to meet the requirement and then do as follows within seven days of the filing of an application meeting the requirements:

- (a) To affix a notice on its office, the house-door of the neighbour and the place of construction of the building in a manner conspicuous to all, asking the neighbour to file a complaint containing the details of grievance, if any, to be caused to him from the construction of such a building, within fifteen days.
- (b) Within three days after the expiry of the time specified in the notice referred to in clause (a), to depute jointly an engineer or overseer and other employee to enquire as to whether the building can be allowed to be constructed as mentioned in the design or not.

154. Submission of Report : The employees deputed pursuant to clause (b) of Section 153 shall have to submit to the Municipality a report, along with a deed of public inquiry also setting out the statements made by the persons present at the time of holding the inquiry as to whether the construction of the building can be allowed or not, and setting out the matter whether the construction of the building as mentioned in the application can be allowed or not, within fifteen days of the date of deputation for such inquiry.

155. To Give Approval : (1) The Mayor shall have to give the approval to construct the building within seven days of the receipt of a report referred to in Section 154 if no complaint is filed under clause (a) of Section 153.

(2) In cases where a complaint has been filed pursuant to clause (a) of Section 153, the Mayor shall have to give approval to construct the building within thirty days from the date of receipt of the report pursuant to Section 154, except in cases where a decision has to be made on the entitlement upon finding out fact by inquiring into the concerned parties.

(3) If it appears from the complaint filed pursuant to clause (a) of Section 153 that the entitlement to the land in which the building is to be constructed has to be settled, an order shall be issued by creating an annotation – sheet (Parcha) and the concerned parties shall have to be informed to file a case in the court within thirty-five days of the date of filing of such a complaint.

Provided that in cases whether there is a dispute only in respect of some portions of such land, and the applicant makes an application, along with another design, consenting to construct the building in the rest land subject to the title to such disputed portion of the land being as decided by the court, the Mayor may give approval within fifteen days of receipt of such an application.

(4) The Municipality shall have to collect fees as prescribed, in granting the approval to construct a building, pursuant to this Section.

156. Approval of Design : (1) In giving the approval to construct any building pursuant to Section 155, the Mayor shall also have to approve the design of such a building.

(2) In approving the design of any building pursuant to sub-section (1), the Mayor may approve it by making necessary alteration in the design in a manner to be in conformity with the physical development plan and the standards set pursuant to the prevailing law.

157. Alteration in Design : If any alternation has to be made subsequently in the design approved pursuant to Section 156, the Mayor may permit for such alteration in the design, without being prejudicial to the standards set under the prevailing law, to do other acts excepting the addition of storey, change of facade or increasing its length, breadth.

158. To Give Notice : Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 157, in case the approval to construct any building can not be granted in accordance with the report received pursuant to Section 154 or for any other reason, the Mayor shall have to give a notice setting out the reasons therefor to the person or public body who has made an application for approval to construct a building pursuant to Section 150, within seven days of the receipt of such a report.

159. Complaint May Be Filed : (1) In case the Mayor does not give approval within the time-limit under Section 155, within thirty-five days of the expiry of such time limit and in the case of dissatisfaction with the notice given pursuant to Section 158, within thirty-five days of the receipt of such a notice, the person or body who has made an application for approval to construct a building pursuant to Section 150 may file a complaint in the Municipality.

(2) In cases where any complaint is filed pursuant to sub-section (1), the Municipality shall have to direct the Mayor to give approval forthwith if it appears upon inquiring into the facts and matters that the approval has to be given.

160. Period for Construction of Building : (1) If the approval to construct a building has been given according to this Act, such a building shall have to be constructed within two years from the date of such approval.

(2) In the event of failure to construct the building within the time-limit specified under sub section (1), an application shall have to be made to the Municipality for extension of the time-limit.

(3) If any application is made pursuant to sub-section (2), the Mayor may extend the time-limit for upto two years by collecting an additional fee at the rate of five percent of the previously paid fee.

161. Inquiry and Proceedings : (1) The Mayor may depute any engineer, overseer or employee to inquire into the following matters in respect to any building constructed or being constructed by any one in the municipal area:-

(a) Whether or not approval has been obtained pursuant to this Act to construct such a building,

(b) Whether or not such a building has been constructed or is being constructed in accordance with the design approved pursuant to this Act, and

(c) Whether or not any public land, road, temple, courtyard, sewerage, canal, pond etc. is encroached upon from such a building.

(2) The person deputed to inquire into the matters pursuant to sub-section (1) shall have to inquire into the matter according to the prevailing law and submit a report, along with his suggestions, to the Mayor within fifteen days of his deputation.

(3) The person constructing the building and all the persons concerned with the act of construction of the building shall answer the questions asked by, and give or show the documents required by, and provide necessary assistance to, the person deputed pursuant to sub-section (1) for holding inquiry.

(4) In case it is held, as per the report submitted pursuant to sub-section (2), that anyone has constructed or is constructing a building without obtaining approval pursuant to this Act or by encroaching upon any public land, road, temple, courtyard sewerage, canal, pond, etc., the Mayor shall have to order to demolish the building or any portion thereof.

(5) In case it is held, as per the report submitted pursuant to sub-section (2), that any person has constructed or is constructing a building by altering the design approved pursuant to this Act without obtaining approval of the Mayor, the Mayor may order to punish such a person with a fine of upto one hundred thousand rupees or to demolish the building or any portion thereof.

(6) Prior to issuing order pursuant to sub-section (4) or (5), the Mayor shall have to provide the person constructing such a building with a reasonable opportunity to defend himself.

162. Appeal : Any person, who is not satisfied with an order issued by the Mayor pursuant to sub-section (4) or (5) of Section 161, may file an appeal in the Appellate Court within thirty-five days of receipt of such an order; and the decision made by the Appellate Court in regard to such appeal shall be final.

163. Demolition of Building and Recovery of Expenditures Incurred : (1) In cases where an order has been issued pursuant to sub-section (4) or (5) of Section 161 to demolish any building or any portion thereof, the concerned person shall have to demolish such a building or any portion thereof according to the order of the Mayor or the decision of the Appellate Court within thirty-five days of the decision made by the Appellate Court requiring the demolition of such a building or any portion thereof, if an appeal has been filed against such order pursuant to Section 162, and within thirty-five days of the date of expiry of the time-limit for appeal where no appeal has been filed.

(2) If the concerned person does not demolish such a building or any portion thereof within the time-limit referred to in sub-section (1), the Municipality itself may demolish such a building or any portion thereof, and the expenditures incurred for so demolishing shall be realised from the concerned person.

164. Delegation of Power : The Mayor may delegate the powers conferred on him under this Act to the Deputy Mayor or any other Member.

Chapter – 10

Punishment

165. Power of Municipality to Punish : (1) The Municipality may punish as follows on the following matters :-

- (a) If any one constructs or places drainage, toilet, safety-tank etc. or does similar acts creating obstacles and barriers with an intention of causing trouble to others, the Municipality may order to stop such act, or demolish or remove such construction. If any one disagrees to stop, demolish or remove according to that order, the Municipality may depute persons to stop, demolish or remove the same. It may realise the expenditures incurred for so demolishing or removing from the concerned person who has not obeyed the order, and punish such person with a fine of upto fifteen thousand rupees.
- (b) If any one does such acts within the municipal area as to plant a tree, erect a wall or construct a building, shed with an intention of causing obstacles to others, the Municipality may order to remove such a tree, wall or building, shed, and if the concerned person does not remove it as per the order, the Municipality may depute persons to remove the same. It may realise the expenditures incurred for so removing from the concerned person who has not obeyed the order, and punish such person with a fine of upto fifteen thousand rupees.
- (c) If any one dumps solid wastes at any places other than those designated within the municipal area, it may punish such person with a fine of upto fifteen thousand rupees, and realise from such person the expenditures to be incurred to on removal of such solid wastes.
- (d) If any person, without permission of the Municipality, erects fences or enclosures on or stops any public road or place and causes obstruction to the movement, it may require him to remove such fences or enclosures or the things of obstruction, and punish him with a fine of upto fifteen thousand rupees.
- (e) If any one damages, or causes loss to, or encroaches on, or misappropriates, any public property or destroy any public structure within the municipal area, such person shall be liable to punishment, if any, prescribed under the prevailing law; and if no such punishment is provided for, the Municipality may punish such person with a fine of upto fifteen thousand rupees, and may recover the amount of such loss from the concerned person or require such person to render it into original condition.

- (f) If any one dumps solid wastes at one's own house, the neighbour's house, courtyard, junction, or does any act fouling the environment, the Municipality may punish such person with a fine of upto fifteen thousand rupees, and may recover the amount of such loss or damage from the concerned person or require such person to render them into original condition.
- (g) If any one carries out such activity as to disturb peace in the neighboring place or society by installing any type of instrument, or by any equipment or means of entertainment within the area of Municipality, the Municipality may order not to do such act or to remove the equipment, if it is so required; and if the concerned person does not carry out such order, it may punish such person with a fine of upto fifteen thousand rupees.
- (h) The Municipality may order to place a price index on the shops within its jurisdiction, and it may fine the concerned shop-owner with a fine of upto fifteen thousand rupees, in case such shop does not place the price index accordingly.

(2) If any one does not pay the taxes, fees, charges, tariffs contracted or imposed by the Municipality and any other amount due and payable to it, the Municipality may take action as follows :-

- (a) If any one does not pay the taxes, fees, charges, which may be collected under this Act and other amounts due and payable to the Municipality, it may write to the concerned body to stop the transfer of ownership of the movable, immovable property of such person, may seal or lock up the trade, profession, and withhold the transactions including export and import.
- (b) If the amount which the Municipality is entitled to collect under this Act could not be covered up even from the stoppage of the house, land, transaction or assets of the concerned person pursuant to clause (a), the Municipality may recover it by auctioning his house, land or other assets, if any.
- (c) In cases where any contractor has furnished any deposit or guarantee in the course of any act or transaction under this Act but has failed to carry out such act accordingly, the Municipality may realise by forfeiting such deposit or auctioning off such guarantee.

Provided that in case the proceeds of amount received from the forfeiture or auction sale exceed the amount payable by such person to the Municipality, the excess amount shall have to be returned to the concerned person.

(3) In auctioning by the Municipality pursuant to clause (b) or (c) of sub-section (2), it shall do it according to the prevailing law.

(4) If any one does not pay any taxes, fees, charges, duties, tariffs and any other amount due and payable under this Act, the Municipality may stop the service provided by it, in regard to such person.

(5) If any one commits any act in contravention of this Act or the Rules, Bye-laws or Orders made under this Act, such person shall be punished with punishment, if any, prescribed elsewhere in this Act, and if punishment is not so prescribed, the Municipality may punish such a person with a fine of upto one thousand rupees.

(6) If any one who has already been punished under this Section commits the same offence again, the Municipality may punish such person with two-fold punishment for each instance.

(7) Any party who is not satisfied with the punishment imposed by the Municipality under this Section may appeal to the concerned District Court within thirty-five days of the date of knowledge of such a decision.

166. Recovery of Punishment and Fine : The punishment and fine imposed by the Municipality pursuant to this Act shall be recovered by following the process as referred to in Section 260.

Chapter – 11

Complaint and Provisions Pertaining Thereto

167. Complaint : (1) Any person who is not satisfied with any order issued or any task ordered by Member or any employee of the Municipality may, except as otherwise provided for in this Act, file a complaint with the Mayor within thirty-five days.
- (2) In cases where a complaint has been filed pursuant to sub-section (1), the Mayor shall have to decide it within ninety days of the filing of such complaint. If no decision is made by the Mayor within that time-limit, the concerned person may file a complaint with His Majesty's Government.
- (3) After a complaint has been filed pursuant to sub-section (1) or (2), the Mayor or His Majesty's Government may hold necessary enquiry and uphold, quash or alter such an order.
- (4) The decision made by the Mayor or His Majesty's Government pursuant to sub-section (3) shall be final.
- (5) After anyone has filed a complaint pursuant to sub-section (1) or (2), the concerned acts and proceedings may be deferred by an order of the authority making decision on such a complaint.
168. Limitation for Institution of Cases : No case shall be instituted against the Municipality, Mayor, Deputy Mayor, Member or employee or person assigned to work by the Municipality in respect of any act performed in exercise of the powers conferred by this Act or by the Rules or Bye-laws made under this Act or by the prevailing laws, unless the matters mentioned below are followed :-
- (a) After the expiry of one month of the service of notice in writing, indicating the reasons for institution of the case and the name and address of the plaintiff or his attorney, if any, in person or sent by registered office to the Municipality or the Mayor, Deputy-Mayor, or the Member or employee or the person assigned to work by the Municipality, and
- (b) Unless the case is filed within three months of the cause of action.
169. Saving of Action Carried out in Good Faith while Performing Duty or Exercising Power : The Mayor, Deputy-Mayor or the person assigned to work by the Municipality shall not be liable to punishment for any action carried out by him in good faith while performing the duty required to be performed pursuant to, or exercising the power conferred by, this Act or the Rules or the Bye-laws framed under this Act.
