

14. Information not to be divulged

Any person publishing or divulging the name of any person dealt with under this Law or the nature of the charge or evidence or the results of such inquiries or proceedings or the contents of any report, certificate, document or order in connection therewith or any other matter coming to his knowledge in connection with anything arising under this Law to any unauthorised person, and any person who without lawful justification falsely alleges that any person is suffering or has suffered from venereal disease, shall be guilty of an offence.

15. Power to make rules

The Governor may make rules—

- (a) for prescribing forms of certificates, notices, orders or returns and for requiring a record to be used in connection with venereal disease, and defining the information to be furnished therein and requiring the furnishing and preserving the manner of use thereof by magistrates, medical officers of health and other qualified medical practitioners;
- (b) prescribing the precautions to be taken by persons suffering from venereal disease, or tending on or having the care or charge of persons suffering from venereal disease;
- (c) prescribing the conditions under which places being private institutions may be approved by a Principal Medical Officer as being suitable for the examination or treatment of persons suffering from venereal disease;
- (d) generally for the better carrying out the provisions and attaining the objects and purposes of this Law.

16. Penalties

Any person guilty of an offence under this Law shall be liable, on conviction, to a fine of two hundred naira or to imprisonment for six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

CHAPTER 166WATER SOURCES (CONTROL) LAW*ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS*CHAPTER 166*WATER SOURCES (CONTROL) LAW to provide for the control of sources of water.

[N.N. 1963 Cap. 136. B.A.S.L.N. 1 of 1982.]

[Commencement: 30th October, 1961]

Enactment

This Law may be cited as the Water Sources (Control) Law.

InterpretationDefinitions

"Commissioner" means the State Commissioner to whom is assigned for the time being the responsibility for Land;

"State" shall have the same meaning as in the Constitution.

Declaration of source of water

The Governor may by order, and after such inquiry, if any, as he may think fit, declare any river, lake, stream or waterway, other than a river, lake, stream or waterway declared by the National Assembly to be a source affecting more than one prescribed source of water for the purposes of this Law.

Interference with declared sources of water prohibited

No person shall dam up or otherwise interfere with any source of water prescribed in this Law without first serving on the Commissioner a notice stating the reasons for the proposed interference and the purposes to undertake in the prescribed form.

5. Commissioner may prohibit interference

Within the time stated in the notice referred to in section 4 the Commissioner, if he is of the opinion that such dam, works or interference will materially affect the flow of water in any river—

- (a) require the person serving the notice to desist from such undertaking;
- (b) consent to such undertaking either conditionally or otherwise.

6. Regulations

The Governor may make regulations providing for the period of notice to be given under section 4, the form of such notice and otherwise for the better carrying out of this Law.

7. Rights to water under the Minerals Act not affected

Nothing in this Law shall affect any rights relating to water acquired under the Minerals Act.
