 - (b) may, if he or she wishes, vote for additional candidates by placing consecutive numbers beginning with the number "2" in the squares opposite the names of those additional candidates in the order of the elector's preferences for them.
- (2) This clause applies to any election held after the commencement of this clause, including any election for which nominations were called before the commencement of this clause.

57 Distribution of postal ballot-papers

(1) If the returning officer receives an application to vote by post that is made in accordance with clause 56, the returning officer is to deliver or post to the elector who made the application:

(a) a ballot-paper:

(i) initialled by or on behalf of the returning officer, and

(ii) if the particulars of the candidates are not already printed on it--on which the returning officer has entered the names of the candidates in the order determined in accordance with clause 53, and

(b) an unsealed envelope addressed to the returning officer and bearing on the back the words "Name and enrolled address of voter" and "Signature of voter", together with appropriate spaces for the insertion of the name, address and signature.

(2) The returning officer is to note on a certified copy of the roll the names of the electors to whom he or she has delivered or posted a ballot-paper under this clause.

(3) An elector to whom a ballot-paper has been delivered or posted under this clause is not entitled to vote at the polling place unless the elector first delivers his or her ballot-paper to the deputy electoral officer for cancellation.

58 Duplicate postal ballot-papers

If any elector to whom a ballot-paper has been delivered or posted satisfies the returning officer that the elector has spoiled his or her ballot-paper by mistake or accident, the elector may, on giving it up, receive a new ballot-paper from the returning officer, who is to cancel and preserve the spoiled ballot-paper.

59 Recording of postal votes

An elector who wishes to vote by post is, on receipt of a ballot-paper, to do the following:

(a) record his or her vote on the ballot-paper in accordance with the directions shown on it,

(d) complete on the back of the envelope his or her full name and address as shown on the roll and inscribe his or her signature,

(e) post or deliver the envelope to the returning officer so as to be received by the returning officer not later than 6 pm on polling day.

60 Preliminary scrutiny of postal ballot-papers and transmission to regional electoral officer

On receipt of all envelopes purporting to contain postal ballot-papers, the returning officer must:

(a) compare the signature of the elector on each such envelope with the signature of the same elector on the application to vote by post and allow any scrutineer present to inspect both signatures, and

(b) if the returning officer is satisfied that the signature on the envelope is that of the elector who signed the application to vote by post--accept the ballot-paper for further scrutiny, but if not so satisfied, disallow the ballot-paper without opening the envelope, and

(c) transmit to the regional electoral officer, in time to reach that officer before the close

- of the poll, all envelopes which have been accepted for further scrutiny, and
- (d) at the close of the poll, open all envelopes which have been accepted for further scrutiny and which have not been transmitted to the regional electoral officer, and:
- (i) count the first preference votes which are recorded for each candidate on the ballot-papers within the envelopes and inform the regional electoral officer of the result of that count, and
 - (ii) if necessary, inform the regional electoral officer of the additional preference votes which are recorded on the ballot-papers within the envelopes.

Division 4 – Voting at polling places

61 Appointment of polling place

The returning officer is to appoint polling places, which may include mobile polling places, within each Local Aboriginal Land Council area for the purposes of taking the poll at an election.

62 Arrangements at polling place

- (1) The returning officer is to make all the necessary arrangements for taking the poll at the polling places.
- (2) Immediately before proceeding to take the poll at each polling place, the deputy electoral officer must exhibit for the inspection of any candidate, scrutineer or other person present, the ballot-box open and empty and must immediately afterwards close and lock it and place it on the table at which the deputy electoral officer is to preside in full view of all persons present at the polling place.
- (3) The ballot-box must be kept unopened in the same place until the close of the poll.

63 Hours of polling

- (1) Each polling place, other than a mobile polling place, is to be open for voting on polling day between the hours of 8 am and 6 pm.
- (2) Each mobile polling place is to be open for voting on polling day during the hours specified by the returning officer.

64 Elector to give name and address

Each person claiming to vote at the polling place must:

- (a) state his or her surname and his or her given name or names, and
- (b) if required to do so by the deputy electoral officer, state any other particulars necessary for the purpose of identifying the name on the roll under which the vote is claimed, and
- (c) be handed a ballot-paper.

65 Questions for challenged voters

- (1) The deputy electoral officer may, and at the request of any scrutineer must, put to any person claiming to vote all or any of the following questions:
 - (a) Are you the person whose name appears as [here state name under which the person claims to vote] on the roll for this election?
 - (b) Are you of or above the age of 18 years?
 - (c) Have you already voted at this election?
 - (d) Are you disqualified from voting in that you are not a voting member of the [here state name of relevant Local Aboriginal Land Council] within the [here state name of relevant Region]?
 - (e) Do you ordinarily reside in the [here state name of relevant Local Aboriginal Land Council] area?
 - (f) Are you currently suspended as a member of the [here state name of relevant Local Aboriginal Land Council] under its rules?
 - (g) Are you aware that such a suspension will disqualify you from voting in this election?

(h) Have you voted in any other Local Aboriginal Land Council area in this election?

(i) Are you aware that you may only vote once in this election?

(2) If a person refuses to answer fully any question put to the person by the deputy electoral officer, or by his or her answer shows that he or she is not entitled to vote, the person's claim to vote must be rejected.

(3) The voter's answers to the questions are to be conclusive, and the matter is not to be further inquired into during the polling.

66 Errors not to forfeit vote

(1) An omission of any given name or names, or entry of a wrong given name or names or wrong address, or a mistake in the spelling of any surname, does not warrant the rejection at the polling of any claim to vote if the elector is sufficiently identified in the opinion of the deputy electoral officer.

(2) A female elector is not disqualified from voting under the name appearing on the roll because her surname has been changed as a result of marriage but, in that case, a note of the fact is to be made by the deputy electoral officer.

67 Initialling of ballot-papers and marking of rolls

(1) Before delivering a ballot-paper to an elector, the deputy electoral officer must initial the ballot-paper on the back.

(2) The deputy electoral officer must keep an exact account of all initialled ballot-papers.

(3) The deputy electoral officer must mark off the roll the name of any elector to whom the officer delivers a ballot-paper.

68 Recording of vote

On receipt of a ballot-paper an elector must, without delay:

(a) retire alone to some unoccupied compartment of a booth at the polling place and there in private record his or her vote on the ballot-paper in accordance with the directions shown on it, and

(b) fold the ballot-paper so as to conceal the names of the candidates and then immediately deposit it in the ballot-box, and

(c) leave the polling place.

69 Spoilt ballot-papers

(1) If an elector satisfies the deputy electoral officer, before his or her ballot-paper is deposited in the ballot-box, that the elector has spoilt the ballot-paper by mistake or accident, the elector may, on giving it up, receive a new ballot-paper from the deputy electoral officer.

(2) The deputy electoral officer must cancel and preserve the spoilt ballot-paper.

70 Assistance to certain electors

(1) If an elector satisfies the deputy electoral officer that:

(a) his or her sight is so impaired, or

(b) he or she is so physically incapacitated, or

(c) he or she is so illiterate,

that the elector is unable to vote without assistance, the deputy electoral officer is to permit a person appointed by the elector to enter an unoccupied compartment of a booth at the polling place with the elector and mark the ballot-paper according to the instruction of the elector and fold and deposit the ballot-paper in the ballot-box.

(2) If any such elector fails to appoint a person under subclause (1), the deputy electoral officer must, in the presence of:

(a) such scrutineers as choose to be present, or

(b) if there are no scrutineers present, then in the presence of such person as the elector may appoint, mark the ballot-paper according to the instruction of the elector and fold and deposit the ballot-paper in the ballot-box.

(3) The instruction of a person under this clause may be given by handing to the person marking the ballot-paper a "how-to-vote" card or a printed or written statement indicating the candidates for whom the elector desires to vote and the order of his or her preferences for them.

71 Voting procedure--disputed votes

(1) A person claiming to vote at a polling place may vote under this clause even though:

(a) a mark on the roll indicates that the person has already voted at the polling place or before polling day if his or her answers to the questions put to the person by the deputy electoral officer show that the person is entitled to vote, or

(b) a mark on the roll indicates that a ballot-paper has been delivered or posted to the person if the person states that he or she has not applied to vote by post and his or her answers to the questions put to the person by the deputy electoral officer show that the person is entitled to vote, or

(c) the person's name cannot be found on the roll, if the person claims to be entitled to be enrolled as an elector for the election.

(2) A person voting under this clause must, after recording his or her vote on the ballot-paper:

(a) place the completed ballot-paper, folded so that the vote cannot be seen, in an envelope which is addressed to the deputy electoral officer and on which he or she has made a written declaration specifying the ground on which the person claims to vote, and

(b) sign the declaration in his or her own handwriting, and

(c) seal the envelope, and

(d) hand the envelope to the deputy electoral officer.

(3) The deputy electoral officer must inform the regional electoral officer of the names of all persons who have voted under this clause and, at the completion of the count of first preference votes following the close of the poll, must transmit all envelopes purporting to contain ballot-papers of those persons to the regional electoral officer.

(4) The regional electoral officer must examine the declarations on all envelopes purporting to contain ballot-papers of persons voting under this clause and must:

(a) if, after making such inquiries as the officer considers necessary, the officer is satisfied that the person who signed the declaration on any such envelope is entitled to vote--accept the ballot-paper for further scrutiny but, if the officer is not so satisfied, disallow the ballot-paper without opening the envelope, and

(b) withdraw from the envelopes all ballot-papers accepted for further scrutiny and, without inspecting or unfolding the ballot-papers or allowing any other person to do so, place them in a locked ballot-box for further scrutiny under Division 5.

(5) In order that the regional electoral officer may make inquiries of a kind referred to in subclause (4) (a), the Chairperson of the New South Wales Aboriginal Land Council must make available to the returning officer for the election copies of the certified copies of the membership rolls for Local Aboriginal Land Councils referred to in clause 43 (2).

(6) Without limiting subclause (4) (a), the returning officer may make inquiries of the Chief Executive Officer of the New South Wales Aboriginal Land Council for the purposes of making inquiries under subclause (4) (a).

Division 5 – The scrutiny

72 Scrutineers

Each candidate for election is entitled to appoint by notice in writing:

(a) one scrutineer to act on his or her behalf at the taking of votes at each polling place, and

(b) one scrutineer to act on his or her behalf at the place where postal ballot-papers are received, and

(c) one scrutineer to act on his or her behalf at the scrutiny.

73 Scrutiny of votes at close of poll

At the close of the poll, the deputy electoral officer must, in the presence of his or her assistants and such scrutineers as choose to be present but no others:

(a) unlock the ballot-boxes containing ballot-papers of electors voting at the polling place, and

(b) remove those ballot-papers from the ballot-boxes, and

(c) examine each such ballot-paper and reject those which are informal, and

(d) proceed to count the votes and ascertain the number of first preference votes recorded for each candidate.

74 Informal ballot-papers

(1) At the scrutiny, a ballot-paper must be rejected as informal if:

(a) it is neither initialled by the deputy electoral officer nor bears a mark prescribed as an official mark for the purposes of section 122A (3) of the Parliamentary Electorates and Elections Act 1912, or

(b) the elector has failed to record his or her vote in the manner directed on the ballot-paper, or

(c) it has on it any mark or writing which, in the opinion of the deputy electoral officer, will enable any person to identify the elector.

(2) A ballot-paper is not to be rejected as informal merely because of any mark or writing which is not authorised or required by this Regulation (not being a mark or writing referred to in subclause (1) (c)) if, in the opinion of the deputy electoral officer, the elector's intention is clearly indicated on the ballot-paper.

(3) A ballot-paper on which the elector has recorded votes for all candidates is not to be rejected as informal merely because:

(a) the same preference (other than the elector's first preference) has been recorded on the ballot-paper for more than one candidate, but the ballot-paper must be treated as if those preferences and any subsequent preferences had not been recorded on the ballot-paper, or

(b) there is a break in the order of his or her preferences recorded on the ballot-paper, but the ballot-paper must be treated as if any subsequent preferences had not been recorded on the ballot-paper.

75 Transmission of ballot-papers by deputy electoral officers to regional electoral officers

Immediately after ascertaining the total number of first preference votes recorded for each candidate, each deputy electoral officer must make up:

(a) in one parcel, the ballot-papers which have been used in voting at his or her polling place during the election, labelled according to first preferences for each candidate, and

(b) in a second, separate parcel, the ballot-papers which have remained unused, and

(c) in a third, separate parcel, the certified copies of rolls supplied to the deputy electoral officer, and all books, rolls and papers kept or used by him or her during the poll, and must transmit these parcels to the regional electoral officer.

76 Counting of votes

(1) The regional electoral officer must as soon as practicable after the close of the poll count the votes in accordance with this clause.

(2) The votes are to be counted and the result of the election ascertained in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) the unrejected ballot-papers are arranged under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate,

(b) the total number of first preferences given for each candidate on such ballot-papers is then counted,

(c) the candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes is elected if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes,

(d) if no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes, a second count is made,

(e) on the second count the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes is excluded, and each unexhausted ballot-paper counted to him or her is counted to the candidate next in the order of the voter's preference,

(f) if a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, he or she is elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and counting each of his or her unexhausted ballot-papers to the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference is repeated until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes,

(g) the candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes is elected.

(3) If, on any count at which the candidate with the fewest number of votes has to be excluded, 2 or more candidates have an equal number of votes (that number being fewer than the number of votes that any other candidate has or those candidates being the only continuing candidates):

(a) the candidate who had the fewest votes at the last count before the equality occurred is excluded, or

(b) if they had an equal number of votes at all preceding counts, the candidate whose name is on a slip drawn in accordance with subclause (4) is excluded.

(4) For the purposes of subclause (3), the returning officer writes the names of the candidates who have an equal number of votes on similar slips of paper. The returning officer then folds the slips so as to prevent the names being seen, mixes them, and draws one slip at random.

(5) In the process of counting under subclause (2) or (3), exhausted ballot-papers are set aside as finally dealt with and are not taken into account in the election of a candidate under the appropriate clause.

(6) The process of counting each of the unexhausted ballot-papers of an excluded candidate to the continuing candidate next in the order of the voter's preference is not repeated if there is only one continuing candidate. Instead, that continuing candidate is elected.

(7) In this clause: "absolute majority of votes" means a greater number than one-half of the whole number of ballot-papers other than informal and exhausted ballot-papers. "continuing candidate" means a candidate not already elected or excluded from the count. "exhausted ballot-paper" means a ballot-paper on which there is no indication of a next preference for a continuing candidate. "next preference" means the first of the subsequent preferences marked on a ballot-paper that is not given to an elected or excluded candidate. However, if there is a repetition or omission in the consecutive numbering of preferences marked on a ballot-paper (other than a repetition or omission that makes the ballot-paper informal), only those preferences preceding the repetition or omission can be taken into account. "unrejected ballot-papers" means all ballot-papers not rejected as informal.

77 Returning officer to be advised of result

The regional electoral officer must, immediately after the counting of the votes, advise the returning officer of the result.

Division 6 – Miscellaneous electoral provisions

78 Signature to electoral paper

(1) For the purposes of this Part, if a person who is unable to sign his or her name in writing makes his or her mark as his or her signature to an electoral paper, the mark is taken to be the person's personal signature, if it is identifiable as such, and is made in the presence of a witness who signs the electoral paper as such witness.

(2) In this clause, "electoral paper" means a postal vote application or declaration or a disputed vote declaration but does not include a ballot-paper.

If a candidate dies after the close of nominations and before polling day in respect of an election:

- (a) the election is taken to have failed, and
- (b) the returning officer is to conduct a new election.

 - (i) to the returning officer, a regional electoral officer or a deputy electoral officer in connection with an election, or
 - (ii) in any document that the person furnishes for the purposes of an election, or
- (d) obstruct the proceedings at a polling place or at the office of the returning officer, a regional electoral officer or a deputy electoral officer, or
- (e) enter any compartment of a booth at a polling place, otherwise than as authorised under this Regulation, while any other person is in the compartment recording his or her vote.

Maximum penalty: 5 penalty units.

Division 7 – Casual vacancies

84 Casual vacancy to be filled

(section 114)

(1) A person is to be appointed in accordance with this clause to fill a casual vacancy in the office of a councillor representing a Region. A person who is appointed to fill a casual vacancy is appointed as a councillor for the remainder of the term of office and has, therefore, all the functions of a councillor.

(2) The Minister is to appoint the person who, at the time of the count at which the councillor was declared elected, was the candidate for election with the second highest number of votes.

(3) If no person is available for appointment in accordance with subclause (2), the Minister is, after consulting with the New South Wales Aboriginal Land Council, to appoint a person who is qualified to be a candidate for election to the position (whether or not the person was a candidate for election).

(4) This clause does not apply to a casual vacancy in the office of a councillor caused by the operation of section 226 (2) of the Act (being a casual vacancy caused by the removal of all councillors from office after the appointment of an administrator to administer all of the functions of the New South Wales Aboriginal Land Council).

85 (Repealed)
