Contents

- 1 Title
- 2 Commencement
- 3 Animal feed declared to be agricultural compound

Order

1 Title

This order is the Agricultural Compounds and Veterinary Medicines (Animal Feed) Order 2006.

2 Commencement

This order comes into force on the 28th day after the date of its notification in the Gazette.

3 Animal feed declared to be agricultural compound

(1) For the purposes of the Agricultural Compounds and Veterinary Medicines Act 1997, animal feed is declared to be an agricultural compound.

(2) In this clause,---

animal feed means any substance or preparation manufactured or prepared in whole or in part from one or more than one kind of grain, seed, plant, oil, juice, meat, fish, or other source of nutrient of any kind and used, or intended to be used, as food for stock, pets, or other animals; and includes any animal feed additive animal feed additive means a non-nutrient substance added to animal feed to improve the preservation, digestion, colour, palatability, texture, or nutritive value of the animal feed.

Diane Morcom,
Clerk of the Executive Council.

Explanatory Note

This note is not part of the order, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This order, which comes into force on the 28th day after the date of its notification in the Gazette, declares animal feed (including any animal feed additive) to be an agricultural compound for the purposes of the Agricultural Compounds and Veterinary Medicines Act 1997.

Certain types of animal feed already fall within the definition of agricultural compound. This order provides that all substances or preparations that are manufactured or prepared as animal feed will be treated as agricultural compounds for the purposes of the Act.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 2 March 2006.
This order is administered in the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry.
