Regulations

1 Title

- These regulations are the Maori Commercial Aquaculture Claims Settlement (Aquaculture Settlement Register) Regulations 2006.

2 Commencement

- These regulations come into force on the 28th day after the date of their notification in the Gazette.

3 Interpretation

- (1) In these regulations,—
Act means the Maori Commercial Aquaculture Claims Settlement Act 2004 chief executive means the chief executive of the Ministry of Fisheries regional council has the same meaning as in section 2 of the Resource Management Act 1991 register means the aquaculture settlement register kept and maintained by the chief executive under section 57 of the Act.
(2) Terms used but not defined in these regulations have the same meaning as in the Act.

4 Chief executive must enter certain information in register

- (1) The chief executive must enter the following information in the register:
 - (a) new space identified under section 9 of the Act;
 - (b) authorisations issued to the trustee for new space identified under section 9;
 - (c) additional new space identified under section 25 of the Act;
 - (d) authorisations issued to the trustee for additional new space identified under section 25.
- (2) The information entered in the register under subclause (1) must be shown separately for—
 - (a) each regional council; and
 - (b) coastal settlement assets and harbour settlement assets; and
 - (c) in relation to harbour settlement assets, the harbour they relate to.

5 Obligation of regional council to provide certain information to chief executive

- (1) A regional council must notify the chief executive of—
 - (a) new space identified under section 9 of the Act;
 - (b) authorisations issued to the trustee for new space under section 9 of the Act;
 - (c) additional new space identified under section 25 of the Act;
 - (d) authorisations issued to the trustee for additional new space identified under section 25.
- (2) A regional council must comply with subclause (1) as soon as practicable after identifying new space or issuing an authorisation (as the case may be).

Diane Morcom,
Clerk of the Executive Council.
