FORESTRY AND AFFORESTATION IN GREAT BRITAIN

1 The Forestry Commission.

(1) The Forestry Commissioners constituted under the Forestry Acts 1919 to 1945 shall continue in existence and are in this Act referred to as “the Commissioners”.

[F2(1A) In this Act, “the appropriate forestry authority” means—

- (a) in relation to England ^{F3}..., the Commissioners;
- (b) in relation to Wales, the Natural Resources Body for Wales.]

Changes to legislation: Forestry Act 1967 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 12 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

(2) The [^{F4}appropriate forestry authority] shall be charged with the general duty of promoting the interests of forestry, the development of afforestation and the production and supply of timber and other forest products ^{F5}[^{F6}... [^{F7}in England and in Wales]] and in that behalf shall have the powers and duties conferred or imposed on them by this Act.

^{F8}(2A)

(3) The [^{F9}appropriate forestry authority's] general duty [^{F10}under subsection (2)] includes that of promoting the establishment and maintenance ^{F11}[^{F6}... [^{F12}in England and in Wales]] of adequate reserves of growing trees.

[^{F13}(3A) In discharging their functions under the Forestry Acts 1967 to 1979 the [^{F14}appropriate forestry authority] shall, so far as may be consistent with the proper discharge of those functions, endeavour to achieve a reasonable balance between—

- (a) the development of afforestation, the management of forests and [^{F15}the production and supply of timber]^{F15}, the production and supply of timber ^{F16}...]], and
- (b) the conservation and enhancement of natural beauty and the conservation of flora, fauna and geological or physiographical features of special interest.]

[^{F17}(3B) In subsection (3A) “functions” means—

- (a) in relation to the Commissioners, functions ^{F18}...;
- (b) in relation to the Natural Resources Body for Wales, functions under this Act.]

(4) The Commissioners shall, in exercising their functions under this Act, and also in exercising their powers under the ^{M1}Plant Health Act 1967 (which enables them to make orders for the control of timber pests and diseases), comply with such directions as may be given to them by

- [^{F19}(a) the Ministers in relation to the exercise of their functions as regards England ^{F20}...; ^{F21}...]
- ^{F21}(b)

3 Management of forestry land.

- (1) The [^{F27}appropriate forestry authority] may manage, plant and otherwise use, for the purpose of the exercise of their functions under this Act, any land [^{F28}^{F29}... in [^{F30}England or Wales]] placed at their disposal by the Minister under this Act, and—
- (a) the power of the [^{F27}appropriate forestry authority] under this subsection to manage and use any land shall, without prejudice to the generality of that power, include power to erect buildings or execute works on the land;
- (b) any timber produced on land so placed at the [^{F31}appropriate forestry authority's] disposal shall belong to the [^{F27}appropriate forestry authority].
- (2) The [^{F32}appropriate forestry authority] may undertake the management or supervision, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as may be agreed upon, or give assistance or advice in relation to the planting or management, of any woods or forests belonging to any person, including woods and forests under the management of the Crown Estate Commissioners [^{F33}... or under the control of a government department, or belonging to a local authority.
- (3) The [^{F34}appropriate forestry authority] may—
- (a) purchase or otherwise acquire standing timber, and sell or otherwise dispose of any timber belonging to them or, subject to such terms as may be mutually agreed, to a private owner, and generally promote the supply, sale, utilization and conversion of timber;
- (b) establish and carry on, or aid in the establishment and carrying on, of woodland industries.
- (4) In this section the expression “timber” includes all forest products.

- (a) the [^{F42}appropriate forestry authority] shall, as respects the enforcement of the covenant against persons other than the covenantor, have the like rights as if they had at all material times been the absolute owners in possession of ascertained land adjacent to the land subject to the covenant and capable of being benefited by the covenant, and the covenant had been expressed to be for the benefit of that adjacent land; and
- (b) section 84 of the ^{M3}Law of Property Act 1925 (which enables the [^{F43}Upper Tribunal] to discharge or modify restrictive covenants) shall not apply to the covenant.

- (4) Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect to empower limited owners, trustees and others to enter into forestry dedication covenants or agreements and to provide for matters arising on their doing so.

7 Prevention of damage by rabbits, hares and vermin.

- (1) The provision of this section shall have effect where the [^{F51}appropriate forestry authority] are satisfied that trees or tree plants are being, or are likely to be, damaged by rabbits, hares or vermin owing to the failure of an occupier of land to destroy sufficiently the rabbits, hares or vermin on land in his occupation, or otherwise to take steps for the prevention of damage by them.
- (2) The [^{F51}appropriate forestry authority] may, where they are so satisfied, authorise in writing any competent person to enter on the land and kill and take the rabbits, hares or vermin thereon; but before doing so they shall first give to the occupier and owner of the land such opportunity as the [^{F51}appropriate forestry authority] think reasonable of destroying the rabbits, hares or vermin, or of taking steps for the prevention of the damage.

- (3) The [^{F51}appropriate forestry authority] may recover from the occupier of the land the net cost incurred by them in connection with action taken by them under the foregoing subsection.

A sum recoverable under this subsection shall, in England or Wales, be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

- (4) Anyone who obstructs a person authorised by the [^{F51}appropriate forestry authority] in the due exercise of his powers or duties under subsection (2) above shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F52}level 2 on the standard scale]; but the person authorised shall, if so required, produce his authority.
- (5) For purposes of this section—
- (a) the person entitled to kill rabbits, hares or vermin on any common land shall be deemed to be the occupier of the land; and

Restriction of felling

9 Requirement of licence for felling.

- (1) A felling licence granted by the [^{F75}appropriate forestry authority] shall be required for the felling of growing trees, except in a case where by or under the following provisions of this Part of this Act this subsection is expressed not to apply.
- (2) Subsection (1) above does not apply—
 - (a) to the felling of trees with a diameter not exceeding [^{F76}8 centimetres] or, in the case of coppice or underwood, with a diameter not exceeding [^{F76}15 centimetres]; or
 - (b) to the felling of fruit trees or trees standing or growing on land comprised in an orchard, garden, churchyard or public open space; or
 - (c) to the topping or lopping of trees or the trimming or laying of hedges.
- (3) Subsection (1) above does not apply to the felling by any person of trees on land in his occupation or occupied by a tenant of his—
 - (a) where the trees have a diameter not exceeding [^{F76}10 centimetres] and the felling is carried out in order to improve the growth of other trees; or
 - (b) where the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—
 - (i) the aggregate cubic content of the trees which are felled [^{F77}in the relevant territory] by that person without a licence (exclusive of trees

- to whose felling subsection (1) above does not apply) does not exceed [^{F78}5 cubic metres] in any quarter; and
- (ii) the aggregate cubic content of the trees so felled which are sold by that person whether before or after the felling (exclusive as aforesaid) does not exceed [^{F78}2 cubic metres] in any quarter, or such larger quantity as the [^{F79}appropriate forestry authority] may in a particular case allow.
- (4) Subsection (1) above does not apply to any felling which—
- (a) is for the prevention of danger or the prevention or abatement of a nuisance;
 - (b) is in compliance with any obligation imposed by or under an Act of Parliament, including this Act;
 - (c) is carried out by, or at the request of, [^{F80}an electricity operator, because the tree is or will be in such close proximity to an electric line or electrical plant which is kept installed or is being or is to be installed by the operator as to have the effect mentioned in paragraph 9(1)(a) or (b) of Schedule 4 to the Electricity Act 1989;]
 - (d) is immediately required for the purpose of carrying out development authorised by planning permission granted or deemed to be granted under [^{F81}the Town and Country Planning Act 1990] or the enactments replaced by that Act ^{F82}... .
- (5) Regulations made by the [^{F83}appropriate legislative authority] under this Part of this Act may modify subsections (2) to (4) above as follows, that is to say—
- (a) they may provide for additional exceptions from the application of subsection (1) above and may in particular substitute—
 - (i) in subsection (2)(a), for the reference to [^{F76}8 centimetres] a reference to a larger diameter;
 - (ii) in subsection (3)(a), for the reference to [^{F76}10 centimetres] a reference to a larger diameter;
 - (iii) in subsection (3)(b) for the reference to [^{F76}30 cubic metres] or the reference to [^{F76}5.5 cubic metres] in either case a reference to a larger quantity;
 - (b) they may substitute in subsection (2)(a) for the reference to [^{F76}15 centimetres] a reference to a smaller diameter; and
 - (c) they may restrict or suspend the exception in subsection (3)(b) and may in particular substitute, for the reference in sub-paragraph (i) to [^{F76}30 cubic metres], or for the reference in sub-paragraph (ii) to [^{F76}5.5 cubic metres], in either case a reference to a smaller quantity;
- and the said subsections shall have effect with any modification made by regulations under this subsection.
- (6) In this section—

10 Application for felling licence and decision of Commissioners thereon.

- (1) An application for a felling licence may be made to the [^{F91}appropriate forestry authority] in the prescribed manner by a person having such an estate or interest in the land on which the trees are growing as enables him, with or without the consent of any other person, to fell the trees.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act (and, in particular, to their duty to take advice under section 37(3), the [^{F91}appropriate forestry authority] may on any such application grant the licence, or grant it subject to conditions, or refuse it, but shall grant it unconditionally except in a case where it appears to them to be expedient to do otherwise—
- (a) in the interests of good forestry or agriculture or of the amenities of the district;
^{F92F93} ...
 - (b) for the purpose of complying with their duty of promoting the establishment and maintenance ^{F94}... of adequate reserves of growing trees. [^{F95}; or]
 - ^{F95}(c) for the purpose of conserving or enhancing the flora, fauna or geological or physiographical features, or the natural beauty or amenity, of any land.]
 - ^{F96}(c) in relation to land in Wales, after consultation with the applicant for the licence, for the purpose of—
 - (i) conserving or enhancing natural beauty;
 - (ii) conserving flora, fauna, geological or physiographical features, or natural habitats.]
- (3) A felling licence shall continue in force for such period (not being less than one year from the date on which it is granted) as may be specified therein.
- ^{F97}(3A) The Natural Resources Body for Wales, and the person responsible, may agree to amend the licence at any time (but see section 10A, which imposes further requirements in relation to amendments in respect of trees to which a tree preservation order relates).
- (3B) For the purposes of subsection (3A) of this section, and section 10A, the person responsible is—
- (a) the applicant for the licence, if the applicant has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in subsection (1), or
 - (b) if the applicant no longer has such estate or interest, a person who has such estate or interest.]
- (4) If in the case of any trees the [^{F91}appropriate forestry authority] refuse an application for a felling licence, the consequences shall be as follows:—
- (a) except in a case to which section 14(4) below applies, any person who is for the time being the owner of the trees shall be entitled to compensation under and in accordance with the next following section; and
 - (b) if the land on which the trees are growing is, or in the opinion of the [^{F91}appropriate forestry authority] will be, managed in a manner approved by them, the [^{F91}appropriate forestry authority] may (subject to section 14(5)

- (a) an amendment to a licence under section 10(3A) is proposed in respect of any trees to which a tree preservation order relates, and
 - (b) the Natural Resources Body for Wales does not consider that the amendment is necessary to respond to an imminent and serious risk of harm to—
 - (i) natural beauty, or
 - (ii) flora, fauna, geological or physiographical features, or natural habitats.
- (2) Before amending the licence, the Natural Resources Body for Wales must give notice in writing of the proposal to the authority by whom the tree preservation order was made.
- (3) If, within the prescribed period, the authority by whom the tree preservation order was made objects to the amendment in so far as it affects trees to which the tree preservation order relates, and does not withdraw its objection, the Natural Resources Body for Wales must refer the matter to the Welsh Ministers.
- (4) If a matter is referred to the Welsh Ministers under subsection (3), the Welsh Ministers may decide to—
- (a) grant consent to the amendment, or
 - (b) refuse to grant consent (in which case the amendment cannot be made).
- (5) Where the Natural Resources Body for Wales has given notice in writing under subsection (1) to an authority in respect of a proposed amendment, the proposed amendment cannot be made until—
- (a) the period prescribed under subsection (3) has ended without the authority having objected (or, if the authority has objected, that objection has been withdrawn), or
 - (b) if the Natural Resources Body for Wales has referred the matter to the Welsh Ministers, the Welsh Ministers have given their decision on the matter.
- (6) Before deciding whether to grant or refuse consent under subsection (4), the Welsh Ministers must consult—
- (a) the person responsible (see section 10(3B));
 - (b) the Natural Resources Body for Wales;
 - (c) the authority by whom the tree preservation order was made.]

- (2) Compensation under this section shall be recoverable from the [^{F103}appropriate forestry authority] on a claim made in the prescribed manner.
- (3) Claims for compensation in the case of any trees may be made from time to time in respect of deterioration taking place after the refusal of a felling licence for those trees, but—
- (a) no such claim shall be made in respect of deterioration taking place more than ten years before the date of the claim; and
 - (b) if the trees have been felled, no such claim shall be made after the expiration of one year from the date of the felling.
- (4) In calculating compensation,—
- (a) no account shall be taken of deterioration in the quality of the timber which is attributable to neglect of the trees after the refusal of a felling licence for them; and
 - (b) the value of the trees at any time shall be ascertained on the basis of prices current at the date of the claim.
- (5) If after refusing a felling licence the [^{F103}appropriate forestry authority] under section 10(5) above subsequently give notice to the owner of the trees that they are prepared to grant a licence, then in calculating compensation payable in consequence of the previous refusal no account shall be taken of deterioration occurring after the giving of the notice.
- (6) Any question of disputed compensation shall be determined in accordance with section 31 of this Act.

15 Trees subject to preservation order under Planning Acts.

- (1) If an application is made to the [F117 appropriate forestry authority] for a felling licence in respect of trees to which a tree preservation order relates, and [F118 relevant consent] is required for the felling of those trees, then—
- (a) the [F117 appropriate forestry authority], if they propose to grant the licence, shall give notice in writing to the authority by whom the order was made; and
 - (b) the [F117 appropriate forestry authority] may in any case refer the application to the said authority.

[F119(1A) In subsection (1) “ relevant consent ” means—

- (a) in the case of trees in [F120 England or Wales], consent under tree preservation regulations.

[F121(b)]

- (2) Where the [F117 appropriate forestry authority] give the notice required by subsection (1)(a) above and the authority within the prescribed period after receipt of the notice object to the [F122 appropriate forestry authority's] proposal to grant a felling licence and do not withdraw their objection, then—
- (a) the [F117 appropriate forestry authority] shall not deal with the application, but shall refer it to the Minister, and the application shall then be dealt with under the Town and Country Planning Acts; and
 - (b) if in pursuance of the application the Minister consents to the felling, section 9(1) of this Act shall not apply so as to require a felling licence for the felling of any trees in accordance with the consent.
- (3) Where the [F117 appropriate forestry authority] refer an application under subsection (1) (b) above,—
- (a) the application shall be dealt with under the Town and Country Planning Acts; and
 - (b) so long as the tree preservation order applying to the trees remains in force, section 9(1) shall not apply so as to require a felling licence for the felling of any trees to which the application relates.
- (4) Where in the case of any trees—
- (a) the [F117 appropriate forestry authority] under this section refer an application for a felling licence to the Minister or an authority who have made a tree preservation order relating to the trees; and

(b) a felling licence in respect of the trees has been previously refused by the [^{F117}appropriate forestry authority], no account shall be taken, in calculating any compensation payable under section 11 of this Act in consequence of the previous refusal, of deterioration occurring after the date of the reference.

This subsection shall be without prejudice to section 11(5) of this Act, in a case to which that subsection applies.

(5) Except as provided by the foregoing provisions of this section, no [^{F123}relevant application shall be entertained] in respect of the felling of trees in the case of which section 9(1) of this Act applies so as to require a felling licence.

[^{F124}(5A) In subsection (5) “ relevant application ” means—

(a) in the case of trees in [^{F125}England or Wales], an application under tree preservation regulations for consent under the regulations.

^{F126}(b)]

(6) Where, in the case of trees to which a tree preservation order relates, a felling licence is granted by the [^{F117}appropriate forestry authority] after the date on which the order comes into force, the licence shall, notwithstanding anything in that order, be sufficient authority for the felling of any trees to which the order relates.

(7) Schedule 3 to this Act shall have effect for explaining the procedure applicable where this section requires an application to be dealt with under the Town and Country Planning Acts.

16 Review of refusal or conditions of licence.

- (1) The following provisions shall have effect for enabling the decision of the [^{F128}appropriate forestry authority] on an application for a felling licence to be reviewed where they refuse to grant a felling licence or grant it subject to conditions.
- (2) A person aggrieved by the refusal or conditions may by a notice served within the prescribed time and in the prescribed manner request the Minister [^{F129}where the application was to fell trees in [^{F130}England or Wales]^{F131}...] to refer the matter to a committee appointed in accordance with section 27 below and—
 - (a) the Minister ^{F132}... shall, unless he is ^{F133}... of opinion that the grounds for the request are frivolous, refer the matter accordingly;
 - (b) the committee, after compliance with section 27(3), shall thereupon make a report on the reference to the Minister ^{F134}... .
- (3) The Minister ^{F135}... shall, after considering the committee's report, confirm the decision of the [^{F128}appropriate forestry authority] on the application, or reverse or modify that decision and direct the [^{F128}appropriate forestry authority] to give effect to the reversal or modification.
- (4) No request may be made under this section in respect of a refusal to grant a felling licence unless a previous application for a licence in respect of the trees has been refused and the application to which the request relates is made after the following date, that is to say—
 - (a) where a reference under this section has been made in respect of a previous application, the third anniversary of the last such application in respect of which such a reference has been made; and
 - (b) in any other case, the third anniversary of the first previous application.

- (b) in any case, require the Minister ^{F182}... to acquire his interest in the land affected by the directions.

A notice under this section requiring the Minister ^{F183}... to acquire an interest in land shall be deemed to include an offer by the person entitled to that interest to convey to the Minister ^{F183}... such easement or servitude or other right for the benefit of the land over adjoining land in which that person has an interest as may be agreed between that person and the Minister ^{F183}... or as may, in default of agreement, be determined in accordance with section 31 of this Act.

- (3) The Minister ^{F184}... may within the prescribed period after receiving the notice either—
 - (a) accept the notice; or
 - (b) refer it to a committee appointed in accordance with section 27 below; or
 - (c) revoke the directions to which it relates.
- (4) The committee to whom a matter is referred under this section, after complying with section 27(3), shall thereupon make a report to the Minister ^{F185}... and to the person by whom the notice under this section was given and shall state—
 - (a) whether in the opinion of the committee compliance with the felling directions would involve that person in such a loss as aforesaid; and
 - (b) if so, what modifications (if any) of the directions would be sufficient to avoid that loss.
- (5) Where the committee report that compliance with the directions would not involve the person in such loss as aforesaid, the notice shall be of no effect; but in any other case the Minister ^{F186}... may, within the prescribed period after receiving the report, either—
 - (a) accept the notice; or
 - (b) revoke the directions; or
 - (c) modify the directions in accordance with the report, according as he thinks ^{F187}... fit.
- (6) If within the prescribed period after receiving a notice or the report of a committee under this section the Minister ^{F188}... has not taken any such action as is authorised by subsection (3) or subsection (5) above, as the case may be, the directions to which the notice relates shall cease to have effect at the expiration of that period.

Enforcement of licence conditions and felling directions

24 Notice to require compliance with conditions or directions.

- (1) The provisions of this section shall apply if—
- (a) any works required to be carried out in accordance with conditions of a felling licence are not so carried out; or
 - (b) any felling directions given by the [^{F197}appropriate forestry authority] are not complied with.
- (2) The [^{F197}appropriate forestry authority] may give to the person responsible a notice requiring such steps as may be specified therein to be taken within such time (not being less than the prescribed period after the notice has become operative) as may be so specified for remedying the default; and for purposes of this subsection, “the person responsible” is—
- (a) in the case of non-compliance with conditions of a felling licence, [^{F198}the person specified in subsection (2A)]; and
 - (b) in the case of non-compliance with felling directions, the owner of the trees.
- [^{F199}(2A) The person referred to in subsection (2)(a) is—
- (a) where the licence relates to land in [^{F200}England or Wales]—
 - (i) the applicant for the licence, if on the date the notice is served he has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in section 10(1) of this Act; or
 - (ii) in any other case, the owner of the land.
 - ^{F201}(b)]
- (3) If after the expiration of the time specified in the notice any steps required by the notice have not been taken, the [^{F197}appropriate forestry authority] may, subject to the following section, enter on the land and take those steps.
- (4) Without prejudice to the powers of the [^{F197}appropriate forestry authority] under the foregoing subsection, a person who without reasonable excuse fails to take any steps required by a notice given to him under this section shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [^{F202}level 5 on the standard scale]; and proceedings in respect of such an offence may be instituted within six months of the first discovery of the offence by the person taking the proceedings, provided that no proceedings shall be instituted more than two years after the date of the offence.
- (5) A person who is required by a notice under this section to carry out works or take any steps may carry out those works or take the steps notwithstanding any lease, covenant or contract relating to the trees or land affected by the notice.
- [^{F203}(6) A notice under this section given by the Commissioners is a local land charge; and for the purposes of the Local Land Charges Act 1975 the Commissioners are the originating authority as respects the charge.]

[^{F206}24C Variation of conditions or suspension or revocation of licence following breach of condition: Wales

- (1) The provisions of this section apply if, in relation to a felling licence granted in relation to land in Wales, the Natural Resources Body for Wales considers that any condition of the licence—
- (a) has not been complied with, or
 - (b) is not being complied with.
- (2) But this section does not apply if the condition is one that requires works to be carried out (as to which see section 24).
- (3) The Natural Resources Body for Wales may give to the person responsible a notice which makes provision for one or more of the following—
- (a) a suspension of the felling licence, either in full or in part;
 - (b) a variation or removal of a condition of the felling licence or an imposition of a new condition;
 - (c) where the circumstances referred to in subsection (4) apply, a revocation of the felling licence.
- (4) The circumstances are that the condition that has not been complied with, or is not being complied with, was imposed for the purpose mentioned in section 10(2)(c).
- (5) A notice given under subsection (3) may also make provision—
- (a) requiring the person to whom the notice was given to take such steps as may be specified in the notice, and
 - (b) specifying the period (not being less than the prescribed period after the notice has become operative) within which those steps must be taken.
- (6) A notice given under subsection (3) must—
- (a) set out the reasons for giving the notice;
 - (b) specify the condition that has not been or is not being complied with;

- (c) if the notice suspends the felling licence, specify the period for which the licence is to be suspended;
 - (d) if the notice varies conditions or revokes the felling licence, specify the date upon which the variation or revocation takes effect;
 - (e) if the notice suspends the felling licence in part, specify the felling that may continue.
- (7) Where a notice given under subsection (3) suspends a felling licence, either in full or in part, the suspension ends with the earlier of—
- (a) the expiry of the period specified in the notice in accordance with subsection (6)(c), and
 - (b) the date specified in any further notice given to the person responsible by the Natural Resources Body for Wales under this paragraph.
- (8) The Natural Resources Body for Wales may give a further notice under subsection (7) (b) if it considers that the suspension should be lifted sooner than the end of the period specified in the notice given under subsection (3).
- (9) If—
- (a) a notice given under subsection (3) requires a person to take steps in accordance with subsection (5)(a), and
 - (b) those steps have not been taken before the end of the period specified in that notice in accordance with subsection (5)(b),
- the Natural Resources Body for Wales may enter on the land and take those steps.
- (10) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to take any steps required by a notice given under subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine (but this does not affect the powers of the Natural Resources Body for Wales under subsection (9)).
- (11) Proceedings in respect of an offence under subsection (10)—
- (a) must be commenced within the period of six months starting on the day the person commencing the proceedings becomes aware of the offence;
 - (b) may not be commenced more than two years after the date of the offence.
- (12) A person who is required by a notice under subsection (3) to take steps may take the steps notwithstanding any lease, covenant or contract relating to the trees or land affected by the notice.
- (13) For the purposes of this section, “the person responsible” is—
- (a) the applicant for the licence, if on the date the notice is given the applicant has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in section 10(1);
 - (b) in any other case, a person who has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in section 10(1) on that date.

24D Notice to subsequent estate or interest holder requiring steps to be taken

- (1) Subsection (2) applies where—
 - (a) a notice has been given to a person under section 24C(3) requiring the person to take steps,
 - (b) steps required by the notice have not been taken, and
 - (c) before the time specified in the notice (within which those steps must be taken) has expired, the person ceases to have the estate or interest in the land by reference to which the notice was given.
- (2) The Natural Resources Body for Wales may give to a person who has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in section 10(1) a notice—
 - (a) requiring the steps that were not taken under the notice described in subsection (1) to be taken, and
 - (b) specifying the period (not being less than the prescribed period after the notice has become operative) within which those steps must be taken.
- (3) A notice given under subsection (2) must set out the reasons for giving the notice.
- (4) If steps required by a notice under subsection (2) have not been taken before the end of the period specified in the notice, the Natural Resources Body for Wales may enter on the land and take those steps.
- (5) A person who, without reasonable excuse, fails to take any steps required by a notice under subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine (but this does not affect the powers of the Natural Resources Body for Wales under subsection (4)).
- (6) Proceedings in respect of an offence under subsection (5)—
 - (a) must be commenced within the period of six months starting on the day the person commencing the proceedings becomes aware of the offence;
 - (b) may not be commenced more than two years after the date of the offence.
- (7) A person who is required by a notice under subsection (2) to take steps may take the steps notwithstanding any lease, covenant or contract relating to the trees or land affected by the notice.
- (8) The reference in subsection (1) to a notice under section 24C(3) includes a notice given under this section.

- (2) The Natural Resources Body for Wales may give to the person responsible a notice which makes provision for one or more of the following—
- (a) a suspension of the felling licence, either in full or in part;
 - (b) an amendment of the felling licence;
 - (c) if the Natural Resources Body for Wales considers that amending the felling licence would not prevent the harm that is being caused or is likely to be caused, a revocation of the felling licence.
- (3) A notice given under subsection (2) must—
- (a) set out the reasons for giving the notice;
 - (b) specify the harm that felling in accordance with the licence is causing or is likely to cause;
 - (c) if the notice suspends the felling licence, specify the period for which the licence is to be suspended;
 - (d) if the notice amends or revokes the felling licence, specify the date upon which the amendment or revocation takes effect;
 - (e) if the notice suspends the felling licence in part, specify the felling that may continue.
- (4) Where a notice given under subsection (2) suspends a felling licence, either in full or in part, the suspension ends with the earlier of—
- (a) the expiry of the period specified in the notice in accordance with subsection (3)(c), and
 - (b) the date specified in any further notice given to the person responsible by the Natural Resources Body for Wales under this paragraph.
- (5) The Natural Resources Body for Wales must give a further notice specifying a date under subsection (4)(b) (to bring the suspension to an end) if it considers that felling in accordance with the felling licence (as it would have effect after that date) would neither cause nor be likely to cause the harm specified in the notice that suspended the licence.
- (6) For the purposes of this section, “the person responsible” is—
- (a) the applicant for the licence, if on the date the notice is given the applicant has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in section 10(1);
 - (b) in any other case, a person who has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in section 10(1) on that date.]

- (2) The emergency criteria are met if the proposed notice makes no provision other than—
 - (a) provision that the Natural Resources Body for Wales considers is necessary to respond to an imminent and serious risk of harm to—
 - (i) natural beauty, or
 - (ii) flora, fauna, geological or physiographical features, or natural habitats, or
 - (b) provision that suspends a felling licence.
- (3) Before the Natural Resources Body for Wales gives the proposed notice it must give notice in writing of the proposal to the authority by whom the tree preservation order was made.
- (4) If, within the prescribed period, the authority by whom the tree preservation order was made objects to the notice in so far as it affects trees to which the tree preservation order relates, and does not withdraw its objection, the Natural Resources Body for Wales must refer the matter to the Welsh Ministers.
- (5) If a matter is referred to the Welsh Ministers under subsection (4), the Welsh Ministers may decide to—
 - (a) grant consent to the giving of the notice, or
 - (b) refuse to grant consent (in which case the notice cannot be given).
- (6) Where the Natural Resources Body for Wales has given notice in writing under subsection (3) to an authority in respect of a proposed notice, the proposed notice cannot be given until—
 - (a) the period prescribed under subsection (4) has ended without the authority having objected (or, if the authority has objected, that objection has been withdrawn), or
 - (b) if the Natural Resources for Wales has referred the matter to the Welsh Ministers, the Welsh Ministers have given their decision on the matter.
- (7) Before deciding whether to grant or refuse consent under subsection (5), the Welsh Ministers must consult—
 - (a) the Natural Resources Body for Wales;
 - (b) the authority by whom the tree preservation order was made;
 - (c) the applicant for the licence if the applicant has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in section 10(1) or, in any other case, a person who has such estate or interest in the land.]

26G Compensation under section 26D, 26E and 26F – further provision

- (1) Compensation under sections 26D, 26E and 26F is recoverable from the Natural Resources Body for Wales.
- (2) A claim for compensation under section 26D, 26E or 26F must be made in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed period.
- (3) Where a claim for compensation is made under section 26D or 26F for deterioration in the quality of the timber—
 - (a) if the trees have been felled, no claim may be made after the expiration of one year from the date of the felling;
 - (b) where a claim is made in reliance on section 26F(2) (depreciation in the value of the trees as a result of the giving of a notice under section 24E(2)), no claim may be made in respect of deterioration occurring more than ten years after the notice was given.
- (4) In calculating compensation that is payable under section 26D or 26F—
 - (a) no account is to be taken of deterioration in the quality of the timber that is attributable to neglect of the trees;
 - (b) the value of the trees at any time is to be ascertained on the basis of prices current at the date of the claim.
- (5) If—
 - (a) after giving notice under section 24E(2) that amends a felling licence, the Natural Resources Body for Wales notifies the person specified in subsection (6) that it is prepared to further amend the licence under section 10(3A) so that it has the same effect as it had immediately before the licence was amended by the notice given under section 24E(2), or
 - (b) after giving notice under section 24E(2) that revokes a felling licence, the Natural Resources Body for Wales notifies the person mentioned in subsection (7) that it is prepared to grant a new licence that has the same effect as the licence that was revoked, then in calculating the compensation that is payable under section 26F(2), no account is to be taken of deterioration occurring after the Natural Resources Body for Wales has notified the relevant person in accordance with this subsection.

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (5)(a), the relevant person is—
- (a) the applicant for the licence, if the applicant has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in section 10(1), or
 - (b) if the applicant no longer has such estate or interest, a person who has such estate or interest.
- (7) For the purposes of subsection (5)(b), the relevant person is the person who has such estate or interest in the land as is referred to in section 10(1).
- (8) Any question of disputed compensation arising from a claim made under section 26D, 26E or 26F is to be determined in accordance with section 31.]

33 Application of Part II to Crown land.

- (1) In this section “Crown land” means land an interest in which belongs to Her Majesty in right of the Crown or of the Duchy of Lancaster, or to the Duchy of Cornwall, and land an interest in which belongs to a government department or is held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of a government department.
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the provisions of this Part of this Act shall apply in relation to Crown land and trees growing thereon to the extent only of any estate or interest therein which is for the time being held otherwise than on behalf of the Crown.
- (3) Except with the consent of the appropriate authority as defined in this section,—
 - (a) no conditions relating to the restocking or stocking of Crown land shall be imposed on the grant of a felling licence;
 - (b) no felling directions shall be given in respect of trees growing on Crown land.
- (4) The Minister ^{F263}... shall not be authorised to acquire the interest of any person in Crown land by virtue of a notice under section 21 unless an offer has previously been made by that person to dispose of that interest to the appropriate authority on terms that the price payable therefor shall be equal to (and shall be determined in default of agreement in like manner as) the compensation which would be payable in respect of that interest if it were acquired in pursuance of such a notice, and that offer has been refused by that authority.
- (5) In this section “the appropriate authority” in relation to any land means—
 - (a) in the case of land belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Crown, the Crown Estate Commissioners or other government department having the management of the land in question ^{F264}... ;
 - (b) in the case of land belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Duchy of Lancaster, the Chancellor of the Duchy;
 - (c) in the case of land belonging to the Duchy of Cornwall, such person as the Duke of Cornwall, or the possessor for the time being of the Duchy of Cornwall, appoints; and
 - (d) in the case of land belonging to a government department or held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of a government department, that department;

34 Meaning of “owner” in Part II.

- (1) In this Part of this Act the expression “owner” has the meaning ascribed to it by this section.
- (2) In relation to land in England or Wales, “owner” means the person in whom for the time being is vested the legal estate in fee simple, except that where in relation to all or any of the provisions of this Part of this Act,—
 - (a) all persons appearing to the Minister to be concerned agree, with the approval of the Minister, that some person shall be treated as the owner of land other than the person who would be so treated apart from the agreement; or
 - (b) on an application in that behalf to the [^{F265}appropriate tribunal] determine, having regard to the respective interests of the persons interested in the land, that some person shall be treated as the owner of the land other than the person who would be so treated apart from the determination,that person shall be so treated, but without prejudice to a subsequent agreement or determination, or to his ceasing to be so treated, if the Minister withdraws his approval under paragraph (a) of this subsection.

- [^{F266}(2A) For the purposes of subsection (2), “appropriate tribunal” means—
 - (a) where the land (or the greater part of the land) is in England, the First-tier Tribunal; and
 - (b) where the land (or the greater part of the land) is in Wales, the Agricultural Land Tribunal established under Part V of the Agriculture Act 1947.]

^{F267}(3)

- (4) In relation to trees, “owner” means the owner of the land on which the trees are growing and, in the case of trees which have been felled, means the person who was the owner immediately before the felling.

41 Forestry Fund.

[^{F322}(1) The Forestry Fund constituted under section 8 of the Forestry Act 1919 shall be wound up and any balance in the Forestry Fund shall be paid to the Forestry Commissioners.

[This subsection applies to the following expenses–

- ^{F323}(2) (a) the salaries of the Forestry Commissioners and the salaries or remuneration of the officers and servants of the Commissioners;
- (b) all expenses incurred by the Commissioners (including the cost of any grant or loan made by them) in the exercise of their functions under or by virtue of–
- (i) this Act (including the payment of allowances to the members of any committee maintained by them under this Act), or
 - (ii) any other enactment;
- (c) any superannuation benefits paid under paragraph 9 of Schedule 1 to this Act or under a scheme made by virtue of paragraph 10 of that Schedule;
- (d) any administrative expenses of the [^{F324}Secretary of State] under Part II of this Act (including sums required for the payment of remuneration to the members of any committee appointed by him under section 27);
- (e) all capital payments made by the [^{F324}Secretary of State] in acquiring land under section 39 above and any expenses incurred by him in managing such land and any rent or other outgoings payable in respect of such land, but this subsection does not apply to any expenses to which subsection (4) below applies.

(3) The expenses to which subsection (2) above applies shall be payable out of money provided by Parliament, except in so far as they are met out of money held by the Commissioners in accordance with subsection (6) or (7) below.

(3A) Where, by virtue of subsection (3) above, any expenses incurred by the [^{F324}Secretary of State] falling within subsection (2) above are to be met out of money held by the Commissioners, they shall make payments to him for that purpose.]

^{F325}(4)

^{F326}(4A)]

(5) The Commissioners may accept any gift made to them for all or any purposes of this Act and, subject to the terms thereof, may apply it for those purposes in accordance with regulations made by them.

^{F327}(6)

^{F328}(7)

[^{F329}(6) Subject to [^{F330}subsection (8)] below, all sums received by the Commissioners in respect of–

- (a) the sale of timber or any other transactions carried out by them in the exercise of their functions under this Act, or
- (b) any other exercise of their functions under or by virtue of this Act or any other enactment, shall be held by the Commissioners for the purpose of meeting the expenses to which subsection (2) above applies.

PART IV

GENERAL

46 [^{F343}Appropriate legislative authority's] power to make byelaws.

(1) Subject to the provisions of this and the next following sections, the [^{F344}appropriate legislative authority] may make byelaws with respect to any land which is under [^{F345}the] management or control [^{F346}of the appropriate forestry authority] and to which the public have, or may be permitted to have, access.

(2) The [^{F347}appropriate legislative authority's] byelaws may be such as appear to them to be necessary—

- (a) for the preservation of any trees or timber on the land, or of any property of the [^{F348}appropriate forestry authority]; and
- (b) for prohibiting or regulating any act or thing tending to injury or disfigurement of the land or its amenities; and
- (c) without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, for regulating the reasonable use of the land by the public for the purposes of exercise and recreation.

(3) Byelaws under this section—

- (a) shall not take away or injuriously affect any estate, interest, right of common or other right of a profitable or beneficial nature in, over or affecting any land, except with the consent of the person entitled thereto;
- (b) shall not apply to a common which is subject to a scheme or regulation made in pursuance of the Metropolitan Commons Acts 1866 to 1898, or the Inclosure Acts 1845 to 1882, or the ^{M14}Commons Act 1899.

Changes to legislation: Forestry Act 1967 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 12 June 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details) View outstanding changes

- (4) Byelaws under this section shall be made by statutory instrument and a draft of a statutory instrument containing any such byelaws [^{F349}with respect to land in England ^{F350}...] shall be laid before Parliament.

^{F351}(4A)

^{F351}(4B)

[^{F352}(4C) A draft of any statutory instrument containing byelaws under this section with respect to land in Wales must be laid before the National Assembly for Wales.]

- (5) If anyone fails to comply with, or acts in contravention of, any byelaw made under this section he shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on summary conviction as follows:—

- (a) in the case of an offence against byelaws made by the Commissioners with respect to the New Forest, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding [^{F353}level 2 on the standard scale],
- (b) in a case not falling within the foregoing paragraph, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding [^{F353}level 2 on the standard scale]; and
- (c) in [^{F354}the case of a continuing offence falling within either of the foregoing paragraphs] he shall be liable to a further fine not exceeding [^{F355}50p] for each day upon which the offence continues.

47 Provisions supplementary to s. 46 for New Forest and Forest of Dean.

- (1) Byelaws made by the Commissioners under section 46 with respect to the New Forest or the Forest of Dean shall be without prejudice to any byelaws made under any other Act by the verderers of either Forest, but before making any such byelaws the Commissioners shall consult with the verderers of the Forest concerned.
- ^{x2}(2) Section 1(3) of the ^{M15}New Forest Act 1964 (which applies byelaws made by the Commissioners to certain land added under that Act to the Forest) shall have effect with the substitution for the reference to section 2 of the ^{M16}Forestry Act 1927 of a reference to section 46 of this Act.
- (3) The verderers of either of the said Forests may in their courts inquire into any offence consisting in a failure to comply with, or a contravention of, byelaws made by the Commissioners under section 46, being an offence alleged to have been committed within the Forest, and may punish any such offence so committed.
- (4) As respects their jurisdiction under this section, the verderers' courts shall be deemed to be magistrates' courts, and the provisions of the ^{M17}^{M18}Magistrates' Courts Act 1952 and 1957, including provisions as to the recovery of fines and as to appeals, and the provisions of any rules made under those Acts, shall apply accordingly.
- (5) The powers conferred by this section on the verderers of the New Forest and the Forest of Dean shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other powers exercisable by them, and shall be without prejudice to the power of any other court in relation to offences under section 46.

SCHEDULE 5

COMPULSORY PURCHASE

PART I

PROCEDURE FOR MAKING COMPULSORY PURCHASE ORDERS

- 1 A compulsory purchase order shall describe by reference to a map the land to which it applies.
- 2 (1) Before making a compulsory purchase order, the Minister ^{F399}... shall—
- (a) publish in one or more newspapers circulating in the locality in which the land to which the order relates is situated a notice stating that a compulsory purchase order is proposed to be made; and
 - (b) serve a copy of the notice in such manner as he thinks fit on [^{F400}every person who is an owner, lessee, tenant (whatever the tenancy period) or occupier] of any land to which the order relates.
- ^{F401}(1A)
- ^{F401}(1B)
- ^{F401}(1C)
- (2) Section 30 of this Act applies to the service of a notice under sub-paragraph (1)(b) above as it applies to the service of documents under Part II of this Act.
- (3) A notice under sub-paragraph (1) above shall—
- (a) describe the land,
 - (b) name the place where a copy of a draft of the compulsory purchase order and of the map referred to therein may be seen at all reasonable hours, and
 - (c) specify the time (not less than twenty-eight days from the date of the publication of the notice) within which, and the manner in which, objections to the order may be made.

PART II

VALIDITY AND OPERATION OF COMPULSORY PURCHASE ORDERS

- 7 (1) So soon as may be after a compulsory purchase order has been made by the Minister, he shall—
- (a) publish in one or more newspapers circulating in the locality in which the land to which the order relates is situated a notice stating that the order has been made and naming a place where a copy of the order and of the map referred to therein may be seen at all reasonable hours; and
 - (b) serve a like notice on every person who made an objection to the order.
- (2) Section 30 of this Act applies to the service of a notice under sub-paragraph (1)(b) above as it applies to the service of documents under Part II of this Act.
- [^{F410}(2A) Sub-paragraphs (2B) to (2H) apply where a compulsory purchase order authorises the compulsory purchase of land in England or Wales.
- (2B) The appropriate national authority must serve the notice mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) on any person who, if Schedule 1 to the Acquisition of Land Act 1981 applied to the acquisition, would be entitled to a notice under paragraph 3 of that Schedule (notice to owners, lessees and occupiers).
- (2C) The notice must—
- (a) contain a statement about the effect of Parts 2 and 3 of the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1981, and
 - (b) invite any person who would be entitled to claim compensation if a declaration were executed under section 4 of the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1981 to give the appropriate national authority information about the person's name, address and interest in land, using a form set out in the notice.
- (2D) The statement referred to in sub-paragraph (2C)(a) must be the same as the relevant statement prescribed under paragraph 6(4)(e) of Schedule 1 to the Acquisition of Land Act 1981, subject to any necessary modifications.
- (2E) The form mentioned in sub-paragraph (2C)(b) must be the same as the relevant form prescribed under paragraph 6(4)(f) of Schedule 1 to the Acquisition of Land Act 1981, subject to any necessary modifications.
- (2F) The appropriate national authority must send a copy of the notice to the Chief Land Registrar and it shall be a local land charge in respect of the land in England or Wales to which it relates.
- (2G) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (2D) and (2E), a statement or a form is “relevant” if it was prescribed by the appropriate national authority which has to serve it.
- (2H) In this paragraph, the “appropriate national authority” means—
- (a) in relation to the compulsory purchase of land in England, the Secretary of State, and
 - (b) in relation to the compulsory purchase of land in Wales, the Welsh Ministers.]
- (3) Where the order is subject to special parliamentary procedure, the notice to be published and served by the Minister under sub-paragraph (1) above shall contain

Section 50.

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

- 1 (1) In so far as any appointment, order, regulation, byelaw, application, claim for compensation or reference made, or notice or directions given, or other thing done under an enactment repealed by this Act could have been made, given or done under a corresponding provision of this Act, it shall not be invalidated by the repeal but shall have effect as if made, given or done under that corresponding provisions.
 - (2) Anything begun under an enactment repealed by this Act may be continued under this Act as if begun thereunder.
 - (3) Any reference in this Act to things done, suffered or occurring in the past shall, so far as the context requires for the purpose of continuity of operation between an enactment repealed by this Act and the corresponding enactment in this Act, be construed as including a reference to things done, suffered or occurring before the commencement of this Act.
 - (4) So much of any document as refers expressly or by implication to any enactment repealed by this Act shall, if and so far as the context permits, be construed as referring to this Act or the corresponding enactment therein.
 - (5) The generality of sub-paragraphs (1) to (4) above shall not be prejudiced by anything in the subsequent provisions of this Schedule.
- 2 For the purposes of section 16(4) of this Act, any such anniversary of an application as is there referred to shall, in the case of an application made before the commencement of this Act and having effect as if made under this Act, be taken as falling on the date on which it would have fallen if this Act had not been passed.
 - 3 A notice given by the Commissioners under section 11(1) of the ^{M40}Forestry Act 1951 and having effect as if given under section 24 of this Act shall, in a case where the notice was by virtue of section 11(4) of that Act inoperative immediately before the commencement of this Act, remain inoperative under section 25(2) of this Act
