SCHEDULES

IN EXERCISE of the powers contained in section 22 of the Animal Identification Act, 2010, the following Regulations are made:

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Animal Identification (General) Regulations, 2020. Title
2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires— Interpretation
 - “certificate” means a certificate of registration of the identification mark issued under these Regulations; Cap. 1
 - “eartag” means an approved tag bearing a mark placed on the ear of an animal;
 - “batch number” means a farm registration number used as an identification mark for a group of animals that cannot be physically identified individually;
 - “brand mark” means the impression of a letter, sign or character branded on a cattle, or donkey or any other animal;
 - “holder of a certificate” means a person to whom a certificate has been issued under these Regulations;
 - “local authority” has the meaning assigned to the words in the Constitution;
 - “owner” means an individual or establishment to which an animal legally belongs;
 - “unique number” means a number that accompanies the herd brand mark for the purpose of achieving individual animal identification;
 - “special animal identification mark” means an identification mark customised by an owner and approved by Registrar; and
 - “tattoo” means a mark or figure fixed on the body part of an animal by insertion of pigment under the skin resulting in a permanent mark on an animal for the purpose of identifying an animal.
3. (1) An owner shall apply to the Registrar for the registration of an animal identification mark in Form I set out in the First Schedule on payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule. Application for animal identification mark
 - (2) An application under subregulation (1) shall be accompanied by—
 - (a) a clearance from Zambia Police Service and local authority or traditional authority in the area in which the animal is kept; and

	(b) details of the animal in Form II set out in the First Schedule.
	(3) An application under subregulation (1) shall be submitted at the veterinary office in the district where an animal is kept.
Recommendation by veterinary officer	4. A veterinary officer in the district where an application is submitted shall, where the applicant meets the requirements under these Regulations, recommend to the Registrar the approval or rejection of an application.
Request for additional information	5. The Registrar may request an applicant, in writing, to submit additional information relating to an application under regulation 3.
Rejection of application	6. (1) The Registrar shall reject an application if the applicant (a) fails to meet the requirements under these Regulations, the Act or any other written law; or (b) submits false information. (2) The Registrar shall, where the Registrar rejects an application under subregulation (1), inform the applicant, in writing, of the decision stating the reason thereof.
Issue of certificate	7. (1) The Registrar shall, where the application meets the requirements under these Regulations— (a) allocate an identification mark to the applicant; and (b) issue the applicant with a certificate in Form III set out in the First Schedule. (2) A certificate issued under subregulation (1) is valid for five years.
Amendment of certificate	8. (1) A holder of a certificate shall apply to the Registrar to amend the certificate in Form IV set out in the First Schedule on payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule. (2) The Registrar shall, where an application under subregulation (1) is approved, issue an amended certificate to the applicant for the remainder of the validity period of the original certificate.
Application for duplicate certificate	9. A holder of a certificate shall, where a certificate is lost, damaged or defaced, apply to the Registrar for a duplicate certificate in Form V set out in the First Schedule on payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule.
Suspension of certificate	10. (1) The Registrar shall suspend a certificate of registration if the holder of a certificate— (a) contravenes the Act, these Regulations or any other relevant written law; or

(b) obtained the certificate by fraud or submitted false information.

(2) The Registrar shall, before suspending the certificate in accordance with subregulation (1), notify the holder of a certificate of the Registrar's intention to suspend the certificate in Form VI set out in the First Schedule and shall—

(a) give reasons for the intended suspension; and

(b) require the holder of a certificate to show cause, within a period of not more than thirty days, why the certificate should not be suspended.

(3) The Registrar shall not suspend the certificate under this regulation if the holder of the certificate takes remedial measures to the satisfaction of the Registrar within the period specified under subregulation (2).

(4) The Registrar shall, in making a final determination on the suspension of a certificate, consider the submissions made by the holder of a certificate under subregulation (2).

(5) The Registrar shall suspend the certificate in Form VII set out in the First Schedule if the holder of the certificate fails to show cause why the certificate should not be suspended or does not take remedial measures, to the satisfaction of the Registrar, within the period specified in the notice under subregulation (2).

(6) Where a certificate is suspended under subregulation (5), an animal identification mark applied on an animal before the suspension of the certificate shall remain valid.

11. (1) The Registrar shall revoke the certificate if the holder of the certificate—

Revocation of certificate

(a) contravenes the Act, these Regulations or any other relevant written law;

(b) fails to take corrective measures following the suspension of the certificate within the specified period;

(c) obtained the certificate by fraud or submitted false information; or

(d) voluntarily surrenders the certificate to the Registrar.

(2) The Registrar shall, before revoking a certificate in accordance with subregulation (1) (a), (b) and (c), notify the holder of a certificate of its intention to revoke the certificate in Form VI set out in the First Schedule and shall—

(a) give reasons for the intended revocation; and

(b) require the holder of a certificate to show cause, within a period of not more than thirty days, why the certificate should not be revoked.

(3) The Registrar shall not revoke a certificate under this regulation if the holder of the certificate takes remedial measures to the satisfaction of the Registrar within the period under subregulation (2).

(4) The Registrar shall, in making a final determination on the revocation of a certificate, consider the submissions made by the holder of a certificate under subregulation (2).

(5) The Registrar shall revoke the certificate in Form VII set out in the First Schedule if the holder of the certificate fails to show cause or does not take remedial measures, to the satisfaction of the Registrar, within the time specified in the notice under subregulation (2).

(6) A holder of a certificate shall, where the certificate is revoked, immediately cease to use the animal identification mark and surrender the certificate and the identification mark to the Registrar.

(7) Where a certificate is revoked under subregulation (5), an animal identification mark applied on an animal before the revocation of the certificate shall remain valid.

Renewal of certificate

12. (1) A holder of a certificate shall apply to the Registrar, at least ninety days before the expiry date of the certificate, for renewal of a certificate in Form I set out in the First Schedule on payment of the fee set out in the Second Schedule.

(2) The Registrar shall renew a certificate if the holder of the certificate has complied with the terms and conditions of the certificate.

(3) The Registrar shall, where the Registrar refuses to renew a certificate, notify the applicant in writing.
