(13) If the number of validly nominated candidates for any office exceeds the number of candidates to be elected for that office, the Returning Officer shall proceed to take a poll by secret ballot as hereinafter provided.

(14) The votes shall be taken by secret ballot and the directors voting for and against any candidate shall record their votes in the ballot papers supplied to them.

(15) Any director present at the meeting may refrain from voting if he so chooses to do.

(16) After the voting by all the directors present and wishing to vote is over, the Returning Officer shall count the votes and declare the candidates who have secured the highest number of valid votes to have been duly elected.

(17) When an equality of valid votes is found to exist between any two or more candidates and the addition of one vote will entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, the Returning Officer shall forthwith decide between those candidates by lot in such manner as he may determine and proceed as if the candidate on whom the lot falls has received an additional vote. He shall thereafter declare the candidate on whom the lot falls to have been duly elected.

(18) The Returning Officer shall cause a record of the minutes of the meeting which shall contain the names of all the members present. The minutes shall be signed by the Returning Officer, the chief executive as also the directors present and wishing to sign. The minutes shall be made available to any member for inspection

(19) The Returning Officer shall immediately thereafter record the proceedings of the election in a comprehensive report which shall form part of the records of the election and shall be binding on all. The Returning Officer shall also furnish a copy of such a report together with a copy of the return of the results of the polling to the chief executive of the society and send a report to the District Election Officer and CEC.

(20) After declaration of the result of election, the Returning Officer shall hand over the ballot papers and records relating to the election of the office-bearers to the chief executive of the society in a sealed cover. These shall safely be preserved by the chief executive of the society for a period of six months from the date of election or till such time a dispute or an appeal regarding the election, if any, filed is disposed of whichever is later and shall thereafter be destroyed.

Rule14AH; Elections to the first board after registration.– The provisions of Rules 13 B to 13 G and 14 to 14 AG shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the election of the first board after registration of a society.

in a Co-operative Bank or with such other Bank as may be approved by the Registrar and shall stand in his name;

- (h) The Registrar shall fix the amount of remuneration, if any, to be paid to the Liquidator. The remuneration shall be included in the cost of liquidation, which shall be payable out of the assets of the society in priority of all other claims;
- (i) [The Liquidator may call for meetings of the members of the society, under liquidation:

²[Provided that if for any reason it is impracticable for the Liquidator to convene the general meeting of the members of the dissolved society for the purpose of finalization of the Liquidation proceedings, he shall make a detailed report to the Registrar with reasons therefore and shall, after obtaining the permission of the Registrar to dispense with the calling of such general meeting, submit his final report to Registrar.]

- (j) The Liquidator shall submit to the Registrar a quarterly report in such form as the Registrar may specify showing the progress made in the Liquidation of the society;
- (k) The Liquidator shall keep such books and accounts as may from time to time be prescribed by the Registrar who may at any time cause such books and accounts to be audited;

- (l) At the conclusion of the liquidation, the Liquidator shall call for a general meeting of the members of the dissolved society at which the Liquidator or any other person authorized by him by special or general order in writing in this behalf, shall summarize the result of his proceedings and shall take a vote as to the disposal of any surplus funds in the manner prescribed in sub-rule (2) of Rule 24. The Liquidator shall submit his final report to the Registrar with a copy of the proceedings of the general meeting referred to above and make over to the Registrar all books and registers and accounts, et., belonging to the society and all books and accounts relating to the liquidation proceedings kept by him;
- (m) If any liability cannot be discharged by the Liquidator owing to the whereabouts of the claimants not being known or for any other cause, the amount covered by such undischarged liability may be deposited in a Co-operative Bank and shall be available for meeting the claims of the person or persons concerned; Substituted for the words "The Liquidator shall" by GSR 85, dated 28-3-1987.

1. Proviso inserted by GSR 85, dated 28-3-1987.

- (n) A Liquidator may, at any time, be removed by the Registrar and he shall on such removal be bound to hand over all the property and documents relating to the society under liquidation to such persons as the Registrar may direct;
- (o) All the books and records of a society whose registration has been cancelled and the proceedings of liquidation of a society ordered to be wound up may be destroyed by the Registrar after the expiry of three years from the completion of the liquidation.

Chapter IX

Execution of Awards, Decrees, Orders and Decisions

¹[33-A. Approved Societies.- All societies which are registered or deemed to be registered under the Karnataka Co-operative Societies Act, 1959, and affiliated to any District Central Co-operative Bank within the State of Karnataka, are declared as approved Societies for the purposes of Section 100 of the Act.

33-B. Manner of enquiry to be made by the Registrar before granting certificates to approved Societies for the recovery of the amount of arrears.- (1) An approved society shall send intimation to the borrower fifteen days prior to the due date for the repayment of the loan in Form III requiring the borrower to repay the loan on or before the due date and notifying the debtor that on failure to pay the dues in time, action will be taken against him under Section 100 of the Act.

(2) In case the society has not sent an intimation, the society shall, before submitting an application to the Registrar for obtaining a certificate under Section 100, send a notice in Form IV, informing the borrower that the failure on his part to repay the dues in time has made him liable for action being taken against him under Section 100 of the Act.

(3) If the debt is not discharged on the due date, the society shall submit to the Registrar an application in Form V for the grant of a certificate under Section 100 for the recovery of the debt due to it by the debtor as an arrear of land revenue, within one month from the date when the debt was due.

(4) The application for grant of a certificate under Section 100 shall be accompanied by a copy of the ledger account certified as true by the Secretary and either the Chairman or anyone of the members of the Managing Committee of the Society, and a copy of the intimation or the notice sent to the borrower to pay the dues in time.

1. Rules 33-A and 33-B inserted by Notification No. DRL 1 CCS 63, dated 23-12-1963.
 2. Substituted for the word "committee" by Notification No. CO 14 CLM 2013, dated 10-7-2013, w.e.f.10-7-2013.

(5) On receipt of an application from a society and before the grant of the certificate the Registrar may request the Deputy Commissioner to take action in accordance with sub-section (3) of Section 100.

(6) On receipt of an application from a society referred to in sub-rule (3) and further supported by an affidavit regarding the demand and its urgency, the Registrar shall decide such application within fifteen days from the date of receipt of the application by him, after causing such inquiry as to the correctness and truthfulness of the demand, as he may think fit.

(7) The Registrar may, if deemed necessary, cause a notice in Form VI to be issued to the borrower and to the sureties, if any, within ten days from the date of the receipt of the application asking him to show cause why a certificate under Section 100 for the recovery of the dues as an arrear of land revenue should not be granted to the society.

(8) In the event of the borrower making a representation and disputing the demand of the society within a period of eight days from the date of receipt of a notice given to him by the Registrar, the Registrar shall take such evidence as he may think necessary from the records of the society to satisfy about the correctness of the transaction. In the absence of such representation from the borrower, the Registrar shall proceed forthwith to decide the application of the society after causing such enquiry to be made as he may think fit.

(9) The Registrar shall decide the application for grant of certificates under Section 100 received from societies as expeditiously as possible and, in any case, not later than two months from the date of the receipt of the application by him.

(10)The Registrar shall maintain a Register of applications from societies for grant of certificates in Form VII and of the certificates granted by him to applicant by him to applicant societies.]

34. Application for execution to the Recovery Officer.- (1) Every decree-holder requiring execution of a decree under the provisions of clause (c) of Section 101, shall apply to the Recovery Officer within whose jurisdiction the judgment-debtor resides or has property and shall deposit the probable cost of execution as may be fixed by such officer.

(2) Every such application shall be made in the form specified by the Registrar and shall be signed by the decree-holder. The decree-holder may indicate whether he wishes to proceed against the immoveable property mortgaged to the decree-holder or other immoveable property or to secure the attachment of moveable property. Where he wishes to proceed against immoveable property, he shall give in the applications such description of the property as is sufficient for its identification. In case such property can be identified by boundaries or numbers in a record of rights, settlement or survey, the specification of such boundaries or numbers and the specification of the judgment-debtor's share or interest in such property to the best of the belief of the decree-holder and so far as he has been able to ascertain, shall be given in the application.

(3) On receipt of such application, the Recovery Officer shall verify the correctness and genuineness of the particulars set forth in the application with the records, if any, in the office of the Registrar and prepare a demand notice, in writing in duplicate in the form specified by the Registrar, setting forth the name of the judgment-debtor and the amount due and forward it to the Sales Officer. In case the execution is against immoveable property, the amount shall include the expenses, if any, and the batta to be paid to the person who shall serve the demand notice, the time allowed for payment; and in case of non-payment, the particulars of the immoveable properties, if any, to be attached and sold or to be sold without attachment as the case may be:

Provided that where the Recovery Officer is satisfied that a judgment-debtor with intent to defeat or delay the execution proceedings against him is about to dispose of the whole or any portion of his property, the demand notice issued shall not allow any time to the judgment-debtor for payment of the amount due by him and the property of the defaulter shall be attached forthwith.

35. Procedure in execution.- Unless the decree-holder has expressed a desire that proceedings should be taken in a particular order as laid down in sub-rule (2) of Rule 34 execution shall ordinarily be taken in the following manner,-

- (i) moveable property of the judgment-debtor shall be first proceeded against; but this shall not preclude the immovable property being proceeded against simultaneously in case of necessity;
- (ii) if there is no moveable property, or if the sale proceeds of the moveable property or properties attached and sold are insufficient to meet in full the demand of the decree-holder the immovable property mortgaged to the decree-holder, or other immovable property belonging to the judgment-debtor may be proceeded against.

36. Attachment and sale of specific moveable property including crops on land.-In the attachment and sale of moveable property the following rules shall be observed.-

- (a) The Sale Officer shall after giving previous notice to the decree-holder, proceed to the village where the judgment-debtor resides, or has property to be attached and serve the demand notice issued under sub-rule (3) of Rule 34 upon the judgment-debtor, if he is present. If the amount due together with the expenses be not at once paid, the Sale Officer shall make the attachment by seizure or otherwise and shall immediately deliver to the judgment-debtor a list or inventory of the property attached and an intimation of the place, date and hour at which the attached property will be brought to sale, if the amounts due are not paid before such date. If the judgment-debtor is absent, the Sale Officer shall serve the demand notice aforesaid on some adult male member of his family, or on the authorized agent of the judgment-debtor or when such service cannot be affected, shall affix a copy of such demand notice on some conspicuous part of the judgment-debtor's residence. He shall then proceed to make the attachment and shall fix the list or inventory of the property attached on the usual place of residence of the judgment-debtor, endorsing thereon the place where the property may be lodged or kept and an intimation of the place, date and hour of sale;

- (b) After the attachment is made, the Sale Officer may arrange for the custody of the property attached, with the decree-holder or otherwise. If the Sale Officer requires the decree-holder to undertake the custody of the property he shall be bound to do so and any loss incurred due to his negligence shall be made good by the decree-holder. If the attached property is live-stock, the decree-holder shall be responsible for providing the necessary food therefore. The Sale Officer may, at the instance of the judgment-debtor or of any person claiming an interest in such property, leave it in the village or place where it was attached, in the charge of such judgment-debtor or person, if he enters into a bond in the form specified by the Registrar with one or more sufficient sureties for the production of the property when called for;

- (c) No attachment under clauses (a) or (b) shall be made after sunset and before sunrise;
- (d) The attachment made shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property attached shall be in value as nearly as possible proportionate to the sum due by the Judgment-debtor, together with interest and all expenses incidental to the attachment and sale;
- (e) If crops or ungathered products of the land belonging to judgment-debtor are attached, the Sale Officer may cause them to be sold when fit for reaping or gathering of at his option may cause them to be reaped or gathered in due season and stored in proper place until sold. In the latter case, the expense of reaping or gathering and storing such crops or products shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property or from the proceeds of the sale in the event of its being sold;
- (f) The Sale Officer shall not work the bullocks or cattle, or make use of the goods or moveables attached and he shall provide the necessary food for the cattle or livestock, the expense attending which shall be defrayed by the owner upon his redeeming the property or from the proceeds of the sale in the event of its being sold;
- (g) It shall be lawful for the Sale Officer to force open any stable, cow-house, granary, godown, out-house or other building and he may also enter any dwelling house, the outer door of which may be open and may break open the door of any room in such dwelling house for the purpose of attaching property belonging to a Judgment-debtor and lodged therein, provided always that It shall not be lawful for the officer to break open or enter apartment in such dwelling house appropriated for the zenana or residence of women except as hereinafter provided;
- (h) When the Sale Officer may have reason to suppose that the property of a judgment-debtor is lodged within a dwelling house, the outer door of which may be shut or within any apartments appropriated to women, which by custom or usage are considered private, the Sale Officer shall represent the fact to the Officer in charge of the nearest police station. On such representation the officer-in-charge of the said station shall send a Police Officer to the spot in the presence of whom the Sale Officer may force open the outer door of such dwelling house, in like manner as he may break open the door of any room within the house, except the zenana. The Sale Officer may also, in the presence of a Police Officer, after due notice given for the removal of women within a zenana and after furnishing means for their removal in a suitable manner, if they be women of rank who, according to the custom or usage cannot appear in public, enter the zenana apartments for the purpose of attaching the judgment-debtor's property, if any deposited therein, but such property, if found, shall be immediately removed from such apartments after which they shall be left free for occupation as before;

- (i) The Sale Officer shall on the day previous to and on the day of sale, cause proclamation of the time and place of the intended sale to be made by beat of drum in the village in which the judgment-debtor resides and in such other place or places as the Recovery Officer may consider necessary to give due publicity to the sale. No sale shall take place until after the expiration of the period of 15 days from the date on which the sale notice has been served or affixed in the manner prescribed in clause (a):

Provided that where the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or where the expense of keeping it in custody is likely to exceed its value, the Sale Officer may sell it at any time before the expiry of the said period of 15 days unless the amount is sooner paid;

- (j) At the appointed time, the property shall be put up in one or more lots, as the Sale Officer may consider advisable, and shall be disposed of to the highest bidder:

Provided that it shall be open to the Sale Officer to decline to accept the highest bid where the price offered appears to be unduly low or for other reasons. Where the property is sold for more than the amount due, the excess amount, after deducting the interest and the expenses of process and the other charges, shall be paid to the judgment-debtor:

Provided further, that the Recovery Officer or the Sale Officer may, in his discretion adjourn the sale to a specified day and hour recording his reasons for such adjournment. Where a sale is so adjourned for a longer period than 7 days, a fresh proclamation under clause (h) shall be made unless the judgment-debtor consents to waive it;

- (k) The property shall be paid for in cash at the time of sale or as soon thereafter as the officer holding the sale shall appoint, and the purchaser shall not be permitted to carry away any part of the property until he has paid for it in full. Where the purchaser fails to pay the purchase money, the property shall be resold;

- (l) Where any property which has been attached under these rules has been forcibly or clandestinely removed by any person, the Sale Officer may apply to Magistrate having jurisdiction for restoration of such property. Where the Magistrate is satisfied about the truth of the facts, as alleged in the application he may order forthwith such property to be restored to the Sale Officer;
- (m) Where prior to the sale, the judgment-debtor or any person acting on his behalf or any person claiming an interest in the property attached pays the full amount due including interest, batta and other costs incurred in attaching the property, the Sale Officer shall cancel the order of attachment and release the property forthwith;
- (n) The moveable properties mentioned as exempt from attachment in the proviso to Section 60 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), shall not be liable to attachment or sale under these rules.

37. Attachment of other moveable property.-(1) Where the moveable property to be attached is the salary or allowances or wages of an officer or servant of Government or Railway Company or local authority, the Recovery Officer may, on receiving a report from the Sale Officer, order that the amount shall, subject to the provisions of Section 60 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), be withheld from such salary or allowances or wages, either in one payment or by monthly installments as the said Recovery Officer may direct and upon notice of the order, the Officer or other person whose duty it is to disburse such salary or allowances or wages shall withhold and remit to the Sale Officer the amount due under the order or the monthly installment, as the case may be.

(2) Where the property to be attached consists of the share or interest of the judgment-debtor in moveable property belonging to him and another as co-owners, the attachment shall be made by a notice to the judgment-debtor, prohibiting him from transferring the share or interest or charging it in any way.

(3) Where the property to be attached is a negotiable instrument not deposited in a Court, nor in the custody of a public officer, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure and the instrument shall be brought to the office of the Recovery Officer ordering the attachment and be held subject to his further orders.

(4) Where the property to be attached is in the custody of any Court or public officer, the attachment shall be made by a notice to such Court or officer requesting that such property and any interest or dividend becoming payable thereon may be held subject to the further orders of the Recovery Officer issuing the notice:

Provided that where such property is in the custody of a Court or Recovery Officer of another district, any question of title or priority arising between the decree-holder and any other person not being the judgment-debtor, claiming to be interested in such property by virtue of any assignment, attachment or otherwise shall be determined by such Court or Recovery Officer, as the case may be.

(5)(a) Where the property to be attached is a decree either for the payment of money or for sale in enforcement of a mortgage or charge, the attachment shall be made, if the decree sought to be attached was passed by the Registrar or by any person to whom a dispute was transferred by the Registrar under Section 71 of the Act or by an Arbitrator, then by the order of the Registrar;

(b) Where the Registrar makes an order under clause (a) he shall, on the application of the decree-holder, who has attached the decree, proceed to execute the attached decree and apply the net proceeds in satisfaction of the decree sought to be executed;

(c) The holder of a decree sought to be executed by the attachment of another decree of the nature specified in clause (a), shall be deemed to be the representative of the holder of the attached decree and to be entitled to execute such attached decree in any manner, for the holder thereof;

(d) Where the property to be attached in execution of a decree is a decree other than a decree of the nature referred to in clause (a), the attachment shall be made by the issue of a notice by the Recovery Officer to the holder of such decree, prohibiting him from transferring or charging the same in anyway;

(e) The holder of a decree attached under this sub-rule, shall give the Recovery Officer executing the decree such information and aid as may reasonably be required; (f) On the application of the holder of a decree sought to be executed by the attachment of another decree, the Recovery Officer making an order of attachment under this sub-rule shall give notice of such order to the judgment-debtor bound by the decree-attached; and no payment or adjustment of the attached decree made by the judgment-debtor in contravention of such order after receipt of notice thereof, either through the said Recovery Officer or otherwise, shall be recognized so long as the attachment remains in force.

(6) Where the moveable property to be attached is,-

(a) a debt due to the judgment-debtor in question;

(b) a share in the capital of a corporation or a deposit invested therein; or

(c) other moveable property not in the possession of the defaulter, except property deposited in or in the custody of any Civil Court, the attachment shall be made by a written order signed by the Recovery Officer prohibiting,-

(i) in the case of a debt, the creditor from recovering the debt and the debtor from making payment thereof;

(ii) in the case of a share or deposit, the person in whose name the share or the deposit may be standing, from transferring the share or deposit or receiving any dividend or interest thereon; and

(iii) in the case of any other moveable property except aforesaid, the person in possession of it from giving it over to the judgment-debtor. A copy of such order shall be sent in the case of the debt to the debtor, in the case of the share or deposit to the proper officer of the corporation and in the case of the other moveable property except property deposited in or in the custody of a Civil Court, to the person in possession of such property. As soon as the debt referred to in clause (a) or the deposit referred to in clause (b) mature, the Recovery Officer may direct the person concerned to pay the amount to him.

Where the share referred to in clause (b) is not withdrawable the said Recovery Officer shall arrange for its sale through a broker. Where the share is withdrawable, its value shall be paid to the said Recovery Officer or to the party referred to in clause (c) and the person concerned shall place it in the hands of the said Recovery Officer, as it becomes deliverable to the defaulter.

38. Attachment and sale of immoveable property.- (1) Immoveable property shall not be sold in execution of a decree unless such property has been previously attached:

Provided that where the decree has been obtained on the basis of a mortgage of such property it shall not be necessary to attach it.

(2) In the attachment and sale or sale without attachment of immoveable property, the following rules shall be observed,-

- (a) The Sale Officer shall serve or cause to be served a copy of the demand notice issued under sub-rule (3) of Rule 34 upon the judgment-debtor or, if he is not available, upon some adult male member of his family or upon his authorized agent, or, if such service is not possible, shall affix a copy thereof on some conspicuous part of the immoveable property about to be attached and sold or sold without attachment, as the case may be;
- (b) If the judgment-debtor fails to pay the amount specified in the demand notice within the time allowed, or, if no time is allowed, immediately, the Sale Officer shall proceed to attach and sell, or sell without attachment, as the case may be, the immoveable property specified in the demand notice;
- (c) Where attachment is required before sale, the sale officer shall cause a notice of attachment to be served on the judgment-debtor personally or on an adult male member of his family, or on his authorized agent. Where such service is not possible, the notice shall be affixed in some conspicuous part of the judgment-debtor's last known place of residence. The fact of attachment shall also be proclaimed by beat of drum or other customary mode at some place on or adjacent to the property attached, and at such other place or places as the Recovery Officer may consider necessary to give due publicity to the sale. The attachment notice shall set forth that, unless the amount due with interest and expenses be paid within the date therein mentioned, the property will be brought to sale. A copy of such notice shall be sent to the decree-holder. Where the Recovery Officer so directs the attachment shall also be notified in the Official Gazette;
- (d) Proclamation of sale shall be published by affixing a notice in the office of the Recovery Officer and in the Taluk Office at least thirty days before the date fixed for the sale. It shall also be published by beat of drum in the village on two consecutive days previous to the date of sale and on the day of sale prior to the commencement of the sale. Such proclamation shall, where attachment is required before sale, be made after the attachment has been effected. Notice shall also be given to the decree-holder and the judgment-debtor. The proclamation shall state the time and place of sale and specify as fairly and accurately as possible,-

- (i) the property to be sold;

- (ii) any encumbrance to which the property is liable;
 - (iii) the amount for the recovery of which sale is ordered; and
 - (iv) every other matter which the sale officer considers material for a purchaser to know in order to judge the nature and value of the property.
- (e) When any immovable property is sold under these rules, the sale shall be subject to the prior encumbrances on the property, if any. The decree-holder shall, when the amount for the realization of which the sale is held exceeds Rs. 100, furnish to the Sale Officer within such time as may be fixed by him or by the Recovery Officer, an encumbrance certificate from the Registration Department for the period of not less than twelve years prior to the date of attachment of the property sought to be sold, or in cases falling under the proviso to sub-rule (1) prior to the date of the application for execution. The time for the production of the encumbrance certificate may be extended at the discretion of the Sale Officer or the Recovery Officer as the case may be:

Provided that in case where an encumbrance certificate is not obtainable owing to the destruction of the connected records, an affidavit from the village patwari (shambhogue) in regard to the encumbrances known to him supported by a certificate from the Registration Department that the encumbrance certificate cannot be granted owing to the destruction of the connected records, shall be accepted in the place of an encumbrance certificate

- (f) The sale shall be by public auction to the highest bidder, provided that it shall be open to the Sale Officer to decline to accept the highest bid where the price offered appears to be unduly low or for other reasons and provided also that the Recovery Officer or the Sale Officer may, in his discretion, adjourn the sale to a specified day and hour, recording his reasons for such adjournment. Where a sale is so adjourned to a longer period than 7 days, a fresh proclamation under clause (d) shall be made, unless the judgment-debtor consents in writing to waive it;
- (g) The sale shall be after the expiry of not less than 30 days calculated from the date on which notice of the proclamation was affixed in the office of the Recovery Officer. The time and place of sale shall be fixed by the Recovery Officer and the place of sale shall be the village where the property to be sold is situated or such adjoining prominent place of public resort as may be fixed by the said Recovery Officer;

- (h) A sum of money equal to 15 per cent of the price for which the immoveable property is purchased in the auction shall be paid by purchaser to the Sale Officer at the time of purchase, and in default of such deposit, the property shall forthwith be resold:

Provided that, where the decree-holder is the purchaser and is entitled to set off the purchase money under clause (1) the Sale Officer shall dispense with the requirements of this rule:

[¹Provided further that where the Government is the purchaser the purchase money shall be remitted to the Decree-holder immediately after the expiry of ninety days from the date of the sale.]

1. Second proviso inserted by Notification No. GSR 329, dated 27-10-1977, w.e.f.3-11-1977.

- (i) The remainder of the purchase money and the amount required for the general stamp for the sale certificate shall be paid within 45 days from the date of sale:

²[x x x x.]

Provided further that in calculating the amounts to be paid under this clause, the purchaser shall have the advantage of any set off to which he may be entitled under clause (1);

- (j) In default of payment of the remainder of the purchase money, within the period mentioned in clause (i), the deposit, may, if the Recovery Officer thinks fit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, be forfeited to the Government and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claims to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold;
- (k) Every resale of immoveable property in default of payment of the amounts mentioned in clause (i) within the period allowed for such payment, shall be made after the issue of a fresh proclamation in the manner and for the period therein before prescribed for the sale.
- (l) Where a decree-holder purchases the property, the purchase money and the amount due on the decree shall be set off against one another, and the Sale Officer shall enter up satisfaction of the decree in whole or in part, accordingly.

(3) Where prior to the sale, the judgment-debtor, or any person acting on his behalf or any person claiming an interest in the property sought to be sold tenders payment of the full amount due together with interest, batta and other expenses incurred in bringing the property to sale, including the expenses of attachment, if any, the Sale Officer shall forthwith release the property after cancelling where the property has been attached, the order of attachment.

(4) (a) Where immovable property has been sold, any person either owning such property or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before such sale may apply to have the sale set aside on his depositing with the Recovery Officer,-

- (i) For payment to the purchaser a sum equal to 5 per cent of the purchase money; and
- (ii) for payment to the decree-holder the amount of arrears specified in the proclamation of sale as that for the recovery of which the sale was ordered together with interest thereon and the expenses of attachment, if any, and sale and other costs due in respect of such amount, less amount which may since the date of such proclamation have been received by the decree-holder.

(b) If such deposit and application are made within 30 days from the date of sale, the Recovery Officer shall pass an order setting aside the sale and shall repay to the purchaser the purchase money so far as it has been deposited together with the 5 per cent deposited by the applicant:

Provided that, if more persons than one have made deposit and application under this sub-rule, the application of the first depositor to the Recovery Officer shall be accepted:

¹[Provided further that where the purchaser is the Government, the sale shall be set aside if the person owning the property or any person interested, therein,-

- (i) makes the application within sixty days from the date of sale along with,-
 - (a) a sum equal to five per cent of the purchase money for payment to Government; and
 - (b) fifty per cent of the amount due under the decree for payment to the decree holder; and

(ii) pay the balance within thirty days thereafter i.e., within ninety days from the date of sale.]

(c) If a person applies under sub-rule (5) to set aside the sale of an immoveable property, he shall not be entitled to make an application under this sub-rule.

(5)(a) At any time within 30 days from the date of the sale of an immoveable property, the decree-holder or any person entitled to share in a rateable distribution of the assets or whose interests are affected by the sale, may apply to the Recovery Officer to set aside the sale on the ground of a material irregularity or mistake or fraud in publishing or conducting it:

Provided that no sale shall be set aside on the ground of irregularity or mistake or fraud unless the said Recovery Officer is satisfied that the applicant has sustained substantial injury by reason of such irregularity, mistake or fraud:

1. Second proviso inserted by GSR 329, dated 27-10-1977, w.e.f.3-11-1977.

¹[Provided further where the purchaser is Government the sale will be confirmed,-

(a) after the expiration of sixty days where no application to have sale set aside is made under sub-rule (4); or

(b) after the expiration of ninety days where an application to set aside under sub-rule (4) is made but the balance of the amount due under the decree is not deposited within ninety days from the date of sale.]

(c) If the application be allowed, the said Recovery Officer shall set aside the sale and may direct a fresh one.

(6)(a) On the expiration of thirty days from the date of sale, if no application to have the sale set aside, either under sub-rule (4) or sub-rule (5) is made or if such application has been made and is rejected, the said Recovery Officer shall make an order confirming the sale: Provided that if he shall have reason to think that the sale ought to be set aside notwithstanding that no such application has been made or on grounds other than those alleged in any application which has been made and rejected, he may, after recording his reasons in writing, set aside the sale; (b) Whenever the sale of any immoveable property is not confirmed or is set aside, the deposit or the purchase money, as the case may be, shall be returned to the purchaser.

(7) On the confirmation of a sale under this rule, the Recovery Officer shall grant a certificate of sale bearing his seal and signature to the purchaser, and such certificate shall state the property sold and the name of the purchaser, and it shall be conclusive evidence of the fact of the sale to such purchaser.

²[(8) The land purchased by Government in satisfaction of any decree prior to commencement of the Karnataka Co-operative Societies (V Amendment) Rules, 1977 shall be reconveyed to the person who own the property or held an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before the sale if he makes application for such reconveyance and deposits with the recovery officer within a period of ninety days from the date of coming into force of these rules.-

(a) five per cent of the purchase money as solatium;

(b) purchase money at the interest of eight and a half per cent per annum from the date of sale up to the date of deposit.]

2. Sub-rule (8) inserted by GSR 329, dated 27-10-1977, w.e.f.3-11-1977.

(2) On receipt of a report under sub-rule (1), the society may, within SIX months from the date of the receipt of the report or within such further period as may for sufficient reasons be allowed in any particular case by the Court or the Deputy Commissioner or the Registrar, submit an application in writing to the Court, the Deputy Commissioner or the Registrar, as the case may be, stating whether or not it agrees to take over such property.

(3) On receipt of an application under sub-rule (2), notices shall be issued to the defaulter and to all persons known to be interested in the property, including those whose names appear in the Record of Rights as persons holding any interest in the property, about the intended transfer.

(4) On receipt of such a notice, the defaulter, or any person owing such property or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before the date of the issue of a certificate under Section 101, may within one month from the date of receipt of such notice, deposit with the Court or the Deputy Commissioner, or the Registrar, for payment to the society a sum equal to the amount due under the order sought to be executed together with interest thereon and such additional sum for payment of costs and other incidental expenses as may be determined in this behalf by the Court or the Deputy Commissioner or the Registrar, as the case may be.

(5) On failure of the defaulter, or any person interested, or any person holding any interest in the property, to deposit the amount under sub-rule (4), the Court or the Deputy Commissioner or the Registrar, as the case may be shall direct the property to be transferred to the Society on the conditions stated in the certificate in Form in.

(6) The certificate granted under sub-rule (5) shall state whether the property is transferred to the Society in full or partial satisfaction of the amount due to it from the defaulter.

(7) If the property is transferred to the Society in partial satisfaction of the amount due to it from the defaulter, the Court or the Deputy Commissioner or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall on the production by the society of a certificate signed by the Registrar recover the balance due to the society in the manner laid down in Section 101.

1. Rule 38-A inserted by GSR 563, dated 23-6-1965, w.e.f.26-6-1965.

(8) The transfer of the property under sub-rule (5) shall be effected as follows.-

- (a) Where the property is growing or standing crop, it may be delivered to the society before it is cut and gathered and the Society shall be entitled to enter the land, and to do all that is necessary for the purpose of tending and cutting and gathering;
- (b) Where the property is in the possession of the defaulter or of some person on his behalf or some person claiming under a title created by the defaulter subsequent to the issue of a certificate under Section 101, the Court or the Deputy Commissioner or the Registrar, as the case may be, shall, order delivery to be made by putting the society or any person whom the Society may appoint to receive delivery on its behalf, in actual possession of the property and if need be, by removing any person who illegally refuses to vacate the same;
- (c) Where the property is in the possession of a tenant or other person entitled to hold the same by a title acquired before the date of issue of a certificate under Section 101, the Court or the Deputy Commissioner or the Registrar as the case may be, shall order delivery to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of transfer of the property to the society in some conspicuous place on the property and proclaiming to such person by beat of drum or other customary mode at some convenient place, that the interest of the defaulter has been transferred to the Society.

(9) The Society shall be required to pay expenses incidental to sale.

(10) Where the land is transferred to the Society under clause (a) of sub-rule (8) before a growing or standing crop is cut and gathered, the Society shall be liable to pay the current year's land revenue on the land.

¹[(11) The Society shall forthwith report any transfer of property under clause (b) or (c) of sub-rule (8).-

(i) to the City Municipal Corporation, Municipal Council or Town Panchayat in case the property is situated in a larger urban area, smaller urban area or transitional area respectively.

(ii) to the Village Accountant, in case the property is situated in other areas, for information and entry in the record of rights by the concerned authorities.]

(12) The Society to which the property is transferred under sub-rule (5), shall maintain for each such defaulter a separate account showing all the expenses incurred including payment to outside encumbrances, land revenue and other dues on the property and all the income derived from it.

(13) The Society to which the property is transferred under sub-rule (5), shall use its best endeavour to sell the property as soon as practicable to the best advantages of the Society as well as that of the defaulter, the first option being always given to defaulter who originally owned the property. The sale shall be subject to the confirmation by the Registrar. The proceeds of the sale shall be applied to defraying the expenses of the sale and other expenses incurred by the Society and referred to in sub-rules (9) and (12) and to the payment of the arrears due by the defaulter under the order in execution, and the surplus (if any), shall then be paid to the defaulter.

(14) Until the property is sold, the society to which the property is transferred under sub-rule (5) shall use its best endeavours to lease it or to make any other use that can be made of it so as to derive the largest possible income from the property.

(15) When the society to which property is transferred under sub-rule (5) has realized all its dues, under the order in execution of which the property was transferred, from the proceeds of management of the property, the property, if unsold, shall be restored to the defaulter.]

39. Effect of an attachment on private alienation, etc.- Where an attachment has been made under these rules, any private transfer or delivery of the property attached or of any interest therein and any payment to the judgment-debtor of any debt, dividend or other moneys contrary to such attachment, shall be void as against all claims enforceable under the attachment.

Explanation.-For the purpose of this sub-rule, claims enforceable under an attachment include claims for the rateable distribution of assets under Rule 44.

40. Batta, costs and receipts for payments made.- (1) Persons employed in serving notices or other processes under these rules shall be entitled to batta at such rates as may from time to time be fixed by the Recovery Officer.

(2) Where the cost and charges incurred in connection with the attachment and sale of moveable property or the attachment and sale or sale without attachment of immoveable property under this rule, exceeds the amount of the cost deposited by the decree-holder under sub-rule (1) of Rule 34, such excess shall be deducted from the sale proceeds of the property sold or the moneys paid by the judgment-debtor as the case may be, and the balance shall be made available to the decree-holder.

(3) Every person making a payment to the Sale Officer or other officer empowered by the Recovery Officer in that behalf, towards any money due for the recovery of which application has been made under these rules, shall be entitled to a receipt for the amount, signed by such officer; such receipt shall state the name of the person making the payment and the subject-matter in respect of which the payment is made.

41. Investigation of claims to property attached.- (1) Where any claim is preferred to or any objection is made to the attachment of, any property attached under these rules, on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the Sale Officer shall investigate the claim or objection and make an order either rejecting the claim or allowing the claim and to that extent raising the attachment made:

Provided that the Sale Officer may refuse to investigate the claim if he considers that the claim or objection is frivolous or made on or after the date fixed for sale

(2) Where the property to which the claim or objection relates has been advertised for sale, the Sale Officer may postpone the sale pending the investigation of the claim or objection.

(3) Where a claim or an objection is preferred the party against whom an order is made may institute a suit within six months from the date of the order to establish the right which he claims to the property in dispute, but subject to the result of such suit, if any, the order shall be conclusive.

42. Loss caused by re-sale due to default by purchaser at first sale.- (1) Any deficiency of price, which may happen on re-sale held, under clause (k) of sub-rule (1) of Rule 36 or clause (h) and (k) of sub-rule (2) of Rule 38, by reason of the purchaser's default, and all expenses attending such re-sale shall be certified by the Sale Officer to the Recovery Officer and shall, at the instance of either the decree-holder or the judgment-debtor be recoverable from the defaulting purchaser. The costs, if any, incidental to such recovery shall also be borne by the defaulting purchaser.

(2) Where the property is on second sale, sold for a higher price than the first sale, the defaulting purchaser at the first sale shall have no claim to the difference or increase.

43. Dismissal of application for execution for default of decree-holder.- Where any property has been attached in execution of a decree, but by reason of the decree-holder's default, the Sale Officer or Recovery Officer is unable to proceed further with the application for execution such officer shall either dismiss the application or for any sufficient reason adjourn the proceedings to a future date. Upon the dismissal of such application, the attachment shall cease.

44. Distribution of assets when there are claims under several decrees.- (1) Where the Sale Officer attaches or has attached under these rules, any property not in the custody of any Court, which is already under attachment made in execution of a decree of any Court such Court shall receive and realize such property and shall determine claims thereto and any objections to the attachment thereof: Provided that where the property is under attachment in the execution of decrees, of more Courts than one, the Court which shall receive or realize such property and shall determine and claim thereto and any objection to the attachment thereof shall be the Court of the highest grade, or where there is no difference in grade between such Courts, the Court under whose decree the property was first attached.

(2) Where assets are held by the Sale Officer and before the receipt of such assets, demand notices in pursuance of applications for execution of decree against the same judgment-debtor have been received from more than one decree-holder and the decree-holders have not obtained satisfaction, the assets after deducting the costs of realisation, shall be rateably distributed by the Sale Officer among all such decree-holders in the manner provided in Section 73 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

45. Death of judgment-debtor-Execution against legal representative.- (1) Where a judgment-debtor dies before the decree has been fully satisfied, an application under sub-rule

(1) of Rule 34 may be made or continued against the legal representative of the deceased and thereupon all the provisions of this Chapter shall, save as otherwise provided in this rule, apply as if such legal representative were the judgment-debtor: Provided that a show-cause notice shall be issued to such legal representative and his objections heard, before execution is proceeded against him.

(2) Where the decree is executed against such legal representative, he shall be liable only to the extent of the property of the deceased which has come to his hands and has not been duly disposed of; and for the purpose of ascertaining such liability, the Recovery Officer executing the decree may, of his own motion or on the application of the decree-holder, compel such legal representative to produce such accounts as he thinks fit.

46. Fee for processes issued under these Rules.- Where, in connection with the proceedings on an application under Section 100 of the Act, any person requires the issue of any process or objects to any process issued or objects to any order passed, he shall pay such fee, as may be specified by the Registrar in this behalf.

47. Mode of making attachment before judgment.- (1) Attachment of property under Section 103 of the Act, shall be made in the manner provided in Rules 36, 37 and 38.

(2) Where a claim is preferred to property attached under sub-rule (1), such claim shall be investigated in the manner and by the authority specified in Rule 41.

(3) Where an attachment of any property is made under sub-rule (I), the Recovery Officer shall order the attachment to be withdrawn.-

(a) when the party concerned furnishes the security required, together with security for the cost of the attachment;

(b) when the liquidator determines under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of Section 74 of the Act that no contribution is payable by the party concerned; or

(c) when the Registrar passes an order under sub-section (1) of Section 69 that the party concerned need not repay or restore any money or property or contribute any sum to the assets of the society by way of compensation or;

(d) when the dispute referred to in sub-section (1) of Section 71 has been decided against the party at whose instance the attachment was made.

(4) Attachment made under sub-rule (1) shall not affect the rights existing prior to the attachment, of persons not parties to the proceedings in connection with which the attachment was made, nor bar any person holding a decree against the person whose property is attached from applying for the sale of the property under attachment in execution of such decree.

(5) Where property is under attachment by virtue of the provisions of this rule and a decree is subsequently passed against the person whose property is attached, it shall not be necessary upon an application for execution of such decree to apply for re-attachment of the property.

48. Procedure for distraint and sale of produce including standing crops on property mortgaged to a ¹[Primary Agriculture and Rural Development Bank].- (1) On receipt of an application from the ²[Board] of a ³[Primary Agriculture and Rural Development Bank] under Section 88, the Registrar may, after satisfying himself that the installment or any part of such installment has remained unpaid for more than one month from the date on which it fell due, and that the application has been made within twelve
