

Supreme Soviet of the Republic of Armenia

DECREE # 44

February 4, 1991

City of Yerevan

"On Implementation of the Land Code of the Republic of Armenia"

The Supreme Soviet of the Republic of Armenia decrees:

1. The Land Code of the Republic of Armenia becomes effective on March 15, 1991
2. Until the legislation of the Republic of Armenia conforms with the Land Code of the Republic of Armenia, only those items of the legislative acts of the Republic of Armenia currently in force which do not contradict the Code will apply.
3. The Land Code of the Republic of Armenia will be applied to those laws which will appear after the Code comes into effect, i.e. from March 15, 1991.
4. As to laws relating to land, the Land Code of the Republic of Armenia will apply only to those rights and responsibilities which are promulgated after the Code comes into effect.
5. It is ordained that the Decrees concerning the allocation of lots which were issued prior to March 15, 1991 by the legislative bodies, but which were not put into effect before the Land Code of the Republic of Armenia came into force, will apply only if these Decrees conform with the requirements of the Code.
6. It is incumbent upon the Council of Ministers of the Republic of Armenia, prior to March 15, 1991:
 - to propose to the Supreme Soviet of the Republic of Armenia the amendments (ensuing from the Land Code of the Republic of Armenia) to the legislative acts of the Republic of Armenia currently in force;
