(a) a registered geographical indication; or

(b) a registered translation of such an indication; or

(c) a registered traditional expression; is included in the description and presentation of wine even if the indication, translation or expression is accompanied by an expression such as “kind”, “type”, “style”, “imitation”, “method”, or any similar expression.

40DA Circumstances in which description and presentation is not false—general

Inclusion of geographical indication, translation or traditional expression registered for more than one place

(1) If:

(a) the description and presentation of wine includes an indication or term that is a registered geographical indication, a registered translation of such an indication, or a registered traditional expression, in relation to a country, region or locality; and

(b) the wine originated in that country, region or locality; and

(c) the

description and presentation indicates that the wine originated in that country, region or locality; then the description and presentation is not false merely because the indication or term is also a registered geographical indication, a registered translation of such an indication, or a registered traditional expression, in relation to another country, region or locality. Inclusion of common English word or term

(2) If: (a) the description and presentation of wine includes a word or term that is a registered geographical indication, a registered translation of such an indication, or a registered traditional expression, in relation to a country, region or locality; and (b) the word or term is a common English word or term; and (c) the word or term is not used in such a way as to indicate that the wine originated in the country, region or locality in relation to which the geographical indication, translation or traditional expression is registered; and (d) the description and presentation indicates the country, region or locality in which the wine originated; and (e) the word or term is used in good faith; then the description and presentation is not false merely because it includes the word or term. Inclusion of name of individual or address of winery

(3) The description and presentation of wine is not false merely because it includes: (a) the name of an individual who manufactured, sold, exported or imported the wine; or (b) if a person who manufactured, sold, exported or imported the wine is, apart from this subsection, lawfully permitted to use the name of an individual who previously manufactured, sold, exported or imported the wine—the name of that individual; or (c) the address of the winery at which the wine was manufactured.

40DB Circumstances in which description and presentation is not false—inclusion of registered traditional expressions

Inclusion of registered quality wine term (1) If: (a) the description and presentation of wine includes a registered quality wine term; and (b) the wine originated in Australia; and (c) the description and presentation indicates that the wine originated in Australia or in a region or locality in Australia; and (d) the registered quality wine term is also a registered traditional expression; and (e) the wine is in a category of wine in relation to which the expression is registered; then the description and presentation is not false merely because it includes the registered quality wine term. Wine originating in non-agreement country (2) The description and presentation of wine that originates in a foreign country that is not an agreement country is not false merely because it includes a term that is a registered traditional expression if: (a) the term is not used in such a way as to be likely to mislead as to the country, region or locality in which the wine originated; and (b) the description and presentation indicates the country, region or locality in which the wine originated; and (c) the inclusion of the term in the description and presentation does not constitute unfair competition within the meaning of Article 10*bis* of the Paris Convention for the Protection of Industrial Property of 20 March 1883 as amended. Note: The text of the Convention is set out in Australian Treaty Series 1972 No. 12 ([1972] ATS 12). In 2009, the text of a Convention in the Australian Treaty Series was accessible through the Australian Treaties Library on the AustLII website (www.austlii.edu.au). Inclusion of trade mark

(3) If: (a) the description and presentation of wine includes a trade mark; and (b) the trade mark contains or consists of a registered traditional expression; and (c) before the protection date for the traditional expression: (i) the trade mark had been entered in good faith in the Register of Trade Marks; or (ii) the owner of the trade mark had acquired rights in the trade mark through use in good faith; then the description and presentation is not false merely because it includes that trade mark. Inclusion of business name (4) If: (a) the description and presentation of wine includes a business name; and (b) the business name contains or consists of a registered traditional expression; and (c) before the protection date for the traditional expression, the business name was registered in good faith under the law of a State or Territory or on the Business Names Register established and maintained under section 22 of the Business Names Registration Act 2011; then the description and presentation is not false merely because it includes that business name. (5) Subsection (4) does not limit subsection 40DA(3). Definition of protection date (6) In this Act, the protection date for a registered traditional expression is: (a) if the traditional expression is registered in relation to an agreement country under paragraph 40ZD(2A)(a): (i) unless subparagraph (ii) applies—the date on which the prescribed wine-trading agreement to which that country is a party was signed; or (ii) if that agreement is modified after that date to include the traditional expression and paragraph (b) does not apply—the date on which the agreement is so modified; or (b) if the traditional expression is registered in relation to a foreign country (whether or not an agreement country) under paragraph 40ZD(2A)(b)—the date on which the traditional expression is registered. Subdivision B—Sale, export or import of wine with a misleading description and presentation

(1) A person commits an offence if: (a) the person sells, exports or imports wine; and (b) the wine is sold, exported or imported by the person: (i) in trade or commerce; and (ii) with a misleading description and presentation. Penalty: Imprisonment for 2 years. Note: A court may impose a maximum fine of 120 penalty units instead of, or in addition to, a term of imprisonment. A body corporate that is convicted of an offence may be fined up to 5 times that maximum fine. (See subsections 4B(2) and (3) of the Crimes Act 1914.) (2) The description and presentation may be misleading even if it indicates the country, region or locality (as the case may be) in which the wine originated. 40F Misleading descriptions and presentations (1) This section has effect for the purposes of section 40E. Inclusion of geographical indication, translation or traditional expression (2) Subject to sections 40FA and 40FB, the description and presentation of wine is misleading if: (a) it includes a registered geographical indication, and the indication is used in such a way as to be likely to mislead as to the country, region or locality in which the wine originated; or (b) it includes a registered translation of a registered geographical indication, and the translation is used in such a way as to be likely to mislead as to the country, region or locality in which the wine originated; or (c) it includes a registered traditional expression, and: (i) the wine is not a wine in relation to which the expression is registered; and (ii) the wine is not in a category of wine in relation to which the expression is registered; and (iii) the expression is in a language in relation to which the expression is registered; and (iv) the expression is used in such a way as to be likely to mislead that the wine originated in a country, region or locality in relation to which the expression is registered or that the wine is in a category of wine in relation to which the expression is registered. (3) For the purposes of subsection (2): (a) a registered geographical indication; or (b) a registered translation of such an indication; or (c) a registered traditional expression; is included in the description and presentation of wine even if the indication, translation or expression is accompanied by an expression such as “kind”, “type”, “style”, “imitation”, “method”, or any similar expression. Inclusion of word resembling geographical indication, translation or traditional expression

(4) Subject to sections 40FA and 40FB, the description and presentation of wine is misleading if:

(a) it includes an indication or term that so resembles a registered geographical indication as to be likely to mislead that the wine originated in a country, region or locality in relation to which the indication is registered; or

(b) it includes a term that so resembles a registered translation of a registered geographical indication as to be likely to mislead that the wine originated in a country, region or locality in relation to which the indication is registered; or

(c) both of the following apply:

(i) it includes a term that so resembles a registered traditional expression as to be likely to mislead that the wine originated in a country, region or locality in relation to which the expression is registered or that the wine is in a category of wine in relation to which the expression is registered;

(ii) the wine originated in a foreign country that is not an agreement country. Inclusion of name of individual or address of winery

(5) The description and presentation of wine is misleading if:

(a) it includes:

(i) the name of an individual who manufactured, sold, exported or imported the wine; or

(ii) if a person who manufactured, sold, exported or imported the wine is, apart from this subsection, lawfully permitted to use the name of an individual who previously manufactured, sold, exported or imported the wine—the name of that individual; or

(iii) the name or address of the winery at which the wine was manufactured; and

(b) the name or address, as the case may be, is used in such a way in the description and presentation as to be likely to mislead as to the country, region or locality in which the wine originated. Not in accordance with prescribed provisions

(6) The description and presentation of wine is misleading if it is not in accordance with any provisions relating to the description and presentation of wine as are prescribed for the purposes of this subsection. Ordinary meaning of misleading not affected

(7) Subsections (2), (3), (4), (5) and (6) do not limit what, apart from those subsections, is a misleading description and presentation of wine.

40FA Circumstances in which description and presentation is not misleading—general

Inclusion of geographical indication, translation or traditional expression registered for more than one place

(1) If:

(a) the description and presentation of wine includes an indication or term that is a registered geographical indication, a registered translation of such an indication, or a registered traditional expression, in relation to a country, region or locality; and

(b) the wine originated in that country, region or locality; and

(c) the description and presentation indicates that the wine originated in that country, region or locality; then the description and presentation is not misleading merely because the indication or term is, or resembles, a registered geographical indication, a registered translation of such an indication, or a registered traditional expression, in relation to another country, region or locality. Inclusion of common English word or term

(2) If:

(a) the description and presentation of wine includes a word or term that is a registered geographical indication, a registered translation of such an indication, or a registered traditional expression, in relation to a country, region or locality; and

(b) the word or term is a common English word or term; and

(c) the word or term is not used in such a way as to indicate that the wine originated in the country, region or locality in relation to which the geographical indication, translation or traditional expression is registered; and (d) the description and presentation indicates the country, region or locality in which the wine originated; and (e) the word or term is used in good faith; then the description and presentation is not misleading merely because it includes the word or term.

40FB Circumstances in which description and presentation is not misleading—inclusion of registered traditional expressions

Inclusion of registered quality wine term (1) If: (a) the description and presentation of wine includes a registered quality wine term; and (b) the wine originated in Australia; and (c) the description and presentation indicates that the wine originated in Australia or in a region or locality in Australia; and (d) the registered quality wine term is also a registered traditional expression; and (e) the wine is in a category of wine in relation to which the expression is registered; then the description and presentation is not misleading merely because it includes the registered quality wine term.

Inclusion of trade mark (2) If: (a) the description and presentation of wine includes a trade mark; and (b) the trade mark contains or consists of a registered traditional expression; and (c) before the protection date for the traditional expression: (i) the trade mark had been entered in good faith in the Register of Trade Marks; or (ii) the owner of the trade mark had acquired rights in the trade mark through use in good faith; then the description and presentation is not misleading merely because it includes that trade mark.

Inclusion of business name (3) If: (a) the description and presentation of wine includes a business name; and (b) the business name contains or consists of a registered traditional expression; and (c) the business name was registered in good faith under the law of a State or Territory or on the Business Names Register established and maintained under section 22 of the Business Names Registration Act 2011 before the protection date for the traditional expression; then the description and presentation is not misleading merely because it includes that business name.

(4) Subsection (3) does not limit subsection 40F(5).

Subdivision C—Other provisions relating to sale, export or import of wine

40G Sale, export or import of wine in contravention of registered conditions of use (1) A person commits an offence if: (a) the person sells, exports or imports wine; and (b) the wine is sold, exported or imported by the person in trade or commerce with a description and presentation that: (i) includes an indication or term that is a registered geographical indication, a registered translation of such an indication, a registered traditional expression, a registered quality wine term or a registered additional term; and (ii) does not comply with any registered conditions of use applicable to that geographical indication, translation, traditional expression, quality wine term or additional term (as the case may be).

Penalty: Imprisonment for 1 year. Note: A court may impose a maximum fine of 60 penalty units instead of, or in addition to, a term of imprisonment. A body corporate that is convicted of an offence may be fined up to 5 times that maximum fine. (See subsections 4B(2) and (3) of the Crimes Act 1914.)

Indication or term registered for more than one place (2) Subsection (1) does not apply if: (a) the indication or term is registered in one or more Parts of the Register in relation to one or more countries, regions or localities; and (b) the description and presentation complies with the registered conditions of use applicable to the indication or term as registered in one of those Parts for one of those countries, regions or localities; and (c) the wine originated in that country, region or locality; and (d) the

description and presentation indicates that the wine originated in that country, region or locality. Note: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in this subsection. (See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.) Indication or term is registered additional term for particular wine (3) Subsection (1) also does not apply if: (a) the indication or term is a registered additional term for a particular wine and is also either or both of the following: (i) a registered additional term for another particular wine; (ii) registered in one or more Parts of the Register in relation to one or more countries, regions or localities; and (b) the description and presentation complies with the registered conditions of use that are applicable to the indication or term as registered: (i) for one of those particular wines; or (ii) in one of those Parts for one of those countries, regions or localities; and (c) either: (i) if subparagraph (b)(i) applies—the wine is the particular wine; or (ii) if subparagraph (b)(ii) applies—the wine originated in that country, region or locality, and the description and presentation indicates that the wine originated in that country, region or locality. Note: The defendant bears an evidential burden in relation to the matters in this subsection. (See subsection 13.3(3) of the Criminal Code.)

40J Exception for certain wines

small quantities, in relation to wines, means quantities declared by the regulations to be small quantities of wines for the purposes of this section.

the offence provisions means subsections 40C(1), 40E(1) and 40G(1).

(2) The offence provisions do not apply in relation to wines manufactured before the commencement of this Part. (3) The offence provisions do not apply in relation to wines that are in transit through Australia. (4) The offence provisions do not apply in relation to wines that: (a) originate in Australia or an agreement country; and (b) are consigned in small quantities between Australia and an agreement country under the conditions, and in accordance with the procedures, prescribed by the regulations. (5) The regulations may exempt wines referred to in the regulations from the operation of any one or more of the offence provisions, either generally or for such periods, in such circumstances, and subject to such conditions, as are set out in the regulations.

40K Prosecution of offences (1) To avoid doubt, it is declared that any of the following may institute a proceeding for an offence against section 40C, 40E or 40G: (a) the Authority; (b) a person engaged in the manufacture of wine or the growing of wine grapes in Australia or in a designated foreign country; (c) an organisation established under the law of Australia or of a designated foreign country whose objects or purposes include any of the following: (i) the promotion of the manufacture of wine, the growing of wine grapes or the marketing of wine; (ii) the promotion or protection of the interests of persons engaged in the manufacture of wine, the growing of wine grapes or the marketing of wine; (iii) the promotion or protection of the interests of consumers of wine. designated foreign country means a foreign country in relation to which a geographical indication, translation of such an indication, traditional expression, or additional term is registered.

40M Application of national food standards to wines imported from foreign countries National food standard modified (1) A national food standard that applies to wine has effect, in relation to wine that originates in any foreign country, as if any requirement in the standard to comply with particular oenological practices or processes, or compositional requirements, in relation to wine were replaced by a requirement to comply with the replacement practices, processes or requirements under either subsection (1A) or (1B). Practices, processes and requirements set out in wine-trading agreements (1A) The replacement practices, processes or requirements under this subsection are:

- (a) subject to paragraph (b), the oenological practices or processes, or compositional requirements, set out in a prescribed wine-trading agreement as in force or existing from time to time; or
- (b) if, in accordance with such an agreement, Australia has been notified of the authorisation of modifications of the oenological practices or processes, or compositional requirements, set out in the agreement—the oenological practices or processes, or compositional requirements, as so modified.

Practices, processes and requirements prescribed by the regulations (1B) The replacement practices, processes or requirements under this subsection are the oenological practices or processes, or compositional requirements, prescribed by the regulations in relation to wine originating in any foreign country. (1C) Regulations made for the purposes of subsection (1B):

- (a) must not prescribe oenological practices or processes, or compositional requirements, in relation to wine originating in any foreign country unless the oenological practices or processes, or compositional requirements, apply to wine under the laws and regulations of a foreign country; and
- (b) may prescribe oenological practices or processes, or compositional requirements, by applying, adopting or incorporating (with or without modification) a written instrument or other document:
 - (i) as in force or existing at a particular time; or
 - (ii) as in force or existing from time to time.

Minister may suspend operation of section (2) The Minister may suspend the operation of this section in relation to wine of a particular kind or description if the Minister is satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that continued compliance with an oenological practice or process, or a compositional requirement, that was used in the manufacture of the wine would endanger human health. (3) A suspension under subsection (2):

- (a) must be by written notice signed by the Minister and published in the Gazette; and
- (b) takes effect on a day stated in the notice that is not earlier than the day following the date of publication; and
- (c) remains in force, unless sooner revoked, for one year.

Trade mark pending (3) If a person has an application pending for the registration of a trade mark under the Trade Marks Act 1995, the person may object to the determination of a proposed GI on one of the following grounds: (a) that: (i) the application was made in good faith; and (ii) the trade mark consists of a word, expression or other indication that is identical to the proposed GI; and (iii) prima facie, the requirements under the Trade Marks Act 1995 for accepting an application for registration of a trade mark would be satisfied in respect of the trade mark applied for; (b) that: (i) the application was made in good faith; and (ii) the trade mark consists of a word, expression or other indication; and (iii) the proposed GI is likely to cause confusion with that word, expression or other indication; and (iv) prima facie, the requirements under the Trade Marks Act 1995 for accepting an application for registration of a trade mark would be satisfied in respect of the trade mark applied for; (c) that: (i) the application was made in good faith; and (ii) the trade mark contains a word, expression or other indication; and (iii) the proposed GI is likely to cause confusion with that word, expression or other indication; and (iv) prima facie, the requirements under the Trade Marks Act 1995 for accepting an application for registration of a trade mark would be satisfied in respect of the trade mark applied for; and (v) after registration, the applicant would have trade mark rights in the word, expression or other indication. Registrar of Trade Marks to make decision on whether ground made out or not (2) If an objection is notified to the Committee under subsection (1), the Registrar of Trade Marks must decide in writing whether the ground of objection is or is not made out. Registrar may make recommendation to Committee to determine a GI (3) If: (a) the Registrar of Trade Marks decides that the ground of objection is made out; and (b) the Registrar of Trade Marks is satisfied that it is reasonable in the circumstances to recommend to the Committee that the proposed GI be determined despite the objection having been made out; the Registrar of Trade Marks may make the recommendation. The recommendation must be in writing. Note 1: For example, it may be reasonable for the Registrar of Trade Marks to make such a recommendation if the Registrar of Trade Marks is satisfied that the proposed GI was in use before the trade mark rights arose. Note 2: If a recommendation is made under subsection (3), the Committee may determine the GI (see subsection 40SA(4)).

(4) In determining under paragraph (3)(b) whether it is reasonable in the circumstances to make the recommendation to the Committee, the Registrar of Trade Marks must have regard to Australia's international obligations. The procedures may include the charging of fees, the holding of hearings and the taking of evidence. 40RD Notice to be given of decision Notice to be given by Registrar of Trade Marks (1) After the Registrar of Trade Marks has made a decision under section 40RC in relation to the proposed GI, the Registrar of Trade Marks must, in writing, inform the following of the outcome of the decision and of any recommendation that has been made under subsection 40RC(3): (a) the person who proposed the GI, if there was an application under section 40R for the GI; (b) the person who objected to the determination of the proposed GI; (c) the Committee. Notice to be given by Committee (2) After receiving notice of a decision under subsection (1), the Presiding Member must cause a notice to be published: (a) setting out the proposed GI; and (b) stating that a decision of the Registrar of Trade Marks has been made in relation to the proposed GI; and (c) setting out the terms of the decision and any recommendation made under subsection 40RC(3) in relation to the proposed GI. Note: If the Registrar of Trade Marks makes a decision under this section, the Committee may determine the GI (see subsection 40SA(5)). (2) Regulations may set out the procedure to be followed in making a decision under subsection (1). The procedures may include the charging of fees, the holding of hearings and the taking of evidence. 40RF Appeals (1) An appeal lies to the Federal Court against a decision of the Registrar of Trade Marks, made under: (a) subsection 40RC(2) (a decision that a ground of objection is or is not made out); and (b) subsection 40RC(3) (a recommendation that a proposed GI be determined or a refusal to make such a recommendation); and (c) section 40RE (a decision that a ground of objection no longer exists or a refusal to make such a decision). (6) The regulations may make provision about the practice and procedure of the Federal Court in a proceeding under this section, including provision:

- (a) prescribing the time for starting the action or proceeding or for doing any other act or thing; or

- (b) in any way pre-empt or affect a decision of the Registrar of Trade Marks under the Trade Marks Act 1995 in respect of a pending application for the registration of a trade mark.

Subdivision E —Determinations of geographical indications

40SA When may a determination be made under this Subdivision?

(1) If an objection was made to a proposed geographical indication (GI) under section 40RB, the Committee may only determine the GI in the circumstances set out in this section.

Grounds of objection not made out

(2) The Committee may determine a GI that was the subject of a decision under subsection 40RC(2), if:

- (a) all appeals against, or reviews of, the decision (if any) in relation to the GI have been finalised; and
- (b) the decision standing after the appeals and reviews have been finalised is that a ground of objection has not been made out in relation to the GI.

If grounds for objection made out and person agrees to determination of GI
