Note:

Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility.

7 Application of other laws

(1) This Act is not intended to exclude or limit the operation of a law of a State or Territory that is capable of operating concurrently with this Act.

(2) A law of a Territory has effect to the extent to which it is not inconsistent with a provision of the regulations, or of a declaration under this Act, having effect in that Territory, but such a law shall not be taken for the purposes of this subsection to be inconsistent with such a provision to the extent that it is capable of operating concurrently with that provision.

(3) Where:

(a) a law of

a State or Territory deals with a matter dealt with in this Act; and (b) an act or omission by a person that constitutes an offence against that law also constitutes an offence against this Act or an offence referred to in paragraph 23(1)(b); the person may be prosecuted and convicted under that law or under this Act, the Criminal Code or the Crimes Act 1914, as the case may be, but nothing in this subsection renders a person liable to be punished more than once in respect of the same act or omission.

(4) Nothing in this Act derogates from the rights of any person to any remedy consistent with this Act that he or she would have apart from this Act.8 Application of Act (1) Subject to subsection (2), this Act applies, according to its tenor, to all persons, including foreigners, and to all vessels, including foreign vessels, whether or not they are within Australia or Australian waters.

of the area, object or objects from the threat of injury or desecration. (3) The Minister may, at any time after receiving an application for a declaration, whether or not he or she has made a declaration pursuant to the application, request such persons as he or she considers appropriate to consult with him or her, or with a person nominated by him or her, with a view to resolving, to the satisfaction of the applicant or applicants and the Minister, any matter to which the application relates.

(4) Any failure to comply with subsection (2) does not invalidate the making of a declaration.

(5) Where the Minister is satisfied that the law of a State or of any Territory makes effective provision for the protection of an area, object or objects to which a declaration applies, he or she shall revoke the declaration to the extent that it relates to the area, object or objects.

(6) Nothing in this section limits the power of the Minister to revoke or vary a declaration at any time.

14 Publication and commencement of declarations (1) A declaration under this Division:

(a) shall be published in the Gazette and in a local newspaper, if any, circulating in any region concerned; and

(3) Any failure to publish a declaration in a newspaper or failure to comply with subsection (2) does not affect the validity of a declaration.

Division 2—Declarations by authorized officers

(i) an area is a significant Aboriginal area, an object is a significant Aboriginal object or a class of objects is a class of significant Aboriginal objects;

(ii) the area or object is, or objects are, under serious and immediate threat of injury or desecration; and

(iii) in the case of an area—the circumstances of the case would justify the making of a declaration under section 9, but the injury or desecration is likely to occur before such a declaration can be made; and

(b) no declaration has been made under this section in relation to the area, object or objects within 3 months before that time by reason of a threat that is substantially the same as the threat referred to in subparagraph (a)(ii);

(2A) A declaration under subsection (1) cannot prevent the export of an object if there is a certificate in force under section 12 of the Protection of Movable Cultural Heritage Act 1986 authorising its export. (2B) A declaration under subsection (1) is not a legislative instrument. (3) A declaration under subsection (1) may be revoked or varied at any time, by instrument in writing, by the Minister or any authorized officer.

19 Notification of declarations (1) An authorized officer shall, as soon as practicable after making a declaration under section 18: (a) in such manner as he or she thinks appropriate in the circumstances, notify the Minister of the making of the declaration, the terms of the declaration and the reasons for which it was made; and (b) take reasonable steps to give notice of the declaration to persons likely to be substantially affected by the declaration. 28 Compensation for acquisition of property (1) Where, but for this section, the operation of a provision of this Act or of a declaration made under Part II would result in the acquisition of property from a person otherwise than on just terms, there is payable to the person by the Commonwealth such reasonable amount of compensation as is agreed upon between the person and the Commonwealth or, failing agreement, as is determined by the Federal Court. (2) In subsection (1), acquisition of property and just terms have the same respective meanings as in paragraph 51(xxxi) of the Constitution.
