plant breeders' rights.

21. The register of plant breeder's rights shall contain, in addition to the matters required under section 49 of the Act, the following information:

- (a) the names and addresses of the holders of plant breeders' rights;
- (b) the names and addresses of any agents of the holders of plant breeders' rights;
- (c) a description of the characteristics of the plant variety;
- (d) if available, the reference number under which the plant variety is recorded in any register of varieties kept by a recognized professional association or in any reference collection of plant material accepted by the Director;
- (e) the date upon which such rights expired or were otherwise terminated or declared null and void, as the case may be.

Requests for copies or extracts from register.

22. Requests made pursuant to section 49(2) of the Act for copies of, or for extracts from the information contained in the register, shall be made to the Director in writing, and shall be subject to payment of the specified fee.

Address for service.

23. (1) There shall be furnished to the Director

- (a) by every applicant for the grant of a plant breeder's right;
- (b) by every person concerned in any proceedings to which the Act or these Regulations relate, including the applicant for, or the owner of the plant breeder's right an address for service in Barbados, and the address so furnished, or where another address has been furnished in place thereof, that address, shall be treated for the purposes of the application or those proceedings, as the address of that applicant or, of that person as the case may be.

(2) Where an attorney-at-law has been appointed, the address of the attorney-at-law shall, for all purposes connected with the Act and these Regulations, be treated as the address to which communications to the person who appointed the attorney-at-law shall be transmitted.

24. The time or periods prescribed by these Regulations for doing any act or taking any proceedings thereunder, other than times or periods prescribed in regulation 15(2), may be extended by the Director if he thinks fit, upon such terms as he may direct, and such extensions may be granted although the time or period for doing such act or taking such proceeding has already expired.

Extension of time limits.

25. Any application, notice, request or other document required by these Regulations, may be corrected by the Registrar on his own initiative or upon receipt of a request in writing, and upon such terms as he may direct, if in the opinion of the Director, the correction would be without detriment to the interests of any other person.

Amendment of documents and correction of the irregularities.

26. Where, under these Regulations, any person is required to do any act or thing, or any document or evidence is required to be produced or filed, and it is shown to the satisfaction of the Director that for any reasonable cause, that person is unable to do that act or thing, or that that document or evidence cannot be produced or filed, the Director may, upon the production of such evidence and subject to such terms as he thinks fit, dispense with the doing of such act or thing, or the production or filing of such document or evidence.

Dispensation by Director.

27. The publication of any matter required to be published under the Act shall contain such details of the matter as the Director considers appropriate.

Publication.

28. Where no provision is made in the Act or these Regulations in respect of any matter arising in the administration of the Act, the Director may give such directions in respect thereof as he considers necessary in the circumstances.

Administrative directions.

29. The Director may acknowledge inquiries made to the Office, but need not furnish the applicant or any other person with information which would require a search of the public records of the Office, or provide advice on matters concerning the interpretation of the Act or Regulations, or concerning other questions of law.

Inquiries at the Office.

30. The fees in the Second Schedule are payable in respect of the matters to which they relate.

Fees. Second Schedule.

INSTRUCTIONS

Form No. 1

General

This form must be accompanied by the specified fee

† State name (in block letters) under signature(s) and delete whichever is not applicable.

†† This Form must be signed by the applicant or by the agent where an authorization of agent exists.

Please refer to section 22 and 24 of the Protection of New Plant Varieties Act, 2001 before completing this Form.

Item 1(a)

State the full name and address (including the country/State) of the applicant whether an individual or a firm. Where there is more than one applicant, state the name and address of all of them. If the space under Item 2(a) is insufficient, state only the name(s) of the applicant(s). Add the address(es) on a separate page annexed to this Form. Where the applicant wishes to have correspondence sent to his own address, the address must be sufficiently complete to ensure delivery by post. Telephone and fax numbers would be appreciated.

Item 1(b)

If the applicant is an individual, nationality shall be indicated by the name of the State of which the person is a national.

If the applicant is a legal entity, indicate the name of the State under whose laws they have been constituted and the location of their registered office.

Residence shall be indicated by the name of the State of which the person is a resident.

Item 2

This must be an address in Barbados and must be sufficiently complete to ensure delivery by post. Telephone and fax numbers would also be appreciated. If there is no address in Barbados an address for service must be given. Please refer to regulation 24 of the Protection of New Plant Varieties Regulations, 2001.

Where one joint applicant has been authorized to act or an agent or representative has been named, attach a power of attorney issued by the applicant(s) on whose behalf the joint applicant, agent or representative is authorized to act.

Item 3

The particulars stated must allow for the exact identification of the variety under both its botanical and technical aspects. The Latin name of the most suitable taxonomical unit (genus, specie, subspecies) should be stated together with the common name.

Item 4

The variety must be filed in each State of a Contracting Party under the same denomination. Accents may not be deleted from a variety denomination. Please state the breeder's reference, whether or not a proposal for a variety denomination (as in Form No. 3) has been filed together with this application.

Item 5(b)

If the first box has been marked under Item 5(a) enter nothing under this Item.

Item 6

Specify all prior applications without exception, in chronological order.

In the column headed "Stage" use the following abbreviations

- A - application pending
- B - denomination rejected
- C - denomination withdrawn
- D - plant breeder's right granted or variety entered in official variety list.

The term "type of protection" comprises special titles of protection, plants and industrial patents.

"Official variety list" means any list of varieties whose marketing is authorized by the competent authorities.

Item 7

A right of priority may only be claimed within a period of 12 months from the date of filing of the earliest application duly filed for the same variety, either by the applicant himself or the predecessor in title, but the day of filing shall not be included in that period.

Item 8

"State of application" means the State in which the application was filed.

Item "Other forms and documents attached"

Mark a cross in the box if any of the following documents is attached to this application:

- /1/ Technical Questionnaire as in Form No. 2.
- /2/ Proposal for a Variety Denomination as in Form No. 3.
- /3/ Authorization of agent/representative.
- /4/ Under section 24 of the Act, if the priority of the first application is claimed, a certified copy of the documents which constitute that application must be forwarded to the Intellectual Property Office within 3 months of the date of filing this application. Mark a cross in box 4 if that copy is attached.

The additional boxes marked with letters have been added to allow for the attachment of additional documents/information.
