

STATUTORY INSTRUMENT

No. 24 of 1980,

REGULATIONS made by the Minister responsible for Fisheries in the exercise of the powers conferred upon him under Section 9 of the Fisheries Ordinance, Chapter 133 of the Laws, and all other powers thereunto him enabling.

(Gazetted 12th April, 1980)

1. These Regulations may be cited as the

FISHERIES (AMENDMENT) REGULATIONS 1980,

S.I. 66/77

and shall be read and construed as one with the Fisheries Regulations 1977, which Regulations are hereinafter referred to as the principal Regulations.

2. The principal Regulations are hereby amended by the inclusion of the definition of the following new term after the definition of the term "crawfish":—

"crawfish tail" includes the whole or part of the abdomen of a crawfish when that abdomen or part of the abdomen is severed from the carapace".

3. The principal Regulations are hereby amended by the addition thereto after Regulation 2 of the following new Regulation:—

"2A. A reference in these Regulations to any fish shall, where the context permits, include a reference to any part of such fish."

4. The principal Regulations are hereby amended by the addition after Regulation 27 of the following new Regulation:—

"27A.—(1) Where any fish to which these Regulations apply is found in the custody of any person or upon any premises in the occupation or control of any person, such person shall, unless he proves that the same was brought on to the premises without his knowledge, be presumed to be in possession of the said fish.

(2) Where such premises are commercial premises in which fish cooked or uncooked, is sold, the owner, manager or occupier of the premises shall be presumed to be in possession of such fish.

(3) Where any fish to which these Regulations apply is found in any premises occupied by more than one person, such fish shall be deemed to be in the joint possession of all such persons and it shall be for the said person or persons to prove that the same was there without his or their knowledge."

Made by the Minister of Health, Housing and Cooperatives this 25th day of March 1980.
