3. Act to bind the Crown - This Act binds the Crown.

PART 1
ESTABLISHMENT OF TRIBUNALS

4. Establishment of Tribunals - (1) There is hereby established a tribunal to be known as the Small Claims Tribunal having such jurisdiction as may be set out in this or any other Act.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall affect the jurisdiction of the High Court.

(3) The Ministry of Justice shall provide administrative support to the Tribunal from funds appropriated by Parliament for the purpose.

5. Exercise of Tribunal's jurisdiction - (1) The jurisdiction of the Tribunal shall be exercised by a Referee holding office under section 7.

(2) If the Referee hearing any proceedings in respect of a claim dies, or becomes incapacitated, or is for any other reason unable or unavailable to complete the hearing or dispose of the proceedings, they shall be heard afresh by another Referee, unless the parties agree that the proceedings be disposed of in another way.

6. Times and places of sittings - The days, times, and places of the regular sittings of the Tribunal shall be determined by the Registrar, who shall act as Registrar of the Tribunal.

7. Appointment of Referees - (1) The Queen's Representative may, from time to time, by warrant under the Queen's Representative's hand, appoint qualified persons, not exceeding at any time 5 in number, to be Referees for the purposes of this Act.

(2) A person is qualified to be appointed or reappointed as a Referee only if that person is capable, by reason of that person's personal attributes, knowledge, and experience, of performing the functions of a Referee.

(3) A Justice of the Peace shall not be eligible for appointment as a Referee.

8. Tenure of office of Referees - (1) Subject to subsection (2), every person appointed as a Referee shall hold office for a term of 3 years and, subject to section 7(2), may, from time to time, be reappointed.

(2) A Referee may at any time be removed from office by the Queen's Representative for disability affecting the performance of duty, bankruptcy, neglect of duty, inability, or misconduct, proved to the satisfaction of the Queen's Representative, or may at any time resign the office of Referee by notice in writing addressed to the Minister.

(3) A Referee may -

(a) hold any other office; and

(b) engage in any other employment or calling, that, in the opinion of the Queen's Representative, will not impair the proper discharge of the functions of a Referee.

(4) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (1), every Referee shall, unless that Referee sooner vacates office under subsection (2) of this section, continue in office until -

(a) that Referee's successor comes into office; or

(b) the Secretary for Justice notifies that Referee that no successor to that Referee is to be appointed.

9. Salary and allowances - There shall be paid to every Referee remuneration by way of sitting fees, salary, and allowances (including travelling allowances and expenses) as may be fixed from time to time by the Queen's Representative, by Order in Executive Council.

PART 2 JURISDICTION, FUNCTIONS, AND ORDERS OF TRIBUNAL

10. Jurisdiction of Tribunal - (1) Subject to sections 11, 12 and 13, the Tribunal shall have jurisdiction in respect of -

- (a) a claim founded on contract or quasi-contract; and
- (b) a claim for a declaration that a person is not liable to another person in respect of a claim or demand, founded on contract or quasi-contract, made against that person by that other person; and
- (c) a claim in tort in respect of -
  - (i) the destruction or loss of any property;
  - (ii) any damage or injury to any property;
  - (iii) the recovery of any property.

(2) The Tribunal shall have such other jurisdiction as is conferred upon it by any other enactment.

(3) Subject to this Act and the Limitation Act 1950 of the Parliament of New Zealand as applied to the Cook Islands, the jurisdiction of the Tribunal shall extend to a claim based on a cause of action that accrued before the commencement of this Act.

11. Financial limitation on jurisdiction - (1) For the purposes of section 10(1), a claim is within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal only if the total amount in respect of which an order of the Tribunal is sought does not exceed $5,000, including -

- (a) where a claim is made for the recovery of property, the value of that property; and
- (b) where a claim is made for a work order, the value of the work sought to be included in the order.

(2) If it is necessary for the purposes of this Act to ascertain the value of any property or work or to resolve any dispute as to such value (whether for the purposes of subsection (1) of this section or otherwise), that value shall be determined by the Tribunal in such manner as it thinks fit, and the Tribunal may, for that purpose, appoint an Investigator to report to it under section 37.

12. Further limitations on jurisdiction - (1) The Tribunal shall have no jurisdiction in respect of any claim -

- (a) for the recovery of land or any estate or interest in any land;
- (b) in which the title to any land, or any estate or interest in any land is in question;
- (c) in which there is a dispute concerning the entitlement of any person under a will, or settlement, or on any intestacy (including a partial intestacy);
- (d) for any chiefly or other traditional or customary title.

(2) In subsection (1) of this section "land" does not include fixtures.

(3) Without limiting subsection (2) of section 10, nothing in subsection (1) of that section in so far as it confers jurisdiction in quasi-contract on the Tribunal shall be construed as authorising a claim in respect of money due under any enactment.

13. Meaning of enactment - In section 12 (3) "enactment" means any Act of the Parliament of the Cook Islands, any Ordinance, any Act of Parliament of New Zealand in force in the Cook Islands, and any order, regulation, or rule, or any Island Council Ordinance or bylaw; a provision of any Act or of any other instrument that has legislative effect and that is authorised by or pursuant to any Act.

14. Abandonment to bring claim within jurisdiction - A person may abandon so much of a claim as exceeds $5,000 in order to bring the claim within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal; and in that event the approval of an agreed settlement under section 18(3) or, as the case may require, an order of the Tribunal under this Act or any other enactment, in relation to the claim, shall operate to discharge from liability in respect of the amount so abandoned any other person -

- (a) who is a party to that agreed settlement; or
- (b) against whom the claim and the subsequent order are made.

15. Cause of action not to be divided - A cause of action shall not be divided into 2 or more claims for the purpose of bringing it within the jurisdiction of the Tribunal.

16. Contracting out prohibited - (1) A provision in any agreement (including one made before the commencement of this Act) to exclude or limit -

- (a) the jurisdiction of the Tribunal; or
- (b) the right of any person to invoke that jurisdiction, shall be of no effect.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1), the Tribunal shall have jurisdiction in respect of a claim notwithstanding any agreement relating to that claim that provides for -

- (a) the submission to arbitration of any dispute or difference; or

(b) the making of an award upon such a submission to be a condition precedent to any cause of action accruing to a party to the agreement.

(3) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply where a cause of action has accrued, or is believed to have accrued, to a person and that person has agreed to the settlement or compromise of the claim based on that cause of action.

17. Exclusion of other jurisdictions - (1) Where a claim is lodged with the Tribunal, or transferred to the Tribunal under section 24(3) or (4) or section 33, and the claim is within the Tribunal's jurisdiction, the issues in dispute in that claim (whether as shown in the initial claim or as emerging in the course of the hearing) shall not be the subject of proceedings between the same parties in any Court or other tribunal unless -

- (a) any order is made under subsection (2) of section 32 or under section 48(1)(b); or
- (b) the proceedings before that other Court or tribunal were commenced before the claim was lodged with or transferred to the Tribunal; or
- (c) the claim before the Tribunal is withdrawn, abandoned, or struck out.

(2) Where subsection (1)(b) applies to proceedings before the Court or another tribunal, the issues in dispute in the claim to which those proceedings relate (whether as shown in the initial claim or emerging in the course of the hearing) shall not be the subject of proceedings between the same parties in the Tribunal unless the proceedings are transferred to the Tribunal under section 33 or the claim before the Court or other tribunal is withdrawn, abandoned, or struck out.

18. Functions of Tribunal - (1) The Tribunal shall, as regards every claim within its jurisdiction, assess whether, in all the circumstances, it is appropriate for the Tribunal to assist the parties to negotiate an agreed settlement in relation to the claim.

(2) Without limiting the generality of subsection (1) of this section, in making an assessment under that subsection, the Tribunal shall have regard to any factors that, in the Tribunal's opinion, are likely to impair the ability of either or both of the parties to negotiate an agreed settlement.

(3) Where the parties reach an agreed settlement, the Tribunal may approve the settlement, and the settlement shall then take effect as if it were an order of the Tribunal made under subsection (8), and shall be enforceable in accordance with section 43.

(4) In approving an agreed settlement pursuant to subsection (3), the Tribunal shall not be bound by the monetary restrictions provided for by subsections (4) to (6) of section 19.

(5) Where -

- (a) it appears to the Tribunal that it would not be appropriate for it to assist the parties to negotiate an agreed settlement in relation to the claim; or
- (b) the parties are unable to reach an agreed settlement in relation to the claim; or

(c) the Tribunal does not approve an agreed settlement reached by the parties in relation to the claim, the Tribunal shall proceed to determine the dispute.

(6) The Tribunal shall determine the dispute according to the substantial merits and justice of the case, and in doing so shall have regard to the law but shall not be bound to give effect to strict legal rights or obligations or to legal forms or technicalities.

(7) Without limiting the generality of subsection (6), the Tribunal may, in respect of any agreement or document that directly or indirectly bears upon the dispute between the parties, disregard any provision in that agreement or document that excludes or limits -

(a) conditions, warranties, or undertakings; or

(b) any right, duty, liability, or remedy that would arise or accrue in the circumstances of the dispute if there were no such exclusion or limitation.

(8) To give effect to its determination of the dispute under subsection (5), or in granting relief in respect of any claim that is not disputed (except where subsection (3) applies), the Tribunal shall make one or more of the orders that it is empowered to make under section 19 or under any other enactment.

19. Orders of Tribunal - (1) The Tribunal may, as regards any claim within its jurisdiction, make one or more of the following orders -

(a) the Tribunal may order a party to the proceedings to pay money to any other party;

(b) the Tribunal may make an order declaring that a person is not liable to another in respect of a claim or demand described in section 10(1)(b);

(c) the Tribunal may order a party to deliver specific property to another party to the proceedings;

(d) the Tribunal may make a work order against any party to the proceedings;

(e) where it appears to the Tribunal that an agreement between the parties, or any term of any such agreement, is harsh or unconscionable, or that any power conferred by an agreement between them has been exercised in a harsh or unconscionable manner, the Tribunal may make an order varying the agreement, or setting it aside (either wholly or in part);

(f) where it appears to the Tribunal that an agreement between the parties has been induced by fraud, misrepresentation, or mistake, or any writing purporting to express the agreement between the parties does not accord with their true agreement, the Tribunal may make an order varying, or setting aside, the agreement or the writing (either wholly or in part);

(g) the Tribunal may make an order dismissing the claim.

(2) Any order made by the Tribunal may be unconditional, or subject to such conditions (whether as to the time for, or mode of, compliance, or otherwise) as the Tribunal thinks fit to impose.

(3) Where the Tribunal makes a work order against a party, it shall, where the order is made under section 18(8) or section 42(2), at the same time make an order under subsection (1)(a) to be complied with as an alternative to compliance with the work order.

(4) Subject to section 20, the Tribunal shall not make an order under this Act that exceeds the monetary restrictions specified in subsection (5), and any order that exceeds such restrictions shall be entirely of no effect.

(5) The monetary restrictions that apply for the purposes of subsection (4) are as follows -

(a) an order under subsection (1)(a) or under section 43(3)(b) shall not require payment of money exceeding $5000;

(b) a declaration under subsection (1)(b) shall not relate to a claim or demand exceeding $5000;

(c) an order under subsection (1)(c) shall not relate to any property exceeding $5000 in value;

(d) the work to be done or matters to be attended to under a work order shall not exceed $5000 in value;

(e) an order under paragraph (e) or paragraph (f) of subsection (1) shall not be made in respect of an agreement if the total amount in respect of which an order of the Tribunal is sought exceeds $5000.

(6) Except as provided in subsection (3), and subject to subsection (7), the Tribunal shall not, in respect of a claim, make more than one of the orders authorised by paragraphs (a) to (d) of subsection (1), or by any other enactment, if the aggregate amount or value of those orders exceeds $5000, and every order so made contrary to this subsection shall be entirely of no effect.

(7) Nothing in subsection (1) shall restrict the making by the Tribunal of any order that it is authorised to make by any other enactment.

20. Power of Tribunal to award interest - (1) Subject to subsection (2), where the Tribunal makes an order under section 19(1)(a) or section 43(3)(b) that a party to the proceedings pay money to another party to the proceedings, the Tribunal may, if it thinks fit, order that there shall be included in the amount so ordered to be paid interest at such rate, not exceeding the prescribed rate, as it thinks fit on the whole or any part of that amount for the whole or any part of the period between the date when the cause of action arose and the date of the making of the order.

(2) Subsection (1) does not -

(a) authorise the giving of interest upon interest; or

(b) apply in relation to any debt upon which interest is payable as of right, whether by virtue of any agreement, enactment, or rule of law, or otherwise.

(3) Where the Tribunal makes an order under section 19(1) (a) in respect of a debt upon which interest is payable as of right, and in respect of which the rate of interest is not agreed upon, prescribed, or ascertained under any agreement, enactment, or rule of law or otherwise, there shall be included in the amount ordered to be paid interest at such rate, not exceeding the prescribed rate, as the Tribunal thinks fit for the period between the date as from which interest became payable and the date of the making of the order.

(4) The monetary restrictions provided for by section 11, and subsections (4) to (6) of section 19 do not apply in respect of any interest claimed, payable, or ordered to be paid under this section.

(5) In this section the term "the prescribed rate" means the rate of 10 percent per annum, or such higher or lower rate as may from time to time be prescribed for the purposes of this section by the Queen's Representative by Order in Executive Council.

21. Reasons for decisions - (1) The Tribunal shall in all proceedings give its reasons for its final decision in the proceedings.

(2) The Tribunal shall give its reasons for its final decision -

(a) orally, at the conclusion of the hearing; or

(3) Where the Tribunal gives its reasons for its final decision orally, the Tribunal may of its own motion, and shall if any party to the proceedings so requests, record those reasons in writing.

(4) A request made by a party under subsection (3) -

(a) if made at the conclusion of the hearing, may be made orally;

(b) if made after the conclusion of the hearing, shall be made -

(i) in writing; and

(ii) within 28 days of the conclusion of the hearing, or within such further time as a High Court Judge may, on application, allow.

22. Orders and a proved settlements to be recorded in writing - (1) The Tribunal shall make or cause to be made a written record of the terms of -

(c) every variation of a term of an agreed settlement under section 43(3)(a).

(2) The Tribunal shall, at the conclusion of the hearing, provide every party to the proceedings who is present at the hearing with a copy of every record made under subsection (1) in those proceedings.

23. Decisions of Tribunal to be final - Every agreed settlement approved by the Tribunal under section 18(3), and every order made by the Tribunal under section 18(8) or section 42(2) or section 43(3) (b), and every variation of a term of an agreed settlement under section 43(3)(a) shall be final and binding on all parties to the proceedings in which that settlement is approved or the order or variation is made, as the case may require, and, except as provided in section 46, no appeal shall lie in respect of any such order or variation or approved settlement.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a person has a sufficient connection with the proceedings on a claim if that person's presence as an applicant or a respondent is necessary to enable the

(2) Every acknowledgment lodged under subsection (1) shall be in writing and shall be signed by the party and by the party's insurer.

(3) Where, in any proceedings before a Tribunal, an acknowledgment from the party's insurer is lodged pursuant to subsection (1) -

33. (b) those proceedings have been transferred to the Tribunal under section 33(1); and the Tribunal may order the first-mentioned party to pay to the party who commenced the proceedings

(d) the fee paid by the latter party in respect of the filing of those proceedings in the High Court; and

(3) If that party does not file in the Court, within the period prescribed for so doing, a notice of objection in the prescribed form, the order may, after the expiry of that period, be enforced pursuant to subsection (1).

(4) The notice referred to in subsection (3) may only be given on the ground that it is the belief of the party that the order of the Tribunal has been fully complied with and that that party therefore disputes the entitlement of the applicant to enforce it.

(5) If the party against whom enforcement is sought files the notice referred to in subsection (3) within the prescribed time, the Registrar shall refer the matter to the Tribunal to be heard and determined under section 42(2).

42. Enforcement of work orders - (1) Where -

(a) a party in whose favour a work order has been made considers that the work order has not been complied with by the other party; and

(b) that other party has not complied with the alternative money order provided for by section 19(3) -

the party in whose favour the work order was made may, instead of applying to the High Court for the issue of a process for enforcement pursuant to section 43(1), lodge in the Tribunal a request in the prescribed form that the work order be enforced.

(2) Subsequent proceedings shall be taken on a request for enforcement under subsection (1) of this section and on a notice under section 41(5) as if such request or notice were a claim lodged under section 24; and upon the hearing of the matter the Tribunal may -

- (a) vary the work order, or make a further work order, or any other order that is authorised by section 19;
- (b) grant leave to the party in whose favour the work order was made to enforce the alternative money order provided for by section 19(3), or so much of that order as the Tribunal may allow, and either subject to or without compliance with the provisions of section 41(2);

(2) Where -

- (a) a term of an agreed settlement approved by the Tribunal under section 18(3) provides for a party to make good a defect in any property, or a deficiency in the performance of services, by doing such work or attending to such matters (including the replacement of any property) as may be specified in the agreement; and
- (b) a party who would benefit by the enforcement of that term considers that the term has not been complied with by the other party, the party who would benefit by the enforcement of the term may lodge in the Tribunal a request in the prescribed form for that term to be enforced.

(3) Subsequent proceedings shall be taken on a request for enforcement under subsection (2) of this section as if such request were a claim lodged under section 24; and upon the hearing of the matter the Tribunal may -

- (a) if the parties so agree, vary the term of the agreed settlement that is sought to be enforced, or any other term of that settlement;
- (b) strike out the term of the agreed settlement that is sought to be enforced and, subject to section 19(4), order the party against whom enforcement of the term is sought to pay money to the party seeking to enforce it.

44. No filing fee payable - No filing fee shall be payable by a person who, pursuant to section 41 (1) or section 43(1), seeks to enforce an order or a term of an agreed settlement, but any fee that would otherwise be payable therefore shall be recoverable from the opposite party for the credit of the Cook Islands Government Account.

(3) Every application for a rehearing shall be made, accompanied by the prescribed fee, within 21 days after the Tribunal's order (or, in the case of an agreed settlement, the Tribunal's approval of the settlement or the variation of a term of that settlement under section 43(3)(a) as the case may require) or within such further time not exceeding 3 months as the Tribunal may, on application, allow, and shall be served upon the other parties to the proceedings.
