

Requirements for Obtaining Permission for Conveyance to Estonia of Plant Protection Products for Research and Development Purposes, and Procedure for Application for Permission and Processing of Applications¹

Approved by Regulation No 109 of the Minister of Agriculture of 8 December 2006 (RTL² 2006, 88, 1625), entered into force 22.12.2006.

Amended by the following Regulations (date, number, *Riigi Teataja*³ citation and date of entry into force):

04.11.2008 No 102 (RTL 2008, 90, 1267) 17.11.2008

The Regulation is established on the basis of subsection 62 (5) of the Plant Protection Act.

§ 1. Scope of application

The requirements for obtaining permission for conveyance to Estonia of plant protection products for research and development purposes and for the use of plant protection products for the same purposes and the procedure for application for permission and processing of applications shall be established by the Regulation.

§ 2. Requirements for obtaining permission for conveyance to Estonia of plant protection products for research and development purposes and for use of plant protection products for same purposes

(1) A person may convey plant protection products to Estonia for research and development purposes on the basis of the permission specified in subsection 62 (4) of the Plant Protection Act.

(2) The quantity of plant protection products conveyed to Estonia shall correspond to the quantity required for research and development.

(3) Upon conveyance to Estonia of plant protection products for research and development purposes and for the use of plant protection products for the same purposes, the following shall be ensured:

- 1) [Repealed – RTL 2008, 90, 1267 – entered into force 17.11.2008]
- 2) the existence of conditions necessary for research and development on the plant protection products;
- 3) the appropriate training of the employees using the plant protection products;
- 4) use of the plant protection products for research and development purposes.

§ 3. Procedure for application for permission

(1) In order to obtain permission for conveyance to Estonia of plant protection products for research and development purposes and for the use of plant protection products for the same purposes, a person shall submit to the Plant Production Inspectorate a written application regarding the batch of plant protection products not later than five working days before the planned conveyance of the plant protection products to Estonia.

[RTL 2008, 90, 1267 – entered into force 17.11.2008]

(2) An application shall set out the following information:

- 1) the name, location and address, personal identification code or registry code and telecommunications numbers of the applicant for permission;
- 2) the name, address and registry code of the research and development institution conducting testing;
- 3) the name of the plant protection product and an active substance thereof, the type of effect, type of preparation and quantity of the plant protection product;
- 4) the name of the country of origin of the plant protection product and the name and address of the manufacturer;
- 5) the purpose of use of the plant protection product;

[RTL 2008, 90, 1267 – entered into force 17.11.2008]

6) the place of use of the plant protection product.

[RTL 2008, 90, 1267 – entered into force 17.11.2008]

§ 4. Procedure for processing of applications

(1) In order to grant permission or refuse grant of the permission, the Plant Production Inspectorate shall verify the compliance of the information set out in the application with the requirements and, if necessary, request that the applicant submit additional information or documents.

[RTL 2008, 90, 1267 – entered into force 17.11.2008]

(2) The Plant Production Inspectorate may refuse to grant permission on the bases specified in subsection 62 (6) of the Plant Protection Act.

(3) Taking account of the results of the verification, the Plant Production Inspectorate shall decide to grant permission or refuse grant of the permission within twenty days as of receipt of a correctly completed application.
