COMMISSION DELEGATED REGULATION (EU) 2016/232

of 15 December 2015

supplementing Regulation (EU) No 1308/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council with regard to certain aspects of producer cooperation

THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION,

Having regard to the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union,

Having regard to Regulation (EU) No 1308/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 17 December 2013 establishing a common organisation of the markets in agricultural products and repealing Council Regulations (EEC) No 922/72, (EEC) No 234/79, (EC) No 1037/2001 and (EC) No 1234/2007 <sup>(1)</sup>, and in particular Articles 173(1) and 223(2) thereof,

Whereas:

- (1) Regulation (EU) No 1308/2013 has repealed and replaced Council Regulation (EC) No 1234/2007 <sup>(2)</sup> and lays down specific rules on producer organisations, associations of producer organisations and interbranch organisations. Regulation (EU) No 1308/2013 empowers the Commission to adopt delegated and implementing acts in that respect. In order to ensure the effectiveness of the action of such organisations and associations in the new legal framework, certain rules have to be adopted.
- (2) Specific rules on certain aspects of producer cooperation already exist for the fruit and vegetables sector, the milk and milk products sector and the olive-oil and table-olives sector. In order to ensure continuity, the specific rules for these sectors should continue to apply. For those aspects of producer cooperation which are not covered by those specific rules, this Delegated Regulation should apply.
- (3) Article 155 of Regulation (EU) No 1308/2013 provides that Member States may allow recognised producer organisations or recognised associations of producer organisations to outsource any of their activities other than production in those sectors for which outsourcing is allowed by the Commission. At present, outsourcing is provided for in the fruit and vegetables sector and the olive-oil and table-olives sector. Taking into account the economic aspects involved and the benefits that the outsourcing of certain activities can provide to producer organisations and associations of producer organisations and to their members, such outsourcing should be available to all sectors.
- (4) Rules on the recognition of transnational producer organisations, transnational associations of producer organisations and transnational interbranch organisations should be laid down as well as rules clarifying the responsibility of the Member States involved. While respecting the freedom of establishment, the recognition of transnational producer organisations and transnational associations of producer organisations should be the responsibility of the Member State in which such organisations and associations have a significant number of members or a significant volume or value of marketable production. For transnational interbranch organisations it should be for the Member State where their headquarters are established to decide on their recognition.

- (5) Rules should be laid down relating to the establishment of administrative assistance to be given in the case of transnational cooperation. Such assistance should in particular include the transfer of information that would allow the competent Member State to assess whether a transnational producer organisation, association of producer organisations or interbranch organisation complies with the terms of recognition. Such information is also necessary to allow the competent Member State to take action in case of non-compliance. At the same time, such assistance will permit the competent Member States to transfer information upon request to the Member States where members of such organisations or associations are located.
- (6) In order to ensure the proper functioning of measures under the common agricultural policy and for the purpose of monitoring, analysing and managing the market in agricultural products and ensuring a harmonised and simplified approach, the information required when notifying the decisions to allow outsourcing and to grant, refuse or withdraw the recognition of a producer organisation, association of producer organisations or interbranch organisation should be specified.
- (7) Commission Regulations (EC) No 223/2008 <sup>(1)</sup> and (EC) No 709/2008 <sup>(2)</sup> provide for rules on producer organisations, associations of producer organisations and interbranch organisations. Certain provisions of those Regulations are obsolete or have never been applied. Therefore, in order to guarantee the consistency with the new legislation on the common organisation of agricultural markets, those Regulations should be repealed,
