FALKLAND ISLANDS

Customs Ordinance 1943

*[DATE OF COMMENCEMENT: 12TH SEPTEMBER 1946]
(Unless otherwise indicated)*

35. Governor may prohibit importation, carriage coastwise or exportation.

The Governor may by proclamation prohibit the importation, carriage coastwise or exportation of any goods whatsoever, and any such proclamation may prohibit importation, carriage coastwise or exportation until the revocation thereof, or during such period as may be specified therein, and may either absolutely prohibit importation, carriage coastwise or exportation, or may prohibit importation, carriage coastwise or exportation except on compliance with any conditions which may be specified in the proclamation, or importation from or exportation to any particular place named in the proclamation.

36. Goods prohibited to be imported.

Until revoked by proclamation under section 35 the importation of the following goods is prohibited:

- (a) all goods to which is applied a forged or false trade mark, or a mark so nearly resembling a trade mark as to be calculated to deceive;
- (b) all goods which are infected or likely to be infected with anthrax;
- (c) arms and ammunition, except with the written permission of the Chief Executive;
- (d) coin which is base or counterfeit coin of any country;
- (e) coin, imitation and foreign, of a kind which is prohibited by law to be imported into the United Kingdom;
- (f) coin, silver of the realm, or any money purporting to be such, not being of the established standard in weight and fineness;
- (g) extracts, essences or other concentrations of tobacco, or any admixture of the same, tobacco stalks and tobacco-stalk flour, except under such conditions as the Collector may with the approval of the Governor either generally or in any particular case allow;

- (h) fictitious stamps as defined in the Post Office Ordinance 1998, and any die, plate, instrument or materials capable of making any such stamps;
- (i) indecent or obscene prints, paintings, photographs, books, cards, lithographic or other drawings, or any other indecent or obscene articles;
- (j) mechanical games or devices set in operation wholly or partly by the insertion of a coin, and so constructed as to return to the person inserting the coin or coins, in certain circumstances, a coin or coins of greater total value than that of the coin or coins inserted;
- (k) spirits (not being cordial or perfumed or medical spirits), and wine, unless specifically reported as such, and unless in aircraft, or in ships of 30 tons burden at least, and in casks or other vessels capable of containing liquids, each such casks or other vessels being of the size or content of 9 gallons at the least, or unless in glass or stone bottles, properly packed in cases, or in demijohns, each case or demijohn containing not less than 1 gallon;
- (l) saccharin, except with the written permission of the Senior Medical Officer;
- (m) tobacco, cigars, cigarillos and cigarettes, unless specifically reported as such and unless in aircraft, or ships of 30 tons burden at least, and unless in whole and complete packages, each containing not less than 20 pounds net weight of tobacco, cigars, cigarillos or cigarettes.”
