(2) References in this Act to a fish shall be construed as including references to part of a fish. (3) In this Act a reference by number to a Part or section is to the Part or section of this Act bearing that number unless it is indicated that reference to some other Act is intended. (4) References in this Act to any enactment shall, unless the context otherwise requires, be construed as references to that enactment as amended by any subsequent enactment including this Act.

The Foyle Area. 3.- (1) In this Act "the Foyle Area" means the area comprising the fishery district, originally created and defined as the Londonderry District by an order made on the 9th day of July, 1855, by the Commissioners of Fisheries. (2) Judicial notice shall be taken of the boundaries of the Foyle Area.

Restriction of Fisheries Acts. 4.-The provisions referred to in the third column of the First Schedule to this Act of the enactments referred to in the second column shall, on and from the establishment date, cease to apply to the Moville Area.

Laying of accounts and reports before Oireachtas. 5.-The Minister shall cause to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas a copy of the accounts of the Commission for each year audited in accordance with paragraph 17 of the Third Schedule to this Act, and of the report of the auditors thereon, and a copy of the annual report furnished to him by the Commission.

Deposit of copies of orders and regulations. 6.-A copy of every order or regulation made under this Act shall be deposited- (a) with the county registrar for the county of Donegal, (b) with the District Court Clerk of every Court District which or part of which is situate in the Movable Area, and (c) in every station of the Garda Síochána situate in the Movable Area,

Expenses. 7.-All expenses incurred by the Minister in carrying this Act into effect shall, to such extent as shall be sanctioned by the Minister for Finance, be defrayed out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas.

PART II - ACQUISITION OF FOYLE FISHERY RIGHTS

Power to acquire fishing rights, etc. 8.- (1) The Minister is hereby authorised to enter into an agreement (in this Act referred to as the vesting agreement) with the Ministry and the Irish Society in the terms of the draft set out in the Second Schedule to this Act. (2) On the date of execution of the vesting agreement this subsection shall operate to vest in the Minister and the Ministry an absolute and indefeasible title to the fee simple in possession of all rights of fishing in the tidal portions of the Lough and River Foyle and of its tributary, the River Faughan, freed and discharged from all estates, titles, interests, incumbrances, rights, liberties and privileges whatsoever by whomsoever held, used, exercised or enjoyed, except the rent charges referred to in the vesting agreement but indemnified therefrom as therein provided. (3) Subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to a right vested, immediately before the date of execution of the vesting agreement, in any person, other than the Irish Society, to use a fixed engine under certificate granted under section 6 of the Salmon Fishery (Ireland) Act, 1863. (4) On the date of execution of the vesting agreement this subsection shall operate to extinguish all the estate, right, title and interest of the Irish Society in and to the tidal portions of the Lough and River Foyle and of its tributary, the River Faughan, and the ground, soil and foreshore of those tidal portions. (5) The vesting agreement shall operate, without further assurance, to convey, assign and transfer, on the date of the making thereof, to the Minister and the Ministry all the property thereby agreed to be sold, other than rights of fishing to which subsection (2) of this section applies. (6) The Irish Society shall, notwithstanding any limitations on its powers, have power to enter into the vesting agreement without the consent of any person. (7) It shall be the duty of the Minister and the Irish Society, and each such party is hereby empowered, to carry out the vesting agreement so far as the provisions thereof are to be performed by such party. (8) If any person, other than the Irish Society, proves that he has been divested of an interest in a several right of fishing by subsection (2) of this section he shall be entitled to recover from the Commission compensation for loss of that interest, and any question whether compensation is payable under this subsection or as to the amount thereof shall, in default of agreement, be determined under and in accordance with the Acquisition of Land (Assessment of Compensation) Act, 1919, by an arbitrator appointed under that Act. (9) When assessing compensation under subsection (8) of this section, the arbitrator shall have regard to the extent to which the right in question was exercised during the ten years ending on the execution of the vesting agreement.

Exemption from stamp duties. 9.- (1) Section 12 of the Finance Act, 1895, shall not operate to require the delivery to the Revenue Commissioners of a copy of this Act or the payment of stamp duty under that section on any copy of this Act. (2) Stamp duty shall not be chargeable on the vesting agreement or on any instrument executed in pursuance thereof.

PART III - THE FOYLE FISHERIES COMMISSION

Commencement of this Part. 10.-The subsequent provisions of this Part shall come into operation on such day as the Minister, after consultation with the Ministry, may by order appoint. Constitution and Functions.

Establishment of Foyle Fisheries Commission. 11.- (1) There is hereby established a body to be known as the Foyle Fisheries Commission. (2) The functions of the Commission shall be- (a) the management of the property vested in the Minister and the Ministry under section 8; (b) the conservation, protection and improvement of the fisheries of the Foyle Area generally. (3) The provisions of the Third Schedule to this Act shall apply to the Commission.

Exemption from rates and taxes. 12.-(1) The Commission shall not be liable for any tax whatsoever in respect of the property in, or occupation of any lands, tenements and hereditaments or in respect of any of its income. (2) The Commission shall not be liable for a rate leviable by any local authority in respect of the use or occupation by the Commission of any hereditament or tenement and any hereditament or tenement so used or occupied shall, for the purpose of section 2 of the Valuation (Ireland) Act, 1854, be deemed to be of a public nature and occupied for the public service. (3) In each local financial year there shall be paid to a local authority in the Merville Area out of moneys to be provided by the Oireachtas such sum as that authority would have been entitled under law to receive in respect of rates but for the exemption conferred by subsection (2) of this section.

Regulations. 13.-(1) The Commission may, with the approval of the Minister and the Ministry, make such regulations as appear to the Commission to be expedient for the management, conservation, protection and improvement of the fisheries of the Foyle Area and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make regulations in relation to all or any of the following matters- (a) the regulation of fishing and preservation of good order amongst persons fishing, (b) the times and seasons for the taking of fish or any kind of fish or for any mode of taking fish or any kind of fish and the conditions subject to which fish or any kind of fish may be taken, (c) prohibiting any mode of taking or destroying fish or any kind of fish, (d) the times and places or the mode at or in which any fishing engine may be used, (e) the description and form of nets to be used and the size of the meshes of those nets. (f) the prohibition, either absolutely or otherwise than under and in accordance with a licence issued by the Commission, of the use of any fishing engine, (g) the making of applications for, and the issue, alteration, renewal, and revocation of licences, whether generally or in specified cases, (h) the protection of waters from poisoning and pollution by any deleterious or poisonous matter, or from any predatory fish or animals, (i) the prohibition of any practice whatsoever tending in the opinion of the Commission to impede the lawful capture of fish or to be in any manner detrimental to the fisheries, (j) defining, by reference to a map or otherwise, the mouth of any river in the Foyle Area, the mouth of any tributary river at its entrance into any other river therein, the boundary between the tidal and freshwater portions of any river therein, the point or points to or from which distances are to be measured under this Act, or the space within which it is prohibited by this Act or by regulations under this section to use or practise certain methods of fishing, (k) anything referred to in this Act as prescribed, (l) anything relating in any manner to the management and protection of the fisheries. (2) Regulations made by the Commission under this section may provide for charging in respect of any licence or other document issued or varied by the Commission such fees, payable at such time and in such manner, as may be prescribed. (3) Every regulation made by the Commission under this section shall, as soon as may be after it is made, be published in Iris Oifigiúil and in one or more newspapers circulating in the Foyle Area. (4) Any instrument made under the Fisheries Acts which is in force immediately before the establishment date and applies to the fishery district known as the Merville District shall thereafter continue in force and be deemed to be made under this section and may be revoked by regulations under this section. (5) The Minister shall cause every regulation made under this Act to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made and, if a resolution annulling the regulation is passed by either House, within the next twenty-one days on which that House has sat after the regulation has been laid before it, the regulation shall be annulled accordingly, but without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done thereunder. (6) If any person contravenes (whether by act or omission) any regulations under this section, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Restriction on number of licences. 14.-(1) The number of licences for fishing with fishing engines of any kind (other than rod and line) in the tidal waters of the Foyle Area which may be issued by the Commission in any year shall not exceed such number as may be for the time being prescribed. (2) If the number of applications duly made for licences in any year exceeds the maximum number provided for under this section, the licences shall be allocated in such manner as may be prescribed. Financial Provisions.

Annual Estimate. 15.-The Commission shall furnish to the Minister on or before the 30th day of November in every fishery year an estimate of its income and expenditure for that year.

Grants. 16.-(1) There may be paid to the Commission, out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas, a grant or grants of such amount as the Minister, with the concurrence of the Minister for Finance, may sanction towards the expenses of the Commission for any fishery year. (2) In determining the amount of a grant under this section for a particular fishery year the Minister shall have regard to the amount of any grant paid or to be paid to the Commission by the Ministry for that year.

Advances. 17.-(1) For the purpose of enabling the Commission to exercise or perform its functions, the Minister may, with the concurrence of the Minister for Finance, make advances from time to time to the Commission, out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas. (2) A sum advanced under this section shall be repayable on such terms as may, with the concurrence of the Minister for Finance, be agreed between the Minister and the Commission.

Power of the Commission to borrow temporarily. 18.-The Commission may borrow temporarily by arrangement with bankers such sums as it may from time to time require, up to an amount not exceeding such amount as may from time to time be approved by the Minister and the Ministry. Dissolution of Movable Board.

Dissolution of Movable Board of Conservators. 19.-(1) The Movable Board is hereby dissolved. (2) All property, rights and liabilities of the Movable Board are hereby transferred to the Commission.

Continuance of pending legal proceedings. 20.-The Commission shall, upon the establishment date, become and be a party to all pending legal proceedings to which the Movable Board is a party, in place of that Board, and the proceedings shall be continued accordingly and shall not abate or be discontinued or prejudicially affected by reason of the dissolution of that Board.

Continuance of licences. 21.-(1) A special local licence- (a) issued by the Movable Board under the Fisheries (Tidal Waters) Act, 1934 (No. 24 of 1934), for the tidal waters of the River Foyle known as the "Branch Stream" to which that Act was declared by order of the Minister to apply, and (b) in force immediately before the establishment date, shall, notwithstanding section 4, continue in force in accordance with its terms subject to the provisions of the Fisheries (Tidal Waters) Act, 1934, and section 54 of the Fisheries Act, 1939 (No. 17 of 1939), and the orders and regulations of the Minister thereunder and those provisions, orders and regulations shall be construed in relation to such licences with the substitution of references to the Commission for references to the Movable Board. (2) A licence (other than a special local licence) issued by the Movable Board and in force immediately before the establishment date shall continue in force in accordance with its terms and shall be deemed to be a fishing licence for the purposes of this Act. The Advisory Council for the Foyle Area.

Establishment and Functions of Advisory Council. 22.-(1) There shall be an Advisory Council for the Foyle Area. (2) The functions of the Advisory Council shall be to watch over the interests of the holders of fishing licences and the occupiers of fisheries in the Foyle Area, to make such suggestions and representations as it thinks proper to the Commission in relation to any of the Commission's functions, and to advise the Commission upon any matter referred to it by the Commission. (3) The provisions of the Fourth Schedule to this Act shall apply to the Advisory Council.

PART IV - RATES ON FISHERIES

Rates on fisheries. 23.-(1) In the fishery year commencing on the 1st day of October, 1952, and in every subsequent fishery year, the Commission shall, on or before the 31st day of December, make a rate of an amount equal to twenty shillings in the pound on every fishery (other than a fishery of which the Commission is the occupier) in the Movable Area on the valuation thereof appearing in the revised Valuation List required under the Valuation Acts to be issued by the Commissioner of Valuation not later than the preceding 1st day of March. (2) Every rate under this section shall be paid by the several persons liable therefor in two moieties on the 1st day of April and the 1st day of September in the fishery year for which the rate is payable and shall be so paid over and above all or any licence fees paid by those persons under this Act for that or any other fishery year. (3) A person who is liable to be rated under this Act in respect of a fishery shall, in respect of that fishery, be exempt from liability for any rate leviable by a local authority. (4) Subsection (7) of section 13 of the Fisheries Act, 1925 (No. 32 of 1925), shall apply to the Movable Area and for the purpose of such application the exemption conferred by subsection (3) of this section shall be deemed to have been conferred by the said section 13.

Liability of occupier for fishery rate. 24.-The occupier of a fishery shall be liable to pay the fishery rate in respect of the fishery.

Collection of fishery rate. 25.-Fishery rate shall be collected by such persons as the Commission may from time to time appoint, adequate security being taken by the Commission from the persons so appointed for the due accounting for the rate collected, and the costs of the collection of the rate shall be part of the expenses of the Commission.

Recovery of fishery rate. 26.-(1) Fishery rate may be recovered at the suit of the Commission as a simple contract debt in any court of competent jurisdiction. (2) If any sum due in respect of fishery rate is not paid within one month after the date on which it is required by subsection (2) of section 23 to be paid, such sum shall be recoverable (at the option of the person entitled by law to collect and recover it) from the occupier or from any other person who, when such fishery rate was made or at any subsequent time, held, used or occupied the said fishery or any part thereof and, if such last-mentioned person is a tenant of the occupier, he may, unless the contract of tenancy provides for the payment of fishery rate by the tenant, deduct the amount of any fishery rate so recovered from him from any rent payable to the occupier.

Fishery rate struck by Movable Board. 27.-Sections 24, 25 and 26 shall apply to every fishery rate struck by the Movable Board and confirmed under section 13 of the Fisheries Act, 1925 (No. 32 of 1925), and not fully paid before the establishment date.

PART V - TIMES OF FISHING AND ANCILLARY PROVISIONS

Close seasons and close time. 28.-(1) The annual close season in the Foyle Area shall be the period prescribed for that purpose or, if no period is prescribed, the period beginning on the 1st day of September and ending on the 14th day of April next following. (2) The annual close season for angling in the Foyle Area shall be the period prescribed for that purpose or, if no period is prescribed, the period beginning on the 13th day of October and ending on the 31st day of January next following. (3) The weekly close time in the Foyle Area shall be the period prescribed for that purpose or, if no period is prescribed, the period beginning at 6 o'clock a.m. on Saturday and ending at 6 o'clock a.m. on the following Monday. (4) Different periods may be prescribed under this section in respect of different parts of the Foyle Area and, where a period is so prescribed for a particular part of that area, references in this Act to the annual close season, the annual close season for angling or the weekly close time shall, as the case may require, be construed in relation to that part as references to the period so prescribed.

Fishing during close seasons. 29.-If any person- (a) fishes for, takes, kills or attempts to take or kill salmon or trout (except with a rod and line), during the annual close season, or (b) fishes for, takes, kills or attempts to take or kill salmon or trout with a rod and line during the annual close season for angling, or (c) aids or assists in any such act or attempt, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Fishing during close time. 30.-If any person fishes for, takes, kills or attempts to take or kill salmon or trout (except with a rod and line) during the weekly close time or aids or assists in any such act or attempt he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Obstruction of salmon and trout. 31.-(1) If any person places any obstruction, uses any contrivance or does any act for the purpose of obstructing the passage of salmon or trout during the annual close season or weekly close time he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act, (2) Nothing in this section shall apply to lawful fishing with rod and line.

Removal of fixed engines during close season and close time. 32.-(1) The occupier of any fixed engine for taking salmon or trout shall forthwith, after the commencement of the annual close season and until the end of that season, and also during the weekly close time, cause the fixed engine to be removed or rendered incapable of taking or obstructing the passage of salmon and trout. (2) If any person fails to comply with this section, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (3) In this section "fixed engine" means any net, implement, engine or device, fixed to the soil or secured by anchors or held by hand or made stationary in any other way and used solely for the purpose of taking or facilitating the taking of fish.

Removal of nets from banks of rivers during close season. 33.-If any person engaged in fishing for salmon or trout by means of nets of any kind or description omits or neglects to remove and carry away from any strand or from the banks of any river or from the vicinity thereof such nets during the annual close season such person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Use of nets during close season or close time. 34.-If any person does any of the following things during the annual close season or weekly close time- (a) places, affixes or attaches any net to any stake, bridge, sluice or lock gates of a canal or other such fixed erections, or (b) lays, draws or fishes with any net whatsoever, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Prohibition of sale, etc, of salmon and trout unlawfully captured. 35.-(1) If any person buys, sells, exposes for sale or has in his possession any salmon or trout unlawfully captured such person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds, together with a further fine not exceeding two pounds for each salmon or trout so bought, sold, exposed for sale or found in his possession. (2) In any proceedings under this section, the onus of proving that the salmon or trout, the subject of the proceedings, was lawfully captured shall lie on the defendant. (3) Where a person, being a common carrier, is charged with the offence of having in his possession any salmon or trout unlawfully captured, it shall be a good defence to the charge for him to prove- (a) that he had the salmon or trout in his possession as a common carrier and not otherwise, and (b) that at the time at which the salmon or trout was accepted by him for carriage, the consignor delivered to him a certificate in writing signed by the consignor to the effect that the salmon or trout was lawfully captured. (4) Where- (a) a person is charged with an offence under this section in relation to a salmon or trout, and (b) he proves that the fish was caught by rod and line at a particular place during a period other than the annual close season for angling at that place, and (c) if the capture of the fish was prohibited save in accordance with a licence, he proves that the fish was caught by the holder of such a licence, the charge against him shall be dismissed.

Restrictions on sale and export for sale of salmon and trout. 36.-(1) The provisions to which this section applies shall have effect in relation to the Merville Area with the substitution of- (a) references to the Commission for references to a board of conservators, (b) references to the Merville Area for references to any district, and (c) references to an officer of the Commission for references to the clerk of a board of conservators. (2) The Commission is hereby exempted from compliance with the provisions to which this section applies, (3) The provisions to which this section applies are- (a) Part III of the Fisheries Act, 1925 (No. 32 of 1925), as amended, and (b) Sections 42 of the Fisheries Act, 1939 (No. 17 of 1939).

PART VI - PROTECTION OF FISHERIES

Regulations as to Nets. Restrictions on use of nets. 37.-If any person- (a) makes use of or fishes with any net formed with a false bottom (except nets for the taking of eels), or (b) places two or more nets one behind the other, or (c) uses any nets covered with canvas, hide, or other substance for the purpose of taking small fish, or (d) affixes or keeps up continued nets stretched across any river, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

38.-(1) If, on any part of the coast or within any bay, estuary or tideway thereof, any person uses any net to which this section applies with a mesh of less size than one and three-quarter inches from knot to knot, to be measured along the side of the square, or seven inches to be measured all round each such mesh, such measurement being taken in the clear when the net is wet, then, subject to subsection (2) of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (2) The Commission may by regulation under section 13 permit the use of nets to which this section applies having meshes of a less size than that specified in subsection (1) of this section. (3) In this section the expression "net to which this section applies" means any net or other engine which is not formed of a rigid material and which is used for the taking of salmon.

Use of salmon nets near mouths of rivers. 39.-(1) If any person (other than the owner of a several fishery within the limits thereof) shoots, draws, or uses any net for taking salmon at the mouth of any river or within half a mile seaward or half a mile inwards or along the coast from the mouth of any river, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (2) If any person shoots, draws, or stretches any net entirely across the mouth or across any other part of a river, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (3) Where regulations under this Act define the mouth of any tributary river, references in this section to the mouth of any river shall be construed as including references to the mouth of that tributary river.

Restrictions on possession of unlawful net, etc. 40.-(1) No person shall have in his possession or control in any river or on or near the banks of any river any net or other instrument or lure or bait the use of which for the purpose of taking salmon, trout or other fish is unlawful. (2) Any person who has in his possession or control any net or other instrument or lure or bait in contravention of this section shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (3) Where- (a) a person is found in possession of or has in his control any net in the vicinity of the boundary between the tidal and freshwater portions of any river, and (b) by reason thereof such person is charged with an offence under this section, it shall be a good defence to such charge for such person to prove that he is the holder of a licence to use such net and that such net is intended for use in such tidal portion. Prohibition of Certain Methods of Fishing for, and of Practices Liable to Destroy, Salmon and Other Fish.

Use or possession of explosives. 41.-(1) In this section- "explosive" means dynamite or other explosive substance; "waters" means any river or any part of the sea coast. (2) If any person employs in any waters any explosive for the purpose of capturing or destroying fish, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (3) If any person, being on the bank of or near any waters, has in his possession any explosive with intent to employ it for the purpose of capturing or destroying fish, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (4) Every person guilty of an offence under subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

Use or possession of deleterious or poisonous matter. 42.-(1) If any person employs in any river any deleterious or poisonous matter for the purpose of capturing or destroying fish, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (2) If any person, being on the bank of or near any river, has in his possession any deleterious or poisonous matter with intent to employ it for the purpose of capturing or destroying fish, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalty for using etc, certain devices for taking fish. 43.-(1) If, for the purpose of taking any fish, any person uses or has in his possession or control in any river or on or near the banks thereof any light or fire of any kind, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (2) If, for the purpose of taking any fish, any person uses or has in his possession or control in any river or on or near the banks thereof, any otter, spear, strokehaul, gaff or other instrument of a similar kind, he shall, subject to subsection (3) of this section, be guilty of an offence against this Act. (3) Subsection (2) of this section shall not apply to the use, possession or control of- (a) a gaff used or to be used solely as an auxiliary to lawful angling between sunrise and one hour after sunset, or (b) a gaff used or to be used by the holder of a fishing licence in respect of any box in a fishing weir or fishing mill dam solely for the purpose of lawfully removing fish therefrom, or (c) an eel spear used for taking eels. (4) Every person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) or (2) of this section shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

Fishing for salmon or trout in a river by crow lines. 44.-If any person takes, catches or fishes for any salmon or trout by means of cross lines in any river, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Damming, etc, river or mill race for purpose of taking salmon or trout. 45.-If any person dams, teems or empties any river or water-course for the purpose of taking or destroying any salmon or trout, such person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Taking fish unlawfully killed or found dead. 46.-(1) Every person who by any means removes or causes to be removed from any river- (a) any salmon or trout which have been killed otherwise than by lawful means, or (b) any salmon or trout which have been found dead, from any cause whatever, by such person, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act. (2) This section shall not apply to- (a) any person acting under the authority of the Minister, or (b) any member or officer of the Commission, or (c) any owner of a fishery or his agent acting under the written authority of the Commission, or (d) so far as respects the removal or causing to be removed of any diseased salmon or trout, or any salmon or trout found dead from any cause, any member of the Garda Síochána or any Sanitary Officer. Protection of Young and Breeding Fish.

Taking, etc, spawn, smolts or fry of salmon or trout. 47.-If any person- (a) wilfully takes, sells, purchases, or has in his possession the spawn, smolts or fry of salmon or trout, or (b) wilfully obstructs the passage of the smolts or fry of salmon or trout, or (c) injures or disturbs the spawn or fry of salmon or trout, or (d) injures or disturbs any spawning bed, bank or shallow where the spawn or fry of salmon or trout may be, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Disturbing fish on spawning beds. 48.-If any person disturbs fish on the spawning beds or attempts (except by means of lawful angling with rod and line) to catch fish thereon, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Penalties for taking, buying etc, unseasonable salmon or trout. 49.-(1) Every person who at any time wilfully takes, kills, destroys, buys, sells, exposes for sale or has in his custody or possession any unclean or unseasonable salmon or trout, shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding twelve months or of both such fine and such imprisonment. (2) Where a person is charged with taking a salmon or trout in contravention of this section it shall be a good defence to prove that such salmon or trout was taken accidentally, and was returned without injury to the water immediately upon being taken.

Obstructing persons lawfully fishing. 50.-If any person obstructs any person lawfully engaged in fishing or in proceeding to or in returning from lawful fishing, such first-mentioned person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Placing fishing engine with intent to prevent fish entering nets lawfully set. 51.-If any person wilfully and maliciously places any fishing engine with intent to prevent fish from entering the nets of any other person set and placed in a lawful manner such first-mentioned person shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Giving warning to persons unlawfully fishing. 52.-If any person gives or causes to be given or aids or assists in giving any signal or warning to any person engaged in fishing unlawfully of the approach of any member or officer of the Commission, member of the Garda Síochána, or river watcher appointed under section 56, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Appointment. 53.-(1) Any fishery owner may by power of attorney under his hand appoint an agent to act for him for the purposes of this Act. (2) All things which by this Act are directed to be done by or with relation to any person may be lawfully done by or with relation to an agent appointed by him under this section and the agent may be dealt with in all respects as that person himself might have been dealt with under this Act. (3) Every agent appointed under this section shall have full power, in the name and on behalf of his principal, to take part in or act upon any inquiry, or prosecute, oppose or defend any complaint, appeal, action, writ, suit or other proceeding or to attend, vote at and take part in any meeting or do or suffer any other act for the purposes of this Act. (4) Every person who appoints an agent under this section shall be bound by the acts of the agent, according to the authority committed to him, as fully as if that person had so acted. (5) Every power of attorney under this section shall be produced, inspected or registered and copies and extracts thereof made at such times and places and in such manner as the Commission may prescribe.

(6) A power of attorney under this section may be in the following form- "I, A. B. of _____ hereby appoint C.D. of _____ to be my lawful attorney to act for me in all respects as if I myself were present and acting, and I make this appointment under the Foyle Fisheries Act, 1952. Dated this _____ day of _____, 19 _____. (Signed) A. B." (7)

Where a person is convicted of an offence against this Act he shall thereafter be disqualified from being appointed an agent under this section for a period of seven years from the date of conviction.

PART VII - POWERS OF AUTHORISED PERSONS

Definitions. 54.-In this Part- "authorised person" means (except where the context otherwise requires) a member of the Garda Síochána, a member or officer of the Commission or a private river watcher; "officer of the Commission" means an inspector or river watcher appointed under section 55; "private river watcher" means a river watcher appointed under section 56;

Appointment of inspectors and river watchers. 55.-(1) The Commission may by instrument under its common seal appoint a person to be- (a) an inspector, or (b) a river watcher, and may revoke such instrument. (2) An instrument under this section shall not be subject to stamp duty.

Appointment of river watchers by persons interested in fisheries. 56.-(1) Each of the following persons- (a) any person interested in the preservation of the fish of any river in the Movable Area, (b) any persons who have united themselves into a society for the preservation of any fishery in any such river, (c) the owner of any fishery in any such river, (d) the owner of any salmon fishery on the sea coast, may, from time to time, by instrument in writing in the form set out in the Fifth Schedule to this Act, appoint any person to be a river watcher for the protection of the fisheries on such part of the sea coast or in any such river or the tributaries thereof. (2) A person appointed to be a river watcher under this section shall not act in that capacity until his appointment is confirmed (which confirmation shall be effected by endorsing the instrument of appointment) by any District Justice within whose district the river watcher is appointed to act. (3) A District Justice may upon complaint made to him revoke the appointment of a person appointed under this section to act within his district, and thereupon the appointment shall be determined. (4) If any person acts as a private river watcher without having his appointment confirmed under subsection (2) of this section or after his appointment has been revoked under subsection (3) of this section, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

Limitations on exercise of powers. 57.-(1) The powers conferred by this Part on a private river watcher shall be exercised only for the protection of the fisheries specified in his instrument of appointment. (2) The powers conferred by this Part on a member or officer of the Commission shall be exercised only for the protection of the fisheries of the Foyle Area.

Warrant for exercise of powers. 58.-The production by an officer of the Commission or a private river watcher of his instrument of appointment under this Part shall be a sufficient warrant for his exercising the powers conferred on him by this Part, but the production of such instrument by him shall not be necessary in exercising those powers unless he has been first required to produce it.

General powers. 59.-(1) An authorised person may, for the purposes of the protection of the fisheries, do all or any of the following things- (a) enter into and pass through or along the banks or borders of any rivers frequented by salmon or trout or of the tributaries thereof, (b) with boats or otherwise enter upon any such rivers, (c) enter upon and examine all weirs, sluices, mill dams, mill races and watercourses communicating with such rivers, (d) enter any boat which has been or is engaged or is about to engage in fishing, (e) examine all standing, floating or other nets whatsoever, (f) seize any unlawful fishing engine or any lawful fishing engine which is being unlawfully used, (g) do all such other acts and things as he is authorised to do by or under this Act. (2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as authorising any person to enter any enclosed garden or any dwelling-house or the curtilage thereof except where the ordinary road or passage to any weir, dam or dyke traverses such garden or curtilage.

Power of Peace Commissioner to grant warrant to enter certain places. 60.-(1) Where upon an information on oath it appears to any Peace Commissioner that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a breach of the provisions of this Act or any instrument made thereunder has been committed within any enclosed garden or any dwelling-house or the curtilage thereof, he may by warrant under his hand empower an authorised person to enter the said garden or dwelling-house or the curtilage thereof, at such times ill the day or night as may be mentioned in the warrant. (2) A warrant under this section shall not continue in force for more than seven days from the date thereof.

Boarding and examination of fishing vessels. 61.-(1) A member or officer of the Commission or member of the Garda Síochána may, subject to any directions and regulations given or made by the Commission, do with respect to any vessel employed in fishing, all or any of the following things- (a) board such vessel, (b) examine the certificate of registry and the fishing engines of such vessel, and ascertain whether the provisions of this Act or the Fisheries Acts have been complied with and whether the master or other persons on board are carrying on fishing in the manner required by this Act, (c) seize any unlawful fishing engine or any lawful fishing engine unlawfully used. (2) If the master of any fishing vessel refuses to produce the certificate of registry of such vessel when required to do so by a member or officer of the Commission or member of the Garda Síochána, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act.

Apprehension of offenders. 62.-(1) If, within the Foyle Area, any person (in this section referred to as the offender) is found offending against the provisions of the Fisheries Acts or this Act or the corresponding law of Northern Ireland, the following provisions shall have effect:- (a) an authorised person may require the offender to do either or both of the following things- (i) desist from such offence; (ii) give his name and address; (b) if the offender, after being so required, wilfully continues such offence or fails or refuses to give his name and address, the authorised person and any persons acting under his directions may apprehend the offender; (c) where the offender is apprehended under this section by an authorised person who is not a member of the Garda Síochána, that person shall, subject to subsection (2) of this section, forthwith deliver the offender into the custody of a member of the Garda Síochána to be dealt with according to law. (2) If the authorised person who apprehended the offender or a member of the Garda Síochána into whose custody he has been delivered has reason to believe that- (a) the offender is resident in Northern Ireland, and (b) the offence is an offence under the said corresponding law of Northern Ireland, he may forthwith deliver the offender into the custody of a member of the police forces of Northern Ireland to be dealt with according to that law. (3) Where a person is delivered into the custody of a member of the Garda Síochána in purported compliance with a provision of the law of Northern Ireland corresponding to this section, the member shall take him into custody to be dealt with according to law.

Powers in relation to fishing engines, etc. 63.-Where an authorised person finds- (a) during the annual close season or the weekly close time- (i) any passage in any fishing engine or contrivance closed or obstructed, or (ii) any fishing engine or other contrivance whatsoever placed or used in contravention of this Act or any instrument made thereunder, or (b) at any time, any obstruction in a fish pass, or (c) at any time, any obstruction in the waste gate appurtenant to any mill or factory when such waste gate is required by law to be open, he may open such passages and remove such obstructions, doing no unnecessary damage, and seize and remove all things so found or used contrary to the provisions of the Fisheries Acts or this Act or any instrument made thereunder.

Powers in relation to fishing engines, etc. 63.-Where an authorised person finds- (a) during the annual close season or the weekly close time- (i) any passage in any fishing engine or contrivance closed or obstructed, or (ii) any fishing engine or other contrivance whatsoever placed or used in contravention of this Act or any instrument made thereunder, or (b) at any time, any obstruction in a fish pass, or (c) at any time, any obstruction in the waste gate appurtenant to any mill or factory when such waste gate is required by law to be open, he may open such passages and remove such obstructions, doing no unnecessary damage, and seize and remove all things so found or used contrary to the provisions of the Fisheries Acts or this Act or any instrument made thereunder.

Procedure consequent upon seizure of unlawful fishing engines and lawful fishing engines unlawfully used. 65.-Where a person, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by this Part, seizes in the State any fishing engine, he shall, as soon as may be, bring it before the District Justice in whose district it was seized, and thereupon the following provisions shall have effect- (a) if the District Justice finds that the fishing engine is one the use of which is prohibited by law, he shall order it to be forfeited and destroyed, (b) if the District Justice finds that the fishing engine is a lawful fishing engine which at the time of its seizure had been, was being, or was about to be, unlawfully used in any part of the Foyle Area, he shall order it to be forfeited, (c) if the District Justice finds that the fishing engine is a lawful fishing engine which at the time of its seizure had not been, was not being or was not about to be, unlawfully used as aforesaid, he shall order it to be returned to the person who appears to him to be the owner thereof.

Protection of authorised person. 66.-No authorised person shall be liable for any loss or damage occasioned by or in the course of the exercise of any of the powers conferred on him by this Part unless such loss or damage was caused by him wantonly or maliciously.

Penalty for assaulting or obstructing authorised persons. 67.-If any person assaults, obstructs, or impedes any person exercising any power conferred by this Part, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Act and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding two months or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

PART VIII - LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Application of penal provisions of Act. 68.-The provisions of this Act relating to offences apply to- (a) acts, and omissions in the Merville Area by any person, and (b) acts and omissions in any part of the Foyle Area by a person resident in the State.

Penalties for Offences. 69.- (1) Any person who commits an offence against this Act for which a penalty is not provided by any other provision of this Act shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty pounds and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding five pounds for every day during which the offence is continued after conviction. (2) The Commission may prescribe lower money penalties for breach of a particular regulation than those provided under subsection (1) of this section and that subsection shall, in any such case, be construed as if such lower penalties were substituted for those so provided.

Saving for acts done for artificial propagation, scientific purposes or improvement of fisheries. 70.-Nothing in this Act shall prohibit anything done by the Commission or by a person previously authorised in writing by the Commission in that behalf for the purpose of the artificial propagation of fish, for some scientific purpose or for the improvement of any fishery.

Residence of body corporate. 71.-For the purposes of this Part a body corporate shall be deemed to be resident in the State if it is incorporated under the laws of the State.

Offences by bodies corporate. 72.-Where an offence against this Act was committed by a body corporate and is proved to have been so committed with the consent or approval of, or to have been facilitated by any neglect on the part of any person, being a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate, that person shall also be guilty of the offence and may be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Trial of offences. 73.-Notwithstanding anything contained in any other enactment, an offence against this Act may be heard and determined by the District Court upon the complaint, oral or otherwise, of the Commission or an officer of the Commission or a member of the Garda Síochána but not of any other person, except with the consent of the Commission.

Evidence of mouths of rivers, boundaries between tidal and freshwater portions of rivers, points of mouths, of rivers to or from which distances are to be measured. 74.- (1) Where any regulations define- (a) the mouth of a river, or (b) the mouth of any tributary river, or (c) the boundary between the tidal and freshwater portions of any river, or (d) the point or points to or from which distances are to be measured under this Act, such mouth, boundary, point or points shall for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act be as so defined. (2) Where any regulations define the space within which it is by or under this Act prohibited to use certain fishing engines, the space so defined shall for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act be taken to be the area within which it is prohibited to use those fishing engines.

Evidence of mouths of rivers, boundaries between tidal and freshwater portions of rivers, points of mouths, of rivers to or from which distances are to be measured. 74.-(1) Where any regulations define- (a) the mouth of a river, or (b) the mouth of any tributary river, or (c) the boundary between the tidal and freshwater portions of any river, or (d) the point or points to or from which distances are to be measured under this Act, such mouth, boundary, point or points shall for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act be as so defined. (2) Where any regulations define the space within which it is by or under this Act prohibited to use certain fishing engines, the space so defined shall for the purposes of any proceedings under this Act be taken to be the area within which it is prohibited to use those fishing engines.

Forfeiture of fishing engines, etc, as statutory consequence of conviction. 76.-Where a person is convicted of an offence against this Act, any fish illegally taken by him or in his possession at the time of the offence and also any fishing engine or thing by means or in respect of which the offence is committed shall, as a statutory consequence of conviction, stand forfeited.

Non-obligation of Court to pronounce or record forfeiture. 77.-Where, as a statutory consequence of a conviction under this Act, a particular thing stands forfeited, then, notwithstanding any rule of law, it shall not be necessary for the Court- (a) to pronounce the fact of such forfeiture at the time of adjudication, or (b) to record the fact of such forfeiture in the Minute Book of the District Court or in the order of conviction.

78.-(1) This section applies to every fine imposed for an offence under any section of this Act. (2) Section 51 of the Court Officers Act, 1926 (No. 27 of 1926), shall not apply to a fine to which this section applies. (3) Every fine to which this section applies shall be paid into or disposed of for the benefit of the Exchequer in such manner as the Minister for Finance shall direct. (4) Where a fine to which this section applies is remitted in whole or in part after it has been paid into or disposed of for the benefit of the Exchequer under subsection (3) of this section, such fine or the portion thereof so remitted (as the case may be) shall be repaid out of the Exchequer in such manner as the Minister for Finance shall direct.

Payments to Commission and Garda Síochána Reward Fund in respect of fines. 79.-(1) This section applies to- (a) an offence under any section of this Act, and (b) an offence under any provision to which section 10 of the Fisheries (Amendment) Act, 1949 (No. 18 of 1949), applies committed in the Foyle Area. (2) Where a fine imposed for an offence to which this section applies has been paid or levied, then, unless the fine has been wholly remitted, the following provisions shall apply- (a) in case it appears to the Minister that a member of the Garda Síochána was the means of bringing to justice the person by whom the offence was committed, there shall be paid- (i) to the Commission a sum equal to two-thirds of the fine or, if the fine was remitted in part, of so much thereof as was not remitted, and (ii) into the Garda Síochána Reward Fund a sum equal to one-third of the, fine or, if the, fine was remitted in part, of so much thereof as was not remitted; (b) in any other case, there shall be paid to the Commission a sum equal to the fine or, if the fine was remitted in part, so much thereof as was not remitted. (3) All moneys payable under subsection (2) of this section shall be paid by the Minister, out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas, at such times as he thinks fit.

Disposal of forfeitures and payments to Commission and Garda Síochána Reward Fund. 80.-(1) Where any thing is forfeited under this Act, the Minister may direct that it be sold or otherwise disposed of in such manner as he thinks, fit or be returned to the person who appears to him to be the owner. (2) The net proceeds of a sale under subsection (1) of this section shall be paid into or disposed of for the benefit of the Exchequer in such manner as the Minister for Finance shall direct. (3) (a) In case it appears to the Minister that a member of the Garda Síochána seized a particular thing forfeited under section 76 or under any provision to which section 15 of the Fisheries (Amendment) Act, 1949 (No. 18 of 1949), applies, as a statutory consequence of a conviction for an offence committed in the Foyle Area, or was the means of bringing to justice the person convicted of the offence which resulted in the forfeiture, then a sum equal to two-thirds of the net proceeds referred to in subsection (2) of this section shall be paid to the Commission and a sum equal to one-third shall be paid to the Garda Síochána Reward Fund. (b) In any other case, a sum equal to the net proceeds shall be paid to the Commission. (4) All moneys payable under subsection (3) of this section shall be paid by the Minister, out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas, at such times as he thinks fit.

Proof of regulations, bye-laws, etc. 81.-(1) In any proceedings, a document purporting to be a copy of any instrument in writing made or issued (whether before or after the passing of this Act) under the Fisheries Acts or this Act in relation to the Foyle Area or any part thereof shall, if it is certified under the common seal of the Commission to be a true copy, be prima facie evidence of the instrument. (2) Section 4 of the Documentary Evidence Act, 1925 (No. 24 of 1925), shall apply to regulations made by the Commission under this Act.

Inquiries. 82.-(1) The Commission may from time to time hold an inquiry in relation to the fisheries of the Foyle Area or any of them and the best means to be adopted for the management, conservation, protection or improvement thereof. (2) An inquiry may be conducted by the Commission or by a person appointed by it for the purpose.

Powers in relation to inquiry. 83.-(1) The Commission or person holding an inquiry may- (a) summon witnesses to attend at the inquiry, (b) examine on oath (which any member of the Commission or that person, as the case may be, is hereby authorised to administer) witnesses attending at the inquiry, (c) require any witness to produce any documents in his power or control which the Commission or that person, as the case may be, considers necessary for the purposes of inquiry. (2) A witness at an inquiry shall be entitled to the same immunities and privileges as if he were a witness before the High Court. (3) If any person- (a) on being duly summoned to attend as a witness at an inquiry makes default in attending, or (b) being in attendance, refuses to take all oath which he is lawfully required to take, or to produce any document in his power or control which he is lawfully required to produce, or to answer any question which he is lawfully required to answer, he shall be guilty of an offence under this section and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine not exceeding twenty-five pounds. Section 4.

Constitution. 1. The Advisory Council shall consist of- (a) elected members, and (b) ex-officio members. Election year. 2. The year 1952 and every third successive year thereafter shall be an election year for the purpose of the subsequent provisions of this Schedule. Elected members. 3. (1) In each election year the Commission shall conduct an election of persons to be elected members of the Advisory Council. (2) Every person who is the holder of a fishing licence shall be entitled to vote at an election and shall have such number of votes as may be appropriate in accordance with a prescribed scale based on the amount of fees paid for fishing licences for the time being held by him. (3) Every person who is the rated occupier of a fishery or fisheries in the Foyle Area the total rateable valuation of which is less than fifty pounds but not less than one pound shall also be entitled to vote at an election and shall have such number of votes as may be appropriate in accordance with a prescribed scale based on the amount of fishery rate paid in respect of the fishery or fisheries for the fishery year next preceding the election year. (4) A person shall not be eligible for the office of elected member of the Advisory Council unless he resides or possesses real property in the Foyle Area. (5) The elected members for the time being in office shall go out of office on the completion of the election of their successors. Regulations as to elections. 4. For the purposes of elections the Commission may prescribe- (a) the electoral divisions into which the Foyle Area is to be divided, (b) the number (not being more than nine or less than three) of persons to be elected for each electoral division, (c) such other provisions as it thinks proper. Ex-officio members. 5. (1) Every person (other than the Commission) who is the rated occupier of a fishery or fisheries in the Foyle Area, the total rateable valuation of which is fifty pounds or more, shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, be an ex-officio member of the Advisory Council. (2) A person shall not be an ex-officio member while any sum due by him to the Commission for fishery rate remains unpaid after the expiration of fourteen days from the date upon which it became payable. Disqualification. 6. A person who is convicted of an offence under the Fisheries Acts or against this Act shall be disqualified from being a member of the Advisory Council for the period of seven years from the date of conviction. Chairman and vice-chairman. 7. (1) The Advisory Council shall, at its first meeting after each election and as occasion requires, elect one of its members to be chairman and another of its members to be vice-chairman. (2) Subject to subparagraph (5) the person elected to be chairman or vice-chairman shall, unless he sooner dies, resigns or becomes disqualified, hold office until the election of his successor. (3) The chairman and vice-chairman shall be eligible for re-election. (4) The chairman or vice-chairman may at any time resign his office. (5) If the chairman or vice-chairman ceases to be a member of the Advisory Council he shall cease to be chairman or vice-chairman. (6) If, at the election of chairman or vice-chairman, there is an equality of votes for two or more persons, one of those persons shall be elected by lot. The Secretary. 8. The Advisory Council may from time to time as occasion requires appoint a person to be secretary to the council, and may at any time terminate such appointment. Casual Vacancies. 9. (1) Whenever a casual vacancy occurs amongst the elected members, the Advisory Council may co-opt a person who is a holder of a fishing licence or a rated occupier of a fishery in the Foyle Area to fill the vacancy until the next election. (2) The Advisory Council may act notwithstanding vacancies in its membership. Meetings. 10. (1) At a meeting of the Advisory Council- (a) the chairman shall, when present, be chairman of the meeting; (b) when the chairman is absent or if the office of chairman is vacant, the vice-chairman shall, when present, be chairman of the meeting; (c) when the chairman and vice-chairman are absent or if the offices of chairman and vice-chairman are vacant, the members of the Advisory Council who are present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting. (2) Every question at a meeting shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting on the question, and, in case of an equal division of votes, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote, save where the question is the election of the chairman of the Advisory Council. (3) The quorum for a meeting of the Advisory Council shall be such number as the Council may from time to time fix or, if no quorum is for the time being so fixed, one-third of the membership at the date of the first meeting after the previous election, any fraction being disregarded. (4) The first meeting of the Advisory Council after each election shall be convened as soon as may be by the Commission. (5) The Commission may at any time convene a meeting of the Advisory Council. (6) Members of the Commission shall be entitled to attend and take part in meetings of the Advisory Council but not to vote. (7) Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, the Advisory Council shall regulate, by standing orders or otherwise, its procedure and business. Facilities to be provided by the Commission. 11. The Commission shall provide accommodation for the holding of meetings of the Advisory Council and such stationery and office equipment as the Council may reasonably require for the conduct of its affairs, and shall make available the services of members of the staff of the Commission to do all necessary clerical work for the Council.
