S.I. No. 198 of 2007

EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES (POTATO BROWN ROT)
REGULATIONS 2007

I, MARY COUGHLAN, Minister for Agriculture and Food, in exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 3 of the European Communities Act 1972 (No. 27 of 1972), for the purpose of giving effect to Council Directive 98/57/EC of 20 July 1998<sup>1</sup> as amended by Commission Directive 2006/63/EC of 14 July 2006<sup>2</sup>, hereby make the following Regulations—

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the European Communities (Potato Brown Rot) Regulations 2007.

Interpretation

2. (1) In these Regulations—

“authorised officer” means—

- (a) a person appointed under Regulation 5,
- (b) an authorised officer within the meaning of the European Communities (Control of Organisms Harmful to Plants and Plant Products) Regulations 2004 (S.I. No. 894 of 2004),
- (c) a member of the Garda Síochána, or
- (d) an officer of Customs and Excise;

“Council Directive” means Council Directive 98/57/EC of 20 July 1998 as amended by Commission Directive 2006/63/EC of 14 July 2006;

“harmful organism” means Ralstonia solanacearum (Smith) Yabuuchi et al.;

“infected potatoes” means potatoes infected with the harmful organism;

“Minister” means Minister for Agriculture and Food;

“premises” includes land with or without buildings, a vehicle (including a boat, ship, hovercraft, aircraft or offshore installation) (being an offshore installation within the meaning of the Safety, Health and Welfare (Offshore Installations) Act 1987 (No. 18 of 1987)), railway wagon, container or other thing used in connection with, or ancillary to, a thing aforesaid.

<sup>2</sup>O.J. No. L206, 27.07.2006, p. 36

Notice of the making of this Statutory Instrument was published in “Iris Oifigiúil” of 8th May, 2007.

(2) A word or expression that is used in the Council Directive and is also used in these Regulations has, unless the contrary intention appears, the same meaning in these Regulations as in the Council Directive.

Harmful organism

3. (1) A person shall not introduce or cause or permit another person to introduce a harmful organism into the State.

(2) A person shall not have in his or her possession or under his or her control or move within the State a harmful organism that has been introduced into the State in contravention of paragraph (1).

Notification

4. A person who discovers infected potatoes or potatoes suspected to be so infected growing on any land, or harvested, or stored on any premises, or placed on the market for sale shall, without delay, notify the Minister of the fact.

Appointment of Authorised officers

5. (1) The Minister may, by instrument in writing, appoint such and so many persons as he or she thinks fit to be authorised officers for the purposes of some or all of these Regulations as may be specified in the instrument.

(2) The Minister may terminate the appointment of an authorised officer appointed by him or her, whether or not the appointment was for a fixed period.

(3) An appointment as an authorised officer ceases—

(a) if it is terminated pursuant to paragraph 2,

(b) if it is for a fixed period, on the expiry of that period, or

(c) if the person appointed is an officer of the Minister, upon the person ceasing to be such an officer.

(4) Nothing in paragraph (3) is to be construed so as to prevent the Minister from reappointing as an authorised officer a person to whom that paragraph relates.

(5) An authorised officer shall be furnished with a warrant of his or her appointment as an authorised officer and, when exercising a power conferred on him or her, the officer, an officer of Customs and Excise or a member of the Garda Síochána shall, if requested by a person affected, produce the warrant or evidence that he or she is such an officer or member to the person.

Functions of an Authorised officer

6. (1) An authorised officer or a person employed by or acting on the authority of the Commission of the European Communities accompanied by an authorised officer, if the authorised officer has reasonable cause to suspect that—

(a) a harmful organism is present, has been present or may be present on a premises,

- (b) a harmful organism is or has been captured, stored or otherwise dealt with on a premises,
- (c) a document relating to a harmful organism is present, was present or may be present on a premises, or
- (d) an offence is being or has been committed under these Regulations, the authorised officer may enter the premises and he or she may—

- (i) search the premises,
- (ii) stop a person, vehicle, vessel or container,
- (iii) board and search a vehicle, vessel or container,
- (iv) search a person, where the authorised officer considers it necessary,
- (v) examine a product, vehicle, vessel, container or other thing that may consist of or contain a product to which these Regulations apply,
- (vi) take, without payment, samples of a product to which these Regulations apply or other thing or an article, substance or liquid as he or she may reasonably require and carry out or cause to be carried out on a sample such tests, analyses, examinations or inspections as he or she considers necessary or expedient,
- (vii) seize and detain (for so long as is necessary) potatoes, a vehicle or container,
- (viii) require the production of a document or thing relating to a harmful organism, potatoes, a vehicle, vessel or container,
- (ix) retain a document or thing (for so long as is necessary),
- (x) dispose of, or require the owner or person in charge of or in possession of potatoes to deal with or dispose of them (or any equipment, machinery, plant or other thing used in connection with, or that may have been in contact with the potatoes) in a manner that the authorised officer sees fit,
- (xi) give a direction to, or request information of, a person regarding a product to which these Regulations apply or a premises as he or she considers necessary,
- (xii) require the name and address of a person and the name and address of any other relevant person including the person to whom a product to which these Regulations apply is being delivered or who is causing it to be delivered,

- (xiii) require of a person the ownership, identity and origin of potatoes,
- (xiv) make a record of a thing aforesaid or a process related to a thing aforesaid,
- (xv) mark or otherwise identify a product or a specimen taken under subparagraph (vi), or
- (xvi) secure the premises or part of it for later inspection.

(2) An authorised officer shall not enter, except with the consent of the occupier, a private dwelling, unless he or she has obtained a search warrant under Regulation 7 other than if he or she has reasonable cause to suspect that before a search warrant could be sought in relation to the dwelling anything to which paragraph (1) relates is being or is likely to be destroyed or disposed of.

(3) An authorised officer may use reasonable force, if necessary, in exercise of his or her powers under this Regulation.

(4) An authorised officer, when exercising a power under this Regulation may be accompanied by other persons and may take with him or her, or those persons may take with them, any equipment or materials to assist the officer in the exercise of the power.

(5) An authorised officer is not liable in any proceedings for anything done in the purported exercise of his or her powers under these Regulations if the court is satisfied that the act was done in good faith and that there were reasonable grounds for doing it.

(6) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), a direction or requirement of an authorised officer may include conditions prohibiting, restricting or otherwise controlling the use, processing or movement of a product as may be specified by the authorised officer.

(7) If a member of the Garda Síochána has reasonable grounds to suspect that a person has committed an offence under these Regulations, the member may without warrant arrest the person.

Search warrant

7. (1) If a judge of the District Court is satisfied by information on oath of an authorised officer that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting—

- (a) evidence of or relating to the commission or intended commission of an offence under these Regulations is to be found on a premises,
- (b) there is or was a harmful organism on a premises, or
- (c) a document or other record related to a thing to which subparagraph (a) refers is or may be on the premises, the judge may issue a search warrant.

(2) A search warrant under this Regulation shall be expressed and operate to authorise a named authorised officer, accompanied by such authorised officers or other persons as the named authorised officer thinks necessary, at any time, within one month from the date of issue of the warrant, on production if so requested of the warrant, to enter (if necessary by use of reasonable force) the premises, vehicle, vessel or aircraft named in the warrant.

(3) If a premises is entered pursuant to a warrant issued under this Regulation, an authorised officer so entering may exercise all or any of the powers conferred on an authorised officer under these Regulations.

Brown Rot Prevention Notice

8. (1) If an authorised officer is of the opinion that—

- (a) potatoes have been introduced, moved, held in possession or are to be exported from the State in contravention of these Regulations,
- (b) potatoes including any material in which the potatoes are packed are infected with the harmful organism or have been in contact with the harmful organism, or
- (c) measures should be taken to prevent infection or contact with the harmful organism, he or she may serve or cause to be served on the owner or person who appears to be in charge, possession or control of the potatoes a notice (in this Regulation referred to as a “Brown Rot Prevention Notice”) stating that opinion and directing that—

- (i) the potatoes be kept in such premises (including on board a vessel or aircraft or on a vehicle) as the officer shall specify in the notice,
- (ii) such alterations be made to the premises in which the potatoes are located as the officer shall specify in the notice,
- (iii) the potatoes be treated, destroyed or disposed of in such manner as the officer shall specify in the notice, or
- (iv) the potatoes be removed from the State in such manner (if any) as may be specified

(2) A person, including the master, captain, owner or operator of a vessel or aircraft shall comply with a brown rot prevention notice or a requirement of a brown rot prevention notice unless and until the notice is annulled under paragraph (10).

(3) A requirement contained in a brown rot prevention notice shall specify a time limit within which the notice is to be complied with.

(4) A requirement specified in a brown rot prevention notice (in this paragraph referred to as “the earlier brown rot prevention notice”) may be amended or withdrawn by a further notice in writing and the earlier brown rot prevention notice shall have effect subject to such amendment or withdrawal.

(5) A brown rot prevention notice, whether amended under paragraph (4) or not, may require the owner or person in charge of the potatoes to choose between one or more of the requirements specified in the brown rot prevention notice and that person shall comply with the requirement that he or she chooses.

(6) (a) A brown rot prevention notice shall, subject to sub-paragraph (b), be addressed to the person concerned by name, and may be served on or given to the person in one of the following ways—

(i) by delivering it to the person,

(ii) by leaving it at the address at which the person ordinarily resides or, in a case where an address for service has been furnished, at that address,

(iii) by sending it by post in a prepaid registered letter to the address at which the person ordinarily resides or, in a case where an address for service has been furnished, at that address, or

(iv) where the address at which the person ordinarily resides cannot be ascertained by reasonable enquiry and the Brown Rot Prevention Notice relates to a premises, by delivering it to some person over 16 years of age resident or employed on the premises or by affixing it in a conspicuous position on or near the premises,

(b) where a brown rot prevention notice is to be served on or given to a person who is the owner or occupier of a premises and the name of the person cannot be ascertained by reasonable enquiry, it may be addressed to the person by using the words the owner, the occupier or, as the case may require, such other designation as the authorised officer considers appropriate,

(c) a person shall not at any time within 6 months after a brown rot prevention notice is affixed under paragraph (6) (a) (iv) remove, damage or deface the notice without lawful authority,

(d) for the purposes of this Regulation, a company within the meaning of the Companies Acts, 1963 to 1990, shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its registered office, and every other body corporate and every unincorporated body shall be deemed to be ordinarily resident at its principal office or place of business.

(7) A person, being a person affected by a brown rot prevention notice, may, within 7 days of service of the disposal notice, apply to the Judge of the District Court having jurisdiction in the District Court District where the subject of the notice is situated or to the Judge of the District Court having jurisdiction in the District Court District where the person ordinarily resides on the grounds that the brown rot prevention notice or any term of the brown rot prevention notice are not reasonable, having regard to these Regulations (in this Regulation referred to as “an appeal”).

(8) An appeal may be heard at any sitting of the District Court within the appropriate District Court Area.

(9) Notice of an appeal, which shall contain a statement of the grounds upon which it is alleged that the brown rot prevention notice or any term of the brown rot prevention notice is unreasonable having regard to these Regulations, shall be served on the Minister at least 48 hours prior to the hearing of the appeal and a copy thereof shall be lodged with the appropriate District Court Clerk.

(10) On the hearing of an appeal, a Judge of the District Court may confirm, with or without modification, or annul a brown rot prevention notice.

(11) A person, including a person on whom a brown rot prevention notice is served, shall not—

(a) pending the determination of an appeal, deal with the potatoes or other thing to which a brown rot prevention notice relates other than under and in accordance with the notice, or

(b) after such appeal, deal with the potatoes or other thing to which a brown rot prevention notice relates other than under and in accordance with the brown rot prevention notice as modified, as the case may be.

(12) Where—

(a) a person, by act or omission, fails to comply, whether within the time specified therein or otherwise, with a brown rot prevention notice (including a brown rot prevention notice modified in accordance with paragraph (10)), or

(b) an authorised officer has reasonable cause to suspect—

(i) that a brown rot prevention notice (including a brown rot prevention notice modified in accordance with paragraph (10)) is not or will not be complied with, or

(ii) pending the determination of an appeal, the potatoes or other thing to which the brown rot prevention notice relates is or will not be dealt with in accordance with paragraph (11), an authorised officer may seize and detain the potatoes or other thing and sell or dispose of the potatoes or other thing in a manner as the authorised officer considers appropriate.

(13) Subject to paragraph (15), the proceeds of the sale or disposal of the potatoes or other thing under paragraph (12) shall be paid to the owner as soon as may be after such sale or disposal and after a person has satisfied the Minister that he or she is the owner or otherwise entitled to the proceeds of the sale or disposal.

(14) The costs of seizure, sale or disposal of the potatoes or other thing under this Regulation shall be recoverable by the Minister as a simple contract debt in a court of competent jurisdiction or by deducting the costs from any monies due from the Minister to the owner of the potatoes or other thing.

(15) The costs of any action required by a disposal notice shall be borne by the owner of the potatoes or other thing to which the notice relates.

Contaminated Zone

9. (1) If the Minister has reason to believe that the harmful organism is present in an area (including an area under water), he or she may declare the area to be a contaminated zone.

(2) If the Minister declares an area to be a contaminated zone pursuant to paragraph (1) he or she may serve on any person who either resides or carries on business within that area a notice requiring that person to do all such things as may be specified in the notice and which, in the opinion of the Minister, are necessary and expedient to control the harmful organism with the aim of preventing its spread and of eradicating it.

Obstruction

10. A person shall not—

- (a) obstruct or impede an authorised officer in the exercise of any of his or her powers under these Regulations,
- (b) fail, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement or direction made by an authorised officer under Regulation 6(1) or 8, or
- (c) in purporting to give information required by an authorised officer for the performance of the officer's powers under Regulation 6—
  - (i) make a statement which he or she knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly make a statement which is false in a material particular, or
  - (ii) fail to disclose any material particular.

Offences

11. (1) A person who contravenes Regulation 3, 4, 8(2), 8(5), 8(6) (c), 8(11) or 9 commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €5,000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding six months or to both.

(2) An offence under these Regulations may be prosecuted by the Minister.

(3) If an offence under these Regulations has been committed by a body corporate and it is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of a person who, when the offence was committed, was a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate, or a person purporting to act in any such capacity, that person, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished as if guilty of the first-mentioned offence.

(4) If the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, paragraph (3) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the functions of management as if such a member were a director or manager of the body corporate.

GIVEN under my Official Seal,
25 April 2007

MARY COUGHLAN
Minister for Agriculture and Food
