- (2) For the avoidance of doubt, the prohibition in paragraph (1) does not apply to the States or to any Minister, department or administration of the States.
- (3) The prohibition in paragraph (1) does not apply in relation to any operation or activity –
 - (a) which falls within the definition “port operations” but is carried out in pursuance of an Order or directions made by a competent authority;

- (5) Article 14 makes further provision as to the powers of the JCRA in relation to the grant and content of licences.

- (6) Nothing in this Article or in Articles 14 or 15 shall be taken as precluding the grant of an exclusive licence where in the JCRA's opinion such a grant is appropriate.
 - (7) The JCRA may grant an exemption from paragraph (1) –

 - (b) where relevant, having regard to any public service obligation in respect of harbour operations.

 - (b) under Article 15, in relation to port operations and contained in the licence.
- (2) A contravention of a condition described in paragraph (1) does not of itself amount to a contravention of the requirement in Article 7(1), except that if and to the extent that a particular port operation is prohibited by a condition contained in a licence, the licensee shall not carry out that operation.

9 Enforcement of requirement by persons aggrieved

- (1) Compliance with Article 7(1) is a duty owed to any person who may be aggrieved by a failure to comply.

- (a) acts in contravention of the prohibition in Article 7(1) or of the prohibition in Article 43(1);
