

REGULATIONS
on Central Veterinary Department of Scientific and Production Unit on Veterinary under the Ministry of Agriculture and Food KR

I. General Regulations.

- 1.1. The Central Veterinary Department, hereinafter referred SVD is a management body of state veterinary in the structure of scientific and production unit on veterinary under the MAF KR and within its competence manages the veterinary service in the Republic.
- 1.2. SVD in its activity follows the Law of KR "On Veterinary", Presidential Decrees, Governmental Resolutions and Decisions, Orders and Instructions of MAF KR, Scientific Production Unit on Veterinary and by the current regulation.
- 1.3. In accordance with the Article 2 of the Law KR "On Veterinary" the instructions of SVD on issues of the implementation of requirements of veterinary legislation are obligatory for all ministries, enterprises, organisations, independently from the subordination and form of property, as well as for officials and citizens.
- 1.4. Finance and input supply of SVD, holding of measures on prevention of origin, spreading and fight against infectious diseases of animals in the Republic is implemented at the expense of the Republic budget.
- 1.5. The estimation of expenses, staff and responsibilities of SVD employees are to be approved by the General Director of the Scientific and Production Unit on Veterinary under the MAF KR.
- 1.6. SVD has its stamp with its name.

2. The main tasks.

- 2.1. The ensuring of livestock' health of the Republic, the reduction of losses from the diseases and non-productive expenses of the cattle.
- 2.2. The prevention from the bringing into the territory of KR the pathogenic organisms of infectious diseases of animals from abroad and carrying out of them to another states.
- 2.3. Management of veterinary in the Republic and its further development on the base of improvement of the structure of veterinary service.

3. The Functions

- 3.1. To study the epizootic state of livestock in the Republic and contiguous states and to design plans of medical and preventive, antiepzootic measures on their base.
- 3.2. To identify the requirements of the Republic in biological preparations, antihelminthics, disinfected means, medicines, equipment, instruments and other means against the infectious diseases of animals. To control supply of biological and other preparations into the Republic, financed at the expense of antiepzootic means.

- 3.3. To design an estimation of expenses for holding of antiepidemiological measures in the Republic, to present for an approval and to control its implementation.
- 3.4. To organise and hold planned medical and preventive antiepidemiological measures, to control its implementation on the local level.
- 3.5. To implement protection and quarantine veterinary measures in nidus of infectious disease of animals, to hold the work on rendering health for unfavourable points on infectious diseases of animals.
- 3.6. To design, organise and implement measures on protection of the territory of the Republic from bringing the pathogenic organisms of infectious diseases of animals from abroad and prevention of their spreading to another states.
- 3.7. Jointly with the bodies of the Ministry of Health KR is to design and implement measures on prevention of diseases, common for human and animals.
- 3.8. To identify the list of biological preparations and other means of animal protection from infectious diseases, to give the permissions for their use in veterinary practise of the Republic.
- 3.9. To participate in the drafting of instructions, recommendations, rules and other normative and legislative acts on issues of prevention and eradication of infectious diseases of animals.
- 3.10. To introduce into the veterinary practise effective methods and means of diagnostics and treatment of animals, as well as scientifically well-founded special measures for resources' saving.
- 3.11. To register an emergence and movement of unfavourable points, animals sickness rate with infectious diseases and murrain from them, as well as holding of antiepidemiological measures. To ensure timely reporting by veterinary services in accordance with the established forms, accepting and checking their authenticity.
- 3.12. To issue veterinary conclusion for projects of construction and reconstruction and livestock facilities of veterinary and sanitation objects and enterprises on procurement, storage, processing and sale of products and raw materials of livestock origin.
- 3.13. To solve the issues on entry into the Republic and removal from it animals, products and raw materials of livestock origin, as well as other objects and tracks under the state veterinary supervision.
- 3.14. To identify veterinary and sanitation requirements to countries exporting animals, raw materials and products of livestock origin, to consider veterinary and sanitation requirements during the exporting of loads under the state veterinary supervision, to give conclusions on them.

5. Organisation and liquidation.

- 5.1. SVD is organised and liquidated by the order of the MAF KR in the established order, like structural subdivision of the SPU on veterinary.