27A. Director-General to carry out inspection at legal landing place.

The Director-General or any officer of the Board so authorized in writing by the Director-General may, if he has reason to believe that an offence under this Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder has been committed, carry out inspection and examination at any legal landing place as he considers necessary and may seize and detain any timber, book, document or other thing found thereat.

27B. List of timber seized.

Where any timber, book, document or other thing is seized under section 27 or 27A, the officer effecting the seizure shall prepare a list of the things seized and forthwith deliver a copy signed by him to the owner or the person from whom the things were seized.

27C. Return of timber seized.

(1) Where timber is seized under this Act, the Director-General or any officer of the Board so authorized in writing by him, may in his discretion

(a) temporarily return the timber to the owner or to the person from whose possession, custody or control it was seized, subject to such terms and conditions as may be imposed by the Director-General and in any case, subject to sufficient security being furnished to the satisfaction of the Director-General that the timber shall be surrendered to the Director-General or any authorized officer of the Board on demand and that the said terms and conditions, if any, shall be complied with; or

(b) return the timber to the owner or to the person from whose possession, custody or control it was seized with liberty for the person to whom the timber is so returned to dispose of the same, such return being subject to security being furnished to the satisfaction of the Director-General in an amount not less than an amount which, in the opinion of the Director-General represents the open market value of such timber on the date on which it is so returned for the payment of the amount so secured to the Director-General in the event of the court making an order for forfeiture of such amount under section 27E; or

(c) sell the timber if in the opinion of the Director-General that it is likely to deteriorate in quality or value and in such case the Director-General shall hold the proceeds of sale pending the result of any prosecution or claim and in relation to such proceeds of sale to abide by the outcome of such prosecution or claim.

(2) No person shall be entitled to maintain any action on account of any act done or any decision taken by or on behalf of the Board under this section, and no court shall have any jurisdiction to entertain any such action.

27D. Things liable to forfeiture.

All things liable to seizure under this Act, shall be liable to forfeiture.

27E. Court to order forfeiture.

(1) If there is no prosecution with regard to any timber seized under this Act, such timber shall be taken and deemed to be forfeited at the expiration of one calendar month from the date of seizure unless a claim thereto is made before that date under and in accordance with this Act.

(2) Any person asserting that he is the owner of the timber seized or entitled to the proceeds of sale of the timber and that the timber is not liable to forfeiture may personally or by his agent authorized in writing give written notice to the Director-General that he claims the timber seized or the proceeds of the sale of the timber.

(3) On receipt of a notice under subsection (2) the Director-General may direct that the timber seized or the proceeds of sale thereof be released or may refer the matter to a Magistrate.

(4) The Magistrate shall issue a summons requiring the Board and the person asserting that he is the owner of the timber seized or the proceeds of sale thereof and the person from whom the timber was seized to appear before him, and upon their appearance or default to appear, due service of the summons being proved, the Magistrate shall proceed to the examination of the matter and on proof that an offence has been committed under this Act and that the timber seized was the subject matter of the offence shall order the timber seized or the proceeds of sale thereof to be forfeited or, in the absence of such proof, shall order its release.

(5) In any proceedings under this Act the Board may be represented by the Director-General or an officer or servant of the Board authorized in writing in that behalf by the Director-General.

27F. Things forfeited to be the property of the Federation.

Any thing or proceeds of sale thereof forfeited or taken and deemed to be forfeited under this Act shall be the property of the Federation or paid to the Federal Consolidated Fund, less any sum that may be certified by the Director-General as having been incurred by the Board in effecting the provisions of section 27 or 27A and in carrying out the sale under this Act.

27G. No costs proceedings shall be allowed.

No person shall, in any proceedings before any court in respect of the seizure of any timber or any other thing seized in exercise of any power conferred under this Act, be entitled to the cost of such proceedings or to any damages or other relief other than an order for the return of the timber or any other thing seized or the payment of its value unless such seizure was made without reasonable or probable cause.

27H. False or misleading information.

Where any person who is required to give any information under this Act gives information which he has reason to believe is false or misleading or which he believes is not true in relation to any matter under this Act or the rules or regulations made thereunder, he shall be guilty of an offence.

27I. Authority card to be produced.

An officer exercising his powers under section 27 shall, if so required by a person in charge or in control of any business place or premises, mill or yard into which entry is to be made or inspection or tests are to be conducted, produce proof of his identity and authorization in writing to such person.

27J. Obstruction of authorized officers.

Any person who in any way obstructs, hinders, prevents or interferes with the Director-General or any officer of the Board, in the exercise of his powers or carrying out his duties under this Act or who fails to afford such assistance as is reasonably required by the Director-General or any officer of the Board, commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding one year or to both.

27K. Examination of witness.

(1) The Director-General or any officer of the Board may, in carrying out inspection and examination pursuant to the provisions of this Act, examine orally any person whom he believes to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case and shall reduce into writing any statement made by the person so examined and such person shall be bound to answer all questions relating to such case put to him by such officer:

Provided that such person may refuse to answer any question the answer to which would have tendency to expose him to a criminal charge, penalty or forfeiture.

(2) A person making a statement under this section shall be legally bound to state the truth, whether or not such statement is made wholly or partly in answer to any question."

(6) The Disciplinary Committee may, subject to subsection (7), delegate any of its disciplinary functions, powers or duties to any committee of officers or servants of the Board, in respect of any particular officer or servant of the Board or in respect of any class or category of officers or servants of the Board, and the committee delegated with such functions, powers or duties shall carry out, exercise or discharge them under the direction and control of the Disciplinary Committee which shall have the power to review, rescind or vary any decision or finding of such committee.

(7) No delegation shall be made under subsection (6) so as to enable an officer or servant of the Board to be a member of a committee which may exercise any disciplinary authority over an officer or servant who is superior to him in rank.

(8) Any officer or servant of the Board who is dissatisfied with the decision of the Disciplinary Committee or of any committee delegated with functions, powers or duties under subsection (6) may, within fourteen days, appeal in writing against such decision to the Board which may thereupon affirm, reverse or give such directions on the matter as it deems fit and proper.

(9) The decision of the Board upon such appeal shall be final.

34B. Surcharge.

(1) If it appears to the Board that any person who is or was in the employment of the Board-

(a) has failed to collect any monies owing to the Board for the collection of which he is responsible;

(b) is or was responsible for any payment from the Fund of monies which ought not to have been made or for any payment of monies which is not duly vouched;

(c) is or was responsible, directly or indirectly, for any deficiency in, or for the destruction of, any monies, stamps, securities, stores or other property of the Board;

(d) being or having been an accounting officer, fails or has failed to keep proper accounts or records;

(e) has failed to make any payment, or is or was responsible for any delay in the payment, of monies from the Fund to any person to whom such payment is due under any contract, agreement or arrangement entered into between that person and the Board, the Board shall serve on him a written notice calling on him to show cause why he should not be surcharged, and if a satisfactory explanation is not, within fourteen days from the date of service of the notice as aforesaid, furnished to the Board with regard to the failure to collect, payment which ought not to have been made, payment not duly vouched, deficiency or destruction, or failure to keep proper accounts or records, or failure to make payment, or delay in making payment, the Board may surcharge against the said person a sum not exceeding the amount of any such amount not collected, such payment, deficiency, or loss or the value of the property destroyed, as the case may be; and with regard to the failure to keep proper accounts or records, of the failure to make payments, or the delay in making payment, the Board may surcharge against the said person such sum as the Board may think fit.

(2) The Chairman shall cause the Director-General to be notified of any surcharge made under subsection (1) and the Director-General shall thereupon notify in writing the person surcharged.

(3) The Board may at any time withdraw any surcharge in respect of which a satisfactory explanation has been received or if it otherwise appears that no surcharge should have been made, and the Chairman shall at once cause the Director-General to be notified of such withdrawal.

(4) The amount of any surcharge made under subsection (1) and not withdrawn under subsection (3) shall be a debt due to the Board from the person against whom the surcharge is made and may be sued for and recovered in any court at the suit of the Board and may also be recovered by deduction

(a) from the salary of the person surcharged if the Board so directs; or

(b) from the pension of the person surcharged if the Board so directs,

by equal monthly instalments not exceeding one fourth of the total monthly salary or pension, as the case may be, of the person.

34C. Power to make disciplinary regulations.

(1) The Board may, with the approval of the Minister, make such disciplinary regulations as it deems necessary or expedient to provide for the discipline of the officers and servants of the Board.

(2) The disciplinary regulations made by the Board under this section may include provisions for the interdiction with reduction in salary or in other remuneration, or provisions for the suspension without salary or other remuneration, of an officer or servant of the Board during the pendency of the disciplinary proceedings.

(3) The disciplinary regulations made under this section shall create such disciplinary offences and provide for such disciplinary punishments as the Board may deem appropriate, and the punishment so provided may extend to dismissal or reduction in rank.

(4) The disciplinary regulations made under this section shall, in prescribing the procedure for disciplinary proceedings, provide for an opportunity for representation to be made by the person against whom disciplinary proceedings are taken before a decision is arrived at by the disciplinary authority on the disciplinary charge laid against such person."
