New producer

5. A new producer shall be required to undergo an audit prior to starting his or her fourth period of production.

Back to Top

Time periods for compliance

6. (1) A non-compliant producer may receive notice indicating that he or she has 60 days to come into compliance with the OFFSAP.

(2) If, at the end of the 60 day period, the producer continues to be in non-compliance with the OFFSAP, the non-compliant producer may receive notice indicating that he or she has a further 60 days to come into compliance with the OFFSAP.

(3) If, at the end of the 120 days, the producer continues to be in non-compliance with the OFFSAP, the non-compliant producer shall be required to come into compliance with the OFFSAP within 10 days.

Back to Top

Audit

7. Where the non-compliant producer takes the necessary steps to come into compliance with the OFFSAP within a time period under section 6 , the producer may

(a) be subject to an audit at the end of that time period; and

(b) be responsible for all of the costs of the audit and related expenses to become certified or determined to be in compliance with the OFFSAP.

Back to Top

Audit

8. (1) The non-compliant producer may participate in one or more audits.

(2) The non-compliant producer may be responsible for all of the costs of these audits and related expenses until the producer is certified or is determined to be in compliance with the OFFSAP.

Back to Top

New producers who are non-compliant

9. (1) The board of directors of the commodity board may decide to not permit a new producer to engage in chicken production at the end of that producer's growing period if the new producer fails to achieve compliance with the OFFSAP.

(2) The commodity board shall notify the new producer of a decision taken under subsection (1).

Back to Top

Withdrawal or termination of certification

10. A producer who fails to achieve compliance with the OFFSAP may have his or her OFFSAP certification cancelled by the board of directors of the commodity board at the end of the non-compliant producer's growing period.

Back to Top

Withdrawal of certification - production stopped

11. A producer who has stopped raising broilers for a period longer than the period between audits shall have his or her certification cancelled.

Back to Top

Written notification of cancellation

12. The commodity board shall provide written notification to the producer of the decision to cancel his or her OFFSAP certification.

Back to Top

Certificate and signage not to be displayed

13. If a certificate has been cancelled, the certificate and signage shall not be displayed or otherwise used to indicate that the premise is certified under the OFFSAP.

Back to Top

Prohibitions

14. A producer whose OFFSAP certificate is cancelled shall not be permitted to engage in chicken production.

Back to Top

Recertification after cancellation

15. (1) If a non-compliant producer intends to become certified after having a certificate cancelled, the non-compliant producer shall be treated as a new producer regarding procedures to issue an OFFSAP certification outlined in the CFC OFFSAP manual.

(2) The recertification process shall not commence until the costs of audits and related expenses assessed under sections 7 and 8 have been paid.

Back to Top

Costs

16. (1) The commodity board shall cover the costs of the annual audit and one follow-up audit of a producer who is in compliance with the OFFSAP.

(2) A producer shall be responsible for the full costs of subsequent audits to become recertified.
