Organization

3. (1) The Newfoundland and Labrador HydroElectric Corporation is continued as a corporation.

(2) The corporation is charged with and shall discharge all obligations and liabilities imposed on it or assumed or incurred by it under the name of the Newfoundland and Labrador Power Corporation and existing immediately before January 1, 1975, and all obligations and liabilities imposed on it or assumed or incurred by it under the name of the Newfoundland and Labrador Power Commission and existing immediately before January 1, 1975.

(3) The head office of the corporation shall be at St. John's .

(4) The corporation is an agent of the Crown.

(5) Notwithstanding that the corporation is an agent of the Crown, the corporation may, for the purpose of this Act and subject to conditions it considers necessary

(a) acquire from the Crown in right of Canada , of the province or of the other provinces of Canada or from an agency of the Crown in right of Canada or of this or another of the provinces of Canada , real and personal property and rights of all kinds;

(b) enter into contracts with the Crown in right of Canada or an agency of the Crown in right of Canada ; and

(c) appoint agents to act on its behalf.

(6) Property of the corporation is the property of the Crown, but title to it is vested in the name of the corporation.

(7) A director or a person employed by the corporation does not become, because of that office or employment only, an officer or employee of the Crown.

(8) Notwithstanding subsection (2), in all Acts of the Legislature, agreements, legal documents and instruments, the corporation may be referred to as " Newfoundland and Labrador Hydro".

Supply of power

4. (1) The objects of the corporation are to develop the use of power on an economic and efficient basis, and, in particular, to engage in the province and elsewhere in the development, generation, production, transmission, distribution, delivery, supply, sale and use of power from water, steam, gas, coal, oil or other products used or useful in the production of power, and to supply power, at rates consistent with sound financial administration, for domestic, commercial, industrial or other uses in the province, and, subject to the prior approval of the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, outside of the province.

(2) In addition to the objects referred to in subsection (1), the corporation may, in the province and elsewhere, engage in activities related to the exploration for, development, production, refining, marketing and transportation of, hydrocarbons and products from hydrocarbons.

(3) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (2), the corporation may engage in those other activities that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may approve.

Board of directors

5. (1) For the exercise and discharge of the powers and duties of the corporation, there shall be a board of directors comprised of not less than 5 and not more than 10 persons.

(2) The directors shall be appointed by the LieutenantGovernor in Council, shall hold office during pleasure only and are eligible for reappointment.

(3) Except where otherwise prescribed under this Act, the corporation may exercise its powers by a resolution of the board.

(4) The directors shall be paid the salary or other remuneration that the shareholders determine by a special resolution, and the salary or remuneration together with all reimbursable expenses shall be paid by the corporation out of its funds.

(5) Where a vacancy occurs on the board because of the death, illness, resignation, removal of a member, or for another reason, the LieutenantGovernor in Council may appoint a person to fill the vacancy.

(6) Exercise of the powers of the corporation is not impaired because of a vacancy on the board.

(7) Until the board makes other provision under section 10, the lesser of 5 directors or a majority of the directors who then hold office constitutes a quorum of the board.

(8) Notwithstanding that it is afterward discovered that there was some defect in the appointment or qualification of a person purporting to be a director, all acts done by the corporation and the board shall be as valid as if that defect had not existed.

1975 No3 s6; 1995 c37 s1

President and chairperson

6. (1) There shall be a president of the board and a chairperson of the board to be appointed by the LieutenantGovernor in Council from among the directors.

(2) The president and the chairperson hold office for the period and under the terms and conditions that may be prescribed by the LieutenantGovernor in Council or in an agreement made under section 8 and shall vacate office in accordance with those terms and conditions.

(3) There shall be a chief executive officer of the corporation, to be appointed by the shareholders by a special resolution, who shall, subject to the terms of appointment that may be established by the shareholders by a special resolution or in an agreement made under section 8, and subject to the directions of the board, be charged with the general direction, supervision and control of the business of the board and the corporation.

(4) The chief executive officer of the corporation has the powers that may be conferred on him or her by the regulations.

(5) The same person may hold the offices of president, chairperson and chief executive officer simultaneously or may hold 2 of these offices simultaneously.

(6) During the incapacity or absence of the president or a vacancy in the office of president, another director designated by the Lieutenant Governor in Council for the purpose has and may exercise the powers of the president and shall discharge his or her duties.

General powers

16. (1) The corporation may

(a) on behalf of the Crown enter into contracts or other agreements and acquire and dispose of and otherwise deal with real and personal property and all rights of all kinds in the name of the corporation;

(b) acquire, lease, establish, construct, maintain and operate works in a part of the province for the development and generation of power from water power, coal, peat, gas or oil or by another means and may transmit, make available for use, distribute, deliver, sell, supply and generally use for the purpose of the corporation the power and connect works constructed or installed for those purposes with other power works or systems;

(c) purchase power from a person and transmit, make available for use, distribute, deliver, sell, supply and generally use the power for the purposes of the corporation;

(d) contract with a person for the purchase of petroleum products, notwithstanding another Act;

(e) acquire by purchase, lease or otherwise, land, waters, water privileges, water powers, rights, easements, privileges, proprietary rights and works of every description which the corporation considers necessary, convenient or advisable to acquire for or incidental to the exercise of the powers and duties of the corporation;

(f) sell or otherwise dispose of its property, real or personal, of every nature and kind or an interest in it which is found by the corporation to be unnecessary for the purposes of the corporation, and grant an estate, term, easement, right or interest in, over or respecting the property;

(g) contract with a person for

(i) the supply, transmission and distribution of power to that person, and

(ii) the construction, maintenance and operation of works for or incidental to the generation, transmission and distribution of power on behalf of that person, to be done by the corporation or a person designated by the corporation to do the things referred to in this paragraph, for the consideration that the corporation may prescribe;

(h) deposit money or securities with a bank, trustee, trust company, or other depository in Canada or outside of Canada ;

(i) lend money to a subsidiary of the corporation;

(j) guarantee the repayment by a subsidiary of the corporation of money advanced to that subsidiary by a lender, together with the payment of interest on it and of all charges incurred in connection with it;

(k) guarantee the performance by a subsidiary of the corporation of an obligation of that subsidiary contracted by it with a person to perform, fulfil or observe a covenant, obligation or provision of an agreement, deed, bond, promissory note or other document or instrument;

(l) exercise and enjoy all of the privileges and immunities conferred on it by this Act and do all acts necessary or incidental to the attainment of the objects of the corporation referred to in section 4;

(m) carry on business incidental and subsidiary to the carrying out of the objects referred to in section 4 and necessary to enable the company profitably to carry out those objects; and

(n) generally, do all things which the corporation considers necessary, convenient or advisable for or incidental to the exercise of the powers and the discharge of the obligations of the corporation.

(2) The powers of the corporation include

(a) power to acquire, lease, construct, maintain, operate and use in the province and elsewhere land, works, plants, buildings, structures, machinery, equipment, devices, pole lines, conduits, pipe lines, tunnels and other property used or useful for carrying out the objects of the corporation;

(b) the powers that the Newfoundland and Labrador Power Commission had before July 16, 1974 and the powers that the Newfoundland and Labrador Power Corporation had before January 1, 1975;

(c) the powers conferred on the corporation under this Act;

(d) except as otherwise expressly provided in this Act, and, whether it has no members or less than 3 members, the powers of a corporation incorporated under the Corporations Act; and

(e) all other powers that are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the corporation.

(3) Except with the prior approval of the Lieutenant Governor in Council, the corporation shall not organize or maintain a subsidiary of the corporation or purchase, sell, otherwise dispose of or deal in shares of a subsidiary of the corporation or of another company, and where the approval is given, the corporation may do the things referred to in this subsection only where it is expressly mentioned in and to the extent provided by the approval.

(4) Notwithstanding the Corporations Act, the status of the corporation or its capacity to carry on business shall not be affected nor shall it be rendered liable to be wound up, if no share capital is established for it or no shares are issued under section 25 of this Act, or, if share capital is established for it and shares are issued and there are less than 3 members, and not less than 90% of the issue and outstanding shares are held by or on behalf of the Crown, and where shares are issued and there are less than 3 members and not less than 90% of the issued and outstanding shares are held by or on behalf of the Crown, the corporation may continue to carry on business and the members of the corporation shall not incur the liability for the debts of the corporation prescribed in the Corporations Act.

Accounting methods and rate stabilization plan

17. (1) The corporation shall

(a) adopt and maintain the depreciation and amortization policies of the corporation that have been recommended by the Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities and that are reflected in the audited financial statements of the corporation for the year ended December 31, 1994; and

(b) adopt and maintain the rate stabilization plan of the corporation on the basis reflected in the audited financial statements of the corporation for the year ended December 31, 1994, until the Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities otherwise orders under the Public Utilities Act.

(2) For all purposes of the Public Utilities Act, the rate base of the corporation shall include the property and assets of the corporation at their net book value but excludes investments in subsidiaries of the corporation.

(3) For all purposes of the Public Utilities Act, the expenses chargeable to operating account by the corporation shall include

(a) an amount equal to all liabilities of the corporation under the Hydro Pension Plan as assumed under the agreement referred to in paragraph 18(3)(a) to the extent not funded by the transfer of assets of the PSPP or by a debt or obligation of the Crown under the agreement referred to in paragraph 18(3)(a) and interest for the period from the date of proclamation of this section to the date on which amortization commences under paragraph (d);

(b) an amount equal to the difference between the amount at which an indebtedness of the corporation which is denominated in a foreign currency is shown in the audited financial statements of the corporation for the year ending December 31, 1994, and the cost to the corporation, in Canadian dollars, of foreign currencies purchased from time to time by the corporation and used by the corporation to repay all or part of such indebtedness; and

(c) all amounts paid by the corporation for nonutility generation totalling approximately 38 megawatts under agreements entered into with up to 4 persons that submitted proposals under the corporation's Request for Proposals 92195, in each case, except in the case of paragraph (c), as amortized on a consistent basis and over the following periods:

(d) in the case of paragraph (a), 15 years commencing on the later of January 1, 1996 and the beginning of the year when the corporation's rates are first altered under the Public Utilities Act in which the amortization is included in rates at a rate hearing; and

(e) in the case of paragraph (b), 40 years commencing in the year when the corporation's rates are first altered under the Public Utilities Act in which the amortization is included in rates at a rate hearing.

(4) The expenses and amortization provided for in subsection (3) shall be considered to be reasonable and prudent and properly chargeable to operating account for all purposes of the Public Utilities Act, including subsection 80(2) of that Act.

(5) The rates, tolls and charges for, and the rules applicable to, each kind of service provided or supplied directly or indirectly to or for the public immediately prior to the coming into force of this section or a corporation by the corporation immediately prior to the coming into force of this section shall apply to the same kind of service so provided or supplied by the corporation until altered under the Public Utilities Act and, notwithstanding that Act, no alteration shall have retroactive effect on those rates, tolls or charges or increases, including by providing for refunds or credits to customers.

(6) The capital budget of the corporation for the period ending December 31, 1996 and any other construction work in progress as approved by the board of directors of the corporation, shall be considered to be approved by the Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities under section 41 of the Public Utilities Act , and for all other purposes of that Act, in respect of the corporation.

(7) Until such time as the Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities approves the rules and regulations which relate to the corporation's service under section 71 of the Public Utilities Act , a contract for the supply by the corporation of electricity is considered to provide that the corporation is not liable for damages in respect of any delay, interruption or other partial or complete failure in that supply where those damages are caused by something which is beyond the reasonable control of the corporation.

(8) Where there is a conflict between this section and the provisions of the Public Utilities Act , the provisions of this section shall prevail.

Pensions

18. (1) In this section and subsection 17(3)

(a) "GMPP" means the Government Money Purchase Plan established under the Government Money Purchase Pension Plan Act;

(b) "Hydro Money Purchase Plan" means a registered defined contribution pension plan established and administered by the corporation and includes a plan in substitution of it;

(c) "Hydro Pension Plan" means a registered defined benefit pension plan established and administered by the corporation and includes a plan in substitution of it;

(d) "Pension Act" means the Public Service Pensions Act, 1991;

(e) "PSPP" means the Public Service Pension Plan established under the Pension Act;

(f) "transferred GMPP employees" means current employees who are members of the GMPP, and former employees of the corporation (other than persons who ceased to be employed by the corporation prior to retirement but continued to be entitled to accrue further benefits under the PSPP by virtue of subsequent employment with other than the corporation) who are receiving benefits or are entitled to deferred benefits from the GMPP, and spouses, dependants and other beneficiaries of those former employees; and

(g) "transferred PSPP employees" means current employees who are members of the PSPP and former employees of the corporation (other than persons who ceased to be employed by the corporation prior to retirement but continued to be entitled to accrue further benefits under the PSPP by virtue of subsequent employment with other than the corporation) who are receiving benefits or are entitled to deferred benefits from the PSPP, and spouses, dependants and other beneficiaries of those former employees.

(2) The corporation may, with the approval of the Minister of Finance, establish

(a) the Hydro Pension Plan and the Hydro Pension Plan, where established, shall accept the transfer of all benefits accrued to the date of proclamation of this section under the PSPP on behalf of transferred PSPP employees; and

(b) the Hydro Money Purchase Plan and the Hydro Money Purchase Plan shall, where established, accept the value of all assets accrued to the date of proclamation of this section under the GMPP on behalf of the transferred GMPP employees.

(3) The Minister of Finance may

(a) enter into an agreement with the corporation to provide for the transfer to and assumption by the Hydro Pension Plan of the assets and liabilities of the PSPP with respect to the transferred PSPP employees on those terms, as to funding of liabilities assumed by the Hydro Pension Plan, that the minister and the corporation may agree and upon the transfer, all liabilities with respect to pension benefits of the transferred PSPP employees shall be the liabilities of the corporation and the Hydro Pension Plan; and

(b) enter into an agreement with the corporation to provide for the transfer to the Hydro Money Purchase Plan of the assets of the GMPP with respect to the transferred GMPP employees on those terms that the minister and the corporation may agree and upon the transfer, all liabilities with respect to pension benefits of the transferred GMPP employees shall be the liabilities of the corporation and the Hydro Money Purchase Plan.

(4) The agreement entered into between the Minister of Finance and the corporation in accordance with paragraph (3)(a) may provide for an instrument of the Crown to fund in whole or in part liabilities assumed by the Hydro Pension Plan and the minister may pay out of the Consolidated Revenue Fund those amounts that are necessary to service or discharge the obligations of the Crown under that instrument.

(5) The instrument of the Crown described in subsection (4) is considered for all purposes of the Pension Benefits Act, the regulations under it and all other applicable requirements of law to be a permissible investment and to be valued on any date at its principal face value plus compound interest accrued to that date and after giving effect to all adjustments which had been made under the instrument prior to that date.

(6) An agreement entered into between the Minister of Finance and the corporation in accordance with paragraph (3)(a) may provide for a portion of the liability to be assumed by the Hydro Pension Plan to be funded over a period of time in excess of that permitted under the Pension Benefits Act and the regulations under it and, in that event, that longer funding period shall be considered to be permitted under the Pension Benefits Act and the regulations made under it.

(7) The requirements for acceptances, certificates, notices, consents or approvals in respect of the obligations and agreements described in this section including the consent and approval of the Superintendent of Pensions under the Pension Benefits Act, are waived.

(8) Where there is conflict between this section and the provisions of the Pension Benefits Act, the provisions of this section shall prevail.
