(b) as the returning officer considers to be inappropriate for inclusion in the candidate information sheet, or

Note: Part 4 of Schedule 2 to the Act provides for the keeping of rolls.

Part 5 - The ballot

12 State Council elections

(2) A special State Council election is to be determined by ballot by post.

(3) The voting system in a contested State Council election is to be optional preferential.

(4) A candidate nominated for election is, without a ballot being held, taken to be elected:

- (5) If no, or, in the case of an election for 2 representatives less than 2, persons are nominated for election, the Minister may appoint:

- (6) A person so appointed is to be taken to be elected:
- (a) in the case of a general State Council election--on the day on which the election meeting was to be held, and
  - (b) in the case of a special State Council election--on the day fixed for close of the ballot for the election.

13 Directors election

- (1) A directors election that is a contested election is to be determined by ballot by post.
- (2) The voting system in a contested directors election is to be the "first past the post" method, that is, the candidate or candidates with the most votes is or are taken to be elected. If the number of candidates to be elected cannot be determined because of an equality of votes, the candidate taken to be elected is the candidate whose name is drawn from a lot containing the names of each of the candidates having equal votes.
- (3) A candidate nominated for election is, without a ballot being held, taken to be elected if the number of persons who have been duly nominated as candidates by the close of nominations does not exceed the number of persons to be elected.

14 Voting entitlements--State Council elections

- (2) The vote of the board at a State Council election other than a special election is to be exercised at the election meeting by a duly appointed proxy of the board.

15 Position on ballot-paper--State Council and directors elections

- (1) The order of candidates' names on ballot-papers for a State Council election or directors election that is a contested election is to be determined by a ballot held by the returning officer.
- (2) The ballot is to be conducted by the returning officer in the presence of at least 2 persons who are not candidates for election.
- (3) The ballot is to be conducted in the following manner:
- (a) the returning officer must, at the place of nomination and before all persons present, make out in respect of each candidate a slip bearing the name under which the candidate has been nominated,
  - (b) the returning officer must then enclose the slips in separate identical containers, securely seal each container and deposit all the containers in a securely fastened ballot-box,
  - (c) the returning officer must then shake and rotate the ballot-box and, on request, permit any other person present to do the same,
  - (d) the returning officer must then unfasten the ballot-box and take out and open each container one by one,

- (e) the returning officer must then announce to the persons present, and record, the name of the candidate whose name appears on the slip enclosed in the container first taken from the ballot-box and, in consecutive order, the name of the candidates whose names appear on the slip enclosed in the container next taken from the ballot-box and so on until the placing of all names has been determined,
  - (f) the returning officer must sign the record and allow any of the persons present to do the same.
- (4) Each candidate or an agent of the candidate is entitled to be present at a ballot in accordance with this clause.
- (5) In this clause:

place of nomination means:

- (a) for a State Council election--the offices of the State Council or such other place as is determined by the returning officer, and
- (b) for a directors election--the place determined by the returning officer.

16 Form of ballot-papers--State Council and directors elections

- (1) The returning officer is to have ballot-papers printed for the election.
- (2) The names of the candidates are to be printed in one column (starting at the top) in the order determined as referred to in clause 15.
- (3) The ballot-papers must show as the names of the candidates the names under which they were nominated. The names may be accompanied by descriptions or additions to distinguish them from each other in any case where a similarity in the names of 2 or more candidates is, in the opinion of the returning officer, likely to cause confusion.
- (4) The ballot-papers for a State Council election are to be in or to the effect of Form 2.
- (5) The ballot-papers for a directors election are to be in or to the effect of Form 3.

17 Supply of ballot

- (4) The returning officer is to make an appropriate notation on the roll to show that the elector has received or been sent the ballot-paper or ballot-papers.

18 Ballot-paper

A ballot-paper is to be initialled on the back by the returning officer (or by a person authorised by the returning officer) before the returning officer gives or sends it to an elector. The initials are to be placed so as to be easily seen when the ballot-paper is folded to conceal the elector's marks. The initials may be written or stamped.

19 Duplicate ballot-papers

(1) If an elector satisfies the returning officer that he or she has spoiled by reason of accident or mistake any ballot-paper handed or sent to him or her, the returning officer may, on receipt of the spoiled ballot-paper:

- (a) hand or send to the elector a new ballot-paper, and
- (b) cancel and preserve the spoiled paper.

(2) General State Council election The scrutineers at a general State Council election are to be directors present at the election meeting who volunteer to be scrutineers or persons appointed by the returning officer.

(3) Directors elections and special State Council elections Each candidate at a directors election or a special State Council election may nominate one person to be a scrutineer at the election.

(4) A candidate for election may not act as a scrutineer.

23 Questions put to elector at general State Council elections

(1) A person claiming an entitlement to vote as a proxy of the board at a general State Council election must state to the returning officer the name under which he or she claims to vote and the board for whom he or she is a proxy, and such other particulars as the returning officer requires for the purposes of checking the name or names on the roll.

(2) The returning officer must check that the name or names given by the person are on the roll before giving the person any ballot-paper.

24 Voting--general State Council elections

After receiving a ballot-paper for a general State Council election, an elector is to:

- (a) go alone to an unoccupied space set aside for voting, and privately record his or her proxy vote on the ballot-paper, and

(b) fold the paper so as to conceal the vote marked on it, but to clearly show the initials on the back, and place the ballot-paper still folded in the ballot-box.

25 Elector whose name is not on the roll--general State Council elections

(1) A director of a regional board whose name as a proxy of a board is not on the roll for a general State Council election but who claims an entitlement to vote as a proxy in the election may make a declaration in writing to the returning officer stating the ground on which the director claims to be entitled to vote.

(2) The returning officer must examine the declaration before giving the elector a ballot-paper and, if necessary, make enquiries to determine whether the declaration is in order and the elector is entitled to vote.

(3) If the declaration is not in order or it appears to the returning officer that the elector is not entitled to vote, the returning officer must not give the elector a ballot-paper.

(4) If the declaration is in order and it appears to the returning officer that the elector is entitled to vote, the returning officer must give the elector a ballot-paper.

(5) After receiving the ballot-paper the elector is to:

(a) go alone to an unoccupied space set aside for voting at the polling place, and privately record his or her vote on the ballot-paper, and

(b) fold the paper so as to conceal the vote marked on it, but to clearly show the initials on the back, and place the ballot-paper still folded in the ballot-box.

26 Informal ballot-papers

(1) A ballot-paper of an elector at an election is informal if:

(a) the elector has failed to record a vote on it in the manner directed on it, or

(b) it has not been initialled on the back by the returning officer, or

(c) it contains a mark or writing which, in the returning officer's opinion, would enable the elector to be identified.

(2) Despite subclause (1), a ballot-paper of an elector at an election in which only one candidate is to be elected is not informal merely because a tick or a cross has been placed in one square and the other square or squares has been left blank. In such a case, the tick or cross is to be treated:

(a) in the case of a State Council election--as a first preference, or

(b) in the case of a director's election--as a vote for only one candidate.

(3) Despite subclause (1), a ballot-paper of an elector at a State Council election is not informal merely because a preference (other than a first preference) has been repeated or omitted so long as the ballot-paper shows the minimum number of preferences required by the directions.

(4) Despite subclause (1), a ballot-paper of an elector at an election is not informal by virtue of the existence of an unnecessary mark on the ballot-paper if, in the opinion of the returning officer, the elector's intention is clearly indicated on the ballot-paper.

27 Initial scrutiny and count

(1) On the close of the ballot for an election the returning officer must, in the presence of any scrutineers who are present, open the ballot-box and have the ballot-papers scrutinised in his or her presence and must reject the informal ballot-papers.

(c) inform the persons present of the result of the count.

(3) Directors election After the scrutiny at a directors election, the returning officer must:

(a) count the votes recorded for each candidate and the informal votes, and

(b) ascertain the results of the count in accordance with clause 13 (2), and

(c) inform the persons present of the result of the count.

(2) Directors election or special State Council election Any candidate present when the returning officer declares the result of the count at a directors election or special State Council election may request a recount of the ballot-papers.

(3) If such a request is made, the returning officer must again have the papers scrutinised and counted and is to inform the persons present of the results of the recount.

29 Declaring the election

(1) General State Council election After counting the votes in a general State Council election at the election meeting, the returning officer is to advise the Chief Executive Officer (if he or she is present at the election meeting) or some other person present nominated by the Chief Executive Officer of the results of the count. The Chief Executive Officer or nominated person is to declare the name or names of the candidates elected to the persons present at the election meeting.

(2) Special State Council election As soon as practicable after counting the votes in a special State Council election, a returning officer (other than a returning officer who is the Chief Executive Officer) is to notify the Chief Executive Officer, in writing, of the candidate or candidates elected.

(3) Directors election As soon as practicable after counting the votes in a directors election, the returning officer is to notify the authorised officer for the board concerned, in writing, of the candidate or candidates elected.

(4) The authorised officer is to cause notice of the candidate or candidates elected in the directors election to be published in:

(a) at least one newspaper circulating generally throughout New South Wales, or

(a) vote, or attempt to vote, more times than a person's voting entitlement allows in an election, or

(b) vote, or attempt to vote, in any election in which the person is not entitled to vote, or

(c) make a false or misleading statement:

(i) to the returning officer in connection with any election, or

(ii) in any document that the person furnishes for the purposes of any election.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

Maximum penalty: 10 penalty units.

Part 8 - Miscellaneous

38 Delayed general State Council election

(1) If the Minister is of the opinion that it would be impractical or inconvenient to hold an election meeting, the Minister may, by notice in writing given to the returning officer concerned, appoint a later day for the holding of the meeting.

(2) If a later date is appointed under this clause:

(a) the retiring members continue in office until that day, and

(b) clause 4 (3) of this Schedule applies as if the date appointed by the Minister were the original date notified to the returning officer for the holding of the election meeting.

39 Decisions of returning officer final

If the returning officer is permitted or required by this Regulation to make a decision on any matter relating to the taking of a ballot in any election, the decision of the returning officer on that matter is final.

40 Death of candidate

If a candidate dies after the close of nominations and before the close of the ballot in an election:

(a) the returning officer is to cause notice of the death to be published in one or more local newspapers that, individually or collectively, circulate generally throughout the region, district or division concerned, and

(b) all proceedings after the returning officer was notified that an election was required to be held are of no effect and must be undertaken again.

41 Security of election materials

(1) After the results of an election are declared, the returning officer is to parcel the marked and any unmarked ballot-papers, the roll and other papers or envelopes used in the election.

(2) The returning officer is to seal, endorse and sign each parcel, and to allow any scrutineers entitled to be present to watch the returning officer carry out those actions and countersign the parcel.

(3) The returning officer is to have the parcels kept securely for 12 months after the election, and then destroyed.

(4) If a court so directs, or any legislation so requires or permits, the returning officer is to allow any person to inspect any of the election materials, except the sealed parcels of marked ballot-papers.

42 Term of office of representatives

(1) A person elected (or taken to be elected) under this Part as a representative of a region takes office on the day on which he or she is elected.

(2) The representative holds office for the period of 4 years after taking office or until he or she ceases to hold office as a director (whichever first occurs), but is eligible (if otherwise qualified) for re-election at the end of his or her term of office.

43 Transitional--directors election held before 1 January 2003

(1) This clause applies in respect of a directors election held before 1 January 2003.

(2) The notice required to be given by the State Council under clause 4 (1) of this Schedule in respect of an election to which this clause applies:

(a) is to specify the date on which the ballot for the election is to be held, and

(b) is to be given to the returning officer at least 30 days before that date.

(3) The close of nominations for the election must not be less than 20 days before the close of the ballot for the election.

(4) Clause 4 (2) and (6) of this Schedule do not apply to an election to which this clause applies.

Schedule 3 Counting of votes under optional preferential system

(Clause 5)

1 General

This Schedule sets out the method of counting votes according to the optional preferential system. The counting is to be carried out by the returning officer.

2 Definitions

In this Schedule:

absolute majority of votes means a greater number than one-half of the whole number of ballot-papers other than informal and exhausted ballot-papers.

continuing candidate means a candidate not already elected or excluded from the count.

exhausted ballot-paper means a ballot-paper on which there is no indication of a next preference for a continuing candidate.

next preference means the first of the subsequent preferences marked on a ballot-paper which is not given to an elected or excluded candidate. However, if there is a repetition or omission in the consecutive numbering of preferences marked on a ballot-paper (other than a repetition or omission that makes the ballot-paper informal), only those preferences preceding the repetition or omission can be taken into account.

3 One candidate to be elected

If only one candidate is to be elected, the votes are to be counted and the result of the election ascertained in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) The unrejected ballot-papers are arranged under the names of the respective candidates by placing in a separate parcel all those on which a first preference is indicated for the same candidate.

(b) The total number of first preferences given for each candidate on such ballot-papers are then counted.

(c) The candidate who has received the largest number of first preference votes is elected if that number constitutes an absolute majority of votes.

(d) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first votes, a second count is made.

(e) On the second count, the candidate who has received the fewest first preference votes is excluded, and the unexhausted ballot-papers counted to him or her are counted to the candidate next in the order of the elector's preference.

(f) If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, he or she is elected, but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes, the process of excluding the candidate who has the fewest votes and counting each of his or her unexhausted ballot-papers to the continuing candidate next in the order of the elector's preference is repeated until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.

(g) The candidate who has received an absolute majority of votes is elected.

4 Two candidates to be elected

If 2 candidates are to be elected, the votes are to be counted and the result of the election ascertained in accordance with the following procedures:

(a) One of the candidates is elected in accordance with clause 3 of this Schedule.

(b) All the unrejected ballot-papers are rearranged under the names of the respective candidates in accordance with the first preferences marked on the ballot-papers, except that each ballot-paper on which a first preference for the elected candidate is indicated is placed in the parcel of the candidate next in the order of the elector's preference.

(c) The number of ballot-papers in the parcel of each candidate is counted and the total number of votes counted to each candidate is ascertained.

(d) If a candidate then has an absolute majority of votes he or she is elected. If not, the count proceeds according to clause 3 (d), (e) and (f) of this Schedule, until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes.

(e) Clause 3 (d) and (e) of this Schedule is to be read for the purposes of this clause as if a reference in those paragraphs to first preference votes were a reference to all the votes counted to a candidate under this clause.

5 Exhausted ballot-papers

In the process of counting under clause 3 or 4 of this Schedule, exhausted ballot-papers are set aside as finally dealt with and are not taken into account in the election of a candidate under the appropriate clause.

6 Equality

(1) If, on any count at which the candidate with the fewest number of votes has to be excluded, 2 or more candidates have an equal number of votes (that number being fewer than the number of votes that any other candidate has or those candidates being the only continuing candidates), the candidate whose name is on a slip drawn in accordance with subclause (2) is excluded.

(2) The returning officer writes the names of the candidates who have an equal number of votes on similar slips of paper. The returning officer then folds the slips so as to prevent the names being seen, mixes them, and draws one slip at random.

7 End of counting

The process of counting each of the unexhausted ballot-papers of an excluded candidate to the continuing candidate next in the order of the elector's preference is not repeated if there is only one continuing candidate. Instead, the continuing candidate is elected.
