

Farm Produce (Repeal) Act 1996

As at 21 December 1999

Long Title

An Act to limit the application and provide for the repeal of the Farm Produce Act 1983, to continue the Flemington Markets Commercial Services Scheme for a limited period, to limit the time for making claims covered by the indemnity scheme under that Act, and to allow the making of savings or transitional regulations as a consequence of that repeal.

1 Name of Act

This Act is the Farm Produce (Repeal) Act 1996.

2 Commencement

This Act commences on 30 June 1997.

3 (Repealed)

4 Repeal of Farm Produce Act 1983 No 30

The Farm Produce Act 1983 is repealed on a day or days to be appointed by proclamation.

5 Savings and transitional provisions

(1) Continuation of Flemington Markets Commercial Services Scheme Anything done by a person in connection with the making of or the giving of effect to contracts or arrangements, or to the arriving at or the giving of effect to understandings, concerning the marketing of primary produce or the adoption of marketing practices in accordance with the Flemington Markets Commercial Services Scheme is specifically authorised by this Act for the purposes of the Trade Practices Act 1974 of the Commonwealth and the Competition Code of New South Wales, but only if the contracts, arrangements or understandings have been entered into before 1 September 1997. The Flemington Markets Commercial Services Scheme is the scheme established by the by-laws published in Gazette No 31 of 15 February 1991 at pages 1253-1265, as amended from time to time.

(2) Claims covered by indemnity scheme A person may sue on an indemnity furnished under the Farm Produce Act 1983 to the registrar under that Act or may be reimbursed out of money received by that registrar under such an indemnity despite any repeal effected pursuant to this Act, but only if:

(a) notice of particulars of the claim giving rise to the action or reimbursement has been given to the registrar before 1 January 1998, and

(b) that Act applied to the sale of farm produce to which the claim relates.

(3) Savings and transitional regulations The Governor may make regulations containing other provisions of a savings or transitional nature consequent on the repeal or partial repeal of the Farm Produce Act 1983 pursuant to section 4 of this Act or the limitation on the operation of that Act imposed by section 3 of that Act.

(4) Any such provision may, if the regulations so provide, take effect on 30 June 1997 or a later date.

(5) To the extent to which any such provision takes effect on a date that is earlier than the date of its publication in the Gazette, the provision does not operate so as:

(a) to affect, in a manner prejudicial to any person (other than the State or an authority of the State), the rights of that person existing before the date of its publication, or

(b) to impose liabilities on any person (other than the State or an authority of the State) in respect of anything done or omitted to be done before the date of its publication.
