- (11E) The issue or sale of a token, stamp or voucher is treated as a supply of goods and services.
- (11EA) A supply does not include the issue or sale of a token, stamp or voucher by a registered person to another registered person who subsequently issues or sells the token, stamp or voucher, unless the first-mentioned registered person is the person who supplies the goods and services on redemption of the token, stamp or voucher.
- (11F) A supply of goods and services is not treated as being made to the extent that goods and services are supplied for the redemption of a token, stamp or voucher.
- (11G) Despite subsection (11F), the supplier of a token, stamp or voucher, with a face value may treat the supply of goods and services on the redemption of the token, stamp or voucher instead of the issue or sale, as a supply of goods and services by the redeemer of the token, stamp, or voucher—

- (a) if the supply is a supply of remote services or of distantly taxable goods; or
 - (b) when a supply does not meet the requirements of paragraph (a), if—

- (a) an adhesive label, or a mark or design, that is—
 - (i) issued or sold by a person to another person; and

 - (b) a token, stamp or voucher that gives the recipient the right to receive services described in section 11A(2).
- (12) The disposition of a taxable activity as a going concern shall be deemed to be a supply of goods made in the course or furtherance of the taxable activity.
- (13) For the purpose of this Act, except for subsection (13B) and section 20(3), if a registered person receives a payment under a contract of insurance, whether or not the person is a party to the contract, the payment is, to the extent that it relates to a loss incurred in the course or furtherance of the registered person's taxable activity, deemed to be consideration received for a supply of services performed by the registered person—
- (a) on the day the registered person receives the payment; and
 - (b) in the course or furtherance of the registered person's taxable activity:

provided that this subsection shall not apply in respect of any payment received pursuant to a contract of insurance where—

- (a) the supply of that contract of insurance is not a supply charged with tax pursuant to section 8(1); or
- (b) that payment is in respect of an entitlement for any loss of earnings (being earnings within the meaning of the Accident Compensation Act 1982 or the Accident Rehabilitation and Compensation Insurance Act 1992 or the Accident Insurance Act 1998 or the Accident Compensation Act 2001); or
- (c) the supply of the contract of insurance is a supply that is chargeable with tax only because sections 5B and 8(4B) apply to it; or
- (d) the supply of the contract of insurance is a supply of remote services that is zero-rated under section 11A(1)(x).

(13AA) If a registered person claims a deduction in accordance with section 20(3) and (3K) for supplies of goods and services used in the course or furtherance of an activity that is not a taxable activity, and does not make an election under section 20(3KB) in relation to the activity before receiving a payment under a contract of insurance in the course or furtherance of the activity, subsection (13) applies to the payment as if the activity were a taxable activity of the registered person.

(13A) For the purposes of this Act, if a registered person receives any refund of excise duty or excise-equivalent duty paid out of a Crown Bank Account under section 41 of the Land Transport Management Act 2003, that refund is, to the extent that it relates to excise duty or excise-equivalent duty incurred with the intention of using the supply for making taxable supplies, deemed to be consideration received for a supply of services by that registered person in the course or furtherance of that person's taxable activity.

(13B) For the purposes of this Act, where—

- (a) an insurer recovers an amount (other than aggravated or exemplary damages) as a result of the exercise of rights acquired by subrogation under a contract of insurance; and
- (b) a deduction under section 20(3)(d) has been allowed to the insurer for the payment to which the recovered amount relates—the amount recovered is deemed to be consideration received for a supply of services performed in the course of that insurer's taxable activity, and a supply of services is deemed to be performed on the day of the insurer's receipt of the amount.

(14) If a supply is charged with a tax under section 8, but section 11, 11A, 11AB, 11B, or 11C requires part of the supply to be charged at the rate of 0%, that part of the supply is treated as being a separate supply.

- (14B) If part of a supply of an equity security or participatory security is the supply of a right to receive supplies of goods and services that are not exempt supplies, the supply of the right is treated as being a supply of goods and services made for a consideration.
- (15) When either of the following supplies are included in a supply, they are deemed to be a separate supply from the supply of any other real property that is included in the supply:
- (a) a supply of a principal place of residence:
 - (b) a supply referred to in section 14(1)(d).
- (16) Where a registered person has claimed a deduction in accordance with section 20(3) in respect of the supply of a dwelling, any subsequent supply by the registered person of—
- (a) the dwelling; or
 - (b) any land or other part of the dwelling that has ceased or will by reason of the supply cease to be appurtenant to or enjoyed with the dwelling,—
- will, for the avoidance of doubt but subject to subsections (17), (18), and (19)(b), be deemed to be a taxable supply.
- (17) [Repealed]
- (18) Where a registered person has claimed a deduction in accordance with section 20(3) in respect of a proportion of a dwelling, the supply of that dwelling shall be deemed to be a taxable supply only to the extent that the proportion claimed bears to the whole dwelling.
- (19) A registered person who has claimed a deduction in accordance with section 20(3) in respect of the supply of a dwelling that is not used by the person principally for the purpose of making taxable supplies may, by notification to the Commissioner in such form as the Commissioner may approve made before 1 August 1996, elect to treat that dwelling as being supplied by the registered person in the taxable period in which that notification is given; in which case—
- (a) that supply will be treated by virtue of subsection (16) as a taxable supply; but
 - (b) without prejudice to the application of any other provision of this Act, subsection (16) will not apply to any subsequent supply of the dwelling by the registered person.
- (20) A supply of services to which section 11A(1)(ma) applies is treated as the only supply of services for the consideration provided by the warrantor.
- (21) If goods and services are provided under warranty, the supply of the goods and services is treated as a supply of services for the purpose of section 11A(1)(ma).

- (22) In relation to a supply to which subsection (2) applies, if the supply by the first person would be zero-rated under section 11(1)(mb), the second person must zero-rate the supply in the same way.
- (23) If section 11(1)(mb) is treated as applying to a supply of goods and, after the date on which the relevant transaction is settled, it is found that the provision does not apply, the recipient of the supply is treated as if they were a supplier making, on the date of settlement, a supply of those goods that is chargeable with tax under section 8(1).
- (24) If a supply that wholly or partly consists of land is made, and the supply includes the provision of services, the supply of the services is treated as a supply of goods for the purposes of section 11(1)(mb).
- (24B) If a registered person claims a deduction in accordance with section 20(3) and (3K) for supplies of goods and services used in the course or furtherance of an activity that is not a taxable activity, and does not make an election under section 20(3KB) in relation to the activity before making a supply of goods and services used in the course or furtherance of the activity, the supply is a taxable supply.
- (25) For the purposes of this Act, an amount charged for the late payment of an account is treated as being consideration for a supply of services in the course or furtherance of a taxable activity, whether the amount is described as a fee, penalty, or other charge. But this subsection does not apply to the extent to which the amount is penalty or default interest, or a charge in the nature of penalty or default interest, that is imposed under—
- (a) a contract for the supply of goods and services:
 - (b) an enactment.
- (26) A supply under subsection (25) is treated for tax purposes in the same way as the supply to which the amount charged for the late payment relates.
- (27) The Commissioner may treat a person resident in New Zealand who receives a supply as if they were making a supply of goods or services that is chargeable with tax under section 8(1) if—
- (aa) the supply is—
 - (i) a supply of distantly taxable goods to which section 8(3)(ab) applies, or that is supplied by a resident:
 - (ii) a supply of remote services to which section 8(3)(c) applies, or that is supplied by an agent under section 60(1AB) or by an operator of a marketplace under section 60C or 60D; and
 - (a) the person has, for the purposes of avoiding the payment of tax or of an amount on account of tax, knowingly notified a fact or provided information that is altered, false, or misleading; and

- (b) after the date on which the supply of the goods is made or the services have been physically performed, it is found that the notification or provision of information has led to the supply being treated as—
 - (i) zero-rated under section 11A(1)(x); or
 - (ii) not being goods, or a service, supplied in New Zealand; or
 - (iii) a supply of distantly taxable goods having a value that is less than the cost of the goods, if the supplier meets the requirements of section 60G(1) relating to the treatment of the fact or information; and
 - (c) either—
 - (i) the act of the person described in paragraph (a) is a repeated occurrence:
 - (ii) the amount of tax that was not charged on the supply through the act described in paragraph (a) is substantial.
- (28) The Commissioner may treat a person who is a non-resident, and is the underlying supplier for a supply of distantly taxable goods made by the operator of a marketplace, as the supplier of the goods if—
- (a) the person has knowingly notified a fact or provided information that is altered, false, or misleading; and
 - (b) after the date on which the supply of the goods is made, it is found that the notification or provision of information has caused the operator of the marketplace to return a deficient amount of output tax on the supply; and
 - (c) the person's behaviour described in paragraph (a) is a repeated occurrence or the amount of tax on the supply that was not collected by the marketplace operator is substantial.

- (2) For the purposes of this Act, goods and services shall be deemed to be supplied in New Zealand if the supplier is resident in New Zealand, and shall be deemed to be supplied outside New Zealand if the supplier is a non-resident.

- (2C) Despite subsection (2B), the part of the supply that consists of the facilitation of inbound tour operations is charged at the rate of 0% if—
 - (a) a registered person supplies the services in the period from 1 July 2007 to 30 June 2008 (the transitional period); and

 - (c) the supply would be a taxable supply if made in New Zealand by a registered person in the course or furtherance of a taxable activity carried on by the registered person.
- (4C) An allocation of costs by a non-resident to a resident is treated as being a supply of services that satisfies section 8(4B)(a) and (c), and the amount provided to the non-resident by the resident under the allocation is treated as being the consideration for the supply.

- (4D) Despite subsection (3), if a non-resident supplier supplies remote services to which subsection (3)(c) would apply but for this subsection to a registered person for the purposes of carrying on the registered person's taxable activity, the services are treated as being supplied outside New Zealand unless the supplier chooses to treat the supply as made in New Zealand.

 - (b) the Commissioner may prescribe the use of another method to determine a recipient's residence, or may agree with the supplier on the use of another method, if a supplier is unable to establish a recipient's residence by 2 non-contradictory items from the list in subsection (2).

- (5) Despite subsection (2), if a supply of goods and services is made under a credit contract, the consideration in money for the supply is treated as being the higher of the cash price of the goods and services and the price the supplier would have charged the purchaser if the purchaser had paid in full at the time the credit contract was entered into.

- (7) If goods and services are treated by section 21I(1) as being supplied by a person, the consideration in money for the supply is—

- (7A) If goods and services are deemed to be supplied by a person under section 5(3) or (3B), the consideration in money for the supply is treated as being the open market value of the supply. A supply of common property by a unit title body corporate has a zero value.

- (7E) Where a person makes a supply of services to the recipient of a supply of goods that include distantly taxable goods, and the supply of services includes services (the related services) that relate to the distantly taxable goods, the consideration for the related services is part of the consideration for the supply of the distantly taxable goods if—
- (a) the consideration for the supply of the related services is determined by reference to the items included in the supply of distantly taxable goods; and
 - (b) the supply of services is made or arranged or facilitated by the supplier or underlying supplier of the distantly taxable goods; and
 - (c) the supply of related services is directly in connection with the distantly taxable goods or is of insurance of the goods; and
 - (d) the supply of related services would be chargeable with tax at the rate of 0% in the absence of this subsection; and
 - (e) the supply of related services and the supply of distantly taxable goods do not form a single supply.

 - (b) the open market value of that supply.
- (9) Where a supply of services is deemed to be made under the proviso to section 5(5), the consideration in money for the supply shall be deemed to be an amount equal to the amount referred to in paragraph (b) of that proviso as being retained or recoverable.

- (14) If a supply of services is treated as having been made under section 5(10), the consideration for the supply is calculated using the formula—
- $$\text{amounts received} - \text{prizes}$$
- where—
- (a) amounts received is the total of all amounts in money received in relation to the supply—
 - (i) for gambling, by the person, society, licensed promoter, or organiser who under the Gambling Act 2003 conducts the gambling:
 - (ii) for a prize competition, by the person who conducts the prize competition:
 - (b) prizes is the total amount of all prizes paid and payable in money in relation to the supply, reduced by the total amount of input tax for supplies for which the prizes are treated as being consideration.
- (14B) If a supply of services is treated as having been made under section 5(10B), the consideration for the supply is calculated using the formula—
- $$\text{amounts received from residents} - \text{prizes paid to residents.}$$
- (14C) In the formula in subsection (14B),—
- (a) amounts received from residents is the total amount in money received in relation to the supply by the non-resident person who conducts the gambling or the prize competition, as applicable, from all persons resident in New Zealand:
 - (b) prizes paid to residents is the total amount of all prizes paid and payable in money to persons resident in New Zealand in relation to the supply.
- (14D) If amounts of consideration calculated under subsection (14B) for all of the non-resident's supplies of gambling or prize competitions for a taxable period are added together (the total consideration), and the total consideration is a negative amount, then the negative amount may be used to reduce a corresponding positive amount of total consideration for the next taxable period.

- (14E) If, after the use of the negative amount described in subsection (14D), an excess negative amount remains, the excess amount may be used to reduce a positive amount of total consideration in the immediately following taxable period.
- (14F) Subsection (14E) continues to apply until the excess amount is extinguished.
- (15) For the purposes of subsection (14), the terms gambling and New Zealand lottery have the meanings set out in section 4(1) of the Gambling Act 2003.
- (15A) If a supply is treated as having been made under section 5(11B), the consideration in money for the supply (less any amount paid out by the casino as winnings in respect of gambling or for the redemption of chips) must be treated—
- (a) as the amount of money (including cheques not collected) a person pays to the casino to purchase a chip or otherwise to participate in gambling played or conducted at a casino venue; or
 - (b) as commission for participation in the gambling.
- (15B) For the purposes of subsection (15A), the terms casino venue, chip, and gambling have the meanings set out in section 4(1) of the Gambling Act 2003.
- (15C) If a non-resident makes a supply of services to a resident who is a member of the same group of companies under section IA 6 of the Income Tax Act 2007 as the supplier, or who is treated by section 56B as being a separate person from the supplier, and the supply is treated by sections 5B and 8(4B) as being made in New Zealand by the recipient of the supply, or section 20(3JC) applies, the value of the supply is determined as if the consideration for the supply did not include—
- (a) the amount of the consideration for the supply that represents salary or wages paid to an employee of—
 - (i) the non-resident;
 - (ii) a company that is in a wholly-owned group with the non-resident under section IA 6 of the Income Tax Act 2007; and
 - (b) the amount of the consideration for the supply that represents interest incurred by—
 - (i) the non-resident;
 - (ii) a company that is in a wholly-owned group with the non-resident under section IA 6 of the Income Tax Act 2007.
- (16) [Repealed]
- (16A) [Repealed]
- (17) [Repealed]
- (17A) [Repealed]

- (18) Where a taxable supply is not the only matter to which a consideration relates, the supply shall be deemed to be for such part of the consideration as is properly attributable to it.
- (19) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section where any supply is made for no consideration, the value of that supply shall be nil.

10B Estimating value of goods in supply for treatment as distantly taxable goods

- (1) The value of an item of goods is determined under this section for the purposes of determining, when a supply of the goods is made, whether the goods are distantly taxable goods.
- (2) The value of an item of goods under this section is the consideration for the supply of the item reduced by the total amount included in that consideration for—
 - (a) the cost of transport and insurance charges,—
 - (i) for goods that are imported into New Zealand, for the period beginning when the item leaves the country or territory from which the goods are supplied and ending when the item is delivered in New Zealand:

- (ii) for goods that are not imported into New Zealand, for the period beginning when the item leaves its place of origin and ending when the item is delivered in New Zealand:
 - (b) the amount of tax that would be chargeable on the supply of the item under section 8(1) if the supply were made by the supplier as a resident and for the same consideration:
 - (c) duty payable on the item under the Customs and Excise Act 2018.
- (3) The supplier of an item of goods may use a reasonable estimate of the amount referred to in subsection (2), based on the information available to the supplier at the time of the supply.

 - (b) for an electing supplier who does not meet the requirements of paragraph (a), the Commissioner considers that giving effect to an election by the electing supplier will not result in a risk to the integrity of the tax system, taking into account—
 - (i) whether the electing supplier and associated persons have a good history of previous compliance with the requirements of taxation laws and the taxation laws of countries and territories outside New Zealand; and
 - (ii) the total value of items of goods, each having an estimated customs value greater than the entry value threshold, that the electing

- supplier sells in a period and are delivered at places in New Zealand; and

 - (b) the initial period; and
 - (c) later taxable periods beginning before a cancellation of the election under subsection (5).
- (4) For a taxable period for which the election is effective under subsection (3), a supply by the electing supplier, after the election, of an item of goods having an estimated customs value greater than the entry value threshold is a supply of distantly taxable goods if the goods are delivered at a place in New Zealand.
- (5) The Commissioner may cancel an election from a date after which the election would otherwise be effective—
- (a) by notifying the electing supplier of the date on which the election ends, if the electing supplier requests the cancellation:
 - (b) if paragraph (a) does not apply, by—
 - (i) notifying the electing supplier of the date of the proposed cancellation and the reasons for the proposed cancellation; and
 - (ii) considering any arguments against the proposed cancellation that are provided by the electing supplier within 30 days from the date of notification, or within a shorter or longer period if the Commissioner considers that the period is appropriate in the circumstances; and
 - (iii) notifying the electing supplier of the date on which the election is cancelled.

- (3JC) For a supply of remote services to which section 11A(1)(j) or (x) applies, if the recipient of the supply—
- (a) estimates at the time of acquisition that the percentage intended use of the services is less than 95%, then the recipient must, on acquisition—
 - (i) identify the nominal amount of tax (the nominal GST component) that would be chargeable on the value of the supply, as if

- the value were equal to the consideration charged for the supply, at the rate set out in section 8(1); and

- (3K) If a registered person who is a non-profit body resident in New Zealand uses goods and services in the course or furtherance of an activity that is not a taxable activity, the goods and services are treated as being used in the course or furtherance of the taxable activity of the registered person—
- (a) to the extent that the goods and services are not used for the making of exempt supplies; and
 - (b) if the goods and services are not excluded from the effect of this subsection by an election of the registered person under subsection (3KB).
- (3KB) If a registered person is a non-profit body resident in New Zealand that carries on an activity that is not a taxable activity and in the course or furtherance of the activity the registered person receives supplies of goods and services, for use solely in relation to the activity and to which subsection (3K) would apply in the absence of this subsection, and the registered person makes an election under this subsection,—
- (a) the supplies used in the course or furtherance of the activity are excluded from the effect of subsection (3K) after a date (the election date), which must be before 1 April 2021 if the registered person claims a deduction in accordance with section 20(3) and (3K) for supplies used in the course or furtherance of the activity; and
 - (b) each asset used in the activity is treated as being disposed of on the election date in the course or furtherance of the taxable activity and being reacquired on the election date for use in the course or furtherance of an activity that is not a taxable activity.

- (3KC) A registered person makes an election under subsection (3KB) for supplies used in relation to an activity by—

 - (i) each amount, which may be estimated using a method acceptable to the Commissioner if adequate records are not available, that affects under subsection (3K) the calculation of the registered person's input tax before the election date and is included in the cost of the asset; and
 - (ii) each amount arising from the asset, which may be estimated using a method acceptable to the Commissioner if adequate records are not available, that affects under subsection (3K) the calculation of the registered person's input tax before the election date and is included in the operating costs of the asset in the period of 7 years before the election date.
- (3L) For the purposes of subsection (3), for a non-resident person who is registered under section 54B or is a supplier of distantly taxable goods or remote services to which section 8(3)(ab) or (c) applies, input tax may be deducted only to the extent to which the goods or services are used for, or are available for use in, making taxable supplies, treating all the supplies made by the person as if they were made and received in New Zealand.
- (3LB) Subsection (3LC) applies for the purposes of subsection (3) and despite subsection (3L), when a non-resident person who is registered under section 54B, or is a supplier of distantly taxable goods or remote services to which section 8(3)(ab) or (c) applies, has paid tax under section 12(1) in relation to the importation of goods. However, subsection (3LC) does not apply if the non-resident person—
- (a) is the person in New Zealand who receives the goods; and
 - (b) is not delivering the goods to another person in New Zealand.

- (3LC) The recipient of the goods in New Zealand is treated as having paid the tax required to be paid under section 12(1), and the non-resident person is treated as not having paid the tax.
- (3M) Despite subsection (3L), a non-resident person who is registered under section 54B and who principally makes supplies of financial services may, for the purposes of calculating the amount of input tax, choose to use a fair and reasonable method of apportionment agreed with the Commissioner, as set out in subsection (3E).
- (4) For the purpose of subsection (3), output tax in relation to a supply made by a registered person must be attributed to a taxable period—
- (a) in the case of a registered person who is required to account for tax payable on an invoice or a hybrid basis under section 19, if the supply is made or is deemed to be made during the taxable period; or
 - (b) in the case of a registered person who is required to account for tax payable on a payments basis under section 19—
 - (i) to the extent that payment for the supply has been received during the taxable period, if the supply is a supply of goods and services which is deemed to take place under any one of sections 9(1), 9(3)(a), 9(3)(aa), 9(6), 9(8), 25(2)(a), 25(4) and is not treated by section 8(4B) as being made in New Zealand; or
 - (ib) to the extent that payment for the supply has been made during the taxable period, if the supply is a supply of services that is treated as being made in New Zealand by section 8(4B) together with any one of sections 9(1), 9(3)(a), 9(3)(aa), 9(6), 9(8), 25AA(2)(a) or 25AA(3)(a); or
 - (ii) if the supply of goods and services is made during the taxable period by the registered person and neither of subparagraphs (i) and (ib) applies; or
 - (c) in the case of a registered person who is required to account for tax payable under section 21D(1) and (3)(b) or 21FB(4), for the relevant adjustment period.
- (4B) A person who is treated under section 5(23) as a supplier of goods under section 11(1)(mb) is denied a deduction under subsection (3) in relation to the supply. However, this subsection does not apply to a person required to account for tax under section 5(23) who is either a registered person or later becomes a registered person and uses the relevant goods for making taxable supplies.
- (4C) For a supply of distantly taxable goods by a non-resident to which section 8(3)(ab) applies or a supply of remote services to which section 8(3)(c) applies, a recipient of the supply is denied a deduction of input tax in relation to the supply unless the recipient has obtained a tax invoice under section 24(5B) or (5BB).

- (4D) Subsection (4C) does not apply to a supply of distantly taxable goods to which section 8(3)(ab) applies or of remote services, that is treated by section 5B as being made by the recipient, if the recipient has accounted for the output tax charged on the supply.
- (5) If, in relation to any taxable period and any registered person, the total amount that may be deducted under subsection (3) exceeds the aggregate amount of the output tax of that registered person attributable to that taxable period, the amount of the excess shall, subject to this Act, be refunded to that registered person by the Commissioner pursuant to section 46.

- (2) This section does not apply if the Commissioner agrees that the registered person may use another calculation method.
- (3) The extent to which the land is used for making taxable supplies is calculated as a percentage using the formula—
$$(\text{consideration for taxable supply} \div \text{total consideration for supply}) \times 100.$$
- (4) In the formula in subsection (3),—
 - (a) consideration for taxable supply is,—
 - (i) on a disposal of the land in the adjustment period, the amount paid or payable; or
 - (ii) the market value of the land at the time of making the adjustment:

 - (i) all rental income that is the consideration for the supply of a dwelling paid or payable since the land was acquired; and
 - (ii) if no rental income is paid or payable in relation to the non-taxable use of the land, the market value of rental income that would have been paid or payable since the land was acquired if the land had been used for this purpose.
- (5) For the purposes of subsection (4), if the person disposes of the land to an associated person, or if the amount of rental income is not an arm's length amount, subsection (4)(a)(i) and (b)(i) do not apply, and the amount of the consideration is measured under subsection (4)(a)(ii) and (b)(ii).

- (6) For the purposes of subsection (4)(a)(ii) and (b)(ii), if the market value of the land or the market value of rental income is not readily identifiable, the person may use another method to provide a fair and reasonable estimate of the market value.
- (7) If a person is required to estimate the extent of taxable use of the land under this section and the land has at any time been used in a month solely for making non-taxable supplies, the person must calculate the percentage use for the adjustment period on a month by month basis, calculated using the formula—
- $$(\text{months} \div \text{total months}) \times \text{result under subsection (3)}.$$
- (8) In the formula in subsection (7),—
- (a) months is the number of months since acquisition in which all or part of the land is used to some extent for making taxable supplies:
- (b) total months is the total number of months since acquisition.

- (4) Despite subsection (2), if the acquisition referred to in subsection (1)(a) relates to a supply that is charged at the rate of 0% under section 11(1)(mb), on a disposal referred to in subsection (1)(b), the person must make a final adjustment of an amount calculated using the formula—
- $$\text{tax fraction} \times \text{consideration} \times (1 - \text{previous use}).$$
- (5) For the purposes of the formula in subsection (4),—
- (a) tax fraction has the meaning given in section 2(1), unless subsection (7) applies to the disposal:
- (b) consideration is the amount of consideration received, or treated as received, for the supply:
- (c) previous use is the percentage intended use or the previous actual use in the period before the period in which the disposal occurs.
- (6) The amount given by the formula in subsection (4) must not be more than the amount of output tax that is accounted for by the person under section 20(3J)(a)(iii), taking into account any later adjustments made under the apportionment rules in sections 21 to 21H.
- (7) In the formulas in subsections (2) and (4), on the disposal of the goods or services, if the supply is charged at the rate of 0%, the item tax fraction is treated as 15%.

60 Agents and auctioneers

- (1) Subject to this section, for the purposes of this Act, where an agent makes a supply of goods and services for and on behalf of any other person who is the principal of that agent, that supply shall be deemed to be made by that principal and not by that agent:
- provided that, where that supply is a taxable supply, that agent, being a registered person, may, notwithstanding anything in this Act, issue a tax invoice or a credit note or a debit note in relation to that supply as if that agent had made a taxable supply, and to the extent that that tax invoice or credit note or debit note relates to that supply, that principal shall not also issue, as the case may be, a tax invoice or a credit note or a debit note.
- (1A) Despite subsection (1), subsection (1AB) applies to an agent who—
- (a) is resident in New Zealand; and
 - (b) makes supplies of distantly taxable goods or remote services to a person resident in New Zealand for and on behalf of a non-resident principal.

- (1AB) The principal and the agent may agree that the agent, and not the principal, is treated as making the supply in the course and furtherance of a taxable activity carried on by them.
- (1B) Despite subsection (1), when a principal and their agent agree, and record their agreement in a document, either in relation to a particular supply or for a type of supply, that this subsection applies to a supply of goods or services, the supply is treated for the purposes of the Act as 2 separate supplies, being—
- (a) a supply of goods and services from the principal to the agent; and
 - (b) a supply of those goods and services from the agent to the recipient, treating the agent as if they were the principal for the purpose of the supply.
- (1C) For the purposes of sections 60C and 60D, an operator of a marketplace or a supplier who makes supplies of goods or services to recipients through the marketplace may treat a supply as 2 separate supplies, being—
- (a) a supply of goods and services from the underlying supplier to the operator of the marketplace; and
 - (b) a supply of those goods and services from the operator of the marketplace to the recipient, treating the operator as if they were the underlying supplier of the goods and services.
- (2) Subject to this section, for the purposes of this Act, where any registered person makes a taxable supply of goods and services to an agent who is acting on behalf of another person who is the principal for the purposes of that supply, that supply shall be deemed to be made to that principal and not to that agent:
- provided that that agent may nevertheless request that that agent be issued with a tax invoice and that registered person may issue a tax invoice or a credit note or a debit note as if the supply were made to that agent.
- (2B) Despite subsection (2), when a principal and their agent agree, and record their agreement in a document, either in relation to a particular supply or for a type of supply, that this subsection applies to a supply of goods or services, the supply by a person is treated for the purposes of the Act as 2 separate supplies, being—
- (a) a supply of goods and services from the person to the agent, treating the agent as if they were the principal for the purpose of the supply; and
 - (b) a supply of those goods and services from the agent to the principal.
- (3) Where a tax invoice or a credit note or a debit note in relation to a supply has been issued—
- (a) by an agent pursuant to subsection (1); or
 - (b) to an agent pursuant to subsection (2),—
- the agent shall maintain sufficient records to enable the name and address and registration number (if any) of the principal to be ascertained.

- (4) For the purposes of subsection (5), the expression auctioneer means a registered person carrying on a taxable activity which comprises or includes the supply by auction of goods as an auctioneer or agent for or on behalf of another person (hereafter in this section referred to as a principal).
- (5) Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this section, where the principal and the auctioneer agree to have a supply by auction of any goods, not being a taxable supply, treated as if that supply had been made by that auctioneer and not by that principal, that supply shall be charged with tax as if it were made by that auctioneer in the course or furtherance of that auctioneer's taxable activity and that auctioneer may—
- (a) recover the amount of tax charged on that supply from that principal as a debt together with the costs of recovery in any court of competent jurisdiction; or
 - (b) retain or deduct the same out of any money in that auctioneer's hands belonging or payable to that principal.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything in subsection (2), where any registered person makes a taxable supply (not being a supply that is charged with tax at the rate of 0% pursuant to section 11, 11A, 11AB or 11B) of goods and services to an agent, being a registered person, who is acting for or on behalf of another person who is the principal for the purposes of that supply, and—
- (a) that principal is a non-resident and is not a registered person; and
 - (b) that supply is directly in connection with either the exportation, or the arranging thereof, of goods from New Zealand to any country or place outside New Zealand, or the importation, or the arranging thereof, of goods to New Zealand from any country or place outside New Zealand, including, in either case, the transportation of those goods within New Zealand as part of that exportation or, as the case may be, importation,—
- this Act shall, where that agent and that principal agree, have effect as if that supply were made to that agent and not to that principal.
- (7) Despite subsection (1), a supply of goods, being goods to which section 12(1) applies, that have been imported by an agent who is acting for and on behalf of the principal, is treated as being a supply made by the agent and not by the principal if—
- (a) the principal is a non-resident and is not a registered person; and
 - (b) the agent is a resident and is a registered person at the time the goods are imported; and
 - (c) the principal and agent agree that the supply was made by the agent and not by the principal.

However, person B and person C may agree, recording their agreement in a document, that the supply is to be treated as a supply made to person C, but no such agreement can be made if person B has claimed input tax in relation to the supply.

- (e) where and to the extent that any amount remaining unpaid to which paragraph (b) or paragraph (c) applies is written off as a bad debt on or after 1 October 1986, that amount written off shall, notwithstanding anything in this Act, be deemed to be consideration for a taxable supply made by that supplier and charged with tax pursuant to section 8(1), and the supplier shall include as output tax, in the taxable period during which that amount is written off as a bad debt, an amount equal to the tax fraction of that amount written off.
