Part 7 NZFSA verification charges

Notes

The charges set out in this Part apply where any verification function under the Animal Products Act 1999 is carried out by an officer or employee of the Authority.

2

The charges set out in this Part that are determined on an hourly basis are exclusive of goods and services tax, and goods and services tax on these charges will be added to the total invoice.

In this Part,—

after-hours callout charges refer to charges payable for hours where a veterinary or non-veterinary verifier performs verification functions at any place or premises outside normal agreed hours of work, and are chargeable for those hours in substitution for any establishment or circuit charges

Authority means the New Zealand Food Safety Authority breakfast shift refers to the situation where the verification functions carried out by a verifier in any day are commenced before 6 am circuit charges refer to charges payable in respect of any place or premises where the verification functions are performed by Authority verifiers who are not permanently or semi-permanently based at the place or premises disestablishment charges means the charges payable in respect of the disestablishment of the position of a veterinary verifier due to the closure of an operator's premises or the reduction of operations at those premises double time refers to overtime hours worked by a verifier for which the verifier is entitled, by his or her employment contract, to double time rates establishment charges refer to charges payable in respect of any place or premises where the verification functions are performed by Authority verifiers who are permanently or semi-permanently based at the place or premises non-veterinary verifier means a verifier who is not a veterinarian registered under the Veterinarians Act 2005 penal rate 0.5 means the rate per hour of the first 3 hours of penal time worked by an employee during the period between—

- (a) midnight at the end of Friday; and
- (b) midday Saturday

penal rate 1.0 means the rate for every hour of penal time worked by an employee other than hours to which penal rate 0.5 applies penal time refers to hours worked by a verifier for which the verifier is entitled, by his or her contract of employment, to penal rates, being hours (other than overtime) worked within a 40-hour week on a Saturday, Sunday, or statutory holiday reserve rate refers to the rate for hours worked by a reserve verifier reserve verifier means a temporary veterinary verifier or supervising veterinary verifier who undertakes the work of an establishment verifier while that verifier is on annual leave or is otherwise absent on a temporary basis shift rates refers to the rates applicable to the case where a verifier is entitled, by his or her employment contract, to extra remunerations for working shifts supervising veterinary verifier means a veterinary verifier who has prime responsibility for the verification functions at a place or premises time and a half, or 1 time, refers to overtime hours worked by a verifier for which the verifier is entitled, by his or her employment contract, to time and a half rates veterinary verifier means a verifier who is a veterinarian registered under the Veterinarians Act 2005.
