— THE PUNJAB FOOD AUTHORITY ACT 2011

(Act XVI of 2011)

[6 July 2011]

An Act to provide for the safety and standards of food and for establishment of the Punjab Food Authority.

Preamble.— Whereas, it is expedient to protect public health, to provide for the safety and standards of food, to establish the Punjab Food Authority and for other connected matters;

It is enacted as follows:-

CHAPTER I PRELIMINARY

1. Short title, extent and commencement.— (1) This Act may be cited as the Punjab Food Authority Act 2011.

(2) It extends to whole of the Punjab.

(3) It shall come into force on such date as the Government may, by notification, specify and different dates may be so specified for different areas.

2. Definitions.— In this Act—

(a) “adulterated food” means the food—

(i) which is not of the nature, substance or quality which it purports or is represented to be; or

(ii) which contains any such extraneous substance as may adversely affect the nature, substance or quality of the food; or

(iii) which is processed, mixed, coloured, powdered or coated with any other substance in contravention of the rules or the regulations; or

(iv) any constituent of which has been wholly or in part abstracted so as to affect injuriously its nature, substance or quality; or

(v) which contains any poisonous or other ingredient that may render it injurious to human health; or

(vi) the quality or purity of which does not conform to the prescribed standards; or

(vii) which has been prepared, packed or kept under unhygienic and insanitary conditions; or

(viii) which is contaminated or has become injurious to health;

(3) A person claiming back anything seized under sub-section (1) may, within seven days of the seizure, apply to the Court and the Court may confirm such seizure, wholly or in part, or may order that it be restored to the claimant.

(4) If the Court confirms the seizure of the food, apparatus or utensil, it shall be forfeited to the Food Authority or the Court may direct that such food, apparatus, utensil may be destroyed at the cost of the owner or person in whose possession it was found.

(5) If an application is not made within seven days under sub-section (3), the food, apparatus or utensil seized, shall be forfeited to the Food Authority.

(6) Any person may make an application in writing to the Food Safety Officer asking him to purchase a sample of any food from a food operator and get it analyzed from the public analyst.

14. Other employees of the Food Authority.— The Food Authority may determine the number, categories, rank and terms and conditions of other employees of the Food Authority.

CHAPTER III ENFORCEMENT MECHANISM

15. Licensing of food business.—(1) A person shall not use any place for food business except under the prescribed registration or licence.

(2) The Food Authority may, in the prescribed manner, exempt a class of food operators from obtaining compulsory registration or licence under this section.

16. Improvement notice.—(1) If a Food Safety Officer has reasons to believe that any food operator has failed to comply with any provisions of this Act, the rules or the regulations, he may serve an improvement notice upon the food operator–

- (a) stating the grounds for believing that the food operator has failed to comply with any provisions of the Act or the rules or the regulations;
- (b) specifying the matters which constitute the food operator’s failure so to comply; and
- (c) intimating the measures which the food operator should take in order to secure compliance with the relevant provisions of the law.

(2) If the food operator fails to comply with the improvement notice within the prescribed time, the Food Authority may cancel or suspended his licence or take such other action as it deems appropriate.

17. Prohibition orders.– If any food operator is convicted of an offence under this Act and the Court is satisfied that the health risk exists with respect to the food business, the Court, may impose the following prohibitions–

- (a) a prohibition on the use of a process, treatment, premises or equipment for purposes of the food business; or
- (b) a prohibition, with or without specifying period of prohibition, on the food operator to conduct or operate the food business.

18. Emergency prohibition orders.–(1) If the Food Safety Officer is satisfied that the health risk condition exists with respect to any food business, he may, after serving a notice on the food operator and for reasons to be recorded in writing, restrain him from carrying on the food business with or without specifying conditions or period of such restraint.

(2) The Food Safety Officer shall, within twenty four hours of the action taken under sub-section (1), report such action to the Food Authority which may, after serving a notice on the food operator and for reasons to be recorded in writing, confirm, modify or set aside the order of the Food Safety Officer.

19. Notification of food poisoning.–The Food Authority may, by notification, require medical practitioners carrying on profession in any local area to report all occurrences of food poisoning to the Food Safety Officer or the Food Authority.

20. Food recall procedures.–(1) If the Director General has reasons to believe that some food is not in compliance with this Act, the rules or the regulations, he may, after recording reasons, order immediate withdrawal of the said food from the market.

(2) Any person, who is aggrieved by any action taken under this section, may, in the prescribed manner, prefer an appeal to the Food Authority.

(3) The Food Authority may, on its own accord or on the application of an aggrieved person, set-aside or modify an order made under sub-section (1).

21. Establishment of food laboratories.–(1) The Food Authority may establish a food laboratory for purposes of carrying out analysis of samples of any food or food related equipments or utensils.

(2) The Food Authority may recognize or accredit a food laboratory for any of the purposes contained in sub-section (1).

CHAPTER IV OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

[22. Selling food against the law.– (1) A person who sells or offers for sale any adulterated food or food which is not in compliance with the provisions of this Act, the rules or the regulations, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months but which shall not be less than one month and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than one hundred thousand rupees.

shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to [one year but which shall not be less than six months and fine which may extend to two million rupees but which shall not be less than one million rupees].

(2) Any person, who publishes or causes to be published an advertisement, which does not contain the true name of the person by whom the advertisement is published ^[16] or the address of his place of business, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to [one year but which shall not be less than six months and fine which may extend to two million rupees but which shall not be less than one million rupees].

26. False labeling.— (1) Any person, who prepares, packages, labels any food which does ^[17] not comply with the prescribed standard, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to [one year but which shall not be less than six months and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than five hundred thousand rupees].

(2) Any person, who labels any food in a manner which is false, misleading or deceptive as regards its character, nature, value, substance, quality, composition, merit or safety, strength, purity, weight, origin, age or proportion shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to ^[18] [one year but which shall not be less than six months and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than five hundred thousand rupees].

27. Failure to comply with the directions.— If any person, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with any order or notice issued by the Food Authority or a Food Safety Officer, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months and fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees.

[28. Unhygienic or unsanitary conditions.— Any person, who manufactures or processes or keeps any food under unhygienic or unsanitary conditions, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months but which shall not be less than three days and fine which may extend to one million rupees but which shall not be less than twenty thousand rupees.]

29. Penalty for prescribed offences.— If a person, who commits an offence prescribed under the rules, for which no penalty has been provided in the Act, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months and fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees.

30. False information.— If a person makes a false or misleading statement, provides false or misleading information or produces any false or misleading document before the Food Authority or a Food Safety Officer, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees.

31. Obstructing the Food Safety Officer.— (1) Any person, who obstructs a Food Safety Officer in the performance of his duties, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or fine which may extend five hundred thousand rupees or both.

(2) Any person, who unlawfully removes, alters or interferes, in any manner, with any food, equipment or vehicle seized or any premises sealed under this Act, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees.

[32. Business without licence.— If a food operator manufactures, sells, offers for sale, stores or distributes or imports any food without the prescribed registration or licence, he shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to one year but which shall not be less than three days and fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees but which shall not be less than ten thousand rupees.]

33. Warranty.— (1) A food operator who is a manufacturer, distributor or dealer of a prescribed food shall not sell such food to any food vendor unless a written warranty or other written statement is given that the food complies with the provisions of this Act, the rules and the regulations.

(2) Any person, who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1), shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and fine which may extend to one million rupees.

(3) Any food vendor, who gives to the purchaser a warranty in writing which is false, shall be liable to imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months and fine which may extend to five hundred thousand rupees.

34. Punishment for subsequent offence.— (1) If any person, after having been previously convicted of an offence under this Act, commits any offence under the Act, he shall be liable to—

(a) twice the punishment of imprisonment and fine, which is provided for the offence under the Act; and

(b) a further fine which may extend to two hundred thousand rupees.

(2) The licence of a food operator mentioned in sub-section (1) shall be cancelled.

35. Compensation in case of injury or death of a consumer.— (1) In case of injury or death of a consumer due to unsafe food, the Court, in addition to any other penalty under this Act, shall direct the food operator to pay compensation to the consumer or, as the case may be, the legal heirs of the consumer, an amount which is—

- (a) not less than one million rupees in case of death; and
- (b) not exceeding five hundred thousand rupees in case of injury.

(2) If the food operator fails to pay the compensation under this section, the Food Authority shall recover the compensation as arrears of land revenue and make payment of the recovered amount to the consumer or, as the case may be, the legal heirs of the consumer.

36. Forfeiture of food, etc.— In case of a conviction under this Act, the Court may direct that any food, equipment, machinery, vehicle or any other thing, to which the conviction relates, shall be confiscated and shall vest in the Food Authority.
