TAX DEFERRAL FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

14. (1) In this section

Definitions

- (a) “annual household income” means, in relation to an applicant, the sum of
 - (i) the annual income of the applicant for the preceding calendar year, and
 - (ii) the annual income for the preceding calendar year of every other person who is living in the principal residence of the applicant at the time the application is made;

annual household

applicant	(a.1) “applicant” means a person who has applied under subsection (2) for a certificate in respect of his or her principal residence;
certificate	(a.2) “certificate” means a deferred tax certificate issued by the Minister under subsection (3);
preceding calendar year	(b) “preceding calendar year” means the calendar year immediately preceding the calendar year in which an applicant makes an application under subsection (2) for a certificate;
principal residence	(c) “principal residence” means real property liable to taxation under this Act which is occupied by an applicant for a deferred tax certificate or the spouse of the applicant for more than six months in the year preceding the date of application or such lesser period as the Minister may, in any particular case, approve.
Application	(2) A person who is liable to pay taxes in respect of his or her principal residence may apply to the Minister, in a form approved by the Minister, for a deferred tax certificate, if <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the person is 65 years of age or older; and (b) the annual household income of the person is less than the prescribed maximum amount.
Issue of certificate	(3) Upon approval of the application the Minister shall issue a certificate.
Idem	(4) The Minister shall not issue a certificate to any person in respect of more than one principal residence.
Effect of certificate	(5) A certificate is authority for the deferment of all existing taxes, including arrears, and all future taxes payable in respect of the principal residence specified in the certificate or such proportion of the taxes as may be so specified.
Farm and commercial property	(6) In relation to property which is assessed as one unit in the tax assessment roll and is used partly as a principal residence and partly for commercial, farming or other purposes, the Minister may make a separate assessment of such portion of the property as may reasonably be regarded as necessary to the use and enjoyment of the principal residence and the certificate has effect only in respect of that portion.
Suspension of certificate	(7) Where annual household income is equal to or exceeds the prescribed maximum amount, the Minister shall, by notice to the holder, suspend the certificate referred to in subsection (3) and as of the date of the notice all future taxes are payable when due but without prejudice to the continued deferment of taxes already deferred under the certificate.

(8) The Minister shall send to the holder of a certificate an annual statement of the total amount of the taxes and interest to the date of the statement that have been deferred under the authority of the certificate.

Annual statement

(9) Where the holder of a certificate

(a) dies; or

(b) conveys the property in respect of which the certificate is issued to a person other than his spouse,

When deferred tax becomes due the certificate shall cease to have effect and all taxes deferred up to the date of that event, together with interest at such rate as is prescribed by regulations, shall, subject to subsection (10), become due and payable by the holder of the certificate or, as the case may be, his personal representative.

(10) Where the holder of a certificate dies, his surviving spouse, whether or not annual household income is equal to or exceeds the prescribed maximum amount, may apply to the Minister to continue the deferral of taxes in respect of the property and the Minister shall, upon approval of the application, transfer the certificate into the name of the surviving spouse.

Transfer of certificate to name of surviving spouse

(11) The holder of a certificate may at any time pay the deferred taxes and accrued interest and upon receiving payment the Minister shall issue a receipt for the payment and cancel the certificate.

Cancellation of certificate

(12) Deferred taxes which are overdue and unpaid bear interest, as determined in accordance with section 15 and the regulations, and may be recovered in the manner provided in section 16 for the recovery of unpaid taxes, subject to the qualification that where on the death of the holder of a certificate, his estate is not sufficient to pay the total amount of the taxes and interest due, the obligation to pay the remaining balance is discharged. 1978,c.18,s.1; 1991,c.33,s.1; 1996,c.35,s.1; 2004,c.44,s.6; 2005,c.48,s.2; 2009,c.85,s.1.

Interest and recovery of deferred taxes
