ACT

To provide for the establishment of a Land Court and appeals against decisions of the Land Court; to make provision for the administration and judicial functions of the Land Court; to provide for the jurisdiction of the Land Court and Magistrates' Courts for certain land related matters; to provide for mediation procedures; to amend certain laws relating to the adjudication of land matters by other courts; and to provide for matters connected therewith.

PREAMBLE

NOTING THAT section 25 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, which is enshrined in the Bill of Rights—

- (a) obliges the State to take reasonable legislative and other measures, within its available resources, to foster conditions which enable citizens to gain access to land on an equitable basis; and
- (b) envisages the State taking legislative and other measures to achieve land, water and related reform, in order to redress the results of past racial discrimination;

AND NOTING THAT section 34 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, accords everyone the right to have any dispute that can be resolved by the application of law decided in a fair public hearing before a court or, where appropriate, another independent and impartial tribunal or forum;

NOTING FURTHER THAT section 7 of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996—

- (a) proclaims that the Bill of Rights is a cornerstone of democracy in South Africa and that it enshrines the rights of all people in the country and affirms the values of human dignity, equality and freedom;
- (b) obliges the State to respect, protect, promote and fulfil the rights in the Bill of Rights;

AND ALSO NOTING THAT section 166(e) of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1996, recognises courts established in terms of an Act of Parliament with a status similar to either the High Court of South Africa or the Magistrates' Courts;

AND RECOGNISING THAT with the advent of the democratic constitutional dispensation in 1994, South Africa inherited a fragmented, unequal and divisive dispensation relating to all aspects of land, which was derived from our colonial history and further structured to serve the segregation objectives of the apartheid dispensation;

AND SINCE land reform initiatives to address the destructive impact of colonialism and apartheid have not progressed at the desired pace, sometimes giving rise to expensive and protracted litigation, to the detriment of the poorest of the poor and most vulnerable in society;

AND SINCE THEREFORE IT IS necessary that land reform in its entirety be accelerated in a lawful and equitable manner, guided by progressive jurisprudence;

AND SINCE IT IS FURTHERMORE necessary and desirable that there should be specialised, well-resourced, accessible and streamlined adjudication structures in place with the institutional, transformative and social justice wherewithal in land matters, in order to enhance and promote fairness and equity at all stages of the adjudication processes before and during court proceedings.

PARLIAMENT of the Republic of South Africa enacts, as follows:—

“ this Act ” includes any regulation.

Purpose and objects of Act

2. (1) The purpose of this Act is to enhance and promote the ideal of access to land on an equitable basis, promote land reform as a means of redressing the results of past discrimination and facilitate land justice.

(2) In fulfilling the purpose of this Act as contemplated in subsection (1), the objects of this Act are to— 5

- (a) establish a Court with jurisdiction to grant any order, appropriate relief or impose any sanction, as provided for in this Act or any other law that confers jurisdiction on the Court;
- (b) establish an appeal process to hear and determine appeals emanating from the judgments and orders of the Court; and 10
- (c) provide for mediation.

CHAPTER 2ESTABLISHMENT, COMPOSITION, SEAL, SEAT AND JURISDICTION OF COURT

Establishment of Court

3. (1) The Land Court is hereby established as a court of law and, in relation to matters arising from the application of the Restitution of Land Rights Act or any other legislation expressly providing therefor, as a court of law and equity.

(2) The Court— 20

- (a) is a Superior Court that has the authority, inherent powers and standing, in relation to matters under its jurisdiction, equal to that which a Division of the High Court of South Africa has in terms of the Superior Courts Act in relation to matters under its jurisdiction;
- (b) is a court of record and all hearings in the Court must, except in so far as the Court may in special cases direct otherwise, be conducted in an open court; and 25
- (c) decisions are a matter of public record on the same basis as decisions of a High Court.

Composition of Court

30

4. (1) The Court consists of—

- (a) a Judge President;
- (b) a Deputy Judge President; and
- (c) so many other judges as may be determined in accordance with the prescribed criteria, and approved by the President. 35

(2) A hearing before the Court must be before a single judge, unless the Judge President of the Court decides to the contrary.

Seal of Court

5. (1) The Court, for use as occasion may require, must have an official seal of a design determined by the President by proclamation in the Gazette. 40

(2) The registrar of the Court must keep custody of the official seal of the Court.

Seat of Court

6. (1) The seat of the Court is in Johannesburg, but whenever it appears to the Judge President that it is expedient or in the interests of justice to hold its sitting for the hearing of any matter at a place elsewhere than at the seat of the Court, it may hold such sitting at that place. 45

(2) The Court may sit in as many separate courts as the available judges may allow.

Jurisdiction of Court

7. (1) Subject to the Constitution, and except where this Act provides otherwise, the Court and the Magistrate's Court within whose area of jurisdiction the land forming the subject matter before that court is situated, have jurisdiction in respect of all matters that in terms of this Act or in terms of any other law are to be determined by the Court or the Magistrate's Court. 5

(2) The Court has jurisdiction in the area of jurisdiction of each Division of the High Court.

(3) The Minister, after consultation with the Chief Justice for the purposes of adjudicating land disputes, by notice in the Gazette— 10

- (a) may define a specific area of jurisdiction of the Court, if the need so arises;
- (b) may increase or reduce the area of jurisdiction of the Court referred to in paragraph (a), when necessary to do so;
- (c) must appoint one or more places within the area of jurisdiction of the Court for the holding of sittings of the Court, other than the seat of each Division of the High Court, to make the Court accessible to the people; and 15
- (d) may withdraw or vary any notice made under this subsection. 15

CHAPTER 3JUDGES, OFFICERS AND ASSESSORS OF COURT*Appointment of judges of Court 20

8. (1) The President, acting on the advice of the Judicial Service Commission, must, subject to subsection (4), appoint a Judge President and a Deputy Judge President of the Court.

(2) The Deputy Judge President must act as Judge President of the Court whenever the Judge President is unable to do so for any reason. 25

(3) (a) The President, acting on the advice of the Judicial Service Commission, and the Judge President of the Court may, subject to subsection (4), appoint as many persons as is necessary as judges of the Court, including persons who may have been judges of the High Court at the time they were appointed to the Court.

(b) Any person who was not a judge of the High Court of South Africa or any court of a status similar to the High Court of South Africa at the time of the appointment to the Court does not automatically hold concurrent appointment to the Court and the High Court of South Africa, unless the Judicial Service Commission advises the President that such person must hold concurrent appointment. 30

(4) The Judge President, Deputy Judge President and judges of the Court must— 35

- (a) by reason of their training and experience, have expertise in the field of land rights matters;
- (b) be broadly representative in terms of race and gender; and
- (c) be fit and proper persons who are appropriately qualified.

(5) In case of a vacancy in the office of the Deputy Judge President or a judge of the Court, or if there is sufficient reason for the appointment of an acting judge, the Minister may, after consultation with the Judge President of the Court, in accordance with section 175(2) of the Constitution, appoint an acting judge of the Court for such term as the Minister may determine. 40

Tenure, remuneration and terms and conditions of appointment of judges 45

9. (1) For purposes of this section “judge” includes the Judge President and Deputy Judge President of the Court.

(2) A judge of the Court holds office until discharged from active service in terms of the Judges' Remuneration and Conditions of Employment Act, 2001 (Act No. 47 of 2001).

(3) A judge of the Court may resign as a judge of the Court by giving written notice to the President. 5

(4) Neither the tenure of office nor the remuneration and terms and conditions of appointment applicable to a judge of the High Court in terms of the Judges' Remuneration and Conditions of Employment Act, 2001, is affected by that judge's appointment and concurrent tenure of office as a judge of the Court.

(5) Despite the expiry of the period of a judge's appointment as a judge of the Court that judge may continue to perform the functions of a judge of that Court, and must be regarded as such in all respects, only— 10

(a) for the purposes of disposing of any proceedings in which that judge has taken part as a judge of that Court and which are still pending upon the expiry of that judge's appointment or which, having been so disposed of before or after the expiry of that judge's appointment, have been reopened; and 15

(b) for as long as that judge is necessarily engaged in connection with the disposal of the proceedings so pending or reopened.

(6) The provisions of subsections (4) and (5), read with the changes required by the context, apply to acting judges appointed in terms of section 8(5). 20

No process to be issued against Judge President, Deputy Judge President or judge of Court except with consent of Court

10. (1) Except for an application made in terms of the Domestic Violence Act, 1998 (Act No. 116 of 1998), no civil proceedings by way of summons or notice of motion may be instituted against the Judge President, Deputy Judge President or any other judge of the Court, and no subpoena in respect of civil proceedings may be served on the Judge President, Deputy Judge President or any other judge of the Court, except with the consent of the Judge President of the Court or, in the case of the Judge President of the Court, with the consent of the Chief Justice. 25

(2) Where the issuing of a summons or subpoena against the Judge President, Deputy Judge President or judge to appear in a civil action has been consented to, the date upon which the Judge President, Deputy Judge President or judge must attend court must be determined in consultation with the Judge President or, in the case of the Judge President, with the Chief Justice. 30

Appointment of officers and staff 35

11. (1) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), the Minister must appoint for the Court a court manager, one or more assistant court managers if necessary, a registrar, one or more assistant registrars, if necessary, and other officers and staff whenever they may be required for the administration of justice or the execution of the powers and authorities of the Court. 40

(b) Any appointment by the Minister in terms of paragraph (a) must be made in—

(i) consultation with the Judge President of the Court; and

(ii) accordance with the laws governing the public service.

(c) A court manager is the senior executive officer of the Court, and exercises administrative control over other persons referred to in paragraph (a), and, under the control and direction of the Judge President of the Court, performs such other functions as may be determined by the Secretary-General of the Office of the Chief Justice and the Chief Justice. 45

(2) Whenever by reason of absence or incapacity an official referred to in subsection (1) is unable to carry out the functions of their office, or if their office becomes vacant, the Minister may, after consultation with the Judge President of the Court, authorise any other competent officer in the public service to act in the place of the absent or incapacitated officer during such absence or incapacity, or to act in the vacant office until the vacancy is filled. 50

(3) Any person appointed under subsection (1) may hold more than one of the offices mentioned in that subsection, simultaneously.

(4) The Minister may delegate any of the powers vested in the Minister under this section to the Secretary-General of the Office of the Chief Justice.

Appointment of assessors

12. (1) The Court may, when adjudicating on any matter in terms of this Act, sit with or without assessors in accordance with the provisions of this section: Provided that not more than two assessors may be appointed in any matter.

(2) The assessors contemplated in subsection (1) must be—

- (a) appointed by the presiding judge in the prescribed manner; and 10
- (b) a person who has skills, experience and knowledge relevant to the work of the Court, irrespective of whether that person has any legal qualifications or not.

(3) No assessor may hear any evidence unless that assessor first takes the prescribed oath or affirmation, administered by the judge.

(4) An assessor who takes an oath or makes an affirmation under subsection (3) is a member of the Court: Provided that— 15

- (a) subject to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this proviso, the decision or finding of the majority of the members of the Court upon any question of fact is the decision or finding of the Court, except when the judge or judges sit with only one assessor, in which case the decision or finding of the judge or judges is, in the case of a difference of opinion between the assessor on the one hand and the judge or judges on the other, the decision or finding of the Court; and 20
- (b) the judge or judges alone decide on any question of law or upon any question whether any matter constitutes a question of law or a question of fact, and the judge or judges may, for this purpose, sit alone. 25

(5) If an assessor dies or, in the opinion of the judge or judges, becomes unable to act as assessor at any time, the judge or judges may direct that the matter—

- (a) be proceeded with before the remaining member or members of the Court; or
- (b) start afresh and, for that purpose, may summon an assessor in the place of the assessor who has died or has become unavailable to act as assessor. 30

(6) An assessor who is not in the full-time employment of the State must receive such remuneration and is entitled to such benefits as may be determined by the Minister, in consultation with the Cabinet member responsible for finance.

CHAPTER 4

COURT PROCEEDINGS

35

Part 1

Institution of proceedings in Court

Institution of proceedings

13. (1) Proceedings under this Act may be instituted by—

- (a) the Commission; 40
- (b) any person acting in their own interest;
- (c) any person acting on behalf of another person who cannot act in their own name;
- (d) any person acting as a member of, or in the interests of, a group or class of persons; 45
- (e) any person acting in the public interest; or
- (f) any association acting in the interests of its members.

(2) The registrar must, in the manner and within the period provided for in the rules, refer the matter to the Judge President of the Court, who must decide whether the matter—

- (a) is to be heard in Court; or
- (b) should be referred for mediation in terms of section 29 of this Act, which, in the Judge President's opinion, can deal more appropriately with the matter.

(3) The Judge President, before making a decision to refer a matter as contemplated in subsection (2), must take all relevant circumstances into consideration, including the following:

- (a) If mediation or arbitration in terms of any legislation took place before the institution of proceedings in the Court and the outcome thereof;
- (b) the personal circumstances of the parties;
- (c) the needs of and relief sought by the parties; and
- (d) the nature of the intended proceedings and whether the outcome of the proceedings could facilitate the development of judicial precedent and jurisprudence in this area of the law.

(4) The Judge President may delegate any of the powers vested in the Judge President under this section to the Deputy Judge President or any other judge of the Court.

Part 2

Rules, powers and functions of Court under other legislation, intervention, right to appear, legal representation, powers of Court on hearing appeals and judgment by default

Rules governing procedure of Court

14. (1) The Rules Board must make rules to regulate the conduct of proceedings of the Court, including—

- (a) the circumstances under which opinion and oral evidence may be submitted to the Court;
- (b) the suspension or execution of judgments, orders or sentences of the Court pending applications, or petitions for leave to appeal and the prosecution of appeals;
- (c) the manner and circumstances under which a judgment by default contemplated in section 18 of this Act can be given;
- (d) the practice and procedure of the Court in applications in terms of Chapter IIIA of the Restitution of Land Rights Act;
- (e) any of the matters listed in section 6(1)(a) to (s) of the Rules Board for Courts of Law Act, 1985 (Act No. 107 of 1985), insofar as they are appropriate to the functioning of the Court; and
- (f) generally, any matter which may be necessary or useful to be regulated for the proper despatch and conduct of the functions of the Court.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act or in the rules contemplated in subsection (1), the Court may—

- (a) at any stage after a claim has been referred to it, refer the claim back to the Commission with directives as to matters which are to be investigated and reported on by the Commission; and
- (b) conduct any part of any proceedings on an informal or inquisitorial basis.

(3) The Rules Board must make rules in respect of the form and manner in which a party to an arbitration may apply to the Court to—

- (a) stop the arbitration process and to proceed in the Court;
- (b) vary or set aside a settlement agreement; or
- (c) set aside an arbitration award.

(4) The rules contemplated in subsection (1) must facilitate the expeditious handling of disputes and the minimisation of costs involved.

(5) Except as is otherwise provided for in this Act, the provisions of the Superior Courts Act, and of the rules regulating the conduct of the proceedings of the several provincial and local divisions of the High Court of South Africa made under the Rules

Board for Courts of Law Act, 1985, apply with the necessary changes required by the context to the Court—

- (a) in so far as these provisions are not provided for in this Act or the rules; and
- (b) to the extent that they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Powers and functions of Court under other legislation 5

15. The provisions of this Act regulating the procedures, powers and functions of the Court apply, with the necessary changes required by the context, to the performance by the Court of its powers and functions in terms of any other law in respect of which it has jurisdiction, unless such application is excluded expressly or by necessary implication.

Intervention to proceedings before Court, right to appear and legal representation 10

16. (1) Any person or body with legal standing may apply to the Court for leave to intervene as a party to any proceedings before the Court.

(2) The State has the right to intervene as a party to all proceedings before the Court.

(3) Any party appearing before the Court may do so in person or may be represented by a legal practitioner as contemplated in the Legal Practice Act, 2014 (Act No. 28 of 2014), of their own choice and at their own expense. 15

(4) (a) Where a party involved in a matter before the Court is not represented by a legal representative because such party cannot afford to pay for legal representation, and the Court is of the opinion that it would be in the best interests of the party to have legal representation, the Court must refer the matter to Legal Aid South Africa as contemplated in section 2 of the Legal Aid South Africa Act, 2014 (Act No. 39 of 2014). 20

(b) Legal Aid South Africa must deal with a matter referred to in paragraph (a) in accordance with section 4(1)(f) of the Legal Aid South Africa Act, 2014, to provide legal representation at State expense, where substantial injustice would otherwise result.

(c) Expenditure in connection with the implementation and application of paragraph (a) must be defrayed from money appropriated by Parliament for this purpose and monies appropriated by Parliament for this purpose constitute earmarked funds on the vote of Legal Aid South Africa, and may not be used for any other purpose. 25

Powers of Court on hearing of appeals

17. (1) Any person who is aggrieved by a judgment or order of a Magistrate's Court may appeal to the Court against that judgment or order in accordance with— 30

- (a) any land related legislation conferring appellate jurisdiction on the Court; and
- (b) the rules contemplated in section 32.

(2) The Court, at the hearing of any appeal in terms of this Act or any law conferring upon it any appellate jurisdiction, has the power— 35

- (a) to receive further evidence;
- (b) to remit the case to the court or other tribunal of first instance for further hearing, with such instructions as regards the taking of further evidence or otherwise as the Court considers necessary; or
- (c) to confirm, amend or set aside the judgment, order or decision which is the subject matter of the appeal and to give any judgment, order or decision which the circumstances may require, 40 unless such law provides otherwise.

Judgment by default

18. A judgment by default may be granted by the Court in the manner and in the circumstances determined in the rules: Provided that the Court must be satisfied that there was proper service of the process by which the case was initiated.

Witnesses, witness fees and admissibility of evidenceWitnesses

19. (1) The registrar must, in the form and manner provided for in the rules subpoena a person to appear as a witness in a matter before the Court to give evidence or to produce a book, document, written instrument or any item on request by— 10

- (a) the judge in the matter;
- (b) a person whose rights may be affected by an order that may be made by the Court in those proceedings; or
- (c) the legal practitioner of a person referred to in paragraph (b).

(2) Sections 35(2), (3), (4) and (5) and 36 of the Superior Courts Act, read with such changes as the context may require, apply to a person who has been subpoenaed in terms of subsection (1) or required by the judge to give evidence. 15

(3) A person subpoenaed in terms of subsection (1) and who complied with the subpoena, is entitled to an allowance from State funds as contemplated in section 20.

Witness fees

20. (1) A witness in any proceedings of the Court and any person who accompanies any such witness on account of the youth or infirmity due to old age or any disability of such witness, must be paid such allowances as may be prescribed in terms of section 37 of the Superior Courts Act.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, the Court may order that no allowances or only a portion of the prescribed allowances must be paid to any witness. 25

Admissibility of evidence

21. (1) The Court may, in the case of claims under the Restitution of Land Rights Act admit evidence, including oral evidence, which it considers relevant and cogent to the matter being heard by it, whether or not such evidence would be admissible in any other court of law. 30

(2) Without derogating from the generality of subsection (1), it is competent for any party before the Court to adduce—

- (a) hearsay evidence regarding the circumstances surrounding the dispossession of a land right or rights and the rules governing the allocation and occupation of land within a claimant community at the time of such dispossession; and 35
- (b) expert evidence regarding the historical and anthropological facts relevant to any particular land claim.

(3) The Court must give such weight to any evidence adduced in terms of subsections (1) and (2) as it deems appropriate. 40

(4) Whenever a judgment, order or other record of the Court is required to be proved or inspected or referred to in any manner, a copy of such judgment, order or other record duly certified as such by the registrar of the Court under its seal is prima facie evidence thereof without proof of the authenticity of such registrar's signature. 45

Part 4Processes of Court and OffencesScope and execution of process of Court

22. (1) The process of the Court runs throughout the Republic and its sentences, rulings, judgments, writs, summonses, orders, warrants, commands and other processes, excluding a subpoena referred to in section 19 of this Act, must be executed in any area in like manner as if they were processes of a Division of the High Court having jurisdiction in such area. 5

(2) A sheriff or a deputy sheriff of the High Court appointed for the area in which any process is to be served, must execute all sentences, rulings, judgments, writs, summonses, orders, warrants, commands and other processes of the Court directed to them, and any reference in this Act to a sheriff or a deputy sheriff is deemed to be a reference to a sheriff or deputy sheriff of a Division of the High Court acting in terms of this section. 10

(3) A sheriff or deputy sheriff performing their duties in terms of this Act has all the powers and rights and is subject to all the obligations and duties applicable to the execution by such sheriff or deputy sheriff of the process of the Division of the High Court for which they are appointed. 15

(4) The return of a sheriff or a deputy sheriff of what has been done in connection with any process of the Court is prima facie evidence of the matters therein stated. 20

(5) A refusal by the sheriff or any deputy sheriff to perform any act which they are, in terms of this Act, empowered or obliged to do, is subject to review by the Court on application ex parte or on notice as the circumstances may require.

(6) Any warrant or other process for the execution of a judgment given or order issued against any association of persons, corporate or unincorporated, partnership or firm may be executed by attachment of the property or assets of such association, partnership or firm. 25

Offences relating to execution

23. Any person who commits any conduct referred to in section 46 of the Superior Courts Act, in relation to the execution by a sheriff or deputy sheriff of their duties in terms of this Act, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding one year. 30

Part 5Powers of Court, conferences, Court orders, variation, rescission and costsPowers of Court 35

24. (1) Subject to Chapter 8 of the Constitution, the Court has—
- (a) all such powers in relation to matters falling within its jurisdiction as are possessed by a Division of the High Court having jurisdiction in civil proceedings at the place where the land in question is situated, including the powers of the High Court in relation to any contempt of Court; 40
 - (b) all the ancillary powers necessary or reasonably incidental to the performance of its functions, including the power to grant interlocutory orders and interdicts; and
 - (c) the power to decide any issue in terms of any other law, which is not ordinarily within its jurisdiction but is sufficiently connected to a matter within its jurisdiction, if the Court considers it to be in the interests of justice to do so. 45

(2) (a) The Court, of its own accord or at the request of any party to the proceedings before it, may reserve, for the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeal, any question of law that arises in those proceedings.

(b) A question may be reserved only if it is decisive for the proper adjudication of the dispute. 5

(c) Pending the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeal on any question of law reserved in terms of paragraph (a), the Court may make any interim order.

(3) A judgment of the Court must be handed down as soon as reasonably possible.

(4) To the extent necessary, the Court may refer any suspicion or allegation of corruption in any proceedings before the Court to any relevant authority for investigation. 10

Conferences

25. (1) The Court may at any stage on its own accord or upon the request in writing of either party direct the parties or their representatives to appear before it in chambers for a conference to consider— 15

(a) the simplification of the issues;

(b) the necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;

(c) the possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents with a view to avoiding unnecessary proof;

(d) the limitation of the number of expert witnesses; or 20

(e) such other matters as may aid in the disposal of the action in the most expeditious and least costly manner.

(2) The Court must make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, the amendments allowed to the pleadings, and the agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which limits the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of the parties or their representatives. 25

(3) The order so made by the Court is binding on the parties unless altered at the trial to prevent manifest injustice.

(4) If a party refuses or neglects to appear at the conference the Court may, without derogation from its power to punish for contempt of court, make such order as it considers equitable in the circumstances and upon conclusion of the proceedings may order the party who was so absent to pay such costs as in the opinion of the Court were incurred as a result of the said absence. 30

(5) The Court may, after the holding of such a conference—

(a) issue such orders and directions as to the procedure to be followed before and during the trial as it deems appropriate; and 35

(b) make such order as to the costs of any proceedings under this section as it deems fit.

Court orders

26. (1) The Court may make any appropriate order, including— 40

(a) granting urgent interim relief;

(b) an interdict;

(c) an order directing the performance of any particular act, which order, when implemented, must remedy a wrong and give effect to the primary objects of this Act; 45

(d) a declaratory order;

(e) an award of damages in any circumstances contemplated in this Act;

(f) an order for costs;

(g) making any arbitration award or any settlement agreement an order of the Court; 50

(h) requesting the Commission to conduct an investigation to assist the Court and to submit a report to the Court; and

(i) any other appropriate order which a High Court is competent to make, and which relates to a matter under the jurisdiction of the Court.

(2) If at any stage after a dispute has been referred to the Court, it becomes apparent that it would advance the finalisation of the case if some or all of the disputes between the parties are referred to mediation, the Court may, if the Judge President did not make an order contemplated in section 13(2)(b) stay the proceedings and refer the dispute to mediation in terms of section 29 of this Act. 5

(3) The Court may in addition to subsection (1) make an order—

- (a) for the restoration of land, a portion of land or any right in land in respect of which the claim or any other claim is made to the claimant or award any land, a portion of or a right in land to the claimant in full or in partial settlement of the claim and, where necessary, the prior acquisition or expropriation of the land, portion of land or right in land: Provided that the claimant is not awarded land, a portion of land or a right in land dispossessed from another claimant or the latter's ascendant, unless—
 - (i) such other claimant is or has been granted restitution of a right in land or has waived the right to restoration of the right in land concerned; or 15
 - (ii) the Court is satisfied that satisfactory arrangements have been or will be made to grant such other claimant restitution of a right in land;
- (b) for the State to grant the claimant an appropriate right in alternative state-owned land and, where necessary, order the State to designate it; 20
- (c) for the State to pay the claimant compensation; 20
- (d) for the State to include the claimant as a beneficiary of a State support programme for housing or the allocation and development of rural land;
- (e) for the grant to the claimant of any alternative relief;
- (f) to determine conditions which must be fulfilled before a right in land can be restored or granted to a claimant; 25
- (g) if a claimant is required to make any payment before the right in question is restored or granted, to determine the amount to be paid and the manner of payment, including the time for payment;
- (h) if the claimant is a community, to determine the manner in which the rights are to be held or the compensation is to be paid or held; 30
- (i) to give any other directive as to how its orders are to be carried out, including the setting of time limits for the implementation of its orders;
- (j) in respect of compensatory land granted at the time of the dispossession of the land in question;
- (k) to give effect to any agreement between the parties regarding the finalisation of the claim; and 35
- (l) for costs as it deems just, including an order for costs against the State or the Commission.

(4) An order contemplated in subsection (3)(h) must be subject to such conditions as the Court considers necessary to ensure that all the members of the dispossessed community have access to the land or the compensation in question, on a basis which is fair and non-discriminatory towards any person, including a tenant, and which ensures the accountability of the person who holds the land or compensation on behalf of the community to the members of such community. 40

(5) The Court's power to order the restitution of a right in land or to grant a right in alternative state-owned land must include the power to adjust the nature of the right previously held by the claimant, and to determine the form of title under which the right may be held in future. 45

(6) In making any award of land, the Court may direct that the rights of individuals to that land be determined in accordance with the procedures set out in the Distribution and Transfer of Certain State Land Act, 1993 (Act No. 119 of 1993). 50

(7) An order of the Court has the same force as an order of a court for the purposes of the Deeds Registries Act, 1937 (Act No. 47 of 1937).

(8) Any state-owned land contemplated in the Restitution of Land Rights Act, which is held under a lease or similar arrangement, must be deemed to be in the possession of the State for the purposes of subsection (3)(a): Provided that, if the Court orders the restoration of a right in such land, the lawful occupier thereof is entitled to just and equitable compensation determined either by agreement or by the Court. 5

(9) An interested party who is of the opinion that an order of the Court has not been fully or timeously complied with may make application to the Court for further directives or orders in that regard.

(10) Any direction or ruling made by the Court has the force and effect of an order of the Court. 10

Variation and rescission of orders of Court

27. The Court may, on application of any person affected thereby, or acting of its own accord in cases falling under paragraph (b), and subject to the rules, vary or rescind any judgment or order—

- (a) erroneously sought or erroneously granted in the absence of the person against whom that judgment or order was granted; 15
- (b) in which there is an ambiguity, or an obvious error or omission, but only to the extent of that ambiguity, error or omission;
- (c) which was void from its inception or was obtained by fraud or mistake common to the parties; or 20
- (d) in respect of which no appeal lies.

Costs

28. (1) The Court may make an order for the payment of costs, according to the requirements of the law and fairness.

(2) When deciding whether or not to order the payment of costs, the Court may take into account— 25

- (a) whether the matter referred to the Court ought to have been referred to mediation or arbitration, and, if so, the extra costs incurred in bringing the matter to the Court directly; and
- (b) the conduct of the parties— 30
 - (i) in proceeding with or defending the matter before the Court; and
 - (ii) during the proceedings before the Court.

(3) The Court may order costs against a party to the dispute or against any person who represented that party in those proceedings before the Court.

Part 6 35

Mediation and settling of matters

Mediation

29. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 13(2)(b) of this Act, if, at any stage during proceedings, but prior to judgment, it becomes evident to the presiding judge that there is any issue which might be resolved through mediation, the presiding judge may make an order— 40

- (a) directing the parties to attempt to settle the issue through a process of mediation; and
- (b) that the proceedings be stayed pending such process.

(2) (a) If the Judge President as contemplated in section 13(2), or the presiding judge in terms of subsection (1), decides that the matter must be referred for mediation, the Judge President or presiding judge must make an order— 45

- (i) directing the registrar to transfer the matter in the manner provided for in the rules to the mediator contemplated in subparagraph (iii);
- (ii) specifying the time, date and the place where such process is to start; and 50

- (iii) appointing a fit and proper person as mediator to chair the first meeting between the parties: Provided that the parties may at any time during the course of mediation, by agreement, appoint another person to mediate the dispute.
- (b) When making an order contemplated in paragraph (a), the Judge President or the presiding judge may attach to the order any comments the Judge President or the presiding judge deems necessary for the attention of the mediator. 5
- (3) The Rules Board must make rules for the—
- (a) appointment of a mediator;
 - (b) procedure for referral of matters to the mediator;
 - (c) process by which mediation is initiated, and the form, content and use of that process; 10
 - (d) joinder of any person having an interest in the dispute in any mediation proceedings;
 - (e) proceedings of mediation;
 - (f) prescribed forms to be used by parties in respect of mediation proceedings; 15
 - (g) right of any party to be represented by any person or category of persons in any mediation proceedings, including the regulation or limitation of the right to be represented in those proceedings;
 - (h) consequences for any party to mediation proceedings for not attending those proceedings; 20
 - (i) qualification for appointment as mediator;
 - (j) fees that are payable for mediation;
 - (k) appointment, powers and functions of a mediator; and
 - (l) issuance of an order at the conclusion of the proceedings.
- (4) On receipt of an order referred to in subsection (2), the registrar must transfer the matter and notify the parties to the matter of the transfer in the manner provided for in the rules. 25
- (5) On receipt of a matter, the mediator must deal with the matter expeditiously in terms of their powers and functions as provided for in the rules.
- (6) If— 30
- (a) the parties to the mediation are not able to resolve the matter to the satisfaction of all the parties; or
 - (b) one or more of the parties to the mediation so request,
- the mediator must, in the manner provided for in the rules, refer the matter to the Court for adjudication. 35
- (7) A mediator appointed in terms of subsection (2)(a)(iii) who is not in the full-time service of the State, may be paid such remuneration and allowances as prescribed.
- (8) All discussions taking place and all disclosures and submissions made during the mediation process are privileged, unless the parties agree to the contrary.
- (9) The Court may make the agreement reached between the parties an order of the Court, with or without such technical variations as may be appropriate. 40
- (10) If the Court proposes to make any technical variation to the agreement, it must give the parties to the proceedings in the manner provided for in the rules notice of such intention, and before making such variation, it must receive and consider any comments from the parties. 45

Settling of matters

- 30. (1) If a matter is settled out of Court, either by means of negotiation or mediation, and the settlement agreement is accepted by all parties involved in the matter, the registrar of the Court must, if the parties agree thereto, submit the settlement agreement to the Court for confirmation or rejection. 50

- (2) The Court must consider the settlement agreement and may—
- (a) confirm the settlement agreement and make it an order of the Court; or
 - (b) before deciding the matter, refer the settlement agreement to the parties for reconsideration of any specific issues.

APPEALS AGAINST JUDGMENT OR ORDER OF COURT AND OF OTHER COURTS

Appeals against judgment or order of Court

- 31. (1) Subject to section 15(1) of the Superior Courts Act, the Constitution and any other law— 10
- (a) an appeal against any decision of the Court of first instance lies, upon leave having been granted—
 - (i) if the Court consisted of a single judge, either to the Supreme Court of Appeal or to a full court, depending on the direction issued in terms of section 17(6) of the Superior Courts Act; or 15
 - (ii) if the Court consisted of more than one judge, to the Supreme Court of Appeal; and
 - (b) an appeal against any decision of a full court on appeal to it, lies to the Supreme Court of Appeal upon special leave having been granted by the Supreme Court of Appeal. 20
- (2) No judge may sit at the hearing of an appeal against a judgment or an order given in a case that was heard before that judge.
- (3) No appeal lies against a judgment or order of the Court except with leave of the Court or, where such leave has been refused, with the leave of the full court and failing that with leave of the Supreme Court of Appeal. 25
- (4) An appeal from a judgment or order of the Court must be heard by a full court in open court.
- (5) The full court or the Supreme Court of Appeal may, in granting leave to appeal, vary any order for costs made by the Court or the full court in refusing leave to appeal.
- (6) The power to grant leave to appeal as contemplated in subsection (3)— 30
- (a) is not limited by reason only of the value of the matter in dispute or the amount claimed or awarded in the suit or by reason only of the fact that the matter in dispute is incapable of being valued in money; and
 - (b) is subject to the provisions of any other law which specifically limits it or specifically grants, limits or excludes any right of appeal. 35
- (7) Leave to appeal may be granted subject to such conditions as the Court, the full court or the Supreme Court of Appeal, as the case may be, considers appropriate, including a condition that the applicant files security for the costs of the appeal.
- (8) The full court may grant leave to appeal on application made to it within 15 days, or such longer period as may on good cause be allowed, after the Court has refused leave to appeal. 40
- (9) (a) An application to the full court in terms of subsection (8) must—
- (i) be brought on notice of motion supported by an affidavit as to the facts upon which the applicant relies for relief; and
 - (ii) be addressed to the registrar of the Court and to all other parties in the proceedings before the Court. 45
- (b) The application must be considered by two judges of the Court designated by the Judge President of the Court, and in the case of a difference of opinion, also by the Judge President of the Court or any other judge so designated.

(c) The judges considering the application may order that the application be argued before them at a time and place appointed, and may, whether or not they have so ordered—

- (i) grant or refuse the application; or
- (ii) refer the application to the full court for consideration, whether upon argument 5 or otherwise,

and where an application has been so referred, the full court may thereupon grant or refuse the application.

(d) The decision of the majority of the judges considering the application, or the decision of the full court, as the case may be, to grant or refuse the application, is final. 10

(e) Notice of the date and place fixed for the hearing of the application must be given to the applicant and the respondent by the registrar of the Court.

(10) The full court, on the hearing of any appeal from the Court, has the power to—

- (a) receive further evidence;
- (b) remit the case to the Court for further hearing, with such instructions as 15 regards the taking of further evidence or otherwise as the full court considers necessary; or
- (c) confirm, amend or set aside the judgment or order which is the subject of the appeal and to give any judgment or make any order which the circumstances 20 may require.

(11) Nothing in this section may be construed as preventing an appeal from a judgment or order of the Court being made directly to the Constitutional Court, if such an appeal is allowed by national legislation and by the rules of the Constitutional Court.

Appeals against judgment or order of other courts

32. The rules must provide for the manner in which appeals must be lodged with the 25
Court, and the processes that the Court must follow in hearing appeals against judgments and orders of other courts.

CHAPTER 6

GENERAL PROVISIONS

General provisions applicable to Court 30

33. The provisions of the Superior Courts Act, read with the changes required by the context, apply in respect of any matter not provided for in this Act, to the extent that they are not inconsistent with this Act.

Removal of action or proceedings

34. (1) If any action or proceedings have been instituted in the Court sitting in any 35 area of jurisdiction, and it appears to the Court sitting in that area that such action or proceedings—

- (a) should have been instituted in the Court sitting in another area of jurisdiction within the same province; or
- (b) would be more conveniently or more appropriately heard or determined— 40
 - (i) by the Court sitting in another area of jurisdiction within the same province;
 - (ii) at the seat of the Court if the proceedings have been instituted in the Court sitting at another area of jurisdiction within the same province; or
 - (iii) at another area of jurisdiction if the proceedings have been instituted at 45
the seat of the Court within the same province, the Court sitting in that area may, upon application by any party thereto and after hearing all other parties thereto, order such action or proceedings to be removed to the Court sitting at another area of jurisdiction or to the seat of the Court, as the case may be.

- (2) The provisions of this section apply, with necessary changes required by the context, to the removal of an action or proceedings from—
- (a) the Court to a Division of the High Court; and
 - (b) a Division of the High Court to the Court,
- within the same province. 5
- (3) An order for removal—
- (a) under subsection (1) must be transmitted to the registrar of the Court to which the removal is ordered; and
 - (b) under subsection (2) must be transmitted to the registrar of the Court or the High Court, as the case may be, to which the removal is ordered, 10
- and upon the receipt of such order the Court or the High Court, as the case may be, may hear and determine the action or proceedings in question.

Transitional arrangements

35. (1) (a) Any proceedings arising out of the application of this Act or any other law conferring jurisdiction on the Court, pending in any court other than the Land Claims Court established by section 22 of the Restitution of Land Rights Act, at the commencement of this Act must be continued and concluded in every respect as if this Act had not been passed. 15
- (b) Any proceedings arising out of the application of this Act or any other law conferring jurisdiction on the Court, pending in the Land Claims Court, at the commencement of this Act must be continued and concluded in terms of this Act in the Court and, for that purpose— 20
- (i) those proceedings are deemed to have been instituted in terms of this Act in the Court; and
 - (ii) anything done under any provision of any law amended by this Act is deemed to have been done under the corresponding provision of this Act, 25
- unless the Court is of the view that this would not be in the interests of justice, in which event the Court must conclude the proceedings in the Court as if this Act had not been passed.
- (c) Proceedings for purposes of paragraphs (a) and (b), are deemed to be pending if, 30 at the commencement of this Act—
- (i) a civil summons had been issued or an application has been lodged, but judgment or an order has not been given; or
 - (ii) an accused person had pleaded but judgment or sentence has not been passed. 35
- (d) Any proceedings arising out of the application of any law pending in any tribunal or forum at the commencement of this Act must be continued and concluded in every respect as if this Act had not been passed.
- (2) (a) Any period of time served by a person as a judge or an acting judge of the Land Claims Court established in terms of section 22 of the Restitution of Land Rights Act, is deemed to have been served by that person, as a judge appointed in terms of section 8 40 of this Act.
- (b) A judge of the High Court who, on the date of commencement of this Act, was seconded or appointed as a judge of the Land Claims Court becomes a judge of the Court except where such judge indicates in writing to the Secretary of the Judicial Service Commission, that such judge does not wish to hold a concurrent appointment as a judge 45 of the Court.
- (c) Officers and staff of the Land Claims Court who were appointed in terms of section 28I of the Restitution of Land Rights Act before the date of commencement of this Act, become officers and staff of the Court on the same terms and conditions of their appointment in terms of that section: Provided that the terms and conditions applicable 50 to officers and staff who have been appointed on contract basis remain the same at the commencement of this Act.
- (3) Any money available from the budget allocation for purposes of section 29(4) of the Restitution of Land Rights Act, before its amendment by this Act, forms part of the budget allocation of Legal Aid South Africa for purposes of giving effect to section 55 16(4) of this Act.

(4) Until the rules contemplated in section 29(3) and the regulations contemplated in section 37(1)(d) have been made, mediators and assessors must be appointed in the manner provided for in the Restitution of Land Rights Act.

(5) The rules published under Government Notice No. R. 300 of 21 February 1997 continue to apply to the Court, with necessary changes required by the context, until the rules contemplated in section 14(1) have been made. 5

Amendment of laws

36. The laws mentioned in the Schedule are amended to the extent indicated in the third column of the Schedule.

Regulations 10

37. (1) The Minister may make regulations regarding—
- (a) the form of the oath or affirmation of a person who has been appointed a judge of the Court and who is not a judge of the High Court;
 - (b) the manner and conditions of appointment for officers of the Court;
 - (c) functions to be performed by officers of the Court; 15
 - (d) manner of appointment of assessors;
 - (e) the form of the oath or affirmation of an assessor;
 - (f) fees and allowances of an assessor not in full time employ of State;
 - (g) legal assistance that Legal Aid South Africa may provide to parties who wish to exercise their right to have a dispute resolved through mediation and any expenditure related thereto; 20
 - (h) any matter required or permitted to be prescribed by regulation under this Act; and
 - (i) any other matter which is necessary to prescribe in order to achieve the objects of this Act. 25

(2) Any regulation under this section which results in State expenditure, must be made with the concurrence of the Cabinet member responsible for finance.

Short title and commencement

38. (1) This Act is called the Land Court Act, 2023, and commences on a date determined by the President by proclamation in the Gazette. 30

(2) For purposes of subsection (1) different dates may be proclaimed in respect of different provisions of the Act and the different items of the Schedule to the Act.
