(1) Deeds executed or attested by a registrar shall be deemed to be registered upon the affixing of the registrar's signature thereto, and deeds, documents or powers of attorney lodged for registration shall be deemed to be registered when the deeds registry endorsement in respect of the registration thereof is signed: Provided that no such deed, document or power which is one of a batch of interdependent deeds, documents or powers of attorney intended for registration together, shall be deemed to be registered until all the deeds, documents or powers of attorney or the registration endorsements in respect thereof, as the case may be, have been signed by the registrar.

(2) (a) The cessionary shall produce the title deed of the land or right to minerals to the registrar together with the aforesaid deed of cession and the registrar shall thereupon endorse the cession on such title deed.

(1) Any person who has acquired in any manner, other than by expropriation, the right to the ownership of immovable property registered in the name of any other person and who is unable to procure registration thereof in his name in the usual manner and according to the sequence of the successive transactions in pursuance of which the right to the ownership of such property has devolved upon him, may apply to the court by petition for an order authorizing the registration in his name of such property.

[Sub-s. (2) deleted by s. 11 of Act 14 of 1993.]

(4) Every such petition shall be laid before one of the judges in chambers, who shall make such order thereon as to him shall seem fit, and any such judge may order that any matter arising upon any such petition shall be argued before and determined by the full court.

(5) The court considering any petition for registration of title, may, if such court shall deem it expedient to do so, grant a rule nisi setting forth the description of the immovable property mentioned in such petition, and calling upon all persons claiming to have any right or title to such property to appear and establish their claims to the same upon a day to be named in the rule, and may give directions as to the mode of service or publication of such rule.

(9) The registration of immovable property in the name of any person in pursuance of an order made under this section shall have the effect of vesting such person with a title to such property which shall be liable to be annulled, limited or altered on every ground on which the title of such person to such property would have been liable to be annulled, limited or altered if such property had been transferred to such person in the ordinary course.

(10) If in pursuance of any order made under this section the registrar of deeds registers any property in the name of any person, such person shall be liable to pay such taxes, duties and fees of office in respect of such registration as he would have been liable to pay if such property had been transferred to him in the usual manner directly from the last registered owner thereof, but shall not be liable to pay any tax, duty, quitrent or interest thereon which such owner or any intermediate holder of the right to such property may have become liable to pay, unless he shall by agreement have bound himself to pay such tax, duty, quitrent or interest, or unless the delay in obtaining the registration in his name was due to the neglect or default of himself or his agent: Provided that any person who has become liable to pay any tax, duty, quitrent or interest in respect of any property shall continue to be so liable notwithstanding that such property has, in pursuance of an order made under this section, been registered in the name of another person.

(2) No mortgage bond or notarial bond may be passed in favour of two or more persons in which it is stipulated that the share of one holder shall rank prior in order of preference to the share of another, nor may any transaction be registered which would have the effect of giving preference to one share in such bond over another share.

s57]57Substitution of debtor in respect of a bond

(1) If the owner (in this section referred to as the transferor) of land which is hypothecated under a registered mortgage bond other than a mortgaged bond to secure the obligations of a surety (not being a person referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section fifty-six) transfers to another person the whole of the land hypothecated thereunder, and has not reserved any real right in such land, the registrar may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of the said section, register the transfer and substitute the transferee for the transferor as debtor in respect of the bond: Provided that there is produced to him, in duplicate, the written consent in the prescribed form of the holder of the bond and the transferee to the substitution of the transferee for the transferor as the debtor in respect of the bond for the amount of the debt disclosed therein or for a lesser amount.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 4 of Act 24 of 1989.]

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply if the mortgaged land is to be transferred-

CHAPTER VI RIGHTS IN IMMOVABLE PROPERTY (ss 63-85)

General Provisions (ss 63-64)

s63]63 Restriction on registration of rights in immovable property

(1) No deed, or condition in a deed, purporting to create or embodying any personal right, and no condition which does not restrict the exercise of any right of ownership in respect of immovable property, shall be capable of registration: Provided that a deed containing such a condition as aforesaid may be registered if, in the opinion of the registrar, such condition is complementary or otherwise ancillary to a registrable condition or right contained or conferred in such deed.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply with reference to any condition in a mortgage bond or lease or in a deed referred to in section 3 (1) (c), (l), (m), (p) or (q).

[S. 63 amended by s. 26 of Act 43 of 1962 and substituted by s. 10 of Act 62 of 1973.]

s64]64 Certificates of registered real rights

(1) Any person who either before or after the commencement of this Act has transferred land subject to the reservation of any real right in his favour (other than a right to minerals) may on application in writing to the registrar accompanied by the title deed of the land obtain a certificate of registration of that real right as nearly as practicable in the prescribed form.

(2) Such person shall not separately mortgage or otherwise deal with such right or transfer a share thereof (if transferable) unless he has obtained such certificate in the manner aforesaid.

(2)bis Any person who transfers land or on whose land a township or settlement is established subject to a reservation in his favour of the right to receive the claim and stand licence moneys or rents, or any part thereof, accruing under any law relating to mining to the owner of such land, shall simultaneously with the passing of transfer or the opening in the deeds registry of a register in respect of such township or settlement, as the case may be, take out in the prescribed form a certificate of registered real rights in respect of the right so reserved; where the register has been opened, such certificate may be taken out in respect of the remainder of the township or settlement upon a certificate from the Surveyor-General as to the remainder.

(2)ter (a) If any person who is the holder of, or who is entitled to, the right to receive the claim and stand licence moneys or rents, or any part thereof, accruing under any law relating to mining to the owner of land referred to in subsection (2)bis, and which was reserved before the commencement of this Act in respect of such land on which a township or settlement has before or after the commencement of this Act been established, applies therefor to the registrar in writing, the registrar may, notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), issue to such person a certificate of real rights in the prescribed form in respect of such rights without the production of the title deed of each erf or other piece of land in any such township or settlement which is subject to the reservation of such real rights.

(b) Upon the issue of such certificate the registrar shall cause an appropriate note to be made in the relevant township or settlement registers, and thereupon each erf or other piece of land which is subject to the original reservation of real rights, shall be deemed to be subject to such certificate.

[Sub-s. (2)ter inserted by s. 3 of Act 75 of 1987.]

(3) The provisions of sub-sections (2) to (4) inclusive of section thirty-seven shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of such certificate.

Personal Servitudes (ss 65-69bis)

s65]65Registration of notarial deed creating personal servitude

(1) Save as provided in any other law, a personal servitude may be created by means of a deed executed by the owner of the land encumbered thereby and the person in whose favour it is created, and attested by a notary public: Provided that in the case of a servitude in favour of the public or of all or some of the owners or occupiers of erven or lots in a township or settlement, the registrar may, if in his opinion it is impracticable to require such deed to be executed by the persons in whose favour the servitude is created, register such deed notwithstanding the fact that it has not been executed by such persons: Provided further that where it is desired to register a road or thoroughfare in favour of the public at the same time as the registration of a subdivision which it serves, it shall in like manner and without the registration of a notarial deed be permissible to register it in the deed relating to the subdivision and also to endorse the deed of the remainder accordingly: Provided further that conditions which restrict the exercise of any right of ownership in immovable property may be included in any deed of transfer of such immovable property tendered for registration if such conditions are capable of being enforced by some person who is mentioned in, or, if not mentioned therein, is ascertainable from the said deed of transfer or from other evidence and such person, if determinable, has signified acceptance of such right.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 30 (a) and (b) of Act 43 of 1957 and substituted by s. 27 of Act 43 of 1962.]

(2) Such deed shall contain a sufficient description of the land encumbered by the servitude and shall mention the title deed of such land.

(3) If the land to be encumbered by a personal servitude is mortgaged or subject to any other real right with which the said personal servitude may conflict, the bond or other registered deed by which such right is held shall be produced to the registrar together with a consent in writing of the legal holder of such bond or other right to the registration of the said personal servitude and, in the case of a bond, free from the bond.

[Sub-s. (3) substituted by s. 30 (c) of Act 43 of 1957 and by s. 19 of Act 27 of 1982.]

s66]66Restriction on registration of personal servitudes

No personal servitude of usufruct, usus or habitatio purporting to extend beyond the lifetime of the person in whose favour it is created shall be registered, nor may a transfer or cession of such personal servitude to any person other than the owner of the land encumbered thereby, be registered.

s67]67Reservation of personal servitudes

A personal servitude may be reserved by condition in a deed of transfer of land or in a deed of cession of rights to minerals, if the reservation is in favour of the transferor or cedent, or in favour of the transferor or cedent and his or her spouse or the survivor of them, if they are married in community of property, or in favour of the surviving spouse if transfer or cession is passed or given from the joint estate of spouses who were married in community of property.

[S. 67 substituted by s. 8 of Act 93 of 1998.]

s68]68Registration of lapse of personal servitude

(1) If for any reason a personal servitude has lapsed, the registrar shall, on written application by or on behalf of the owner of the land encumbered thereby, accompanied by proof of the lapse of the servitude, the title deed of the land and, if available, the title deed, if any, of the servitude (which title deed the holder of the servitude shall on demand hand over to the owner of such land) note on the title deed of the land and of the servitude, if the title deed of the servitude has been produced, that the servitude has lapsed.

(2) Cancellation of the registration of a personal servitude in pursuance of an agreement between the owner of the land encumbered and the holder of the servitude shall be effected by notarial deed: Provided that no such deed shall be registered if the servitude is mortgaged, unless the mortgagee consents in writing to the cancellation of the bond or the release of the servitude from its operation.

s69]69 Transfer and mortgage of land with personal servitude thereon

(1) If the owner of land subject to a personal servitude and the holder of that servitude have disposed of the land or any portion thereof together with the rights of servitude to another person, they may together give transfer thereof to the person acquiring it.

(2) The transfer deed shall describe the transferors as the owner of the land and holder of the servitude respectively, but no mention of the servitude shall be made in the description of the land therein.

(3) The owner of land subject to a personal servitude and the holder of that servitude may together mortgage the land to the full extent of their respective rights therein.

(4) The owner of the land and the holder of the servitude may either of them as principal debtor mortgage the land or the servitude respectively and the other of them may in the same bond mortgage the servitude or the land as surety.

s69bis]69bis Joint transactions by fiduciary and fideicommissary

(1) If the owner of land subject to a fideicommissum and the fideicommissary, if the latter is competent to do so, have disposed of the land or any portion thereof, together with the fideicommissary rights, to any other person, they may together give transfer thereof to that person.

(2) The transfer deed shall describe the transferors as the owner of the land and the holder of the fideicommissary right respectively, but no mention of the fideicommissary right shall be made in the description of the land therein.

(3) The owner of land subject to a fideicommissum and the fideicommissary, if the latter is competent so to do, may together mortgage the land to the full extent of their respective rights therein.

[S. 69bis inserted by s. 31 of Act 43 of 1957.]

Rights to Minerals (ss 70-74ter)

s70]70 Separation from ownership of rights to minerals

(1) Rights to minerals may be separated from the ownership of land by reservation under section seventy-one or seventy-two in a condition contained in a transfer of such land or by exclusion from a partition of such land in terms of section seventy-three or by cession of those rights by the owner of the land to another person.

(2) Such separation from the ownership may take place in respect of a portion of a registered piece of land, or of a share in the whole or a portion of a registered piece of land, and may be in respect of all minerals generally, or of a particular mineral or minerals.

(3) When a deed of transfer of land exclusive of rights to minerals is lodged in terms of section thirty-one, and the rights to minerals are held by the registered owner of the land under the title to the land, there shall be also lodged for registration a certificate of mineral rights in the prescribed form, and the provisions of sub-sections (4) and (5) of section seventy-one shall mutatis mutandis apply.

[Sub-s. (3) added by s. 32 of Act 43 of 1957.]

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, whenever rights to minerals have been separated from the ownership of land, such rights to minerals and the land shall thereafter each be held under separate title even though the holder of the rights to minerals be also the owner of the land.

[Sub-s. (4) added by s. 32 of Act 43 of 1957 and amended by s. 28 (a) of Act 43 of 1962.]

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act or any other law, any person may at any time obtain a certificate of rights to minerals in respect of all rights to minerals held by him under the same title as that by which he is the registered owner of the land.

[Sub-s. (5) added by s. 28 (b) of Act 43 of 1962.]

(6) The certificate of rights to minerals referred to in subsection (5) shall be issued in the prescribed form, by the registrar, upon the written application of the owner accompanied by the title deed under which the rights to minerals are held, together with any mortgage bond or other deed to which the aforesaid rights are subject, and the consent of the holder thereof, and the registrar shall make such endorsements on the relevant deeds as may be necessary to give effect to the issue of such certificate.

[Sub-s. (6) added by s. 28 (b) of Act 43 of 1962.]

s71]71 Certificates of reservation of rights to minerals

(1) Any person who transfers land subject to a reservation in his favour of rights to minerals thereon, or on whose land a township or settlement is established subject to such reservation, shall simultaneously with the passing of transfer or the opening of a register in a deeds registry for such township or settlement, as the case may be, take out a certificate of rights to minerals in the prescribed form in respect of the rights so reserved; where the register has been opened, a certificate may be taken out in respect of the remainder of the township or settlement upon a certificate from the surveyor-general as to the remainder.

(2) (a) Upon the written application to the registrar of any person who has, before the commencement of this Act, transferred land subject to a reservation in his favour of rights to minerals thereon and who is the holder of such rights, the registrar shall, on production of the title deed under which that land or a portion thereof is held, issue to such person a certificate of rights to minerals in the prescribed form in respect of the rights so reserved on such land held under such title deed.

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 20 of Act 27 of 1982.]

(b) The holder of the title deed shall upon the demand and at the expense of the applicant produce the title deed to the registrar.

(2)bis (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (2), upon the written application to the registrar of any person who is the holder of or who is entitled to the rights to minerals reserved before the commencement of this Act in respect of any land on which a township or settlement has before or after the commencement of this Act been established, the registrar may issue to such person a certificate of rights to minerals in the prescribed form in respect of such rights without the production of the title deed of each erf, lot or other piece of land in any such township or settlement which is subject to such reservation of rights to minerals.

[Para. (a) substituted by s. 26 of Act 87 of 1965.]

(b) Upon the issue of such certificate the registrar shall cause an appropriate note to be made in the relevant township or settlement registers and thereupon each erf, lot or other piece of land which is subject to the original reservation of rights to minerals shall be deemed to be subject to such certificate.

[Sub-s. (2)bis inserted by s. 29 of Act 43 of 1962.]

(3) Any person who transfers land in the manner described in subsection (1) or who is an applicant under subsection (2) shall, if the registrar so requires, lodge with him a diagram showing the area in respect of which the rights to minerals are reserved.

(4) A certificate of rights to minerals referred to in subsection (1) or (2) shall-

(a) set forth the rights to minerals to which it relates and any rights ancillary to such rights;

(b) be signed by the registrar and be registered against the title deeds of the land in respect of which such rights to minerals have been reserved, and when so signed and registered shall be the title to the said rights to minerals.

(5) If the rights to minerals are subject to a registered mortgage bond, lease or other deed affecting such rights, the said certificate shall not be issued except upon production of the bond, lease or other deed, and the registrar shall, when issuing the certificate, endorse-

(a) upon the bond, lease or other deed that a certificate of rights to minerals has been substituted for the title under which such rights were formerly held; and

(b) upon the certificate of rights to minerals that these rights have been hypothecated, leased or otherwise dealt with in accordance with such bond, lease or other deed, and shall make the necessary entries in the registers; and thereupon the said rights to minerals shall be deemed to be as fully and effectually hypothecated, leased or otherwise dealt with as if they were still held under the former title.

(6) No rights to minerals reserved before the commencement of this Act and still held under the title deed of the land shall, until a certificate of rights to minerals has been issued in respect thereof, be hypothecated, leased or dealt with otherwise than by way of cession of all such rights.

s72]72Certificate of rights to minerals reserved by State

(1) The provisions of section seventy-one shall not apply in respect of a grant of land by the State made subject to a reservation of rights to minerals in favour of the State.

[Sub-s. (1) amended by s. 33 (a) of Act 43 of 1957.]

(2) Whenever the Minister to whom the responsibility for immovable property belonging to the State has been entrusted, deems it necessary that rights to minerals be separated from the ownership of State land or land granted or transferred subject to a reservation of rights to minerals in favour of the State, he or she may apply in writing to the registrar for the issue in favour of the Government of a certificate in respect of the rights to minerals that are specified in the application, and the registrar shall thereupon issue such a certificate in the form prescribed by regulation and endorse on the title deed of the land in question that such rights and the ownership of the land have been so separated.

[Sub-s. (2) added by s. 33 (b) of Act 43 of 1957, amended by s. 30 of Act 43 of 1962 and substituted by s. 10 of Act 3 of 1972 and by s. 9 of Act 93 of 1998.]

s73]73Exclusion of rights to minerals from partition of land

(1) If in any partition of land held in joint ownership the agreement of partition excludes from partition any rights to minerals in the land, the partition transfers shall set forth that exclusion.

(2) If rights to minerals are excluded from partition there shall be lodged with the registrar together with the deeds of partition, a certificate or certificates of rights to minerals in the prescribed form in respect of the rights so excluded and the said deeds of partition shall be made subject to such certificate or certificates and to any other deed under which a share in the rights to minerals is held.

[Sub-s. (2) amended by s. 31 (a) of Act 43 of 1962.]

(3) The provisions of subsection (5) of section seventy-one shall apply mutatis mutandis in respect of certificates of rights to minerals issued in terms of subsection (2).

[Sub-s. (3) added by s. 31 (b) of Act 43 of 1962.]

s73bis]73bis Partition of rights to minerals

(1) If two or more persons who own all the rights (including ancillary rights) to minerals in and upon any piece or pieces of land, have agreed to partition such rights, the registrar shall, on production to him of notarial deed of partition cession in respect of the aforesaid rights, and on compliance with the further provisions of this section, register the deeds of partition cession conveying to the respective owners the rights to minerals or shares therein awarded to them on partition.

(2) In the deeds of partition cession referred to in subsection (1) there shall be described-

- (a) the rights to minerals to be partitioned;
- (b) the share or shares registered in the name of each joint owner;
- (c) the rights to minerals or share therein awarded to each of the owners;
- (d) the conditions (if any) affecting the rights or share therein so awarded; and
- (e) the consideration (if any) given for the purpose of equalizing the partition.

(3) There shall also be produced to the registrar the title deeds of the rights to minerals to be partitioned and the necessary diagrams.

(4) Subject to the provisions of this section, the provisions of sections 21, 22, 23, 27, 28, 30, 45 and 45bis shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of deeds of partition cession.

[Sub-s. (4) substituted by s. 7 of Act 11 of 1996.]

(5) Any deed of partition cession registered under subsection (1) shall in respect of the rights to minerals therein described take the place of the deed or deeds by which they were previously held, but the partition cession shall not vary or affect the conditions affecting the rights to minerals generally, save in so far as such lastmentioned conditions may be varied, defined or limited by the notarial deeds of partition cession.

(6) The provisions of this section shall apply to the partition of rights to minerals registered in different deeds registries.
