(c) subject to the provisions of section 10, on his or her eviction; and (d) on acquisition by the labour tenant of ownership or other rights to land or compensation in terms of Chapter III.

(3) A labour tenant shall be deemed to have waived his or her rights if he or she with the intention to terminate the labour tenant agreement

(a) leaves the farm voluntarily; or

(b) appoints a person as his or her successor.

(4) If a labour tenant dies, becomes mentally ill or is unable to manage his or her affairs due to another disability or leaves the farm voluntarily without appointing a successor, his or her family may appoint a person as his or her successor and shall, within 90 days after being called upon in writing to do so by the owner, inform the owner of the person so appointed.

(5) A person who is not a family member of a labour tenant, may only be appointed as the successor to such labour tenant if he or she is acceptable to the owner, who may not unreasonably refuse such appointment.

(6) A labour tenant may, subject to subsection (7), waive his or her rights or a part of his or her rights if such waiver is contained in a written agreement signed by both the owner and the labour tenant.

(7) The terms of an agreement where under a labour tenant waives his or her rights or part of his or her rights in terms of subsection (6) shall not come into operation unless

(a) the Director-General has certified that he or she is satisfied that the labour tenant had full knowledge of the nature and extent of his or her rights as well as the consequences of the waiver of such rights; or

(b) such terms are incorporated in an order of the Court or of an arbitrator appointed in terms of section 19.

Provision of labour

4. (1) A labour tenant may nominate another person, acceptable to the owner or the lessee of the farm in question, to provide labour in his or her stead.

(2) The owner or lessee shall not unreasonably refuse to accept the nomination of a person referred to in subsection (1).

(3) The conditions of service of a person who is obliged to provide labour to an owner or lessee in terms of this Act, may not be generally less favourable than the conditions applicable to farm workers in terms of the Basic Conditions of Employment Act, 1983 (Act No. 3 of 1983).

Eviction of labour tenants and other persons

Prohibition on eviction

5. A labour tenant or his or her associate may only be evicted in terms of an order of the Court issued under this Act.

Application for eviction

6. (1) No person other than the owner may institute proceedings for the eviction of a labour tenant or his or her associate, unless the owner gives evidence under oath that he or she supports the institution of those proceedings.

(2) An owner shall not be under any duty, whether by reason of an agreement or for any other reason, to support the institution of proceedings referred to in subsection (1) by another person, and any provision of any agreement to the contrary shall be void.

Order for eviction

7. (1) The Court shall have the power to make an order for the eviction of a labour tenant or his or her associate.

(2) No order for eviction in terms of section 5 shall be made unless it is just and equitable and

(a) subject to the provisions of section 9(1), the labour tenant has, contrary to the agreement between the parties, refused or failed to provide labour to the owner or lessee and, despite one calendar month's written notice having been given to him or her, still refuses or fails to provide such labour; or

(b) the labour tenant or his or her associate has committed such a material breach of the relationship between the labour tenant or associate and the owner or lessee, that it is not practically possible to remedy it, either at all or in a manner which could reasonably restore the relationship.

(3) If proceedings are instituted for the eviction of a labour tenant in terms of this section, the person instituting those proceedings may also ask for an order for the eviction of the associates of the labour tenant.

(4) If the Court is asked to make an order in terms of subsection (3), it shall make such order as it deems just and equitable under the circumstances.

Relocation of labour tenant for operational requirements of owner

8. (1) An owner who requires the land used or occupied by a labour tenant or his or her associate for his or her own agricultural activities or for the purposes of any development which, in the opinion of the Court, is of public benefit, may institute proceedings in the Court for an order for the relocation of the labour tenant or associate.

(2) The Court shall not grant an order for relocation unless it is satisfied that greater hardship will be done to the owner or lessee if a labour tenant and his or her associates are not relocated, than will be done to the labour tenant and associates if they are relocated.

(3) On making an order for relocation the Court shall order the owner to pay to the labour tenant and his or her associates compensation to ensure that they are not unfairly prejudiced by any such relocation.

(4) No order for relocation made in terms of this section may be executed before the owner has paid the compensation which is due in terms of subsection (3).

(5) If the owner has not, within one year after an order for relocation was carried out, used the land in question for the proposed agricultural activities or development submitted to the Court, the labour tenant or his or her associate may institute proceedings in the Court for the reinstatement of his or her right to occupy and use that land.

(6) The Court may, on the hearing of proceedings instituted in terms of subsection (5), make such order as it deems just and equitable.

Limitations on eviction

9. (1) A labour tenant who

(a) has attained the age of 65 years, or as a result of disability is unable personally to provide labour to the owner or lessee; and

(b) has not nominated a person to provide labour in his or her stead in terms of section 4, shall not be evicted on the grounds referred to in section 7(2)(a).

(2) On the death of a labour tenant who has retained the right to occupy the farm in terms of the provisions of subsection (1), all his or her associates may be given 12 calendar months' notice to leave the farm.

(3) If the rights of any owner are unfairly prejudiced by the operation of this section, he or she may apply to the Court for equitable relief and the Court may make such order as it deems just and equitable under the circumstances.

Effect of order for eviction

10.(1) If the Court makes an order for eviction in terms of section 7-

(a) the Court shall order the owner to pay compensation to the extent that it is just and equitable; and

(b) the Court may order the owner to give the labour tenant a fair opportunity to

(i) demolish such structures and improvements as were erected by the labour tenant and his or her associates or predecessors, and to remove materials so salvaged; and

(ii) tend a crop to which he or she is entitled, until it is ripe and thereafter to reap and remove it.

(2) The compensation referred to in subsection (1) shall be determined by the Court as being just and equitable, taking into account-

- (a) the replacement value of such structures and improvements;
- (b) the value of materials which the labour tenant may remove;
- (c) the value of materials supplied by the owner or his or her predecessors for the erection of such structures and improvements;
- (d) if the labour tenant has not been given the opportunity to remove the crop, the value of the crop; and
- (e) the circumstances which gave rise to the eviction, including the conduct of the parties.

(3) No order for eviction made in terms of section 7 may be executed before the owner has paid the compensation which is due in terms of subsection (1).

Notice of intended eviction

11.(1) An owner who intends to evict a person in terms of the provisions of this Chapter, shall give the labour tenant and the Director-General not less than two calendar months' written notice of his or her intention to obtain an order for eviction.

(2) The notice referred to in subsection (1) shall, in addition to any prescribed particulars, also contain the grounds on which such intended eviction is based.

(3) The Director-General shall during the period referred to in subsection (1) convene a meeting between the labour tenant and the owner in order to attempt to mediate a settlement of the dispute between the labour tenant and owner.

Reinstatement

12.(1) A person who

(a) in terms of section 3 would have had a right to occupy and use land if the provisions of this Act had been in force on 2 June 1995; and

(b) between 2 June 1995 and the commencement of this Act vacated a farm or was for any reason or by any process evicted, may institute proceedings in the Court for an order of reinstatement of such rights.

(2) The Court may, subject to such conditions as the Court may impose, make an order

(a) that a person referred to in subsection (1) be regarded as a labour tenant or his or her associate for the purposes of this Act;

(b) for the reinstatement of a labour tenant or his or her associate on such terms as it deems just;

(c) for the payment of compensation, having regard to the provisions of section 10; and

(d) for costs.

(3) Where the person referred to in subsection (1) was evicted in terms of an order of a court

(a) the proceedings shall be instituted within one year of the commencement of this Act;

(b) the Court shall in addition to any other factors which it deems just and equitable, take into account

(i) whether the order of eviction would have been granted if the proceedings had been instituted after the commencement of this Act; and

(ii) whether the person ordered to be evicted was effectively represented in those proceedings, either by himself or herself or by another person.

Pending proceedings

13.(1) The provisions of sections 7 to 10 shall apply to proceedings pending in any court at the commencement of this Act.

(2) Any decision or order made by a court in proceedings referred to in subsection (1), shall be subject to appeal to the Court in the manner provided in the rules.

(3) The Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to hear any appeal against any such decision or order.

(4) The Court may, on the hearing of an appeal in terms of this section, confirm the decision or order or allow the appeal in whole or in part.

Eviction pending application for acquisition of rights in land

14. No labour tenant may be evicted while an application by him or her in terms of Chapter III is pending: Provided that the Court may order eviction if it is satisfied that special circumstances exist which make it fair, just and equitable to do so, taking all the circumstances into account.

Urgent proceedings for eviction

15. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Chapter, an owner or lessee may make urgent application for the removal of any person from the farm pending the outcome of proceedings for a final order, and the Court may grant an order for the removal of that person if it is satisfied that

(a) there is a real and imminent danger of substantial damage to the owner or lessee or his or her property if the person concerned is not removed from the farm;

(b) there is no other effective remedy available to the owner or lessee; and

(c) the likely harm to the owner or lessee if an order for removal is not granted, exceeds the likely harm to the person against whom the order is sought, if an order for removal is granted.

CHAPTER III

Acquisition of ownership or other rights in land by labour tenant

Right to acquire land

16.(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a labour tenant or his or her successor may apply for an award of -

(a) the land which he or she is entitled to occupy or use in terms of section 3;

(c) rights in land elsewhere on the farm or in the vicinity which may have been proposed by the owner of the farm; and

(d) such servitudes of right of access to water, rights of way or other servitudes as are reasonably necessary or are reasonably consistent with the rights which he or she enjoys or has previously enjoyed as a labour tenant, or such other compensatory land or rights in land and servitudes as he or she may accept in terms of section 18(5): Provided that the right to apply to be awarded such land, rights in land and servitudes shall lapse if no application is lodged with the Director-General in terms of section 17 within four years of the commencement of this Act.

(2) The terms of an agreement where under a labour tenant waives the rights conferred on him or her by this section shall not come into operation unless

(a) the Director-General has certified that he or she is satisfied that the labour tenant had full knowledge of the nature and extent of his or her rights as well as the consequences of the waiver of such rights; or

(b) such terms are incorporated in an order of the Court or an arbitrator appointed in terms of section 19.

Notice of application and initial procedure

(c) cause a notice of the application to be published in the Gazette; and(d) call upon the owner by written request, to furnish him or her within 30 days

(ii) with any documents or information in respect of the land in question and the rights in such land as the Director-General may reasonably require.

(3) A notice in terms of subsection (2)(a) or (d), may be given by way of registered mail or through service in the manner provided for the service of summons in the Rules of Court made in terms of the Magistrates' Courts Act, 1944 (Act No. 32 of 1944), read with section 6(3) of the Rules Board for Courts of Law Act, 1985 (Act No. 107 of 1985).

(5) If the owner fails to inform the Director-General within the period referred to in subsection (4) that he or she denies that the applicant is a labour tenant, such failure shall constitute rebuttable evidence that the applicant is a labour tenant.

(6) If the owner does not inform the Director-General within the period referred to in subsection (4) that he or she admits that the applicant is a labour tenant, the Director General shall, at the request of either party, refer the application to the Court.

(7) Any person whose rights are affected by the application shall have the right to participate in the proceedings before the arbitrator and the Court, in the manner provided in the rules.

(8) Should the owner, without good reason, fail to give to the Director-General any information or documents requested in terms of subsection (2)(d) within 30 days of receipt of a written request

(2) The Director-General shall forthwith give notice of any proposal referred to in subsection (1), and a copy thereof, to the applicant.

(3) The Director-General may appoint a mediator to assist the applicant and the owner to discuss any such proposal and to arrive at an agreed resolution of the application.

(4) If an agreed resolution is not reached within one calendar month after receipt by the applicant of notice of the proposal, the applicant may continue with his or her original application: Provided that the applicant shall not be obliged to wait for the expiration of a calendar month if the proposal was submitted to the Director-General later than the period referred to in subsection (1).

(5) No agreement for the settlement of any application shall be of any effect unless the Director-General has certified that he or she is satisfied that it is reasonable and equitable, or unless it is incorporated in an order of the Court in terms of this Act.

(8) A report from the arbitrator shall on its production constitute rebuttable evidence of the facts established by him or her.

Proceedings before Court

(b) and, if the Court proposes to make any technical variations to the agreement, it shall give the parties to the agreement notice of such intention, and before making such variation, it shall receive and consider any comments from the parties, in the manner provided in the rules.

Powers of arbitrator and Court

22.(1) An arbitrator and the Court may dismiss an application referred to in section 16: Provided that the arbitrator and the Court shall not dismiss an application if it is found by the arbitrator or the Court, or if it is not in dispute, that the applicant is a labour tenant.

(2) The Court may order that land or a right in land, held by an owner of affected land, be transferred to the applicant.

(3) The Court may, instead of or in addition to making an order for the transfer of land or a right in land held by the owner of affected land, order that land or a right in land held by another person (including the State) who is willing to have such land or right in land transferred to the applicant, be transferred to such applicant.

(4) The Court may make an order or award, and an arbitrator may make a determination, on the following matters:

- (a) Whether the applicant is a labour tenant, if that is in dispute;
 - (b) the nature, location and extent of any land or right in land which is to be awarded to an applicant, which may include undivided shares in grazing land;

(3) Compensation shall, failing agreement, be paid in such manner and within such period as the arbitrator or the Court may determine as just and equitable.

Failure to pay compensation

24.(1) If the applicant does not make any payment due in terms of section 23, the owner of the affected land may give the applicant written notice to make such payment.

(2) If the applicant fails to make the payment within three calendar months of receipt of the notice referred to in subsection (1), the owner of the affected land may apply to the Court for an order to declare the previous order of the arbitrator or the Court null and void.

(3) The Court may, after hearing an application in terms of subsection (2), make such order as it deems just and equitable: Provided that the previous order made by the arbitrator or the Court shall not be declared null and void unless the owner of the affected land and any other person who has received compensation from the applicant in respect of the affected land has paid or has given security for the payment of the amounts which he or she has received from the applicant and the Minister, respectively.

Land subject to mortgage bonds or deeds of sale

25.(1) If any land acquired under this Act was, immediately prior to the date of such acquisition, encumbered by a registered mortgage bond or subject to a deed of sale, the applicant shall not pay to the owner of the affected land any part of the compensation money except on terms agreed to by the owner and the mortgagee or buyer, or in accordance with an order of the Court in terms of subsection (2).

(2) If the owner of the affected land and the mortgagee or buyer fail to conclude an agreement in terms of subsection (1), any of the said persons may apply to the Court for an order whereby the applicant is directed to pay out the compensation money as the Court may determine.

(3) The Court may, on hearing an application in terms of subsection (2), make such order, including an order for costs, as it deems fit.

Advances or subsidies

26.(1) The Minister shall, from moneys appropriated by Parliament for that purpose, grant advances or subsidies
