

CHAPTER 547

BREAD (AMENDMENT)

Law
No. 40 of 1978, AN ACT TO AMEND THE BREAD ORDINANCE.

Act
No. 10 of 1983.

[Law No. 40 of 1978 — Commencement— 16th August, 1978; Operation- 1st April, 1983.1
[Act. No. 10 of 1983 -Commencement— 10th February, 1983 ; Operation — 1 st April, 1983.1

Short title. 1. This Act may be cited as the Bread (Amendment) Act.

Replacement of section 2 of Chapter 547. [§ 2, 10 of 1983]. 2. Section 2 of the Bread Ordinance is hereby repealed and the following section substituted therefor :-

“ Sale of bread by weight, and marking of weight of loaves. 2. (1) No baker or vendor of bread shall sell any bread other than fancy bread or rolls, except in loaves weighing two hundred and twenty five grammes, four hundred and fifty grammes, nine hundred grammes or one thousand and eight hundred grammes.

(2) Subject as hereinafter provided, no baker or vendor of bread shall sell any loaf of bread or expose any such loaf for sale, unless the weight of the loaf is clearly marked on the loaf by an impression made in baking or on a band or wrapper affixed round or enclosing the loaf :

Provided that nothing in the preceding provisions of this subsection shall apply —

(a) in the case of fancy bread or roll, of any loaf of bread which is under two hundred and twenty five grammes in weight ; or

(b) in the case of any bread which, in pursuance of any contract or agreement in that behalf, is supplied on any occasion in any quantity not less than fifty kilogrammes and is weighed upon delivery .” .