 - (b) direct that the Authority reconsider in accordance with such directions as the panel may make; and
 - (c) make an order as to the payment of costs.
- (4) The Minister may make rules governing the procedure of panels under this section.
- (5) Subject to any rules made by the Minister, a panel may govern its own procedure.
- (6) A panel shall have the same powers as a court to make orders to secure the attendance of persons, for the production of documents or for the investigation and punishment of contempt.
- (7) The Minister shall appoint a secretary to the panel and such other staff as are necessary for the proper discharge of the functions of the panel.
- (8) The members of a panel shall be paid such allowances and expenses as are determined by the Minister.
- (9) The expenses of the panel, including the allowances and expenses of the members of the panel, shall be paid by the Government.

CHAPTER VII

INVESTMENT CERTIFICATES – BENEFITS

30. Entitlement to Certain Licenses.

- (1) An investment certificate shall set out the licenses that are necessary to the proposed investment and which the holder of the investment certificate would, on application, be legally entitled.
- (2) Upon the issuance of an investment certificate, the following apply with respect to each license set out in the certificate under subsection (1) –
 - (a) the holder of the investment certificate is entitled to have the license issued, subject to any conditions set out in the regulations or in the investment certificate, upon application made within twelve months after the investment certificate is issued and upon payment of the applicable fee, if any; and
 - (b) until the license is issued or twelve months elapse after the investment certificate is issued, subject to any conditions set out in the regulations or in the investment certificate and subject to the requirement to pay fees under subsection (3) below.

- (3) The holder of an investment certificate shall pay any fees that would be payable under the relevant legislation for the licenses set out in the investment certificate issued, and such fees shall be paid within six months after the issue of the investment certificate.
- (4) The entitlement to licenses under subsection (2)(a) is for the initial issue of such licenses only and following that initial issue the laws under which the licenses are issued apply in the same way as they apply to all licenses, including, for greater certainty, with respect to the revocation or renewal of the licenses.
- (5) The Authority shall facilitate the issue of licenses to which the holder of an investment certificate is entitled under this section.

31. Entitlement to Entry Permits for Expatriates.

- (1) The holder of an investment certificate is entitled to entry permits(s) or work permit under the Immigration Act of the Republic of the Sudan.
- (2) The initial issue of a permit under this section shall be for a two year period.
- (3) The holder of the investment certificate is entitled to have a permit under this section reissued upon its expiry or issued to a different employee, owner, shareholder or partner provided it does not breach subsection (2) above.
- (4) The holder of the investment certificate is not entitled to have a permit issued to a person who is a prohibited immigrant within the meaning of the Immigration Act.
- (5) A permit under this section is subject to a condition that the holder of the permit complies with the laws of Southern Sudan.
- (6) For each permit under subsection (1) the holder of the investment certificate is entitled to the issue of –
 - (a) a dependant's pass for each dependant of the person to whom the permit is issued; and
 - (b) such re-entry permits as required in connection with the passes under (a) above.
- (7) Subsection (4) and (5) apply, with necessary modifications, with respect to passes or re-entry permits under subsection (6).

- (8) An entitlement to a permit or pass under this section is conditional upon –
 - (a) application being made for the permit or pass;
 - (b) the applicable fee, if any, being paid; and
 - (c) any security deposit or bond required under the Immigration Act being paid or provided.
- (9) Notwithstanding subsection (8)(b), no fee is payable for the initial issue of a permit under subsection (8)(a) above.
- (10) If an entry described in subsection (8)(a) has already been issued to an employee of the holder of the investment certificate as of the time the investment certificate was issued, that permit shall be deemed to be one of the permits to which the holder of the certificate is entitled under subsection (8)(a).
- (11) If any entry permit described in subsection (8)(b) has already been issued to the holder of the investment certificate or an owner, shareholder or partner of the holder as of the time the investment certificate was issued, that permit shall be deemed to be one of the permits to which the holder of the certificate is entitled under subsection (8) (b).
- (12) The Authority shall facilitate the issue of permits and passes that the holder of the investment certificate is entitled to have issued under this section.
- (13) For greater certainty, nothing in this section limits the issue, under the Immigration Act, of other permits or passes in addition to those which the holder of an investment certificate is entitled to have been issued under this section.

CHAPTER VIII INVESTMENT INCENTIVES

32. Benefits and Incentives.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of Section 40 of this Act, an enterprise shall be entitled to such benefits and incentives as are applicable to such enterprise as provided in the Second Schedule and this Act and any other law for the time being in force in Southern Sudan.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provision of subsection (1) above, for the purpose of promoting identified strategic or transformational investments, the technical team of the Authority may upon direction of the Board and in consultation with such appropriate Government agencies as the Board may determine, recommend to the Board to grant specific incentive packages including concessions, privileges and preferential treatment in addition to the incentives provided under this Act, tax and other laws for such a period as the Board may specify.

- (3) The Authority shall publish criteria for what shall constitute strategic and transformational investments before the award of any special incentives in terms of this section.
- (4) Any incentives awarded under subsection (2) above, shall be determined on the basis of eligibility criteria for such incentives approved by the Council of Ministers and published by the Authority.
