the College

PART II—ESTABLISHMENT OF GOVERNING BODY

Establishment and incorporation of Governing Body

4.—(1) There is hereby established a body to be known as the Governing Body of the College of African Wildlife Management and the government, control and administration of the College shall be vested in the Governing Body in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(2) The Governing Body shall—

- (a) be a body corporate in the name of the Governing Body of the College of African Wildlife Management with perpetual succession and a common seal;
- (b) in its corporate name be capable of suing and being sued; and
- (c) for and in connection with the purposes of this Act, be capable of holding, purchasing and otherwise acquiring and disposing of any moveable or immoveable property.

(3) The provisions of the Schedule hereto shall have effect as to the constitution and proceedings of, and otherwise in relation to, the Governing Body.

Functions of Governing Body

5.—(1) The functions of the Governing Body shall be to govern, control and administer the College and, in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, shall include—

- (a) the authorization of appropriate and necessary expenditure within the funds available to the College;
- (b) the preparation of the annual estimates and of such annual statements as are required by this Act;
- (c) the appointment of the members of the staff of the College;
- (d) subject to the provisions of this Act, the making of decrees relating to—
 - (i) the fixing of fees and boarding charges;
 - (ii) the terms and conditions of service, including the appointment, dismissal, salary and retiring benefits of members of the staff of the College;
- (e) the making of decrees relating generally to the academic management of the College and in particular to—
 - (i) the qualifications necessary for entrance to the College, the courses of instruction to be provided at the College, the duration and number of College terms and the award of certificates and diplomas to students of the College;
 - (ii) the grant of scholarships and studentships, and the revocation of any such grant.

(2) The Governing Body may—

- (a) appoint to the College a Patron and not more than two Vice-Patrons;
- (b) affiliate the College to, or associate it with, any body or organization, whether in Tanganyika or elsewhere, which is concerned with higher education.

PART III—STAFF

6.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the Governing Body may appoint a Principal of the College who shall be the chief administrative and academic officer of the College and who shall be responsible to the Governing Body—

- (a) for the proper administration of the College in accordance with the policy of the Governing Body;
- (b) for the academic management of the College in accordance with the policy of the Governing Body;
- (c) for the proper enforcement of decrees; and
- (d) for the discipline of the students of the College.

(2) The appointment of the Principal and his terms and conditions of service shall be subject to the approval of the Minister.

(3) The Governing Body may appoint, on such terms and conditions of service as it may determine, a Deputy Principal of the College.

(4) The Principal or, in his absence, the Deputy Principal, shall be entitled to be present and to speak (but not to vote) at any meeting of the Governing Body.

7. The academic members of the staff of the College shall, subject to the provisions of section 9, be appointed by the Governing Body either—

- (a) on such terms and conditions of service as may be determined by the Governing Body; or
- (b) in the case of a person seconded to the staff of the College from the service of the Government or of any other body or organization, on such terms and conditions of service as may be agreed between the Governing Body and the seconding body.

8. The administrative staff of the College shall, subject to the provisions of section 9, be appointed by the Governing Body either—

- (a) on such terms and conditions of service as may be determined by the Governing Body; or
- (b) in the case of a person seconded to the staff of the College from the service of the Government or of any other body or organization, on such terms and conditions of service as may be agreed between the Governing Body and the seconding body.

9. The Governing Body may, subject to such conditions or restrictions as it may impose, delegate to any person or body of persons the power of appointment of any member of the staff of the College.

PART IV—FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

10. On the coming into operation of this Act there shall vest in the Governing Body by virtue of this section and without further assurance—

- (a) all the funds, assets and property vested or held in the name of the College immediately before such coming into operation;
- (b) all rights and liabilities of the College then subsisting under any valid and enforceable contract entered into by it or on its behalf.

- Management of assets 11. All the funds, assets and property, moveable and immoveable, of the College shall be managed and utilized by the Governing Body in accordance with the provisions of the Act in such manner and for such purposes as, in the opinion of the Governing Body, would promote the best interests of the College.
- Funds of the College 12. The funds of the College shall consist of—
 (a) such sums as may be granted by the Government or by any other body or organization for the purposes of the College;
 (b) all other sums or property which may in any manner become payable to or vested in the Governing Body in respect of any matter incidental to the carrying out of its functions.
- Borrowing powers 13.—(1) The Governing Body may from time to time borrow sums required by it for meeting any of its obligations or for the purpose of carrying out any of its functions.
 (2) A person lending money to the Governing Body shall not be bound to inquire whether the borrowing of that money is within the power of the Governing Body.
- Investment 14. The Governing Body may invest such part of the funds of the College as are not required for the carrying out of the functions of the Governing Body.
- Annual estimates 15.—(1) The Governing Body may determine which period of twelve months shall constitute the financial year of the College and shall cause to be prepared annually estimates of the revenue and expenditure of the College for the ensuing financial year, and such estimates shall be approved by the Governing Body before the commencement of such year:
 Provided that in the event of any change in the financial year and for the purposes of the transition from one financial year to another, the transitional period, whether more or less than twelve months, shall be regarded as if it were a financial year.
 (2) In such annual estimates the Governing Body shall make provision for all the estimated expenditure during the financial year, and in particular for—
 (a) the payment of all salaries, passages, pensions, gratuities and other retiring benefits and other charges in respect of the staff of the College;
 (b) the payment of all fees or expenses in respect of members of the Governing Body;
 (c) the construction, improvement, maintenance and replacement of the buildings, grounds and equipment of the College;
 (d) the creation of such reserve funds to meet future or contingent liabilities as the Governing Body may think fit.
 (3) No expenditure shall be incurred for the purposes of the College except in accordance with the provisions of the annual estimates.
- Accounts and audit 16.—(1) The Governing Body shall keep or cause to be kept proper accounts and such accounts together with—
 (a) a statement of income and expenditure during the previous financial year; and
 (b) a statement of the assets and liabilities of the Governing Body on the last day of such year.

shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each financial year, be submitted to and audited by, such auditors as the Governing Body shall appoint.

(2) The Principal shall, as soon as practicable after the end of each College year, cause to be prepared a report on the working of the College during such year, and such report, signed by the Principal, shall be submitted to the Governing Body.

PART V—MISCELLANEOUS

17.—(1) The Governing Body may, subject to the provisions of this Act, make rules for the government, control and administration of the College. ^{Rules and orders}

(2) The Principal may make orders for the better carrying into effect of the powers and duties conferred or imposed upon him under the provisions of this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 7 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance, it shall not be necessary for rules or orders made under this section to be published in the Gazette. ^{Cap. 1}

(4) The provisions of paragraph (b) of section 25 of the Interpretation and General Clauses Ordinance shall not apply in respect of rules or orders made under this section.

18. No member of the Governing Body shall be personally liable for any act or thing done or omitted to be done by him as such in good faith and without negligence for the purposes of the College. ^{Members of Governing Body not personally liable}

SCHEDULE (Section 4 (3))

CONSTITUTION AND PROCEEDINGS OF GOVERNING BODY

1.—(1) The Governing Body shall consist of a Chairman and twelve other members who shall be nominated as follows:—

- (a) The Governments of Tanganyika, Kenya and Uganda each shall nominate two members.
- (b) The Vice-Chancellor for the University of East Africa shall nominate one member.
- (c) The Secretary-General of the Commission for Technical Co-operation in Africa shall nominate one member.
- (d) The East African Common Services Organization shall nominate one member.
- (e) The remaining three members shall be private members nominated by the other foregoing members of the Governing Body.

(2) The member nominated by the East African Common Services Organization shall be Chairman.

2.—(1) A private member of the Governing Body shall, unless he otherwise ceases to be a member, hold office for a period of three years and shall be eligible for re-appointment. ^{Members' duration of office, etc.}

(2) A nominated member of the Governing Body shall, unless he otherwise ceases to be a member, hold office for a period of five years and shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(3) Any private member of the Governing Body may at any time resign by giving notice in writing to the Chairman and from the date specified in the notice, or if no date is specified from the date of receipt by the Chairman of the notice, he shall cease to be a member of the Governing Body.

(4) If any private member of the Governing Body is, without the permission of the Governing Body, absent from more than four consecutive meetings of the Governing Body or, without such permission, is absent from East Africa for a period exceeding one year, he shall cease to be a member of the Governing Body.

Casual vacancies

3. Where any private member of the Governing Body ceases to be a member before the normal expiration of his term of office, the Chairman, after consulting other members, may appoint another person in his stead to hold office until such first-named person's term of office would have expired had he not ceased to be a member as aforesaid.

Quorum procedure, and meetings

4.—(1) The Governing Body shall meet at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business.

(2) At any meeting of the Governing Body six members thereof shall constitute a quorum.

(3) The Governing Body may elect any member thereof to be Vice-Chairman of the Body.

(4) At any meeting of the Governing Body the Chairman shall preside, or in the absence of the Chairman, if a Vice-Chairman has been elected the Vice-Chairman shall preside, or if no Vice-Chairman has been elected or if the Vice-Chairman is absent the members present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to be Chairman for that meeting.

(5) In the event of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote in addition to his deliberative vote.

(6) Minutes in proper form of each meeting of the Governing Body shall be kept and shall be confirmed by the Governing Body at the next meeting and signed by the Chairman of the meeting.

(7) All acts, matters and things authorized or required to be done by the Governing Body shall be decided by resolution at a meeting of the Governing Body at which a quorum is present.

(8) A decision of the majority of members present and voting at a meeting of the Governing Body shall be deemed to be a decision of the Governing Body.

(9) The Seal of the Governing Body shall be affixed by the Chairman, Vice-Chairman or temporary chairman and witnessed by two members thereof.

Vacancies, etc., not to invalidate proceedings

5. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 3 relating to a quorum, the Governing Body may act notwithstanding any vacancy in the membership thereof and no act or proceeding of the Governing Body shall be invalid by reason only of some defect in the appointment of a person who purports to be a member.

Members to be reimbursed

6. The members may, if the Governing Body so determines, be reimbursed for all reasonable expenses incurred by them in the course of their duties.
