

G. 24.12.31.
[27/1955].

IMPORTATION OF FROZEN CARCASES AND BOILING OF ANIMAL FOODSTUFFS REGULATIONS

 deemed to be made under section 15*

Citation. 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Importation of Frozen Carcases and Boiling of Animal Foodstuffs Regulations.

PART I

Interpretation. 2. In these Regulations—
“animal” means cattle, sheep, pigs or goats;
“boiled” means exposed for a period of at least one hour by any process to a temperature of not less than 212° F., and the expression “boiling” shall be construed accordingly;
“swill” means any broken or waste foodstuffs including table or kitchen refuse, scraps or waste, containing any meat, bones, offal or portions thereof, or any other part of the carcase of an animal.

PART II

PRECAUTIONS TO BE ADOPTED IN REGARD TO CERTAIN ANIMAL FOODSTUFFS

Precautions to be adopted in animal foodstuffs. 3. (1) Every person having in his possession or under his charge—
(a) any meat, bones, offal, or other part of the carcase of an animal; or
(b) any swill; or
(c) any other broken or waste foodstuffs which have been in contact with meat, bones, offal, or other part of the carcase of an animal,

*These Regulations were made under section 14N of the Diseases of Animals Ordinance (now repealed) and continue in force by virtue of section 29(3) of the Interpretation Act (Ch. 3:01).

shall, before he allows any such articles to be brought into contact with or fed to animals or before he sells or otherwise disposes of them to any other person, cause such articles to be boiled.

(2) No person shall permit any animal to be brought into contact with any article mentioned in subregulation (1), unless and until the article has been boiled.
