

[Subsidiary]

THE PUBLIC STANDPIPE REGULATIONS

67/1977.

made under section 56.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Public Standpipe Regulations.

Citation.

2. No person shall bathe or wash any clothes, animals or vehicles in any street or public place within a distance of thirty feet from a public standpipe.

Restriction on bathing or washing clothes or animals.

3. No person shall—

- (a) turn on any tap or stopcock so as to cause water to flow from a public standpipe unless the water is received in a suitable receptacle or is needed for the immediate personal use of an individual;
- (b) allow or cause water to flow from a public standpipe into a receptacle which is overflowing or which is at the same time being emptied of its contents;
- (c) obtain water from a public standpipe—
 - (i) by means of anything connected thereto; or
 - (ii) except by operating the mechanism of the tap or stopcock fitted to the standpipe.

Restriction on flow of and obtaining water from public standpipe.

4. No person shall sell or otherwise dispose of for gain or reward any water obtained from a public standpipe.

Prohibition against sale of water.

5. No person shall wilfully or negligently damage or injure or cause to be damaged or injured the mechanism of the tap or stopcock fitted to a public standpipe.

Prohibition against wilfully or negligently damaging or injuring tap or stopcock.

6. A person who contravenes any of the provisions of these Regulations is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding fifty dollars.

Penalty for contravening regulations.