(b) if the person is a body corporate – by a fine not exceeding VT10,000,000.

42C Additional Court Orders

(1) The Court may, when convicting a person for an offence under this Act and having regard to the nature of the offence and the circumstances surrounding its commission, in addition to any penalty imposed, make an order:

(a) to prohibit the person from doing any act or engaging in any activity or undertaking that may result in the continuation or repetition of the offence; or

(b) directing work to stop temporarily or permanently, on any activity or undertaking on a proposed development; or

- (c) directing the person to undertake the restoration of the area on which any activity is taking place, to as near to its original condition with the cost to be borne by the proponent; or
- (d) directing the person to carry out improvement or remediation work on the area, with the cost to be borne by the proponent; or
- (e) directing the person to pay into the Trust Fund, costs and other expenses associated with any inspection, audit or investigation undertaken in respect of the offence; or
- (f) directing the person to pay into the Trust Fund, a refundable security for costs to ensure compliance with an order made under this section; or
- (g) directing the person to pay a specified amount into the Trust Fund for the purposes of restoring the area on which the activity is taking place, to as near to its original condition; or
- (h) directing the seizure and forfeiture of any vessel, aircraft or thing used in the commission of an offence; or
- (i) directing the person to carry out a specified environmental audit of the activities the person has carried out; or
- (j) requiring the person to comply with any other condition the court considers appropriate in the circumstances.

(2) If a person is convicted of an offence under this Act, the Court may when sentencing the offender and on the application by a person aggrieved, order the convicted person to pay to the person aggrieved:

- (a) compensation for loss or damage to property or income proved to have been suffered by that person as a result of the commission of the offence; or
- (b) the cost of any preventative or remedial action proved to have been reasonably taken or caused to be taken by that person as a result of the act or omission that constituted the offence.

(3) An order under paragraph (1)(a) or (b) is enforceable as if it were an injunction.

(4) An order under this section relating to payment of money is enforceable as if it were a judgment debt and recoverable in a court.

(5) If a person fails to comply with a Court order made under this section relating to restoration, improvement or remedial action of an area, the Department may undertake the restoration, improvement or remediation of the area, and the cost is to become a debt recoverable in the court (including using the security for costs deposited in the Fund).

42D. Civil claims and damages

(1) A person who has suffered loss which includes contracting health-related problems as a result of any activity that is found to be in breach of this Act, may institute a civil claim for damages in Court, which may include a claim for any or all of the following:

- (a) economic loss resulting from the activity or from activities undertaken to prevent, mitigate, manage, clean up or remedy any damage to the environment;
- (b) loss of earnings arising from damage to any natural resource;
- (c) loss to or of any natural environment or resource;
- (d) costs incurred in any inspection, audit or investigation undertaken to determine the nature of any pollution incident or to investigate remediation options.
