Planning and Environment Regulations 2015

S.R. No. 33/2015

Authorised Version as at 16 May 2015

Part 1—Preliminary

1 Objective

The objective of these Regulations is to prescribe—

- (a) the manner and form of giving notice required to be given by the Planning and Environment Act 1987; and
- (b) methods of serving notices or other documents under the Act; and
- (c) times for applications to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal under the Act; and
- (d) times for doing anything required to be done by the Act; and
- (e) forms for the purposes of the Act; and
- (f) information to be included in any applications, notices, permits and requests required to be given by the Act; and
- (g) the manner of keeping the register required to be kept by the Act; and
- (h) information that is to be made available by responsible authorities to the public and the Minister; and

- (i) that a responsible authority may require information it is given to be verified by statutory declaration or other means; and
- (j) information which must be set out in a planning certificate; and
- (k) other matters required by the Act to be prescribed.

2 Authorising provision

These Regulations are made under section 202 of the Planning and Environment Act 1987.

3 Commencement

These Regulations come into operation on 16 May 2015.

4 Revocation

The following Regulations are revoked—

- (a) the Planning and Environment Regulations 2005¹;
- (b) the Planning and Environment (Amendment) Regulations 2006²;
- (c) the Planning and Environment Amendment Regulations 2013³;
- (d) the Planning and Environment Amendment (VicSmart) Regulations 2014⁴.

5 Definitions

In these Regulations—

the Act means the Planning and Environment Act 1987;

VicSmart application means an application for a permit to which the VicSmart planning assessment process applies in accordance with any applicable planning scheme.

Part 2—Amendment of planning schemes

6 Ministers, public authorities, municipal councils and persons to be given notice under section 19(1)(c)

For the purposes of section 19(1)(c) of the Act, the following are prescribed—

- (a) if the amendment will affect land that is within the municipal district of a municipal council that is not the planning authority for the amendment, that municipal council;
- (b) if the amendment will amend the planning scheme to designate a Minister, public authority or municipal council as an acquiring authority, that Minister, public authority or municipal council;
- (c) the Minister administering the Conservation, Forests and Lands Act 1987;
- (d) the Minister administering the Catchment and Land Protection Act 1994;
- (e) the Minister administering the Sustainable Forests (Timber) Act 2004;
- (f) the Minister administering the Mineral Resources (Sustainable Development) Act 1990;
- (g) the Minister administering the Pipelines Act 2005.

7 Notices under section 19

A notice of the preparation of an amendment to a planning scheme given under section 19 of the Act must—

- (a) state the name of the planning scheme proposed to be amended; and

- (b) state the planning scheme amendment number; and
- (c) include a description (which may be by map) to identify the land affected by the amendment; and
- (d) briefly describe the effect of the amendment; and
- (e) state that the amendment, any documents that support the amendment, and the explanatory report about the amendment, may be inspected at the office of the planning authority during office hours free of charge; and
- (f) state the name of the planning authority and the address or addresses where the amendment and other documents may be inspected; and
- (g) state that any person may make a submission to the planning authority about the amendment; and
- (h) state the closing date for submissions and the address of the planning authority to which submissions may be sent; and
- (i) state that the planning authority must make a copy of every submission available at its office for any person to inspect during office hours free of charge until the end of two months after the amendment comes into operation or lapses; and
- (j) be signed on behalf of the planning authority.

8 Prescribed amendments

- (1) For the purposes of section 20A(1) of the Act, the prescribed classes of amendment are—
 - (a) an amendment to correct an obvious or technical error in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme; and
 - (b) an amendment to delete an expired clause in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme; and
 - (c) an amendment to clarify or improve the style, format, language or grammatical form of a clause in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme, if the intended effect of that clause or any other clause in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme is not changed by that amendment; and
 - (d) an amendment to remove a clause that duplicates another clause in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme; and
 - (e) an amendment to the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme to insert or update a heading; and
 - (f) an amendment to the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme to update a reference to a clause in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme; and
 - (g) an amendment to delete a reference to an incorporated document or a reference document in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme if that document has expired or the reference is redundant; and

- (h) an amendment to the description of a person, body, department, Act or statutory rule in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme if the legal description of that person, body, department, Act or statutory rule has changed; and
- (i) an amendment to delete a reference to a person or body specified as a referral authority in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme if that person or body requests the amendment; and
- (j) an amendment to delete a reference to a person or body to whom notice of an application for permit must be given in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme if that person or body requests the amendment; and
- (k) an amendment to the schedule to the Heritage Overlay in a planning scheme to delete a reference to a heritage place being included on the Victorian Heritage Register under the Heritage Act 1995 if the heritage place is not on that Register; and
- (l) an amendment to a planning scheme to include land in the Road Zone if that land has been declared a freeway or an arterial road under the Road Management Act 2004; and
- (m) an amendment to a planning scheme to delete a Road Closure Overlay from land; and
- (n) an amendment to a planning scheme to delete a Public Acquisition Overlay from land if the person or body designated in the planning scheme as the acquiring authority for that land has acquired the land; and

- (o) an amendment to a planning scheme to delete an Environmental Audit Overlay from land if a certificate of environmental audit has been issued for that land in accordance with Part IXD of the Environment Protection Act 1970; and
 - (p) an amendment to extend the expiry of a clause in the Victoria Planning Provisions or a planning scheme for a period of 12 months or less, beginning on the day the amendment takes effect, if notice has been published in accordance with section 19(3) of the Act of the preparation of an amendment to introduce a clause that is similar or substantially the same; and
 - (q) any combination of the classes of amendment referred to in paragraphs (a) to (p).
- (2) For the purposes of section 20A(4)(b) of the Act, the exempted classes of amendment are—
- (a) an amendment to the Victoria Planning Provisions; and
 - (b) an amendment to a planning scheme that—
 - (i) is a class of amendment prescribed in subregulation (1); and
 - (ii) is made as a result of an amendment to the Victoria Planning Provisions prepared under section 20A of the Act.

9 Information to be submitted to the Minister under section 31(1)

For the purposes of section 31(1) of the Act, the following is the prescribed information—

- (a) the reasons for the amendment;

- (b) a list of the notices given under section 19(1) of the Act;
- (c) a summary of action taken under section 19(1B) (if applicable), 19(2), 19(2A), 19(3) and 19(7) of the Act;
- (d) copies of any submissions or reports received on the amendment;
- (e) the reasons why any recommendations of a panel appointed under Part 8 of the Act were not adopted;
- (f) a report on submissions not referred to a panel;
- (g) a description of and the reasons for any changes made to the amendment before adoption.

10 Consent to approval of amendments under section 35(4)

For the purposes of section 35(4)(a) of the Act, the prescribed reasons are—

- (a) the amendment may unreasonably prejudice the use or development of land owned, controlled or managed by the Minister administering the Conservation, Forests and Lands Act 1987; or
- (b) the amendment may unreasonably prejudice the most suitable use of land in the public interest, for which land there is a special area plan under the Catchment and Land Protection Act 1994; or
- (c) the amendment may unreasonably prejudice the operation of a Code of Practice approved under Part 5 of the Conservation, Forests and Lands Act 1987; or

- (d) the amendment may unreasonably prejudice the use or development of land for timber production; or
- (e) the amendment may unreasonably prejudice the prevention or suppression of fires on Crown land; or
- (f) the amendment may unreasonably prejudice exploration or the use and development of land for mining purposes under the Mineral Resources (Sustainable Development) Act 1990; or
- (g) the amendment may unreasonably prejudice the extraction of stone under the Mineral Resources (Sustainable Development) Act 1990; or
- (h) the amendment may unreasonably prejudice the use of a pipeline for which a licence has been granted or for which a licence application has been made under the Pipelines Act 2005.

11 Notice of approval under section 38(1)

For the purposes of section 38(1) of the Act, the prescribed form of a notice to be laid before Parliament is Form 1 in Schedule 1.

12 Documents to be lodged with an approved amendment

For the purposes of sections 4G(1) and 40(1) of the Act, the prescribed documents are the following—

- (a) an explanatory report relating to the approved amendment or part of the amendment;

Planning and Environment Regulations 2015

S.R. No. 33/2015

Part 2—Amendment of planning schemes

- (b) any document applied, adopted or incorporated in the planning scheme or the Victoria Planning Provisions by the amendment;
- (c) any agreement under section 173 of the Act which will not come into operation fully unless the amendment comes into operation.

Part 3—Permits

13 Applications for permits

An application for a permit under section 47(1)(a) of the Act must be made in writing to the responsible authority and must—

- (a) state the name, address and telephone number of the applicant; and
- (b) indicate clearly the land affected by the application by—
 - (i) stating the address of the land; or
 - (ii) stating the title particulars of the land; or
 - (iii) including a plan showing the land; or
 - (iv) any combination of these; and
- (c) state clearly the use, development or other matter for which the permit is required; and
- (d) describe the existing use of the land; and
- (e) if the permit is required to undertake development, state the estimated cost of any development for which the permit is required; and
- (f) state who is the owner of the land.

Note

Section 47 of the Act requires certain other information to accompany an application.

14 Applications for amendments of permits

An application for an amendment to a permit under section 72 of the Act must be made in writing to the responsible authority and must—

- (a) state the name, address and telephone number of the applicant; and

- (b) indicate clearly the land affected by the application by—
 - (i) stating the address of the land; or
 - (ii) stating the title particulars of the land; or
 - (iii) including a plan showing the land; or
 - (iv) any combination of these; and
- (c) clearly identify the permit to be amended; and
- (d) state clearly the amendment applied for; and
- (e) describe the existing use of the land; and
- (f) if the permit allows development, state the difference in estimated cost between the development allowed by the permit and the development to be allowed by the permit as amended; and
- (g) state who is the owner of the land.

Note

Section 47 of the Act requires certain other information to accompany an application.

15 Responsible authority register of applications

For the purposes of section 49(1) of the Act, the prescribed information is—

- (a) the application reference number; and
- (b) the date the responsible authority received the application; and
- (c) the applicant's name and address; and
- (d) the address of the land to which the application applies; and
- (e) the proposed use, development or other matter for which the application was made; and

- (f) whether the application is a VicSmart application; and
- (g) the details of any changes made to the application; and
- (h) the date that notice of the application is given; and
- (i) whether an officer of the municipal council is the responsible authority in relation to the application; and
- (j) the date and decision of the responsible authority; and
- (k) the details of any corrections or amendments of the permit; and
- (l) the date and determination of the Tribunal.

16 Notice of an application for a permit under section 52(1)

For the purposes of section 52(1) of the Act, the prescribed form of a notice of an application for a permit is Form 2 in Schedule 1.

17 Notice of an application to amend a permit under section 52(1)

For the purposes of section 52(1) of the Act, the prescribed form of a notice of an application to amend a permit is Form 3 in Schedule 1.

18 More information—section 54(1B)

For the purposes of section 54(1B) of the Act, the prescribed time is—

- (a) in the case of a VicSmart application, 5 business days after the responsible authority received the application; or
- (b) in the case of any other application, 28 days after the responsible authority received the application.

19 Information to be given to a referral authority

For the purposes of sections 55(1) and 57C(1) of the Act, the prescribed information is—

- (a) the application reference number; and
- (b) the date the responsible authority received the application; and
- (c) a description of why a permit is required; and
- (d) a list of the clauses in the planning scheme that require the application to be referred to that referral authority; and
- (e) a copy of the applicable description in the planning scheme of the kind of application required to be referred to that referral authority; and
- (f) whether the referral authority is a determining referral authority or a recommending referral authority for the application.

Note

Sections 55 and 57C of the Act require a responsible authority to give a copy of an application or amended application to a referral authority. Section 47 of the Act sets out information that must accompany an application and regulations 13 and 14 specify information that must be included in an application.

20 More information—sections 55(2) and 57C(2)

For the purposes of sections 55(2) and 57C(2) of the Act, the prescribed time is 21 days.

21 Verification of information

- (1) A responsible authority may require a person who applies for a permit or an amendment to a permit to verify—
 - (a) any information in an application for a permit or to amend a permit; or
 - (b) any information provided under section 54 of the Act.
- (2) A responsible authority may require that verification to be by statutory declaration or other written confirmation by the applicant that is satisfactory to the responsible authority.

22 Form of permits other than permits granted under Division 5 or 6 of Part 4 of the Act

- (1) The form of a permit, other than a permit granted under Division 5 or 6 of Part 4 of the Act, is Form 4 in Schedule 1.
- (2) The information to be included in a permit, other than a permit granted under Division 5 or 6 of Part 4 of the Act, is the information set out in Form 4 in Schedule 1.

23 Referral authority register

For the purposes of section 56A(1) of the Act, the prescribed information is—

- (a) the name of the responsible authority that referred the application; and
- (b) the application reference number given by the responsible authority; and
- (c) the reference number given to the application by the referral authority (if any); and
- (d) the date the referral authority received the application; and

- (e) the address of the land affected by the application; and
- (f) the proposed use, development or other matter for which the application is made; and
- (g) the date and decision of the referral authority.

24 Time for decision—section 59

The prescribed periods under section 59(2) of the Act are—

- (a) 28 days from the day on which the referral authority is given a copy of the application; or
- (b) if within 21 days of being given a copy of the application the referral authority tells the responsible authority that it needs more information, 28 days from the day on which the responsible authority gives that information; or
- (c) if the applicant has applied for a review of a requirement to provide more information to the Tribunal under section 78(b) of the Act and the Tribunal has—
 - (i) under section 85(1)(d)(i) of the Act directed the responsible authority to consider the application, 28 days from the day on which the direction was given; or
 - (ii) confirmed the requirement under section 85(1)(d)(ii) of the Act or changed the requirement under section 85(1)(d)(iii) of the Act, 28 days from the day on which the responsible authority gives the referral authority the information.

25 Information required in relation to section 60(1A)(g)

If a responsible authority considers any document under section 60(1A)(g) of the Act, before deciding on the application—

- (a) it must make a copy of the document available for inspection free of charge at its offices; and
- (b) if the land to which the planning scheme applies is within the municipal district of a municipal council that is not the responsible authority, it must give a copy of the document to the municipal council for the purpose of making the document available for inspection free of charge at the municipal council's offices.

26 Notice of decision to grant a permit

For the purposes of sections 64(1) and 66(2) of the Act, the prescribed form of a notice of a decision to grant a permit is Form 5 in Schedule 1.

27 Notice of decision to grant an amendment to a permit

For the purposes of sections 64(1) and 76A(2) of the Act, the prescribed form of a notice of a decision to grant an amendment to a permit is Form 6 in Schedule 1.

28 Notice of decision to refuse to grant a permit

For the purposes of sections 65(1) and 66(4) of the Act, the prescribed form of a notice of a decision to refuse to grant a permit is Form 7 in Schedule 1.

29 Notice of decision to refuse to grant an amendment to a permit

For the purposes of sections 76(1) and 76A(4) of the Act, the prescribed form of a notice of a decision to refuse to grant an amendment to a permit is Form 8 in Schedule 1.

30 Applications for review under section 77

An application for review under section 77 of the Act must be made within 60 days after the responsible authority gave notice under section 65 of the Act.

31 Applications for review under section 78

- (1) An application for review under section 78(a) of the Act must be made within 30 days after the responsible authority required the applicant to give notice under section 52(1)(d) or 57B of the Act.
- (2) An application for review under section 78(b) of the Act must be made within 60 days after the responsible authority required the applicant to provide more information under section 54(1) of the Act.

32 Applications for review under section 79

- (1) For the purposes of section 79 of the Act, the prescribed time is—
 - (a) 10 business days for a VicSmart application; or
 - (b) 60 days for all other applications.
- (2) The prescribed time for the purposes of section 79 of the Act begins to run from—
 - (a) if within the prescribed time under section 54 of the Act the responsible authority has not required the applicant to provide it or a referral authority with more information in

- accordance with section 54 of the Act, the day on which the responsible authority receives the application; or
- (b) if within the prescribed time under section 54 of the Act the responsible authority has required the applicant to provide it or a referral authority with more information in accordance with section 54 of the Act and the applicant has not applied for a review of the requirement and has given the information as required, the day on which the information is given; or
 - (c) if the applicant has applied for a review of a requirement to provide more information and the Tribunal has confirmed the requirement under section 85(1)(d)(ii) of the Act or changed a requirement under section 85(1)(d)(iii) of the Act, the day on which the information is given.
- (3) The prescribed time for the purposes of section 79 of the Act does not run—
- (a) if the responsible authority requires the applicant to give notice under section 52(1) or (1AA) of the Act, for the time between the making of that requirement and the giving of the last required notice; and
 - (b) for the time between the responsible authority being advised under section 56(5) of the Act by the Minister of the Minister's decision under section 56(4) of the Act to extend the time within which the referral authority is required to advise the responsible authority of its decision and the time at which the extension ends.

33 Applications for review under section 80

An application for review under section 80(1) of the Act must be made within 60 days after—

- (a) the responsible authority gave notice to the applicant under section 64 of the Act; or
- (b) if no notice was required to be given under section 64 of the Act, the date the permit was issued.

34 Applications for review under section 81

(1) An application for review under section 81(1) of the Act must be made within 60 days after—

- (a) the decision of the responsible authority referred to in section 81(1)(a) or (aa) of the Act; or
- (b) the failure of the responsible authority to extend the time within the one month period after the request for extension is made.

(2) An application for review under section 81(2) of the Act in relation to an application for a permit must be made before the last of the following to occur—

- (a) the lapse date specified in the notice given under section 54(1A) of the Act;
- (b) the new lapse date set out in a notice given under section 54A(4) of the Act, if applicable;
- (c) if the applicant for the permit has made an application to the Tribunal under section 78(b) of the Act in respect of a requirement for more information and the Tribunal has confirmed or changed the requirement, the new lapse date determined by the Tribunal under section 85(3) of the Act.

35 Applications for review under section 82

An application for review under section 82(1) of the Act must be made within 21 days after the responsible authority gave notice of the decision to the objector under section 64 of the Act.

36 Applications for review under section 82AAA

An application for review under section 82AAA of the Act must be made within 21 days after the responsible authority gave notice of the decision to the recommending referral authority under section 66(2) or 76A(2) of the Act.

37 Request to cancel or amend a permit under section 89

- (1) A request under section 87(3) or 89 of the Act to cancel or amend a permit must include—
 - (a) the name and address of the person making the request; and
 - (b) whether the request is made as the responsible authority, a person under section 89 of the Act, a referral authority, the owner or occupier of the land or a person who is entitled to use or develop the land; and
 - (c) a description of the land sufficient to identify it; and
 - (d) the name of the responsible authority if it is not making the request; and
 - (e) if known by the person making the request—
 - (i) the name of any referral authority that was required to be given a copy of the application for the permit or application to amend the permit under section 55 of the Act; and

- (ii) if the request is not made by the owner or occupier, the names and addresses of the owner and the occupier of the land; and
 - (f) the date on which the person making the request had notice of the facts relied on in support of the request; and
 - (g) the facts relied on in support of the request.
- (2) For the purposes of section 89(2) of the Act, if a request referred to in subregulation (1) is made by a person under section 89 of the Act, the request must also include—
- (a) if the person was not given notice of the application, reasons why the person believes the person should have been given notice; and
 - (b) if applicable, reasons why the person believes the person has been adversely affected by a matter in section 89(1)(b) of the Act.

38 Notice under section 92

- (1) A notice of cancellation or amendment of a permit given under section 92 of the Act must give—
- (a) sufficient information to identify the permit; and
 - (b) details of the amendment or amendments made to the permit or a statement that the permit has been cancelled; and
 - (c) the ground or grounds for each amendment or for cancellation.
- (2) A notice must contain advice that there may be a right to compensation under the Act.

39 Time for giving of notice under section 92

A notice given under section 92 of the Act must be given within 7 days of receipt by the responsible authority of the decision of the Tribunal.

40 Application for permit under section 96A

An application for a permit under section 96A(1) of the Act must be made in writing to the planning authority and must—

- (a) state the name, address and telephone number of the applicant; and
- (b) indicate clearly the land affected by the application by—
 - (i) stating the address of the land; or
 - (ii) stating the title particulars of the land; or
 - (iii) including a plan showing the land; or
 - (iv) any combination of these; and

WHEN DOES A PERMIT BEGIN?

A permit operates:

- from the date specified in the permit; or
- if no date is specified, from—
 - (i) the date of the decision of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, if the permit was issued at the direction of the Tribunal; or
 - (ii) the date on which it was issued, in any other case.

WHEN DOES A PERMIT EXPIRE?

1. A permit for the development of land expires if—

- the development or any stage of it does not start within the time specified in the permit; or
- the development requires the certification of a plan of subdivision or consolidation under the Subdivision Act 1988 and the plan is not certified within two years of the issue of the permit, unless the permit contains a different provision; or

- the development or any stage is not completed within the time specified in the permit, or, if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit or in the case of a subdivision or consolidation within five years of the certification of the plan of subdivision or consolidation under the Subdivision Act 1988.
2. A permit for the use of land expires if—
- the use does not start within the time specified in the permit, or if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit; or
 - the use is discontinued for a period of two years.
3. A permit for the development and use of land expires if—
- the development or any stage of it does not start within the time specified in the permit; or
 - the development or any stage of it is not completed within the time specified in the permit, or, if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit; or
 - the use does not start within the time specified in the permit, or, if no time is specified, within two years after the completion of the development; or
 - the use is discontinued for a period of two years.
4. If a permit for the use of land or the development and use of land or relating to any of the circumstances mentioned in section 6A(2) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, or to any combination of use, development or any of those circumstances requires the certification of a plan under the Subdivision Act 1988, unless the permit contains a different provision—
- the use or development of any stage is to be taken to have started when the plan is certified; and
 - the permit expires if the plan is not certified within two years of the issue of the permit.
5. The expiry of a permit does not affect the validity of anything done under that permit before the expiry.

WHAT ABOUT REVIEWS?

- The person who applied for the permit may apply for a review of any condition in the permit unless it was granted at the direction of the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal, in which case no right of review exists.

Planning and Environment Regulations 2015

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PERMIT

WHAT HAS BEEN DECIDED?

The responsible authority has issued a permit. The permit was granted by the Minister under section 96I of the Planning and Environment Act 1987 on approval of Amendment No. [insert amendment number] to the [insert name of planning scheme].

WHEN DOES THE PERMIT BEGIN?

The permit operates from a day specified in the permit being a day on or after the day on which the amendment to which the permit applies comes into operation.

WHEN DOES A PERMIT EXPIRE?

1. A permit for the development of land expires if—
 - the development or any stage of it does not start within the time specified in the permit; or
 - the development requires the certification of a plan of subdivision or consolidation under the Subdivision Act 1988 and the plan is not certified within two years of the issue of the permit, unless the permit contains a different provision; or
 - the development or any stage is not completed within the time specified in the permit, or, if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit or in the case of a subdivision or consolidation within five years of the certification of the plan of subdivision or consolidation under the Subdivision Act 1988.
2. A permit for the use of land expires if—
 - the use does not start within the time specified in the permit, or if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit; or
 - the use is discontinued for a period of two years.
3. A permit for the development and use of land expires if—
 - the development or any stage of it does not start within the time specified in the permit; or
 - the development or any stage of it is not completed within the time specified in the permit, or, if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit; or
 - the use does not start within the time specified in the permit, or, if no time is specified, within two years after the completion of the development; or
 - the use is discontinued for a period of two years.
4. If a permit for the use of land or the development and use of land or relating to any of the circumstances mentioned in section 6A(2) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, or to any combination of use, development or any of those circumstances requires the certification of a plan under the Subdivision Act 1988, unless the permit contains a different provision—

Planning and Environment Regulations 2015
S.R. No. 33/2015
Schedule 1—Forms

- the use or development of any stage is to be taken to have started when the plan is certified; and
 - the permit expires if the plan is not certified within two years of the issue of the permit.
5. The expiry of a permit does not affect the validity of anything done under that permit before the expiry.

WHAT ABOUT REVIEWS?

- In accordance with section 96M of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, the applicant may not apply to the Victorian Civil and Administrative Tribunal for a review of any condition in this permit.

--------------------------	---------------------------------------

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT THIS PERMIT

WHAT HAS BEEN DECIDED?

The Minister has granted and issued a permit under Division 6 of Part 4 of the Planning and Environment Act 1987.

WHEN DOES A PERMIT BEGIN?

A permit operates—

- from the date specified in the permit; or
- if no date is specified, from the date on which it was issued.

WHEN DOES A PERMIT EXPIRE?

1. A permit for the development of land expires if—

- the development or any stage of it does not start within the time specified in the permit; or

Planning and Environment Regulations 2015
S.R. No. 33/2015

- the development requires the certification of a plan of subdivision or consolidation under the Subdivision Act 1988 and the plan is not certified within two years of the issue of the permit, unless the permit contains a different provision; or
 - the development or any stage is not completed within the time specified in the permit, or, if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit or in the case of a subdivision or consolidation within five years of the certification of the plan of subdivision or consolidation under the Subdivision Act 1988.
2. A permit for the use of land expires if—
- the use does not start within the time specified in the permit, or if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit; or
 - the use is discontinued for a period of two years.
3. A permit for the development and use of land expires if—
- the development or any stage of it does not start within the time specified in the permit; or
 - the development or any stage of it is not completed within the time specified in the permit, or, if no time is specified, within two years after the issue of the permit; or
 - the use does not start within the time specified in the permit, or, if no time is specified, within two years after the completion of the development; or
 - the use is discontinued for a period of two years.
4. If a permit for the use of land or the development and use of land or relating to any of the circumstances mentioned in section 6A(2) of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, or to any combination of use, development or any of those circumstances requires the certification of a plan under the Subdivision Act 1988, unless the permit contains a different provision—
- the use or development of any stage is to be taken to have started when the plan is certified; and
 - the permit expires if the plan is not certified within two years of the issue of the permit.
5. The expiry of a permit does not affect the validity of anything done under that permit before the expiry.

Planning and Environment Regulations 2015
S.R. No. 33/2015
Schedule 1—Forms

6. In accordance with section 97H of the Planning and Environment Act 1987, the responsible authority specified in the planning scheme is the responsible authority for the administration and enforcement of the Planning and Environment Act 1987 and the relevant planning scheme in respect of this permit (whether or not the permit is amended) except that the Minister remains the responsible authority in respect of—
- any matters which the permit specifies to be done by, approved by or done to the satisfaction of the Minister; and
 - any extension of time under section 69 in relation to the permit; and
 - the correction of the permit under section 71(1); and
 - the amendment of the permit under section 97J.
