ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA

ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA MERCHANT SHIPPING (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2020

No. 24 of 2020

AN ACT to amend the Antigua and Barbuda Merchant Shipping Act 2006, No. 1 of 2006 and for other connected purposes.

ENACTED by the Parliament of Antigua and Barbuda as follows –

1. Short title
This Act may be cited as the Antigua and Barbuda Merchant Shipping (Amendment) Act, 2020.

2. Interpretation
In this Act –
3. Amendment of section 2 – Interpretation

Section 2 of the principal Act is amended by inserting the names and meanings of the following Conventions to which Antigua and Barbuda is a Party in their correct alphabetical position within that section –

““FAL 1965” means the Convention on the Facilitation of International Maritime Traffic 1965, as amended;”

“SAR 1979” means the convention on Maritime Search and Rescue 1979, as amended;

““SUA PROT” means the Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts Against the Safety of Fixed Platforms Located on the Continental Shelf”

““SUA PROT 2005” means the Protocol of 2005 to the Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts Against the Safety of Fixed Platforms Located on the Continental Shelf”

4. Amendment of Section 8 – Regulations and directives to give effect in Antigua and Barbuda to maritime conventions

Section 8 of the principal Act is amended by adding after the words “Maritime Labour Convention” at the end of subsection (1) the following Conventions –

“FAL 1965 Convention
SAR 1979
SUA Convention
SUA 2005 Protocol
SUA PROT Protocol
SUA PROT 2005 Protocol”

5. Amendment of section 11 – Qualification to own Antigua and Barbuda ships

Section 11 of the principal Act is amended by repealing it in its entirety and replacing it as follows –

“11. Qualification to own Antigua and Barbuda Ships”
(1) A ship shall on application be registered as an Antigua and Barbuda ship if the ship is wholly owned by or bareboat chartered to a –

   (a) citizen of Antigua and Barbuda;

   (b) national of a Member State; or

   (c) A firm or company incorporated or registered under the laws of Antigua and Barbuda.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a ship may, regardless of the nationality of its owners, be registered as an Antigua and Barbuda ship if –

   (a) the ship is one to which the SOLAS Convention applies; and

   (b) the Owner of the ship has appointed a principal representative in Antigua and Barbuda.

(3) For the purposes of subsection (2), a principal representative is a person coming within any of categories (a), (b) or (c) of subsection (1) and possessing any of the following qualifications –

   (a) an Attorney-at-Law qualified to practice law in Antigua and Barbuda;

   (b) a corporate management and trust services provider appointed under the Corporate Management and Trust Service Providers Act; or

   (c) any other qualification as may be prescribed by regulations; and

   (d) have a power of attorney sufficient to satisfy the Director that the principal representative is authorised to act for the Owners of the ship in all matters to secure compliance with this Act and the Regulations.

6. Repeal of section 14

The principal Act is amended in section 14 by repealing the entire section.

7. Amendment of section 17A

The principal Act is amended in section 17A by inserting immediately after subsection (3) a new subsection to read as follows –

“(4) The Minister responsible for Finance may at any time by Order amend the Fifth Schedule by increasing or reducing any fee or tax specified in the Schedule.”

8. Amendment of section 24A – Provisional registration

Section 24A of the principal Act is amended in subsection (1) at paragraph (b) by deleting the words “is qualified or”.

9. Insertion of new sections 262A to 262D

The principal Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 262, the following –
Antigua and Barbuda Merchant Shipping (Amendment) Act, 2020.

“262A Improvement notices

(1) An inspector may serve an improvement notice, where he is of the opinion that a person is in contravention of or has contravened one or more provisions of this Act.

(2) An improvement notice shall –
